Interesting Collection of Current Events in Condensed Form From Both Continents.

Two boys were drowned in a slough near Marietta, Wash.

The 3-year-old child of Frank Floyd, who lives in Arroyo valley, California, was killed by the bite of rattlesnake.

Edward Neill was mangled to death at Wallace, Idaho, by a line shaft in which his clothing became entangled.

Two elderly women were knocked down and robbed in their home in Cincinnati, O., by three men, who escaped with jewelry valued at $5,000.

Governor Adams, of Colorado, has vetoed the bill regulating the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine passed at the recent session of the legislature.

At a meeting of prominent Parnellites in Dublin, Ireland, a resolution was adopted providing for the formation of an independent Irish league, in which agrarian interests are to be dominant, and which will be founded on the "broader and sounder basis of independent political action for the benefit of the whole Irish nation."

About twenty-five persons witnessed the execution, which was within a small inclosure outside the jail. Sheriff Jones adjusted the noose and sprung the trap. Straub's neck was broken instantly. The two physicians in attendance report that death resulted in nine minutes. The coroner took charge of the body, which will be buried on the military reservation of the adjoining town.

The famous "hat-trimmings case," which indirectly involved between $20,000,000 and $25,000,000, and which has been postponed from time to time for the past three years, has been finally decided in favor of the government by a jury in the United States circuit court in Philadelphia.

The body of Captain Evan Davies, of the British four-masted ship Delacourie, who drowned over four months ago in the harbor at Astoria, has been picked up by a fisherman. The remains were positively identified by papers found in the pocket.

The great coon and varmint hunt on Fox island, Washington, in which several hundred hunters participated, was anything but a success as a varmint-killing bee, though all who attended were well satisfied, as the courtesies of the islanders made the outing a most enjoyable one.

Seth L. Milliken, representing in the house of representatives the third district of Maine, died at Washington. For some time he had suffered from a serious affection of the bronchial tubes, which last week developed alarmingly, and was accompanied by kidney and liver complications.

Bernardino Assuro, a Mexican settler on the tract of land near Hollister, Cal., claimed by a Portuguese, was found murdered in the charred remains of his hut. Investigation shows that Assuro was murdered with an ax, after which the body was laid on the bed, and the hut fired, to conceal the crime.

The first wool of the season has been delivered to a warehouse in Heppner, Or. It is said the wool is lighter and of better staple and brighter than the clip from the same sheep last season. The rain has greatly delayed the shearing in that section. Few sheep are being sold, owners holding firmly for a small advance, about 10 cents a head, more than buyers are willing to pay.

A dispatch from Baker City, Or., says that Powder river is higher than it has ever been known to be, and is doing great damage. Only one bridge remains in the city, and if the warm weather continues, it will go out. The Sumpter Valley railroad is flooded for miles, and trains will not be running for weeks. The northern residence portion of the city is inundated.

Chief Justice Fuller, of the United States supreme court, has refused a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Elverson R. Chapman, a broker, who refused to testify in the sugar speculation investigation as to whether senators had speculated in sugar stocks while the Wilson tariff bill was before that body. The sentence of the supreme court of the District of Columbia to 30 days in jail and $100 fine was affirmed, and Chapman's application for writs of certiorari and habeas corpus were denied.

As a result of a terrible accident in a mining camp near Rossland, B. C., six men were killed and several others injured. Twelve men were asleep in the camp when a landslide, 300 feet long and six feet deep, and fifteen feet wide, overwhelmed them.

A train near South Lyon, Mich., struck a vehicle on a crossing, and instantly killed Harry Clark and Miss Sarah Fisher. Miss Ethel Just was seriously injured. Clark was a student at Ann Arbor, and Miss Fisher attended the state normal school at Ypsilanti.

Reports from the wheat-producing regions of the Northwest—Potlatch, Palouse and Big Bend—are that fall-sown grain is as far advanced as it was at this time last year. The sudden wave of warm weather tended to make vegetation grow rapidly.

