

What President McKinley Used to Think of the Cleveland Single Gold Standard—This was Before he met Hanna and Others.

Only a little over seven years ago Major McKinley, the present President of the United States, was a bimetalist and was making what we now term "red hot" speeches against Grover Cleveland and the single gold standard policy he was seeking to force upon the American people...

"During all of his years at the head of the government [meaning the time during his first administration] he was dishonoring one of the precious metals, one of our own greatest products, discrediting silver and enhancing the price of gold."

The Spanish consul and officers of New York have received orders to come home at once. The navy department has called Commander Brownson home, who has been in Europe purchasing war vessels.

A cable from Madrid says that a satisfactory settlement has been reached between Spain and the United States. President McKinley announces that his reason for delaying his message is to give all Americans time to leave Cuba.

Senator Allen of Nebraska today tendered to Governor Holcomb his services in case of war with Spain. A later cable from Spain gives the information that tomorrow the Queen Regent will make public the announcement of an immediate armistice in Cuba.

Ed Smith, Geo Sides and Mr Needham have gone to Eastern Oregon. The republican club of this precinct has elected B F Russell Jr, for president and Geo Price secretary.

INSPIRED TELEGRAMS.

Members of congress are receiving scores of telegrams from bankers and corporations appealing to them to sustain the "wise peace policy" of the president. Many of the telegrams are couched in practically the same language, showing they are inspired from the same source.

The Cape Verde islands, where the Spanish torpedo fleet is rendezvoused, are in the North Atlantic ocean off the coast of Africa, about 1500 miles southwest of Spain.

The Cape Verde islands, where the Spanish torpedo fleet is rendezvoused, are in the North Atlantic ocean off the coast of Africa, about 1500 miles southwest of Spain, in latitude 15 degrees south, and longitude 25 west.

McKINLEY DELAYS

He Wants to Wait Until Monday.

CONGRESSMEN ANGRY

Spanish Officers Called Home from New York.

BROWNSON CALLED HOME

The Cubans Will Move on Havana at Once.

THE POPE EXPLAINS

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 6.—President McKinley has given notice that his message will not be ready until next Monday.

Many senators and congressmen are greatly disappointed over the president's action in this regard, and declare that he must change his policy.

The Spanish consul and officers of New York have received orders to come home at once.

The navy department has called Commander Brownson home, who has been in Europe purchasing war vessels.

Generals Gomez and Garcia, of the insurgent army, have united their forces and will immediately move on Havana.

An official dispatch from Rome says the Pope never offered mediation between the United States and Spain.

WASHINGTON, April 6—4:50 p.m.—The house committee on foreign affairs in their meeting today voted to wait for the president's message.

A cable from Madrid says that a satisfactory settlement has been reached between Spain and the United States.

President McKinley announces that his reason for delaying his message is to give all Americans time to leave Cuba.

Senator Allen of Nebraska today tendered to Governor Holcomb his services in case of war with Spain.

A later cable from Spain gives the information that tomorrow the Queen Regent will make public the announcement of an immediate armistice in Cuba.

Ed Smith, Geo Sides and Mr Needham have gone to Eastern Oregon.

The republican club of this precinct has elected B F Russell Jr, for president and Geo Price secretary.

Amelia Wellman, aged 6 years, who was recently brought from Eugene to the county farm, suffering with erythematitis is materially improved.

The school at this place opened Monday for the spring term. Eugene Bond is teacher.

For Sale on Easy Terms. A nice home in the heart of the city; good house and outbuildings, all in good repair. I am instructed by the owner to offer this property for sale for 10 days.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know.

Is it not about time the country had another declaration of independence. This time from the bondage of Wall Street?

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The best remedy for children in the world...

SAFE IN SAN JUAN HARBOR.

Cruisers Vizcaya and Almirante Oquendo Arrive at Porto Rico.

NEW YORK, April 6.—A Herald dispatch from San Juan, Porto Rico says: The Spanish cruisers Vizcaya and Almirante Oquendo, which sailed from Havana last Friday, have arrived here, and are at anchor in the harbor.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

The harbor off San Juan is recognized among naval men as the best point at which Spain could put the flotilla for strategic purposes, and it is a matter of wonderment here that the United States did not take some action before the cruisers departed from Havana.

Don't Forget

From Creswell.

CREWELL, April 6. The republicans of Creswell precinct met last Saturday in P Noland's hall and elected delegates to the county convention.

Quite a number of persons in this vicinity are just recovering from the "grippe."

John Handsaker was visiting relatives and friends in this place Friday and Saturday.

School began last Monday with Miss Alice Smith as teacher.

Howard Baughman has sold to P N Laird 98 acres from the north side of his farm.

