

AN EARLY OREGON WEDDING.

There was once a time in Oregon when the male inhabitants mostly wore buckskin trousers, because there was no other material available for garment making.

It occurred in the winter, at Oregon City, and was in December, 1845, or January 1846. The bride walked two miles through the mud to get to the church.

Grant's Pass Courier: When an incorporated town cannot pay its running expenses there is but one sensible thing to do; provide for the payment of its outstanding warrants and disincorporate.

A Salem paper says the legislature held up is a scheme of Bourne and Simon to defeat Mitchell. Should the house fail to organize by Saturday there will be no further expense to the state.

While the legislature is disorganized it can do no harm. It would probably be the best for the taxpayers if Bosses Simon and Mitchell would adjourn it for two years.

Some people say that advertising is all a matter of luck; that you cannot tell what advertising is going to do, or whether or not it is going to pay.

Many people think that Hon L. Blyen could make an ideal silver candidate for congress two years hence.

Is Senator Mitchell in favor of silver or gold? Who can answer. The people are not in favor of straddlers this year.

Editor Kaiser, of the Ashland Record, used the Bryan campaign committee for $35.75. He got soup. Such cases should never come before the public. If an editor gets hot he should grin and bear it.

Pass the good word along the line. Piles can be quickly cured without an operation by simply applying DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.

OSBURN & DELANO. Miss Lillie Baker, a student, had a narrow escape from being severely burned a few evenings ago. The young lady's apron became ignited from the fire in a stove and her clothing was considerably burned before the flames could be smothered out.

OSBURN & DELANO. Darwin Yoran of Yoran & Son's shoe store has returned from Cottage Grove. He has inaugurated a plan of visiting neighboring towns once each month at which time he will make special sales of shoes. He will visit Junction City, Harrisburg and Halsey on his next trip.

We are anxious to do a little good in this world and can think of no pleasanter or better way to do it than by recommending One Minute Cough Cure as a preventive of pneumonia, consumption and other serious lung troubles that follow neglected colds.

OSBURN & DELANO. Washington Star: "Have you made any progress in your lessons on the bicycle?" "Yes," replied the man with a gentle disposition. "Do you ride out in the country yet?" "Oh, no. I don't ride anywhere worth mentioning. But I don't think I hurt myself so much when I fall off."

It would be hard to convince a man suffering from bilious colic that his agony is due to a microbe with an unpronounceable name. But one dose of DeWitt's Colic and Cholera Cure will convince him of its power to afford instant relief. It kills pain.

OSBURN & DELANO. S H Friedlander, the San Francisco theatrical manager, paid Eugene another visit yesterday afternoon and evening, leaving for his home on the early morning train. He attended the Elks' banquet last evening, and said that the menu would have done credit even to the Bay City.

When we consider that the intestines are about five times as long as the body, we can realize the intense suffering experienced when they are inflamed. DeWitt's Colic and Cholera Cure subsides inflammation at once and completely removes the difficulty.

OSBURN & DELANO. R G Baker and wife, nee Bertha Blair, visited in Eugene today. Mr Baker gave this office a pleasant call this afternoon. He is connected with Marjann theatre of Portland, and is of the opinion that a theatre rightly conducted in Eugene would be a paying business.

For a pain in the chest a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of the pain, and another on the back between the shoulders, will afford prompt relief. This is especially valuable in cases where the pain is caused by a cold and there is a tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Osburn & DeLano.

Among the economic measures vetoed for introduction early in the session of the legislature are several calling for the repeal of expensive commissions and the abolition of the fee system in general. A score of members have bills in their pockets asking the repeal of the railroad commission. The fish and game warden will also be asked to be abolished by a dozen or more bills, while other bills declare for, that the domestic animal commission and numerous other boards be abolished forthwith.

ELKS FULLY ESTABLISHED.

The Eugene Lodge Duly Instituted and in Working Order.

Eugene Lodge, No 357, Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, was duly instituted in this city yesterday afternoon and evening. The officers were installed by Exalted Supreme Representative D Solis Cohen and his assistants. They are as follows:

Exalted ruler, J L Page; esteemed leading knight, S H Friendly; esteemed loyal knight, I L Campbell; esteemed lecturing knight, S M Yoran; secretary, F Robinson; treasurer, F W Osburn; esquire, C M Marx; Tyler, W McFarland; chaplain, C E Loomis; guard, G M Renshaw, L N Roney and W V Henderson, trustees.

THE BANQUET.