There is no reliable case on record where resuscitation has taken place after the complete freezing of the body in man.

THE GILSONITE BEDS.

The House Provides That Corporations Shall Not Get Them.

Washington, April 26.—The house today completed the consideration of the senate amendments to the Indian appropriation bill, and sent the bill to conference. The main contention centered about the senate proposition to open the Uncompahgre Indian reservation under the mineral land laws.

A resolution was adopted by which a committee of twenty-four was appointed to attend the dedication of the Grant tomb in New York.

New Whiteout, Wash., April 26.—Richard H. Straub paid the life penalty today at Friday Harbor, San Juan county, for the murder of Leo Lantieri, on Blakeley island in August, 1895.

About twenty-five persons witnessed the execution, which was within a small inclosure outside the jail. Sheriff Jones adjusted the noose and sprung the trap. Straub's neck was broken instantly. The two physicians in attendance report that death resulted in nine minutes.

Warships in Reserve.—Washington, April 26.—The navy department has perfected its plans for the creation of a reserve list of war vessels.

Washington, April 26.—The navy department has perfected its plans for the creation of a reserve list of war vessels. The first vessel to be made the nucleus of the reserve fleet is the Columbia. She will not be taken out of commission, but will be laid on reserve at League island as soon as she returns from the New York celebration next week.

Ottawa, April 26.—The new tariff announced by the government will hit the United States pretty hard. In that regard it is popular here, but doubly so on account of the preference it makes in favor of British goods.

Washington, April 26.—United States Consul Borgher, at Erzerum, Turkey, has reported to the state department that the Turkish court that has been trying by default the Kurds and Armenians charged with the murder of Young Leon, the American bicyclist, while on his tour around the world, has acquitted the accused.

Murray, Idaho, April 26.—In the little town of De Borgia, just over the Montana line, a most peculiar suit has commenced. Last November John W. Connel was injured by a falling tree, so that his leg had to be cut off.

Washington, April 26.—Fourth-class postmasters in Oregon were appointed today as follows: W. J. Clarke, Gervais, Marion county; J. H. Hiatt, Lyons, Linn county.

San Quentin Prison, Cal., April 26.—Frank Cooney Kloss was hanged promptly at 10:30 this morning for the murder of William Deady, over two years ago.

Evergreen, Ala., April 26.—A wreck occurred on Mandie trestle, nine miles north of this place, last night, on the Louisville & Nashville railroad.

SMALLPOX IN PRISON

Four Americans at Cabanas Contract the Disease.

ONE HAS ALREADY DIED OF IT

New York, April 26.—A dispatch to the Herald from Havana says: Smallpox has made its appearance in Cabanas prison.

The Turkish army and forward them to the front. The capture of these towns, not to mention the loss of the stores, places a serious difficulty in the path of Ellhem Pasha, and it is stated here that as soon as the Turkish commander-in-chief heard the news of the capture of Platamon and Katerina he dispatched 10,000 men toward the coast of Macedonia, fearing a flank attack from the Gulf of Salonica.

GREECE'S DAY.

A Series of Victories for King George's Army.

London, April 26.—The Athens correspondent of the Chronicle says that the Crown Prince Constantine has wired to King George as follows: "The Turks are quiet today, owing to our success yesterday. We have destroyed the Turkish battery at Legeria. The Turks have retired from Nezeros and Rapsani. The action of our fleet at Katerina was excellent. I was in the first line of fire yesterday."

ANOTHER BAD BREAK.

Mississippi Levee Gives Way, With Very Disastrous Results.

Greenville, Miss., April 26.—There was another break in the levee on the Mississippi side at Shipland, or "The Promised Land" levee, at 10 o'clock this morning, forty miles by rail south of Greenville. The break will cover 19,000 acres of land near the flood, and will add to the volume of water already covering most of the lands in its vicinity.
