A FORLORN HOPE.

It is not often that a United States senator descends to the level of a petty ward politician, and personally solicits votes, utterly casting the dignity of the honorable office aside in a vain and desperate effort to secure an election.

We had been told of the sad decline in the mental powers of Senator John H Mitchell, but could not appreciate his utter lack of self respect, almost senility, until persuing the following from the Salem Statesman of the 25th:

Mrs Delilah Lee died at Junction yesterday at the advanced age of 84 years and a months. Mrs Lee was one of the Oregon Pioneers, having crossed the plains with her husband, in the early acties. Dr and Mrs Lee settled in Polk county near Buena Vista, where for some years Dr Lee conducted a drug store. About twenty years ago, they moved to Junction, where death overtook them, Dr Lee having died some years ego. Since the death of her husband, Mrs Lee has resided with her daughter, Miss Mary Lee of Junction.

Mrs Lee was a type of the noble ploneer women, who have helped so much to make our state what it is to-day. She was a cultivated, Christian woman, a kind mother and was greatly loved by her neighbors. For many years preceding her death, she was a consistent member of the M E church South, [and while zealous in the work of her particular denomination, she was Catholic in spirit, rising above Mrs D.A.
