WILL FOLLOW NO FURTHEIL

0

Ex-Senator Dubois Outlines the Plans of Siller Republicans.

Dubois of Idaho said:

Secretary Gage that the administra- improvement and also for the work at tion intends to make permanent Davis slough, the same now being the gold standard , retire the green- piled at the foot of Lawrence street. backs and turn control of the na. This reck was taken from the Gillespie tion's currency over to the na- bute quarries just across the river tional banks completely vindicates north of the city. Next week Mr. the judgment and policy of the Hutchins will take his force of man to silver republicans in quitting for- the Goo Smith quarry, about these and ever the republican party. After one-half milles down the river and the adoption of the st Louis plat proceed to get out rock for the Scatter torm the rank and file of the re- bar and dam, and also for other work publicans in Idaho clung to the further down the fiver. old party in the hope that it would The work of clearing the channel at do something for silver. Now that Sinddor rills is greatly facilitated by the national party has thrown off the use of a large scoop showed, holding all disguise and stands, squarely a cubic yard, which is placed on the and unequivocally for gold mono- how of the strag boat a - I operated by metalism, they will follow no steam. Its work is most an shortery. further.'

"BEST" MONEY.

manufacturer's panquet at New York Thursday night. The President in his address said all obliga- its thoroughtees reflects are bit both on tions of the government should be Major Freeman, in charge of the workpaid in the "best" money. That is and on Capitain Hatch of the snap right. Now what is the "heat" hoat, money? We contend that any money issued by the government bearing the government stamp is "best" money, paper, silver aud gold.

The president and his secretary of treasury ask that gold only shall bate, animated at all times and occabe paid to the nation's creditors. sionally acrimonicus, which occupied Silver that is used for payment of debts and obligations of the work- of 47 to 52, passed the Teller concurrent ing classes and masses, that buys resolution. The resolution is a practitheir flour, meat and clothing, is cal reaffirmation of that of Stanley not good enough for the bond holders and speculators who thrive offthe necessities of the country.

The money loaners and bondholders furnished Mark Hanna the before resided are payable, principal and money with which to elect a president, and the beneficiary of the dollars of the colonge of the United election that was won by a banding sitates, containing did grabes each or together, of capitalistic interests, standard silver, and that to ristore to intends to retmourse his financial supporters so far as in his power lias.

between McKinley and further degredation of our silver and paper moneys. That senate says he shall not carry out the program outlined by the Indianapolis banker's convention for retirement of our paper currency by further bond issues. President McKinley is a willing republicate sgalast. soul and does not hesitate in per-

LIVER IMPROVEMENT.

Work is Progressing in a Satisfactory Manner

The revelument work at Sladden In a recent interview ex-Sensitor siffles is now about completed. Contractor E F Hutchins has already do-

"The plain announcement of livered all the rock necessary for this

Yesterday Major Freeman -- d Cap tain Hatch went down the river to a small beat for the purpose of de' rmin-ing the exact location of three or four prime ed wing dams and revetments. proposed wing dams and revetments. President McKinley attended the and to make preliminary arrangements made on this meetion of the river and

PASSED THE SENATE.

Teller Resolution Adopted By a Vot-OF 47 to 32.

WASHINGTON, Jan 25-After a des the greater part of the week, the senthe greater part of the week, the sen-ate this afterneon, by a decisive vote of 47 to 52, passed the Teilor concurrent Matthews, passes in 1878 and is as for-

"That all the bunds of the United States, issued or authorized to be issued under the said acts of congruss hereininterest, at the option of the government of the United Status; in silver its coimage such allyer coims as a logal find got George confortably breakfasted and dispatched to his office. tender in payment of said hands, principal and interest, is not in violation of the public faith nor in derogation of But an unfriendly senate stands the rights of the public creditors." The ave vote was made up of 20 dem-oerats, 5 populists. 4 silver republicans, 7 republicans, I independent and ! al-

The may vote of 35 republicans and 1 democrat.