At 10:30 in the evening all repaired to the banquet hall in the Risdon building, where an elaborate spread was laid out. The hall was decorated with long lines of ivy hung from which a bewildering profusion of purple clematis blossoms were drooping. One immense elk head and several pairs of wide spreading elk antlers served as a part of the ornamentation, and the eyes following the lines of decorations was led to a large and very fine crayon elk at the back end of the room, and two are lamps lighted the room. The beauty and profusion of the tables were beyond description and in the trimmings of the hall and the furnishing of the banquet, Mr and Mrs Brown of the Hoffman House have made a record for themselves which will go with them for many years.

At eleven o'clock, in accordance with an established custom of the order, the toast "Our Absent Brothers" was given and all stood in token of their remembrance, and the toast was beautifully responded to by L T Harris. The serious business of the banquet occupied the attention of all until nearly 1 o'clock at which time the ceremonies were taken charge of by the Toastmaster, Dr C E Loomis. Mr Loomis is one of the most successful presiding officers ever witnessed. His remarks in introducing the speakers were witty and of a high order and were loudly applauded.

The toast of "Welcome" was responded to by Hon S M Yoran in a speech so eloquent and full of thought as to command the closest attention. The toast to the order, "P O E," by D Solis Cohen an address which for beauty of thought and manner, and eloquence of diction is seldom surpassed or even equaled.

Prof Reid spoke to "Our Guests," H D Griffin, of Portland, to "The Elks"; R W Mitchell, of Portland; to "Fraternality," F Page, of Portland; to "The Elks"; (who in this case was Tom Craig and because of his well known timid and shrinking nature, of course received proppretation.)

S H Friendly very eloquently spoke of "Our Country," all in a manner which eminently pleased the brethren and won many high compliments, and the toast closed with that of "The Ladies" by Hon P H D'Arcy, of Salem. This proved the event of the evening, for by reason of the tender, sympathetic soul of the speaker, he became so enthused with his subject that the minds of both audience and speaker were raised to such a pitch of enthusiastic delight that when it finally wound up in a perfect blaze of glory and other things it was felt that nothing could be added to the "feast of reason and flow of soul" part of the exercises, and as the clocks were then pointing to the hour of two, the most brilliant affair that Eugene has ever seen came to a close with many expressions of regret that the parting hour compelled them to forego the pleasure which was anticipated from the three toasts which were thus unavoidably omitted.

Dakota, says: "I believe Parke's Sure Cure excels all other medicines for Rheumatism and Urinary disorders." Sold by A. Yearington.

The Welcome talks in a very pointed manner as follows: The proposition to appoint three additional supreme court judges, or "commissioners," to draw salaries and reverse decisions of the circuit courts at their leisure, is one that the legislature should "sit down on" heavily and firmly. They are not badly needed; the work would be just as far belabored with six judges as with three. It is only a scheme to give some second-rate lawyers a job.

Lane county's members have the following positions: McClung, chairman of the committee on education and member of the committee on irrigation, revision of laws and ways and means; Driver, chairman committee on penal institutions and member of committees on medicine, etc., insurance and banking and counties.

Hon J. Blyen is the leader of the anti-Mitchell forces at Salem. Today's Oregonian: The democrats held a caucus today and passed resolutions placing the blame for the legislative losses on the republicans. They say they will not help either republican faction to organize the house, but that they will go in if all of the republicans go in.

The Oregonian virtually sustains the house hold-up. The Salem Statesman condemns it. Mitchell now claims that 45 members of the legislature have signed the senatorial caucus—two more than enough to elect.

Representative Thos Vaughan, of Coos, made two speeches in the House yesterday. The Salem Journal reports them as follows: Vaughan, of Lane: I am a farmer. I want to get up on my hind legs to ask for information. I came down here with honest intent to work and am in earnest. I stay men walk when the mill was raised. I stayed until midnight last night. I'll stay until morning to night. (Applause.) Vaughan: Is there a power to fetch a disgruntled party together?

Contented dollars, quarters and halves are in circulation. Look out for them. They are dated 1895 and are supposed to originate somewhere in Southern Oregon. The officers are on track.

Parke's Tea clears the complexion. Mrs. N. Meyeite, of Le Roy, N. Y., says: "I have used Parke's Tea and find it the best remedy I have ever tried." Sold by A. Yearington.

Albany Democrat: Lane county's tax levy is low, being only 15 mills, yet 2 mills higher than that of Linn county, which so far is the lowest in Oregon.

I've a secret in my heart, Sweet Marie, A tale I would impart, Sweet Marie; If you'd even fain be You must always use Parke's Tea. The improvement you will see, Sweet Marie, Sold by A. Yearington.
