WHY SIT ON A RED-HOT STOVE?

The Remedy With the People—All Interests Have Suffered From Silver Demonetization.

The gold men have controlled the finances of the country ever since John Sherman struck down silver by cheating congress into the passage of a bill which contained a provision to that end, says the Cincinnati Enquirer. He was able to thus cheat congress by falsely stating that the bill if passed would continue the full and free coinage of "a silver dollar which would float all over the world, and be the equivalent in value of the five franc piece of France." That was more than twenty four years ago. The only relief the people have had from the effects of that piece of legislative dishonesty was when their representatives partially restored silver coinage as a compromise with the emissaries of Wall Street in Washington. Seeing that free coinage was about to be re-established, Wall Street was able to put limitations on the coinage. Accordingly from 1878 to 1892 an average of forty millions of dollars a year was added to the volume of money in this country by the purchase of silver bullion and its use as money. That was the period of which Thomas B Reed spoke in the last campaign as an era of prosperity. Benjamin Harrison declared in his message of December, 1890, that the Sherman purchase act, which provided for the purchase of four million of ounces of silver per month had given "an upward tendency of trade," and had had beneficial effects, as was the intention of its authors. He was one of its authors. An era of prosperity referred to by Mr Reed was stopped short by a coalition between the republican party and the Cleveland Administration in 1893, by the repeal of the Sherman purchase act and the absolute cessation of any further purchase of silver or provision for its coinage. Since that year the country has been in the depths of despair.

The hair of the dog is not good for the bite. The gold quack doctors who have starved the patient purpose to continue the same treatment. Why should there not be a change of treatment? What business man is there who is not the worse for Grover Cleveland having ever lived? Are the banks reaping a rich harvest by the Wall Street policy of contraction? Are the savings banks any the better off for the 50 per cent reduction in the value of property on which they have loaned their depositors' money? Has any stock of goods increased in value above its original cost during the last four years? How long will the business men continue to sit on the red-hot stoves of business depression, because those who are interested in burning them tell them that the stoves are getting cooler all the time, when they know they are getting hotter? Why do not the business men talk these things over among themselves? They need not discuss them with silver coinage men. Let them use the same intelligence they use in conducting their business, and in all other respects. Let them compare notes with each other and reason out the question. They need never buy large quantities of goods on a falling market, because they know they would sell at a loss. There never can be any other kind of a market so long as the volume of money is being steadily contracted. The volume of money must continue to be steadily contracted until it is reinforced by a return of silver coinage. The gold standard is contraction, because the supply of gold from year to year does not equal the increased use for money. Substantially all that is produced goes into the arts, and is not to be had for coinage.

These are plain truths, and if they are carefully read they will lead candid men to but one result, and that is that the gold standard is the enemy of prosperity, and the enemy of all business of a legitimate character. It is as much the enemy of legitimate banking as it is the enemy of all other interests. It serves only financial wreckers who feast and fatten on the misfortunes of individuals, corporations and governments. The remedy is in the hands of the people. "He who would be free himself must strike the blow."

PENNOYER FOR SILVER.

Believes Free Coinage Can Best Be Secured Through the Democratic Party.

Ex-governor Sylvester Pennoyer in an open letter gives his views on current topics as follows:

"An imperfect statement of my views in this morning's Oregonian, not given for publication, in regard to future party alignments in this state, compels me to ask for a space for a more succinct statement. I am, above all else, in favor of the restoration of silver as standard money, which would be a most important factor in the restoration of national prosperity. As all know, I have held devotion to that doctrine above fealty to party obligations. Now, how can that be best secured? That is the paramount question. Every other question, for the time, ought to be subordinated to it. In this state, at the present time, we have three separate political organizations pledged to the cause of free silver—the democratic, the populists and the bimetallic union, when three ought to be but one.

"Fusion of different separate party organizations is always dangerous and unsatisfactory. Is it not, therefore, the right and effective way for all free silver men to unite together as individual members of that organization which gives the best promise of success?"

