Plaster will be placed at the two front corners, extending from the ground up, and a course will be placed across the top of the second story. Excuse Offered for Not Re-Appointing Mr Hendricks--It is Lame and Unsatisfactory.
The Oregon Journal says "prominent gentlemen" of Eugene wrote to Gov. Lord suggesting that regents should be appointed outside Eugene. We should like very much to know who these "prominent gentlemen" are. We would like to know if they were not found away from President Chapman's foot stool. The Journal says: "A recent of the state university to succeed teacher Tom Hendricks is appointed. Several prominent gentlemen of Eugene have written Governor Lord suggesting that the interest of the university would be better served by appointing regents outside of that city. The idea is, that local matters crop into the affairs of the institution, causing friction and leading to bad feeling that result injuriously to the university. This sentiment is not intended to reflect any discredit on any of the gentlemen who are regents, for their merits and character stand admitted, but, to emphasize the fact the difficulty is the result of the situation. The people of a locality are apt to feel that they had some interest in a public institution distinct from the general public, which leads them to aspire to control the direction of its affairs, and use it to further such interests. Hence, there spring up opposing parties, one criticizing and the other commending its management. We have the idea that it would be better for state schools that the regents should not be selected from its locality."

Miss Edith Fleming of Eugene, the Lucky Recipient of a Small Fortune.
An Uncle's Mining Venture.
A young lady of this city was the recipient of very welcome news this morning. Miss Edith Fleming, a step-daughter of J. R. Parks, who resides in College Hill Park, was informed by a telegraphic dispatch that there was the sum of $10,000, subject to her check, on deposit at the First National Bank of Eugene. It appears that an uncle of Miss Fleming's, who resides in the famous Kamsing mining district, bought a mine in Miss Fleming's name some time since. By some chance the Konyon mine, as it was named, turned out to be a valuable property, and the uncle sold it for $10,000 which he remitted to his niece. Miss Fleming, who is about twenty years of age, is employed in Miss Salzman's millinery establishment on Ninth street. It is needless to say that Miss Salzman and her friends are extremely well pleased at the good fortune that has befallen the young lady. The Kamsing mining district is situated in southern California, near the boundary between that state and Arizona. Shakespeare Club. The Shakespeare Club met Tuesday evening last, with Miss Murch and finished its reading and study of Coriaraus. The president reported the expenses and receipts of Prof. Riddle's reading, which about balanced each other, and the club approved the action and ordered the bills paid. The secretary was instructed to return the thanks of the club to the Messrs. Campbell of the GUARD, to the Congregational church, and the students who assisted the president, for kindness and courtesies extended by them. The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Maud Wilkins, and it is hoped there will be a large attendance, as the plans of the club for next year will be then discussed, and the president will deliver her promised paper on the "Women of Shakespeare."

Mr. Borchardt Gets $120.
Today's Oregonian: A decision was rendered by Judge Stearns yesterday in the suit of Ira Russ and C. A. Borchardt vs Mrs. W. B. Pengra and Grant Phegley, allowing the claim of C. A. Borchardt for $120. This is the Roslyn boarding house case. The court decided that Borchardt's note be paid from the balance in the hands of the sheriff realized from the sale of the furniture. Unless Mrs. Pengra succeeds in collecting her $1000 judgment against Mrs. Gilmore, she is out just that much.

WOODCOCK GETS A JOE.—Today's Corvallis Times says: "The question of what to do with the $19,000 and more turned over to Receiver Charles Clark by the California courts as residue of the sale of the steamer Williamette Valley, came up in court yesterday. It ended in the appointment of A. C. Woodcock to referee to examine and report upon the doubtful question of who is to receive the $19,000 or more. Some lawyers claim that Bonier & Hammond bought this "close in action," which was pending in the California courts when they bid in the old O. P. while others say it should be disbursed among the creditors of the defunct company. To determine this debatable question will be the duty of Mr. Woodcock. The $19,000 has not yet been paid into court."

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury. An ointment will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surface.