Pairs -4 democrats and 1 silver were paired in favor of the resolution with 5 frust ourselves."

forming his part of the contract, tior. City Times of Feb 20 says: DIED OF CONSUMPTION .- The June-

Spain does not appreciate the Grants Pass Contier: There is on his good beniavor.

SEVOND REACH.

I can the thing that no max sees, Though regin from old has sought, All answerse of trap or share, Yet am I arrer caught,

And men may seak till descentary come, All other suits formate Yet still I fly and still defy. For me they may not take

Above the highest mountain tops, Beneath the deepest seas, I still abide and there I hide From each and all of these.

They know not even how I look, Nor what my form may be, Nor do they know if weal or wee Or virius is in me.

The name I own they cannot call, And when their steps are bent To seek me out they vainly shout, "Oh, some to us, Content!" -Chicago Becord.

THE NEW COOK.

Certainly I was in an awkward fix. My hustand did not see it, of course, and when I had said for the thirteenth-I love to he accurate-for the thirteenth that evening, "Whatever am I to do?" he only replied, to his newspaper apparently, "If money will be of any use to you, my denr. I can let you have a blank check." I very noarly said: "It has taken more good fellow that I stopped in time.

only the could who had left suddenly that they on account of bad news from home. With the assistance of the housemaid I I contrived to prepare a respectable ugh little dinner for once, and, for the ther of that, could have contrived to do ntil I was properly "suited."

I do not change my women servants often. The key is a more variable quantity, but when I do I prefer to wait a little rather than take just anybody. Still, there was that friend of George's brother Jim, in Queensland, coming Thursday to spend a few days, and this was Tuenlar.

I could not put him off, as it was the only time he had free, and Jim had seemed really anxious that we should meet him.

Ho indo't. Just like Jim's carolowness. This was, indeed, the cause of his coming homa He is a fine fellow, and a true friend, poo true a friend indeed to one thoroughly undersorving, "constanded Jim, mowhat irrelevantly. "But the virtues of Mr. Harry Gordon can by no possibility breakfast and lineb-con and dine him for three solid days if I don't succeed in getting a cook," I cluded as I wandered sleepily up stairs. I must just try Miss Griggs at the Young Women's Christian association rooms and take wheever she offers not

Thitherward I accordingly wonded my way the following morning as soon as 1

Miss Griggs heard me with attention. Woll, Mrs. Moson, I think I have a girl living here at this moment who might exactly wilt you, provided you are willing to take everything about her on trust. I have been constrained to do this for the sales of her sweet, true face. I can't say that I would go to every mistress with that suggestion!

"Dut you know," interrupted I, "that we look at things from the same standpoint, and remember that in the highest ense we are every day being taken on She amiled, nodded and left the room.

A moment later the door opened gently and a slight, graceful girl of about 23, with brown hair and eyes and pale, regu-lar features stood before me.

it she had to a Gind the front stairs. Mr. Gerdon had landing, his hand still lightly eaching the handle of the door. Soddenly the footsteps faltered - stopped

Harry Marle

The man's hears was in the err. The little feet flow on as if on wings,

The door reopened, and with the face of one transfired he sgain stood before us. My husband started up.

"What is the matter?" I am afraid I lost my head a little, and to relieve the strain of the situation re-marked foolishiy:

Mr. Gordon looks as if he had seen a ghost instead of such an ordinary person as the cook.

"The cook !" he repeated. " Mrs. Mason. it is my wife!"

George found his voice first. "But I thought you said you had lost your wife A new light broke upon me.

in a tone of authority, but on this occa-ston I did. "George," I said, "go down to your study directly and wait for mo there. Stop here, Mr. Gordon." I went up to Mary's room-a tiny box of a place, 10 f. t by 7, but I like each of my girls to have a room, however small, that she can call her own. The girl lay prone upon the little white bed. 'Mary," I said, "you must come down stalrs."

She shuddered. "Is she with him?"

been some sad misunderstanding) Come the interest of his church.

