REV. DR. MeINTURFF.

He Creates a Sensation in Walla Walls, Wash.

Pendiston E. O: Marshal Jake Kauffman and the Ray, Dr. McInturfl, a Spokane clergyman, are having it hot and heavy over in Walla Walla. Dr. McInturif is pastor of the Peoplex United Church of Spokane, and he has been conducting services on occasion to utter some vehement criticisms against the police officials and was ordered to desist by City Marshal Hop poles that were not secured, Kauffman. This apparently angered ences, insecure roofs of buildings, etc., Dr. Mc(n)urff, and he denounced the police for allowing crowds to congregate on the sidewalk to listen to the report of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight, whereas religious gatherings were prohibited.

He openly asserted that he opposed he brewers, the gamblers and the s -our keepers, and was there to make a fight to suppress such business.

Saturday evening, Dr MeInturff, Rev Tanuer and another man calling numself Rev Day, commenced their aut-door services on the corner of Fourth and Main streets, in the heart of the business center, at 7 o'clock, prior to the indoor services, which neve been conducted in a small hall.

In his previous services Dr McInurfl had been free in his denunciation f Mayor Jacob Belz (who he said was a brewer and saloon keeper), Marshal Kauffman and Sheriff Ellingsworth. This naturally created strained relaions, and fuel was added to the flame when Rey Day, said to be a converted pugilist, joined the ranks.

At the Saturday evening meeting on the street, Dr McInturff began to talk in strong terms of the police department. He said his audience had been asked to move on by a "big fat policeman, who had nothing else to do," whereas when reports were coming Wednesday of the Corbett-Fitzsimmoas prize fight, the crowd was allowed to stay as long as it pleased and block the streets. When Marshal Kauffman reached
