FLORENCE NOTES.

Clipped From the West of November 26

Wm Kyle goes to San Francisco in a few days.

O W Hurd returned from Eugene Tuesday.

The council has appointed E A Evans city marshal.

Born, at Gladia, Ore, on Saturday, November 21, to Mr and Mrs Dresler, a daughter.

J B Hill started Tuesday morning for Portland, where he hopes to get employment.

Thomas Neely and George Nicolle brought down about 35 barrels of salt salmon Tuesday for shipment to San Francisco.

The work of taking spawn has been finished at Mapleton hatchery for the season. About 600,000 spawn has been placed in the hatching troughs.

Several people on the river are now suffering from Job's comforters. John I Butterfield and Geo H Colter are among the latest victims.

Another raft of logs was taken to the Spruce Point mill Sunday. The logs are cut by V Gurney and the lumber from them will be used in building the Kio dike.

Last Saturday while the Lillian was turning around at the quarry, the strong current carried her against one of the rock scows with a ch force as to damage her bow, causing her to leak some. She was beached Sunday and the damage repaired.

Walter Andrews, who has been on Rogue river for several years, has returned to the Siuslaw and is working in the quarry at Point Terrace.

Pleasant Bill Items.

Oregon has returned with her dampness.

Louis Bundy is moving to Eugene.

Thanksgiving was honored here by a party at Mr Hemphills.

Mr Jeff Davis who has been in Idaho for the past eleven years came in on a visit last week.

Mr Spangler, an organizer for the WCTU, gave two very fine lectures here last week. She is very earnest in the cause she pleads. The work she thinks in time will revolutionize the world.

Mr Peck will meet the people of this place next Friday night for the purpose of organizing a singing class. We would urge the people to accept this opportunity. We learn that Mr Peck is a thorough drilled master, and we surely need the work.

The past few days has been lively times for runaways. Dollie Bridge's team ran some distance with no accident. Wm Wests, team almost got entirely away a few days ago. The best one however was that of Aunt Zilphia Rigdon. She was making a call at a neighbors, when the team became detached from their "mooring" and struck down the road at a break neck speed, having a loose gravel bed on the wagon, made a noise equal to a general stampede, throwing the bed in every direction. They ran half a mile and was brought to a halt by a neighbor and brought back to the owner. Auntie was greatly surprised that any one should be driving her team around. She was at the first of the runaway. Lucky all around.

At Mr Wm Wests, Sr, was a day to be long remembered by all present. It was Mrs Wests birthday. Early in the day Tuesday her friends began to come in, and by noon the house was well filled with her children and a few invited friends to wish her many happy returns of the day. An excellent dinner was prepared, which reflected great credit on the parties who managed the culinary department. All voted it a grand success. We have not received particulars, and can not make a detailed statement of the affair.

Mr and Mrs James Parker gave a Thanksgiving dinner to a few invited friends. Mrs Spray, of Salem, and Mrs Black, of Prineville, were in attendance, and made the day lively we assure you. Usually when an item is wanted, as we have been requested to with the two above, is to invite the itemizer, that she may get all the facts in the case and make a good write-up. This not being so, all the facts I have are that they had a dinner, and was told it was enjoyed by all.

Mr David West and two sisters left for Canada last Wednesday. They have been visiting their parents, Mr and Mrs Wm West, since September.

Mrs A E Stearns, of Portland, was visiting her friend, Mrs W L Bristow, last week.

Last accounts R Drury had from Astoria was that the body of Mr Bradford had not been found as yet.

REV DR BOYD ANSWERED.

By-Governor Penoyer Writes a Characteristic Letter—Portland Morals and the Gold Standard

Rev Dr Boyd, a Portland minister, attacked Mayor Penoyer's administration of affairs in the metropolis, and got the following characteristic rejoinder from our ex-governor:

"REV THOMAS BOYD—Dear Sir: In a sermon delivered by you yesterday, a synopsis of which appears in the morning papers, you attack the present city administration, and more especially condemn a statement of mine, not made for publication, that the fallen women of the city should be allowed to dance.