I led her, unredefing, to the drawing room door and loft her there

At this point I may as well tell you the story which we gathered in detached birs

In her maiden days in that distant colony Marte Steven had two lovers, friends of one another and hearing the same Christian manua. There was, however, in her mind no question of choice between them. For her Harry Gordon was and always had been the only heat in the world For some time after the marriage th friendship harwoon the two room continued to all scenting unitopaired. Then ugly whispers in regard to Gorden's business and personal affairs began to float about These had, of source, originated solely b the fortile brain of his responsible native-sake, and by blun it was duly arritiged that they should reach the mirs of the young wife. Perhaps from a drud o hearing them confirmed by blocown lips she from day to day delayed repeating them to her hustand. Wild suspicious fore her heart and left her with to rock of firm faith to which to cling in the crisis that was fast couling. Sitting alone one afternoon Maria wa surprised by the entrance of her husband's friend. He placed in her hand the latter of a woman signing herself." Your descri-ed wife," and conjuring Harry to rememher the promise of other and happler day "Can you doubt his guilt. Maria, or r disinterested love? This letter must ha broken all they between you. Come with the and the the old country we shall gether begin a new and happler life." Marie spoke no word. Looking at him as one who saw him not, she plided from the room. Yet not for one moment could she dould her hushand's guilt. "Yes, to the old country I shall go, he alone, with no meaner man, "Not Laose lot, nor another." There I shall indeed by gin a new life. There he can never disc er me nor persuade me to condons what this reveal

She inclosed the fatal letter without a word of explanation in a scaled envelope Inid it on his dressing table and left the That same evening one of the great Pa ciffe liners sailed with a new stewardow who had turned up at the lost momen soliciting employment just in time to fill the place of one who had been taken and denly ill. . .

An Italian Solumon.

part of the city, was run against by a post sion, but his bundle caught in the young

When the case came on and Solus had made his complaint, the viceroy turned to the porter and asked him what he had t

Searched Linens.

Bound to Win.

-Princess.

e put to him.

Chas Lauer went to Portland this forenoon. A S Powers, of McKenzie Bridge, is in Eugene. Wm Faber, the Albany breweryman, is in the city. P Conley, of Thurston, gave this office a pleasant call today. E F Ware was a passenger to Porthand on this forenoon's train. Mrs Dr Kuykendall went to Drain Mrs Dr Kuykendail went to Yes, 'host,' hus' found.' I do not generally spack to my hushand this afternoon for a short visit. Mr and Mr + J A Howe returned this afternoon from a visit at Salem. day. He is 55 years of age. Chas Levis of Harrisburg, intends going to Klondike, we understand. E E Upmeyer, of the Harrisburg Lumber Co, spent last night in Eugene. There were nineteen drummers registered at the Hoffman House last nlight. Rev T B Ford was a passenger south "She? Whom?" said L "Oh, there has on today's 2.04 local, where he goes in George W Pickett writes that he will leave San Francisco for his home in Eugene al out the first of the month. Today's Oregon City Courier: Chas Goldsmith, of Eugene, is visiting his Corvallis, where he lectured last night sisters, the Misses Goldsmith and Mrs before the O A C.

SATURDAY JAN UBRY 29.

W FCornell, of Portland, is in the

J POones of the B P R R, is in the Rev J M Dick is in the city.

113.

elty.

M Bollock. local train on a visit to Corvallis and Portland.

and Astoria.

H C Perkins, formerly of Laue coun-Josephine county. Marlon Vanduyne, formerly of Co- from Monmouth this afternoon and go burg, who has been visiting here for a tomorrow to their home at Elmira. wach, left for his home in San Francisco/this forenoon.

The funeral of the late Catherine S Davis occurred this afternoan, Rev M weeks. L Rose conducting the religious services The attendance was large. Mrs Win Preston of Eugene, are visit- Grove, Oregon.

ing the family of T H Hunsaker, in this city. They are old time friends.

where they went to attend the funeral California. of Mr Wilkins' sister, Mrs A A Bentley, the ranges are doing fine and are in morning." better conditson than they were two months ago. J W Sherwood of Portland, state noon en route to Ashland to institute a conduct the services. The Dallas Observer mentions the following gentlemen for U S senatorial timber: "Judge M C George, Judge F A Moore, Hon H B Miller, Judge George H Burnett, Hon J B Eddy, Hon S M Yoran, and others."

