HAPPENINGS IN CRESWELL.

Plenty of Business in Justice Miller's

Court.

Miss Nellie Day, the 12-year-old daughter of Geo. Day, who resides four miles east of Creswell, fell last Saturday breaking her arm. Dr. Scarborough was called and set the broken member.

Mr. Gus Teitsch is home from San Francisco on a short visit. He will return soon.

H. C. Hunter is erecting a residence adjacent to his store which he will occupy as soon as completed, and S. A.

Edlin will move into the house where

Mr. Hunt now lives.

L. G. Hallin, Mrs. Mary Baker and

Geo. A. Yerington and family, of Eugene visited in Creswell Sunday.

It is reported that Ben Morse is going East soon to enter a C. P. theological school.

Rev. Frank Day shipped a carload of lumber from Springfield to Creswell last week preparatory to remodeling and enlarging his present cottage.

E. I. Tozier came in from the mines last Thursday for supplies. He and two brothers are prospecting on Sharp's Creek and report favorably.

He will return Monday.

N. A. W. Howe's health is much better than it was during the winter, and he is seen on the streets of Creswell quite frequently. He is Mrs. Sheriff Johnson's father and is one of the venerable and most highly esteemed citizens of Lane county.

A lively place indeed is Justice Miller's court room, scarcely a week passes without the judge's services being required. On Friday April 16 Sherman

Morse shot a valuable dog belonging to Frank Ely. The next day Ely caught Morse on the street and proceeded to severely chastise him. Ely was arrested, plead guilty, and was fined $5 and costs, which was paid by witnesses of the affray. On Wednesday, April 21, in retaliation, M. Ely caused the arrest of Sherman Morse on the charge of violating the state game law by unlawfully catching trout in a fish trap.

Morse plead not guilty, was convicted and fined $25 and costs; total $39.75.

Much bad feelings exist in the vicinity and more trouble is anticipated.

Was going to swim the ditch.

A short time ago a man put in his appearance at our city and secured a stopping place in the country a short distance from it. He stated that he was from Chicago and had come to Oregon for his health. One morning after he had been at his stopping place a few days he asked a farm hand how far it was to the foot of the mountains. The distance did not look more than two miles, and on receiving the reply that it was fifteen miles, he smiled and said he would go to the foot of the mountain and back before breakfast as he believed it would give him an appetite, and accordingly set out across the bottom. After breakfast the farm hand and another man who was stopping at the place started out on horseback in the direction he had taken. After they had gone about three miles they came upon him taking off his clothes and standing beside a little ditch about three feet across, which was running full of water. On being asked what he meant, he said that he had been fooled and was now going to be fooled again. On being told that they could not understand what he meant, he replied:

"Well, I started out to walk over to that mountain, thinking it was more than two miles distant, and have got fooled, as it looks as far off as ever and I am not going to be fooled again.

I am going to swim this ditch."

A MISTAKE.—Albany Democrat editorial: "A local fight is being made in Eugene on President Chapman of the State University. President Chapman is at the head of a state institution and hence it is a state matter, not a local one. On this account also, the president should not interfere with local affairs. In this respect President Chapman has made a mistake. So far as the Democrat is concerned it doesn't care very much it would, though, like to see a man at the head of such a college who will as much as possible keep out of all rings and oppose all contentions."

Daily Guard, April 27.

IOOF CELEBRATION.—The celebration of the seventy-eighth anniversary of Odd Fellowship by Spruce

Butte Lodge, No. 9, IOOF, last night formed one of the pleasantest features of the order's social functions. The program consisted of vocal and instrumental music, an address by Rev. J. J.

Abbett pastor of the M. E. church, and remarks by a few others. Rev. Abbett spoke of the history of the order and its accomplishments and objects and aimed in an interesting way. At the close of the program a short social session was held.

SUBSCRIBE LIBERALLY.—Subscription books for the new Christian union are being circulated by Hon. T.

G. Hendricks and Elder M. L. Rose.

So subscribe liberally and keep the good work.
