MONDAY, JANUARY 18.

Full moon today.

Special meeting of city council tonight.

Several obituary sweeps are in the city.

A book-keeper individual was committed to the county farm this afternoon by Judge E. O. Potter.

The Chinese are beginning preparations for the New Year's festivities, which commence January 21.

Uncle Billy Wright is in Eugene again selling the best horse saddle in the world. Buy some and try it.

The case of Whitaker versus Russell tried before Judge Fullerton Saturday has been taken under advisement.

Commissioner's court met this morning and adjourned until February 1, two days before the time for the next regular meeting.

Dean E. C. Anderson and the Divinity school students, who occupied pulpits away from home yesterday returned on the afternoon train.

Portland Oregonians, of yesterday: After spending two weeks in the city visiting friends, Mr. Ray W. Logan left last Saturday for the University of Oregon, in Eugene. Mr. Logan has been a student at Stanford university for the past two years.

The Children's meeting at the Christian church yesterday afternoon was largely attended by the little folks and proved a very interesting service.

Meetings at the church will continue each night this week. The subject tonight is "Herod's Feast: In Heaven or Hell; as the case may be."

The New York World got the expression of every national presidential elector on the question of whether wine should be served in the White House or not, according to the World President elect, McKinley being in favor of it and Mrs. McKinley opposed.

Only two of the Oregon electors voted. Hon. S. M. Yoran for wine and Hon. T. T. Geer against. The total vote was quite a majority in favor of wine. It is not probable though that it will have anything to do with the decision of the president and his wife.

Adam W. Withelm.

MONROE, Or., Jan 17.—Adam W. Withelm, father of Adam Withelm, senior partner of the firm of A. Withelm & Sons, died here this morning, aged 70 years. He was born in Dientheim, Germany, May 17, 1817. He came to America and settled in Wisconsin in the early '50s, where he remained until 1884, when he came to Oregon, and had since been a resident of Monroe. The funeral will take place from the Catholic church Monday January 18, at 10 a. m.

Eye Shot Out.—Stanley Clemens, a boy about 10 years of age, who resides in the northwestern part of the city was struck in the right eye Saturday evening by a double "B" shot which was fired by another boy from a tree and glanced. The shot penetrated the eyelid and destroyed the pupil of the eye. The whole eye may yet have to be removed.

MARRIED.—In Junction City, January 17, 1897, by J. J. Butler, justice of the peace, Mr. Herbert Lerwill and Miss Winnie Smith.

She Was a Eugene Girl, Too.

The following rules of conduct fell out of the pocketbook of a young lady, and an unscrupulous newspaper reporter placed them up and published them. First—I don't let a man smoke when he walks or drives with me. If he knows no better than to do it, I promptly tell him what I think of it. Second—I don't give my photo to men. I need it, occasionally, but I am wise now. I should have, by and by, to know that my face might be hanging up in Tom, Dick and Harry's room. Third—I don't let a man take my arm when he walks with me. If he does, I tell him I prefer him to give me his arm. Fourth—I don't go out with a man just because he asks me. I like it better if he asks another to go too—his sister, for instance. Fifth—I don't let any man "see me home" from church. If he hasn't got gumption enough to take me there and sit through the service with me, he can stay away altogether. Sixth—I don't let any man give me presents, unless it is something of a trilling cost—like fruit or flowers. And I always gauge a man by his taste in this respect. Seventh, I don't encourage any man who is not perfectly polite and agreeable to my mother. Whoever calls on me sees a great deal of her. Eighth—I don't allow a caller to stay later than to check. If he does not go home at that time, I tell him politely that this is my custom.

TALK ON SPAIN.—Prof. L. Washburn of the University of Oregon, Saturday evening, in the gymnasium under the auspices of the university Y. W. C. A., gave a very interesting and instructive talk on Spain. The talk was illustrated with 40 stereoscopic views. About 30 persons were present and were highly entertained. All the fixtures and everything in connection with the stereoscopic lanterns except the lantern itself were manufactured by Prof. Washburn of the U. of O. mechanical department and students working under him. The lights used in making the views were obtained from the gymnasium dynamo.

HOUSES BURNED.—The residence of Mel Taylor, three miles north of Coquille, was destroyed by fire about 9 o'clock last night. The family were invited out to spend the evening with a neighbor and no one was at home when the fire broke out. It was supposed to have caught from the fireplace. The fire was first seen by John Vaughan, a neighbor, but the house was almost consumed then. It was a handsome two-story structure built at a cost of not less than $2000, and was the first house south of the Williamson residence which was destroyed by fire last fall. It was probably insured, though nothing can be learned of the insurance in this city. The light from the burning building was plainly visible from here.

PRaiseworthy Act.—A very commendable act is reported at Harrisburg. The late J. E. Cartwright was insured by the Woodmen of the World for $1000, payable to his mother. He was afterwards married and it was his intention to make his wife his beneficiary, but neglected to do so. The money last week was paid to Mrs. Cartwright's mother, who immediately gave it to Mrs. Cartwright, a noble act that will endure her to all.