John Paul Jones, the handsons S B Eakin, cashier of the First Na- traverling passenger agent of the S P tional Bank, left on this forenoon's was in Eugene last night. Wm Stites, the son of the Albany postmaster, died in that city yesterday Mr and Mrs Chas Hill of the Belknap of consumptian, aged 26 years. Springs, returned to the city last night The commissioners court yesterday from a two months visit at Portland allowed Delos D Neer, architect of the new court house, the sum of $275. P M Mctherson was appointed read ty has been elected chairman of the supervisor, by the county commiscents.

visit Eugene.

populist county central committee of sioners court, of road district Ne 7. Mr and Mrs Harry Brown returned

FRIDAY JANUATY 28

S A Hul'n came down from Crawe

R A Copple went to Corvallia this

T E Carnaban came up from Pon.

Mrs J C Richardson arrived home

Miss Ella Mulkey left for Halay

Mrs G S O Humber went to June

Mrs S D Holt returned from Kon

Mrs W Kuykendall returned home

I D Driver, D D, was a passenger

This is President McKinley's birth

G E Detmering, the hop man, came

January wheat was bid up to $1.15

Secretary Kincaid and son Webster,

Dallas Itemizer: Mr Kemp of Law.

isville, has sold 73 bales of hops at 11;

The Baptist missionary car Em.

manuel is in Medford. In time it will

Dr A Sharples returned today from came up from Salem this afternoon.

today.

morbing.

land today.

this morning.

this morning.

tion this morning.

mouth this afternoon.

from Drain this morning.

north on today's 10:50 local.

up from Salem this afternoon.

per bushel in Chicago yesterday.

Mrs and Miss Kinsey returned from Salem last night. They went for a ten days visit but were away five

A marriage license was issued today by County Clerk A C Jennings to Ray Thursday's Medford Miner: Mr and Land and Anna Cole, both of Cottage

Bud Thompson, at one time a resident of Eugene, well known as a news-Mr and Mrs F M Wilkins arrived paper man in the early days of the home from Monmouth this afternoon, state, is now editing a paper in Alturas,

The following from the Ontarie, Malheur county, News of Jan 28th P N Laird of Plessant Hill was in makes one feel chilly: "7º below zero town today. He says that stock on Monday morning-10° below this

Cottage Grove Leader: The Christian church of this city contemplates holding a series of revival meetings at

"Charlie Cook, who has been in poor orous senate. health for a year past, died Monday

In plain words he cannot deliver afternoon, aged 22 years, 7 months and 5 days. He made a manly fight, but the goods. when that dread disease, consumption,

GLASS AND THE DINGLEY BILL. rehef. Funeral services were held at and the remains were interred in Odd Last week A M Peery, of Mc-Minnville bumped up against the his father, the late Isaae Cock. Fellows cemetery beside the grave of Dingley bill, says the Telephone-Register. A window light in his A WOMAN DIVINE .- Mrs Ella M house was broken and he took it to Humbert, of the Eugene Divinity School, will conduct services and head. a glazier to have a new one put in. preach in the Christian church at Upon paying for it he found the Junction Uity tomorrow at 11 a m.

price of the glass was one dollar. She will also give a beture at 7:20 been filled for seventy-five cents. missionary work. Upon Mr Peery inquiring as to the increased costs he was informed that the Dingley bill was the cause ofit. Upon further inquiry he learned that the profit to the dealer was less when sold for a dollar than when sold at seventy five cents. The man employed in setting the glass received no more for his some talk of an extra session of the less meals she prepared, and ere the hour labor than formerly,

UNION IN COUNTY AND STATE.