We understand that Eph Mathews has sold his interest in property here to his brother Bert, and will move to Goshen soon.

Dalton Baughman left yesterday for Bear Creek, where he will teach the spring term of school.

Miss Bertha Sergeant of Dexter, will attend school here this spring.

Wm and Forrest Drury and Claud Parks left yesterday for the Kelley (Jones) saw mill, where they expect to work the coming summer.

Several large contracts for cordwood have been taken in this neighborhood and the sound of the ax is heard in all parts of the river bottom near here.

Mrs D W Bridges, who has been for two weeks past, in Eugene at the bedside of her mother, Mrs M McCall, who was dangerously ill, returned home last week, her mother being somewhat improved.

Berlice Warbinton will leave this week for Rush Island, where he will teach the spring term of school.

Dexter Items.

April 6. John Guiley and family visited at Eugene Tuesday, returning Wednesday.

Rev Blackwell preached at the Dexter schoolhouse last Saturday evening, and John Handsaker, a Divinity school student, occupied the stand Sunday at 11 a d 3 o'clock.

Riley Gorti is the proud father of a girl baby, and Holcov Wheeler has also taken a girl to raise.

The Trent Mill Co finish cutting their logs this week.

Isaac Higgins made a business trip to Eugene the first of the week.

The Dexter school began Monday with Mr Ringo of Coburg as teacher.

Miss Lena Chandler, of Coburg, will teach the upper Lost Valley school.

Miss Jennie Parvin went to Unity Sunday, where she will begin a term of school on Monday. We bespeak for her success.

Deputy Assessor Callison was assessing this precinct Monday and Tuesday.

YORAN & SON Have the Best $1.50 and $2.00 Shoes Ever sold in Eugene.

From South Lane.

EDENVALE, April 4, '08. Quite a number of persons in this vicinity are just recovering from the "grippe."

John Handsaker was visiting relatives and friends in this place Friday and Saturday.

School began last Monday with Miss Alice Smith as teacher.

Howard Baughman has sold to P N Laird 98 acres from the north side of his farm.

We understand that Eph Mathews has sold his interest in property here to his brother Bert, and will move to Goshen soon.

Dalton Baughman left yesterday for Bear Creek, where he will teach the spring term of school.

Miss Bertha Sergeant of Dexter, will attend school here this spring.

Wm and Forrest Drury and Claud Parks left yesterday for the Kelley (Jones) saw mill, where they expect to work the coming summer.

Several large contracts for cordwood have been taken in this neighborhood and the sound of the ax is heard in all parts of the river bottom near here.

Mrs D W Bridges, who has been for two weeks past, in Eugene at the bedside of her mother, Mrs M McCall, who was dangerously ill, returned home last week, her mother being somewhat improved.

Berlice Warbinton will leave this week for Rush Island, where he will teach the spring term of school.

Dexter Items.

April 6. John Guiley and family visited at Eugene Tuesday, returning Wednesday.

Rev Blackwell preached at the Dexter schoolhouse last Saturday evening, and John Handsaker, a Divinity school student, occupied the stand Sunday at 11 a d 3 o'clock.

Riley Gorti is the proud father of a girl baby, and Holcov Wheeler has also taken a girl to raise.

The Trent Mill Co finish cutting their logs this week.

Isaac Higgins made a business trip to Eugene the first of the week.

The Dexter school began Monday with Mr Ringo of Coburg as teacher.

Miss Lena Chandler, of Coburg, will teach the upper Lost Valley school.

Miss Jennie Parvin went to Unity Sunday, where she will begin a term of school on Monday. We bespeak for her success.

Deputy Assessor Callison was assessing this precinct Monday and Tuesday.

Rev Blackwell is in this section planning to build a M E church at this place. A good proposition.

New Goods

New Dress Skirts, New Shirt Waists, New Ribbons, New Capes.

New Sashes and Ties...

New Laces. * * * * * New Embroideries. * * * * *

NEW WHITE GOODS.

OUR CARPET DEPARTMENT

Is full of good things. Choice and nobby patterns.

OUR Wall Paper

CALL AND SEE IT.

Just Rubber at that Wall Paper in Griffin Hardware Co's Window.

P. S.—10,000 rolls just received.

The Composite Shoe...

is the Best $3 Shoe made for Women.

Every shoe warranted to give the best of service.

LOOK at PRICE BUY Them.....They will suit.

AIR-TIGHT...STOVES

LOOK at PRICE BUY Them.....They will suit.

S. L. LONG.

Day & Henderson, Undertakers and Embalmers, Cor. Will. and 7th sts.

J. W. KAYS FURNITURE ENBALMERS and FUNERAL DIRECTOR.

Superior Photographs. Excelsior all others.

Studio of the Photo Company. AX BILLY.