American Cattle Are All Right and th Government Will Prove It.

Washington, June 21 .- The action outlined in the interview with Bellamy Storrer before his sailing for Europe, looking to making vigorous representations to Great Britain, Germany and Belgium and doubtless to France, for a modification of the discriminating measures against American cattle, is the result of the indefatigable efforts of Secretary of Agriculture Wilson to combat the prejudices of the Old World against our farm products and to secure to our exporters at least the same rights as are enjoyed by those of other countries. Ever since the new administration began, Secretary Wilson has been pushing this matter. He has had frequent interviews with the president and Secretary Sherman on the subject. BEST DAY'S WORK YET

Two Entire Schedules Finished by the Senate.

SEVERAL AMENDMENTS OFFERED

Tillman Wants Bill Loaded As Heavily As Possible-Wool and Flax Is Next in Order.

Washington, June 19.-The senate made greater progress today on the tariff bill than any day since the debate opened. Two entire schedules, covering 20 pages, were completed, namely schedule H, on spirits, wines and bey erages, and schedule I, on manufactur ed cotton goods. This brings the senate to the flax schedule with the important wool schedule standing next.

The portion of the bill passed today is substantially the same as that reported, the committee changes being unimportant, while the opposition amendments of Jones of Arkansas and Vest were systematically rejected by majorities varying from five to ten.

Allison secured the adoption of new paragraph to the cotton schedule with a view of compensating the cotton manufacturers for the recent action of the senate in placing raw cotton on the dutiable list.

In paragraph 289, on motion of Allison, the house provision was restored. The remaining paragraphs on spirits (290 to 293 inclusive) were agreed to as reported, without opposition. The wine paragraph led to some discussion. That on champagne and other sparkling wines was agreed to as reported. The committee paragraph on still wines was perfected by striking out the provision for an additional duty of 3 cents on each bottle or jug and the substitution of a provision that the filled bottles or jugs shall pay the same duty as if empty.

White presented statements from representative wine men of California, criticising the paragraphs on wines as not affording sufficient protection. White added his views that these wines, brandies, and similar articles should be liberally taxed on the principle that they are articles of luxury, although he would not make the tax prohibitive.

Vest said the rates were practically prohibitory. In effect, it compelled people to drink California wine or go without wine.

The senate paragraph was agreed to. The paragraph on cherry juice, etc. (298), was modified by the committee to include the house proviso of "containing no alcohol, or not more than eight per cent of alcohol," and thus

On ginger ale, soda water, etc.,(299), the committee changed the wording from "other similar waters" to "bev-erages containing no alcohol." The paragraph was then agreed to with a committee provision that all filled bottles shall have the character of their contents blown in the bottles.

Schedule I, cotton manufactures, was then taken up. The first paragraph (301), cotton thread and yarn, was contested by Jones of Arkansas. He spoke at length on the ability of the American cotton manufacturer to compete against the foreign producer without high duties.

The debate, although on paragraph of the cotton schedule, took | lars' worth of property and completely a wide range, covering the entire cotton question.

Jones of Arkansas offered an amendment in the nature of a test on the entire cotton schedule, proposing the Wilson rates on cotton thread and yarns. Rejected, 20 to 30, McEnery voting with the Republicans in the negative. The Democratic senators, Bacon, Clay, McLaurin and Tillman who had voted for a duty on raw cottone were in the affirmative on this motion to reduce the rate on manufactured cotton. After this contest, rapid cine yesterday, two Frenchmen were progress was made on the schedule, the paragraphs being agreed to as re- cited and the police are taking steps to

On motion of Allison, paragraph 315 was changed to exclude braids and gorings, inserting suspenders and braces at 40 per cent and reducing the rate on labels for garments to 50 cents per pound and 30 per cent ad valorem.

Allison also proposed a new paragraph, 31912, with a view to meeting the duty heretofore imposed on raw cotton. He said the duty on raw cotton, if it remained in the bill, would probably require an entire overhauling of the cotton schedule at a later date. The additional paragraph provides that on all cotton yarns finer than No. 10 single, and on the goods manufactured thereof, the duty shall be 10 per cent in addition to the rates of the cotton schedule.

Tillman said he was one of the Democrats voting for a duty on raw cotton. He avowed that he wanted the bill loaded as heavily as possible, so as to disgust the people and have them 'turn you out.'

OUR TRADE WITH CUBA

A Decitne From One Hundred Million to Twenty Millions.

Washington, June 21.-A significant report on our trade with Cuba from 1887 to 1897, prepared by Chief Hitchcock, of the foreign markets section of the agricultural department, has been promulgated by Secretary of Agriculture Wilson. The statistics show very learly the effect of present hostilities in Cubs on the commercial intercourse of the United States with that island. During the last fiscal year, 1896, the total value of our Cultan trade amounted to only $47,548,610, as compared with $102,864,204 in 1893, the year preceding the breaking out of the war. This was a falling off of more than 50 per cent in these returns. Returns already available for the current fiscal year indicate a still further decline, the records for the time months ending March 31, 1897, placing the total value of the trade for that period as low as $14,926,817. At this rate, the figures for the fiscal year 1898 will hardly reach $20,000,000, or less than one fifth the value recorded in 1893.