CITY COUNCIL.

A Six-Mill Tax Levied, and Proposed Amendments to City Charter Made.

Daily Guard, January 18.

Meeting called to order pursuant to call by mayor. Full board present.

The Mayor stated that the subject of the meeting was to levy the annual tax for 1897, and such other business as might come before the council.

Mr. Day moved that a levy of 4 mills be made for the general fund and 2 mills for the sewer fund.

Mr. Henderson moved to amend the motion by making the tax for general fund 4 mills.

The amendment was carried.

An ordinance levying a four mill tax for the general fund and a two mill tax for the sewer fund was read.

Rules were then suspended and the ordinance read second time by title.

Rules were again suspended and the ordinance read third time and passed.

City Attorney Skipworth read proposed amendments to Charter.

Amendments passed, and City Attorney instructed to prepare bill for passage by the legislature and forward same to Senator McCall.

An ordinance prohibiting the removal or defacement of street numbers and names read three times under suspension of rules and passed.

An ordinance prohibiting strays from running at large read and referred to the judiciary committee.

Announcement.

MR. EDITOR.—I wish to announce that the session of the U. P. church and myself have finally reached a conclusion, and that I am no longer pastor of said congregation. Since I came here I have tried earnestly and honestly to do my duty, and now I shall leave the work I have done and the record I have made in the hands of the church. When I read from the Bible what a minister is required to be and do I understand why the apostle said, "Who is sufficient for these things?" Just at this time it would be well for each minister to study preferably such texts as these: (Ezekiel 3, 17, 23, 24, 25; John 3, 2; Jeremiah 23, 21, 22; John 7, 16, 17; John 18, 23.) Every congregation in Christendom would do well to study the demands it is making of its pastor—too many are demanding what is implied in Isaiah 30: 19.

J. A. LONGBOTTOM.

DAILY GUARD, JANUARY 19.

DISMISSAL.—Deputy District Attorney L. T. Harris went to Junction City today to prosecute a case wherein F. L. Edwards was charged with stealing a horse from one W. Johnson. It seems that the two men had made some sort of a horse trade and it was out of this that the trouble grew. The case was dismissed on motion of the deputy district attorney and the costs taxed up to the prosecuting witness.

WILL BE REOPENED.—I. K. Peters, who has charge of Parker's opera house, has made a date for the building on the night of January 29, and will begin immediately to renovate the building and make the changes ordered by the city council. The house will be placed in the best possible repair for January 29, and this date will probably be followed by others.

Representative Bilyeu.

The Oregonian of Sunday prints an alleged photograph of our friend Lark Bilyeu and the following comment:

"It is amusing to watch Bilyeu make a break for the lobby. His name is one of the first, and he has to hurry in order to escape before it is called. But Bilyeu is blessed with very long legs, which stretch out like the forks of the Santiam where he was born, some where between 30 and 60 years ago. Bilyeu is built like a pair of old-fashioned scissors; but there is not a dull thing about him. When he is out in the Santiam region the voting population was made up of the Bilyeu family—or families—and two others, and they rolled up something more than 100 democratic votes at every election. So when Bilyeu makes a break for the entrance, everybody stands around under. When the roll call is finished, he invariably returns and plunges headlong into any debate that is in progress. He is usually called to order on the ground that he is not present. But Bilyeu proves that he is present by limbering up his 6 feet 2 and opening his mouth and talking. The other day he was caught on roll-call. Shortly afterward he started to make a speech.

"I call to gentleman to order," objected Chairman of Marion. "He's not present."

"I am present," retorted Bilyeu. "I don't look like I'm gone, do I?"

"You're absent," repeated Chairman. "Our name is not on the record."

"That's where you are wrong," I answered the last roll call."

"Humph!" replied Chairman. "I've seen you in so often that I supposed no clerk of earth could catch you."

DAILY GUARD, JANUARY 19.

ADDRESS AT ASSEMBLY.—Dr. Bloch, rabbi of the Jewish synagogue in Portland, on invitation, delivered a very interesting address before the faculty, students and a few visitors at assembly at the university this morning. The rabbi spoke on the epochs or cycles of ages, going back to the prehistoric ages. He used cylinders and charts, the latter containing illustrative circles, to describe the different ages recorded by history. The speaker began with the earliest known history and very carefully and clearly described its different epochs down to the present, making his talk plain by the use of the charts. The lecture was very interesting and contained many valuable suggestions for the student.

CROSS COMPLAINT.—Mrs. Dolly C. Jacoby who was married December 24th, and whose husband, Lester D. Jacoby, commenced suit against her cross complaint against him, denying the account she made against her, and asks for a divorce, for alimony, that her name be changed to her maiden name, and for plaintiff to pay to the clerk for her use and defense, $75. Geo. B. Dorris appears as her attorney.

DAILY GUARD, JANUARY 20.

NO INSURANCE.—Mel Taylor owner of the residence properly burned near Colburn Monday night was in the city today and stated that there was no insurance on the building. An insurance policy of $1000 was carried up to a few months ago, when the time expired and it was not renewed.