"If I had the disposition, I do not have the authority of law to prevent you. You also make the statement that you have seen policemen sitting at the gaming table. If you had done your duty to report that fact to me, I should have done my duty and had them discharged. Who is to blame? You say that it is not a question of gold standard or silver standard, but a question as to whether we have a population of 16 gamblers and harlots and 1 honest, pure youth. I tell you that it is the gold standard that is effecting that very ratio by producing conditions that breed destitution and crime, and you and others that uphold that standard are really responsible before God for the crime and destitution that it begets.

"Do you wish to do away with gambling and prostitution in P R land? If so, show the authorities where the gamblers and prostitutes can be given honest employment, and then theirs will be the responsibility.

"History is repeating itself. In the time of Elijah there were 450 prophets in Israel, and every one was a prophet of Baal.

"Now nearly all the professed ministers of God are worshippers of the gold standard, and their efforts to effect a religious and moral regeneration of the people, while they are laboring at the same time for their moral degradation and physical slavery, will be as impotent as were the prayers of Baal's prophets, to bring down the fire of heaven to consume the bullock which they had laid upon the altar.

"Very respectfully,
"SYLVESTER PENOYER, Mayor."

BOYD'S SUB-REJOINDER.

Sylvester's letter did not annihilate Rev Dr Boyd, as the following amicable epistle to the worthy mayor would indicate:

"TO THE HONORABLE SYLVESTER PENOYER, MAYOR OF PORTLAND—Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of yesterday. I do not know that I have anything to add to my public statements on Thanksgiving day. If your statements concerning dance-houses were not intended for the public, I think it is a great misfortune that they reached the press. Your arguments and language as they have appeared were certainly below the dignity of your office, if not of a cultured gentleman. No other inference could reasonably be drawn from that reported interview than that you are in entire sympathy with the institutions you defended.

"As to calling upon you personally and directing your attention to the fact that your officers of the police force were seen by me at a Chinese lottery, that did occur to me and it was my first impulse so to do. Then I remembered that you once suggested to a very distinguished gentleman of this country that, if he would attend to his own business you would attend to yours. What, then, could I hope at your hands, especially so in view of your recent declaration that preachers don't know much about politics, and he would save his reputation if he would obey the old adage, 'the shoemaker should stick to his last.' I obeyed your injunction and stuck to my last.

"You may not be able to close dance houses by virtue of your office, but it is too much to expect of you that you should at least array yourself on the side of morality and respectability? But, Mr Mayor, there is one thing you can do; you can close the lotteries and gambling houses. What other conclusion can be drawn than that they are run by your connivance and sanction when they are patronized by your underlings? Yours truly, THOMAS BOYD."

Mr J Miller and wife, formerly Miss Ivan Huston, are keeping house for W L Kayser, in the absence of Mrs Kayser, who is making an extensive tour East visiting relatives, in Missouri and Arizona. Mr Miller is employed in the general merchandise store and post office.

Mr William Foster has moved into town and occupies B M Richard's property.

The Elmira Mill Co, is very busy just now prosecuting several law suits within the firm.

A lengthy series of meetings has just closed at the Christian church at this place, Rev Badger of Drain, filling the pulpit. His discourses proved very acceptable to many who heard them.

An interesting social party was held at the H-band hall last night—music and dancing.

On next Tuesday night the ladies of the Baptist church at this place will give a Foot social at the school house; 25 cents forfeit to the young man whose feet disclose his identity. The fortunate lady to discover him to be escorted to supper at his expense.

It is said the county court let a contract to the Elmira Mill Co to saw 50,000 feet of bridge lumber to be used in extending the long bridge, commencing at Mr Sam McCutcheon's, to the Truss bridge, thus entirely spanning the dangerous route across the low land between the high land on each side of the Long Tom; but, owing to the complicated status of the Mill Co's business and the lack of logs, the contract cannot now be filled, so we will be compelled to flounder along through the deep water, and dangerous quicksand holes another winter, unless some practical, wide awake mill man puts up a portable mill and furnishes the lumber at the south end of the bridge, and thus take in the $300 cash.

The court house question seems to have quieted down in this part of the county; many who opposed building seem to care little about it.

A piece of quartz from near the Santiam wagon road, was handed to the writer recently, one ounce of which, by fire assay produced 30 good colors of fine gold. Old miners will recognize the value of this, as the rock is abundant and near the road.