The report also demonstrated that in past years our imports from Cuba have generally been much in excess of our exports to that island, the balance of trade being decidedly against the United States.

GENERAL WOODFORD'S TASK

The New Minister Will Bring Spain to Terms.

Chicago, June 21 .- A special to the Times-Herald from Washington says: Spain is to be brought to terms. General Stewart L. Woodford, the new minister to Spain, after dining with President McKinley last night, spent the evening at the White House. received instructions as to his work in the Spanish capital, for which he will etart in a week or two.

General Woodford's task is divided into three parts. His first mission will be to present a demand for reparation and indemnity for the death of Dr. Ruiz. His second task is to prepare the Spanish government for the inevitable, and the inevitable is the loss of Cuba as a colony. The third phase of his work is the presentation of a distinct proposal from the United States as to the disposition of Cuba.

It is as to the first and second chapters that General Woodford is now conferring with the president. He will receive full instructions as to the third either before he sails or as soon as he shall have had an opportunity to report upon the state of mind in which he finds the Spanish ministry and the queen regent. President McKinley also instructed

General Woodford to impress upon the public men at Madrid these vital points: First-The United States is not actuated by an unfriendly feeling toward Spain. Secoand-The United States does not desire to take advantage of Spain's troubles with her colony to bring about the annexation of Cuba to this country Third-Unless Spain will herself make a move toward meeting the inevitable, toward giving Cuba freedom, the United States will be compelled to interfere and in the case of intervention amexation might naturally follow.

PRESIDENT TO SENATE

Full Text of the Hawaiian Annexation Message.

PAST NEGOTIATIONS REVIEWED

History Is Cited to Show Annexation to Be the Logical Destiny of the Island.

The following is the text of the message sent to the United States senate by the president to accompany the Hawalian treaty:

"I transmit hereby to the senate, in order that after due consideration the constitutional function of advice and onsent may be exercised by that body, a treaty for annexation of the republic of Hawaii to the United States, signed by plenipotentiaries of the parties on se 16. For a better understanding of the subject I transmit in addition the report of the secretary of state, reviewing negotiations which have led to this important result. "The incorporation of the Hawaiian islands into a body politicus is a necessary and fitting sequel to the chain of events which from an early period of our history has controlled the interourse and prescribed the associations of the United States and the Hawaiian islands. The predominance of American interests in that neighboring territory was first asserted in 1820 by sending to the islands a representative of the United States. It found further expression by the signature of a treaty of friendship, commerce and navigation with the king in 1826. It was signally annoused in 1843, when the interven tion of the United States caused the British government to disayow the seizure of the Sandwich islands by a British naval commander, and to recognize them by treaty as an independent state, renouncing forever any purpose of annexing the islands or exerting a protectorate over them.

'In 1851 the cession of the Hawaiian kingdom to the United States was formally offered, and although not then accepted, this government proclaimed it its duty to preserve alike the honor and dignity of the United States and safety of the government of the Hawaiian islands. From this time until the outbreak of the war of 1861 the policy of the United States toward Hawaii and the Hawaiian sovereign towards the United States was exemplified by continued negotiations for annexation or for a reciprocal commercial union. The latter alternative was at length accomplished by the reciprocity treaty of 1875, the provisions of which were renewed by the convention of 1884, embracing the perpetual cession to the United States of the harbor of Pearl river.

"In 1888 a proposal for a joint guaranty of the neutrality of the Hawaiian islands by the United States, Germany and Great Britain was declined on the announced ground that the relation of the United States to the islands was sufficient for the end in view. In brief, from 1820 to 1896 the course of the United States toward the islands has consistently favored their autonomous welfare with the exclusion of all foreign influences save our own to the extent of upholding eventual annexation

"Not only is a union of the Ha waijan territory to the United States no new scheme, but it is the inevitable consequence of the relation stead fastly maintained with that mid-Pacific domain for three-quarters of a century Its accomplishment has been merely a question of time. While its failure in 1893 may not be a cause for congratulation, it is certainly a proof of the disinterestedness of the United States, the delay of four years having abundantly sufficed to establish the right and ability of the republic to enter as a soveereign government into a conventional union with the United States, thus realizing a purpose held by the Hawailan people and proclaimed by successive Hawaiian governments through some 70 years of their virtual depend ence upon the benevolent protection of the United States. "The report of the secretary of state exhibits the character and course of recent negotiations and features of the treaty itself. The organization and administrative details of incorporation are necessarily left to the wisdom of congress, and I cannot doubt that when the function of the constitutional treaty the largest regard for the interest of this rich domain and for the welfare of the inhabitants thereof.