"Is it that the bimetallic organization? That is a local affair, and has no national organization at its back. Is it the populist party? That party is freighted itself down with a multitude of isms, and is most seriously handicapped with the revolutionary record of its members—elect of the legislature, and in their treasonable hold-up of the legislative assembly.

"Is it the democratic party? That party is now and always has been in favor of both gold and silver as standard money, and opposed to bank currency. The party has always been true to the people, although it elected a president who was a traitor to it and to its principles. It is a well organized and a national party the one to which all true and honest free silver men should look to for victory.

"These are questions freighted with the great importance, which every free man of Oregon should consider, and on the correct determination of which may depend our victory next June and in the next presidential election."

A PERSONAL MATTER.

The GUARD could wish for no better chance for revenge, if it was possessed of that spirit, than to publish the two petitions in regard to Dr Chapman in opposite columns—giving the taxable property taken from the last tax roll of each person that signed the petitions.

The GUARD is much more charitable to the gentlemen, who saw fit to attempt to injure us by signing the Dr Chapman indorsement, than they were to us. To say the least there are several gentlemen on the list that are not proud of their company. Some of them have already apologized for the mention made of the GUARD, claiming they did not fully understand the purport of the paper they signed, and did not suppose it cast any reflection upon the GUARD.

The GUARD always endeavors to labor for the best interests of the university, town and county; our property, our interests are here, and the GUARD has justly gained the reputation of presenting, and setting forth the advantages of this community and locality to their fullest extent. We claim and shall exercise the right of giving our views on public events, and public men when it becomes necessary. A newspaper of the lick spittle description—lacks the respect even of those who may use it for personal ends. We are not of that class.

A bucking horse caused considerable interest on the streets of Roseburg Saturday afternoon. The rider was given a hard fall, and then the assembled crowd made up a purse to induce Charlie Noah to ride the animal, which he did, staying in his seat in spite of all the efforts to throw him. Before the crowd had dispersed, a greyhound and a bulldog had a disagreement, and proceeded to "chaw" each other, while a ring was formed around them. It required the combined efforts of the mayor and all his assistants to stop the "scrap." This closed the exciting events of the day says the Review.

June 29.

Clouds this A. M. Some hay down, owing to the recent rains. Buel Sampa's son of Portland, is visiting with Master Edward Swift, this week. He rode up on his wheel. Wm West, sr. and wife are at the Kison Springs for the summer. Billie Bristow's folks have got a girl. They said they wanted some one to send them a name. We got a smoke on it all the same.

The picnic next Saturday is coming on all right. Come up and see us. The school board have hired a teacher for this fall. G W Milam is the lucky man. He will move his family over this fall.

Lewis Bundy sprained his ankle quite severely last week. Dr White is located at Lewis Bundy's place for 3 days for the purpose of extracting teeth.

J Wheeler claims to have lost about $500 in his robbery last week. We have a president of the da, and a good force of marshals—so any one who contemplates having snake bite on the ground had better leave it at home, for anything but a peaceable crowd will not be tolerated.

Betsy. Unity Item. June 19. Fine growing weather after the rain. The aphid has appeared on the wheat again this year. We hope it will not do serious damage.

Mr Charles Neet and family, of Myrtle Creek, are visiting relatives and friends in this community. We are glad to see them as they are former residents of this place. The log drive is progressing very nicely in Fall creek as the rain has flushed the creek.

Joe Matteson returned from Egypt at few days ago with a bucket of pickles. We would like to learn through the GUARD what the fare will be to Lebanon, when Bryan speaks? Several of the boys of this vicinity are helping G M Neet cut orchard grass.

Rev Blackwell will preach at this place next Sabbath. Sunday school is progressing nicely at this place. R C Edwards is building a granary. Con.

An All-day. This is to certify that on May 11th, I walked to Melch's drug store on a pair of crutches and bought 1 bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, or inflammatory rheumatism which had crippled me up. After using three bottles I am completely cured. I can cheerfully recommend it.—Charles H Wetzel, Sunbury, Pa.

Sworn at and subscribed to before me on August 10, 1891.—Walter Shipman J.P. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by Osburn & DeLano.