No public Thanksgiving exercises at this place.

GOOD, SOLID SENSE.

The sorry figure cut by the middle-of-the-road Populists, led by Coxe, in the late Ohio election, says the Jacksonville Times, is ample evidence that that class will no longer be allowed to dominate the destinies of their party. In spite of the great efforts made and the large amount of money spent by the General's gang, they polled less than 7000 votes out of a total running well up towards 750,000. It is an open secret that Mark Hanna furnished their sinews of war, which supposition caused the better class of Populists to support Chapman, the Democratic candidate, who stood upon a free-coinage-of-silver platform.

There is no reason whatever why all advocates of bimetalism cannot join issues and give battle to the common enemy. It is ridiculous to even suppose that either the Democratic or Populist parties can defeat the Republicans, especially in Oregon. Unless a compact union is effected by the friends of free silver and reform, it will be the same old story—domination of the money oligarchy and corporations, which means misgovernment and oppression of the masses.

RETRIBUTION.

The news comes from Washington that the president and his advisers are pained and surprised on account of France taking steps to place a prohibitory tariff on some articles of export from this country. It is too bad. France should sit idly by, when legislated against in the interest of a few wealthy wine and manufacturing pets of this country, and allow our people free and fair trade in her markets.

Prohibitory protection is a beautiful thing in theory, but raises the hands of every civilized nation against us when carried to its logical conclusion—that of closing our markets to every product that can possibly be produced at home, no matter what the consumer may be taxed for it by trusts and combines.

AUSTRALIAN KLONDIKE.

The stories that come from West Australia show that colony has a Klondike of its own. Near the Kalgoorlie gold fields alluvial ground has been found which yields enormously. One man, in a single morning, cleaned up two pounds of nuggets, while two others in two days, obtained sixty-five ounces. The bedrock is from twenty-five to a hundred feet from the surface, but when reached it appears to be lined with nuggets. The new diggings are not in an inviting country, but this Australian desert is a great improvement over the frozen Klondike.

A bill has been drafted for introduction to congress next session providing for the appointment of a board of code commissioners for the district of Alaska to draft code, civil and criminal laws and to revise the act creating the civil government of the district.

A POLITICAL UPHEAVAL.

This is the way the New York Herald dolefully sized up the situation the morning after election:

This tremendous upheaval is almost stunning in its magnitude, the only thing it can be compared with is the great landslide of 1893. The year before that Cleveland swept the country. The year following, New York, New Jersey, and, in fact most of the doubtful states that Cleveland had carried, swung back into the Republican column.

The effect of the land slide on national politics is likely to be very great. Above the wreck the face of William J Bryan appears. One can readily see opening up almost immediately the Democratic campaign of the election of a governor in New York state next year. Unless the pendulum swings back, it will not require a very lively imagination to figure out a close contest for the control of the next house of representatives. With the senate already in doubt and really anti-Republican on many questions, there is trouble ahead for President McKinley. The administration has the floor.

It is true this administration has the floor and is walking this floor.

MAKE IT FREE.

A small admission fee will be charged to the debate next Saturday evening between the contestants for the privilege of representing the University of Oregon in the State Intercollegiate contest. We hope no admission fee will be charged. The young men and women need the stimulus of a full house to bring out their best efforts, and a ten cent admission fee, or any other fee, is sure to result in a large array of empty benches.

The GUARD says make it free, and advertise it throughout the town and adjoining country so a full house will face the young gladiators who have entered the arena to defend the honor of their University. The resident regents should uphold the honor of the state, and provide whatever funds are necessary. We desire to record an earnest protest against this "ten cent" business.

What are considered reliable reports state 40,000 deaths have occurred from starvation in Cuba under the present reign of terror inaugurated by the Spanish butcher Weyler. Our country is not blameless. Common humanity, not reckoning on commercial interests should prompt us to stay the hand of the blood thirsty Spaniard. We need a Jackson or a Blaine at Washington.

No one would have been particularly sorry if that couple, who got married in a cage that contained two lions in San Francisco the other day, had lost a few chunks of meat off their anatomy during the show. No use killing innocent animals with which to feed the lions when such idiots are about.