The Peoples Press, Peoples party, why the same members should be shepherd king, which indeed he could called together to make another had devoted himself much to color a performance of Albany Linn county is in favor

"Indications now point strongly to a union state ticket to be named at Portland on March 23. Union on the part of the state ticket ought to be followed by union on crat or silver republican who is in want of a mental tonia" county tickets. We therefore, favor of supporting the political able. He had been a keen observer of men think that both the people's and democratic county conventions should be held in Albany on the same day and a ticket nominated by both conventions that will be tion for the coming June campaign, nor the danr, dead wife. Perhaps be could not trust himself to speak of these with tair and equitable."

The Milton Eagle gets facetious, probably bought by the Simon. rose to leave the room to fetch in This is its latest:

"Say! Juneau Yukon dig gold in election of men who will settle Carclessly I noted in Alaska where it is cold enough to finally upon us the gold standard early. Chill(a)cat? Dyea see?"

heresy.

She was very simply dressed in a wel made blue werge gown, but her soft, low volce, a little nervous in its accents, was beyond all possibility of doubt the volce of a lady. I was so much fascinated by that voice -a deep, musical one, the kind that haunts you, with the tiniest suspicion of a marks its victim death alone brings foreign accent in it, and yet not foreign either-that I scarcely know how I stumthe residence Tuesday by Rev Rounds blied through the usual questions.

What is your name? " Mary Steven."

"Have you any written character?" 'Noni

"Can you give any references?" No, ma'am.

A pause

Suddenly she preudly raised her pretty shoulder. please!") several times, but without effect. He had then tried to get by without call

"I have no character, madam, and n references. I shall not tell you anything about myself 152 may name. I like your face. You seem a motherly, Christian The year before the same sish had p m along the lines of educational and woman." (Motheriz, and, again, woman to mell

"I like you," continued this strange creature, "and if you are willing to give me a quiet corner in your household and from the sides of the battleship nothing-"I believe you will find mea Maine in Havana harbor, They capable cook and a fullihot servant. Quite a little speech, you see, with dellwill keep the treacherous Spaniard entecheeks all ablanc, and tiny hands nervously elinched. "My dear," said I impulsively, "I will tak e you on trust.

So my new cook came home. Four faultfor the fifth arrived Harry Gordon arrived legislature now that Corbeti failed anno

For an error into ino 1 distinctly learned bim erry out, 'Make way ''' "Then,'' said the vierroy sternly, ''if you heard bim ask you to make way for bim, why did you not? The fault of the section of the sector." He was a tall, thin, quiet man, with senate. It surely must be all tark wavy hair, almost pure while, though he could not be over 40, brushed back off his needdent was entirely with yourself, and you must give this poor man compensa-tion for the rouths you have given him in introduce the second bringing him here."-Youth's Compantion Indeed, if Jim's rapturous necount could be believed, a great future lay before

The McMinnville Telephone. him in that direction, could be only shake off the load of depression which appeared Register says the populist, demo- to be ressing on him. He seemed, as my husband remarked aside to me, "in great can be put down in the records as composure-at least not yet. a man of poer judgment, or a man for us, and a short time after dinner he out the linen.

Scott organization to assist in the heard a light footstep ascending the stairs. mean by starting a monthly magazine

"It is Mary going to bed. She was up that he could get his poems published. "--Detroit Free Press.

lodge at that place. More than an hour later we went up stairs, to find our guest and my cerk sit-ting on the big sofa before the drawing Harrisburg item: Mr E J Hearn has disposed of his grocery store to a room fire, meither of them saying much Mr Morgan, who will still centinue apparently, but the little brown head nestling where it should always have been the store. Mr Hearn exchanged for and measureless content in both their eyes. some real estate in Junction.

