

FRIDAY, JANUARY 29.

THE LEGISLATURE

The "Expected" Did Not Occur Today.

KOONIN WORK.

Special to the Oregonian.

SALEM, Feb 1; 3:45 p.m.—The session is busy today on routine work.

Archie Benson of Grant's Pass is visiting friends in Eugene.

Dr Chapman was a passenger on the Rockwood local this forenoon.

C F Overbaugh, agent of the O R & N Co., was in Eugene today.

H N Corkeine is home from a business trip down the valley.

Miss Agnes Matteson of Fall Creek is visiting relatives in this city.

County Clerk Jennings today granted a marriage license to J T Peeler and N A Houston.

A B C Deniston of Portland, general agent of the Great Northern railway, gave this office a call yesterday.

Mrs F B Dunn went to Salem this forenoon to visit a few days with her son, Prof Fred Dunn, and family.

The steamboats on the Willamette river have made large reductions in the freight rates between Portland and Harrisburg.

Senator Driver returned here on last night's train. He is of the opinion that patriotism is lacking at Salem, Tos had, Doctor.

We are sorry to learn that Senator J H McClintock is quite sick at Salem with a gripe. Howard Rowland is in attendance upon him.

Salem Judge said: "There are not yet seventy-three senatorial clerks, but there soon will be if the legislature goes on. What on earth does Driver want with three female clerks?"

John Higgins went to Polk county this morning in answer to a dispatch conveying the sad intelligence that his mother died at that place last evening. He will return in two or three days.

Lyman J Gage, president of the First National bank of Chicago has accepted the secretaryship of Treasury under President-elect McKinley and will succeed John G Carlisle. He voted for Cleveland in 1884, and is 63 years of age.

An Astoria restaurateur departed between two days, leaving creditors behind him. A curious relic, also, was a large sign he had always displayed in his window, and which now has an added meaning. It reads: "Legal. Let others follow who can."

Todays Salem Statesman: It begins to look now if there would be no legislation of any description—not even the passing of the general appropriation bill. The day for voting for United States senator on Tuesday and therefore no reason apparent why the vote should not be taken on that day. It is probably will be taken either Tuesday or Wednesday.

Wednesday's Pendleton Tribune, tirandina Munro of Mencham passed through Pendleton last evening on her way to Portland, where she will spend a few days. Mrs Munro reported that the thermometer registered 28 degrees below zero yesterday morning, and that there was no change in the temperature until nearly 11 o'clock.

Character comes pretty high over in Washington. A Waitsburg preacher has sued the editor of the Times for $15,000 damages due the reverend gentleman by the publication of an article criticizing a sermon delivered by him last July. The plaintiff is Rev. Ticknor, a gentleman who is so thoroughly English that he sees little or nothing good on this side of the water except perhaps it would be the pocket change of a country editor amounting to $15,000. Later—The jury gave a verdict for the newspaper man for his costs. It was a righteous verdict.

K. OF P. SOCIAL.—Holmet Lodge, No 33, Knights of Pythias, of this city, held a social session in I. O. O. F. hall Saturday night for the benefit of members and their families. About 50 of the knights were present with their wives, daughters or lady friends. At 8:30 o'clock the K of P quartette sang a piece and were encoreed. Vice-Chancellor D E Yoran, then took the stage, making a few remarks concerning Holmet Lodge, No 33, and the order of Knights of Pythias. He closed by announcing the features of the evening, which consisted of farce degree work, followed by a supper. The farce degree work was productive of great amusement and laughter on the part of the guests, which did not in the least decrease their appetites for the elegant spread which awaited them in the banquet hall, and to which they did ample justice at 10 o'clock. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing games, social converse, etc, in the big hall. The Knights are excellent entertainers and this last social success of theirs will be long remembered by all who were present.

DEED.—Mrs Hannah L Williams, aged 72 years, died of old age at her home at Lost Valley yesterday, January 28, 1897. Deceased was a widow lady, her husband, Thos Williams, having died about three years ago at the extreme age of 94 years. She leaves seven children—five boys and two girls. Deceased crossed the plains from Ohio to Oregon in the spring of '88, and belonged to the pioneer class of settlers. The funeral will be held tomorrow from 12 to 1 o'clock, and the remains interred in the Pleasant Hill cemetery.

DISCOURSES.—The Heppner Gazette in its write up of the institution of the Elks lodge at that place publishes the following dispatch received from the Eugene lodges: "Depot Eugene, Or., Jan 27.—D Solis Cohen: Eugene Lodge, which attains its majority by the birth of Heppner Lodge, sends its sincere congratulations to the new baby."

J. L. PAGE, E. R."

A NEW BOAT.—Florence West:

"Something of a curiosity to the boat builders here is a new boat or launch just built by A Schlett of Astoria. It can be rowed easily, is a fine boat and will not upset. Another advantage of it is that it can be used with iron and used for a sleeke as a stone can be prepared for crossing in a few minutes any time."

Friday Guard, January 29.

BOND FIXED AT $300.—Judge J C Fullerton today issued an order admitting E E Lyons to bail on filing a bond in the sum of $300. Lyons is held in the county jail on a bench warrant.

Mr L S Hawkins, of Chattanooga, Tenn., says: "Shih's Vitalizer 'Saved My Life.' Consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used." For dyspepsia, liver or kidney trouble it excels. Price 75 cents. Sold by Henderson & Linn.

Friday Guard, January 29.

SALEM, Jan 30.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

JOHNSON BANKRUPT.

JOHNSON, Wash., Jan 31.—The Farmers' & Traders' bank of Johnson has closed its doors. Contrary to the usual precedent, every creditor and depositor has been paid in full. Lack of business is the reason for closing the bank.

<p