Farms for Sale. I have for sale several good farms, which have been taken in foreclosure by loan companies. These lands will be sold at a low figure and on easy terms without the assistance of real estate agents. Apply to SHERWOOD BERR, Eugene, Oregon.

Business Cannot Be Cured by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional treatment. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed, it causes deafness, and when it is severely inflamed, it causes deafness, and when it is severely inflamed, it causes deafness, and when it is severely inflamed, it causes deafness.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness cured by our method that can not be cured by any other method. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo O. Sold by Druggists.

Bucklen's Arniea Salve. The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by HENDERSON & LINN.

A CANARD.—A rumor is afloat in the country that the hitching racks for horses around the public squares will be removed and farmers will be compelled to patronize the feed stables when they come to town. This is a mistake. Judge Potter says the racks will remain and the court never had the intention of removing them.

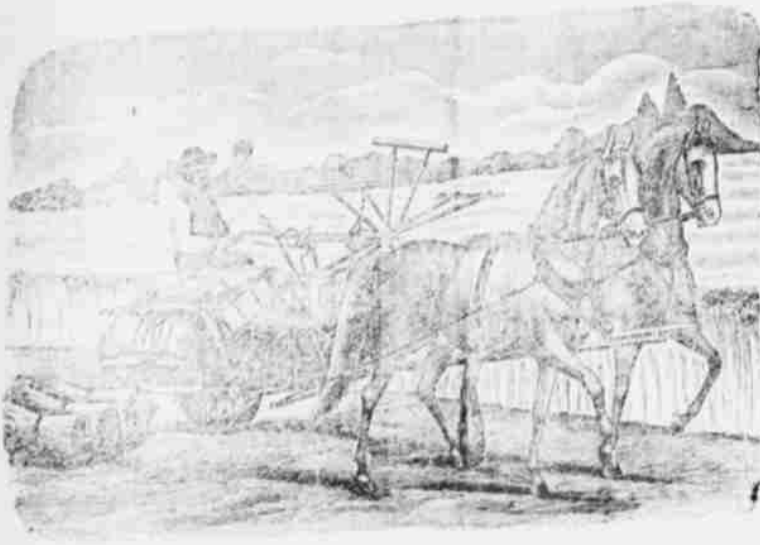

BORN.—Wednesday, June 30, 1897, to Mr and Mrs W Martin, a daughter. All doing nicely.

New York Sun: The barber shops where one can get shaved for 3 cents are increasing in number. There are now three such shops in upper Park row, where there was but one a few months ago besides the original, a big shop in the lower Bowery, making at least four now in the city. Three cents is the minimum price in these shops; with bay rum the price is 5 cents.

The gypsies are southward bound. They will be in Eugene in a day or two.

Coburg Items.

Coburg Ore. n, June 30, 1897. Wm Van Duyen, the dry goods merchant, visited Eugene on business Tuesday.

Frank Armitage, Welby Stevens and an Advance thrasher agent passed through this city Tuesday. Hon J C Goodale, owner of the Coburg lumber mill, went to Albany Wednesday on business connected with his mills.

Bruce Garrison passed through en route to Eugene Monday. Miss Ida Goodale returned home Tuesday from West Point where she had been visiting with the Allingham family.

James Barger and son visited the farm near this city Monday. Al Niekerson, of Lebanon, is now employed in the sawmill here. The farmers are pleased to see the sunshine so they can continue having which is now crowding them to get ready for wheat harvest.

Wednesday morning J C Goodale shipped two car loads of lumber to the Utah Lumber Co. The mill is now running at full capacity and are at this writing over 300,000 feet behind with their orders from Utah, California and points in Oregon. Three car loads of which go to the B-form school at Salem.

Tuesday afternoon one of the cylinder bands of the big engine in the saw mill blew out and was shipped to the Albany Iron Works for repair, but luckily they are still able to run with one cylinder until the other is repaired. Winfield Allingham who has been ill for several weeks past is gradually growing worse.

Will Goodale is home from Mill Creek where he has been getting out shingle bolts for his father's mill. J. P. B.