The Albany Democrat is informed that the probability is that Jay Swank, The Duke of Cesane, while viceroy of Naples, delivered many quaint and elever judgments. The case is related where a young Spanish exquisite named Bertrand against his living very long. Solus, while lounging around in the busy tor carrying a bundle of wood on his The porter had called out, "Make way, pledges of the St Louis platform must be fulfilled. Many notable republicans wore present. Who Mayer today telegraphed from man's velvet dress and tora is. Solus was highly indignant and had the parter ar rested. The viewoy, who had privately investigated the matter, told the parter to Les Venns, New Mexico: "Ono F CRAW, Eugene: Will protond he was donn't and at the trial to reply by signs to any question that might home Two-day. Snow-bound.

WM MAYER."

The estate of the late M F : Mulkey of Fortland, new amounts to $100,000.

the performed assessments what no had no say in reply. The performing shock his head and made signs with his hands, "What judgment do you want me to give sgainst a dumb mane" asked the vice-

'Oh, your excellency," replied Solias, falling into the trap, "like man is an impostor. I assure you he is not drinh. He Typan has asked for and received a try, about 12 miles cast of Scio." fore he ran into me I distinctly heard him sixty day lay off, Conductor Sam Veatch has taken place his on the overland and conductor J M Hansbrough has taken Veatch's run on the through freight.

> night from Astoria, where they have date almost in full. been spending the winter. They will go to their home at Belknap springs in

It is said that when littens are badly first-class order for the season

> Minor Gray and wife of Mohawk were in Eugene today. The former is of his brother who will start in a short are very good. time "to the land of gold and the land CIRCUIT COURT CASE-The Mitchell, on the farm.

A O U W, accompanied by S A Mc- circuit court to set aside a deed. Fadden, of Salem, grand master of this "What under the sun does Humply state, went to Cottage Grove this after-Last chance to save a big bet he made to Astoria, Mr Tate will go to Vic. parents at Hebron, Or, Rev Samuel toria, B C.

Albany Democrat: Last spring in a prize oratorical contest in the Coraccidentally shot at Lower Soda, will vallis College, the prize of $50 was in trecover, and that the chances are awarded Thos Medley. It has just been learned that the oration was tak-President McKinley spoke at the though Medley has the $50 the honors Manufacturers' banquet in Philadel- bave been taken from him and awarded to another.

> AT THE U P CHURCH. - Albany Democrat: A large audience was in attendance at the United Presbyterian church last evening to hear Rev T J Wilson, of Eugene. The sermon was a simple but foreible presentation of the gospel and was listened to with marked attention.

The sole heirs are Frank M and Fred Salem Journal is referred to Lark W Mulkey. Both the young men are Bilyeu for explanation: "Hansen & well known in Eugene, being gradu- Landon, the local sash and door manufacturers are establishing a saw mill Reseburg Review: Conductor Pat in the 'Bilgen Den' lumbering coun-

WILL ASSIGN .- A Salem dispatch says that E F Osburn, whose store has been closed by attachment, is preparing to make a general assignment for the benefit of all creditors, and the stock C M Hill and wife arrived here last is expected to realize enough to liqui-

To ALASKA,-Jake Klein and Peter a day or two and put that resort in Neusbaum went to Portland today and on Feb 8 will leave for Dyes, and from there push their way into the interior. Mr Klein was there last year employed at the asylum farm in place and thinks their prospects this season of cold" while Mrs Gray is baching Lewis & Staver Co, a corporation, vs Malvina J Hays et al, is the title of a J G Tate, past supreme master of the suit instituted in the Lane county

MARRIED .- H D Baughman and noon. They will go south to Ashland, May Massey were married Wednesday, and returning through this valley and Jan 26, at the residence of the bride's Baughman officiating.

secreted the spot can be removed if treated in the following mannet: Extract the juice from two pochet enters and put into an agate or granite vossel. Add to half an ounce of white castile scap cut in small pleces and tounces of fuller's carti Mix them together and then stir in a cu of vinegar. Stand the vessel over the fir and let its contents thoroughly buil. When the mixture has become cool, spread It over the scorched linen and let it day upon the cloth. When wall dried, wash

Her room was on the top flat, and to to get his seat in the Unite i States for no one can assign any reason temples. Not at all my ideal of an Australian Not at all my ideal of an Australian 1100

