Oregon Troops Still in California.

Special to the Guard.

WASHINGTON, July 27; 6:30 p.m.—It is announced that the present intention of the United States as one of the features of Commodore Watson's visit East with a fleet is to seize the Canary Islands, the ultimate object being to hold at least one of them for an Eastern coaling and naval station.

The department of state announces that tomorrow, if possible, Spain will be given an answer to her note regarding peace as presented by M. Cambon, the French ambassador. As the application for peace only makes a plea in a general way, with no suggestions or specific statements, it is evident that the Madrid government first wants to find out whether or not the United States is willing to enter upon an armistice until terms can be talked over, and it is this only that the department of state can answer.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—It is learned that the Oregon troops are not to be included among those sailing Friday. This will be a disappointment as they are anxious to join their regiment, having been temporarily made part of the Minnesota volunteers.

PORTSMOUTH, July 27.—A German vessel attempted to run the blockade today, but was promptly stopped and warned away.

NEW ORLEANS, July 27.—Five Spaniards, claiming to have escaped from Havana, arrived in this city today. They tell tales of great suffering at Cuba's capital.

Mr. E. R. Quitt Claims the Mill Property to Midgley & Chambers.

This morning Wm and Mary M. E. R. Quitt, in consideration of the sum of $1,500 and the surrender of a certain note held by George Midgley against William, Mary M. W. B. and K. S. E. R. dated Feb. 7, 1894 for the sum of $8,100, gave a quit claim deed to all the Mill Company property located in and adjoining Eugene, to George Midgley and F. L. Chambers.

This is a valuable piece of property, as it is one of the best water powers in the upper Willamette valley.

The purchasers are young, energetic, wide-awake business men, who will improve the property as occasion demands.

We are glad to see the tangled condition of the property satisfactorily settled, as it means considerable to Eugene.

Married.

Daily Guard, July 28.

The marriage of two of Eugene's best known young people occurred last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Davis, corner of Ferry and Thirteenth streets. The principals to the happy event were Miss Henrietta Davis and Mr. W. R. Hollenbeck. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Morton L. Rose in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Davis standing with them. At the conclusion of the sacred rites, the usual congratulations were extended, after which light refreshments were served.

A number of presents of a useful and ornamental nature were received by the bride and groom.

The popularity of the young couple will cause their determination to launch forth on the sea of matrimony to be a source of congratulation to their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollenbeck have taken up their residence on East Twelfth street, and will be at home to friends after August 1.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hollenbeck, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hollenbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Davis, Rev. and Mrs. Morton L. Rose, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Dale, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bristow, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McPherson, Misses Fona Davis, Mae Hollenbeck, Margaret Hollenbeck, Stella Rowland, Vinnie Knapp, Dottie Dale, Messrs J. W. Hollenbeck, H. W. Rowland, O. F. Callison, Clara Bristow, Delton Dickinson.

Its Fame (?) Spreading.

A Portland paper says of a "show" (?) now exhibiting in that city—not unknown to Eugene:

"The Wizard oil is a fake and a fraud. The free show adjacent to it should be stopped. The reputable physicians of Portland should have influence enough to stop the skinning of the Portland public in this infamous manner. Why does the press not show the public how they are being buncoed and their health and lives perhaps forfeited by using such medicines as Wizard oil."

WANTED.—(5000) Two thousand, 39 inch No. 1 cedar shakes. Address me at Eugene, stating price, delivered at my farm.

NORRIS HUMPHREY.

G. D. Gibson, of Pomeroy, Wash. says that Pomeroy is one of the greatest wheat-shipping points in the world. It contains only about 1000 inhabitants but shipped 2,500,000 bushels of wheat last year. This year it will ship 3,000,000. Barley over there is worth 75 to 80 cents per hundred weight, 24,000 bushels having recently been sold at the latter figure.

From one end of the land to the other it has been published that the United States would have this year the greatest surplus of wheat for export in its history. The result is the price of wheat has been affected. The crop, however, promises to fall far below expectations and the demand for wheat will likely stiffen in consequence.

H. L. Yeaser, of Seattle, when alive was reported to be a millionaire, and the richest man in the city. His estate has now been sold and the entire receipts were $110,000, which will pay only about 60 per cent of the claims against the estate. Thus do big estates sometimes dwindle, and men reported to be worth millions are worth less than nothing when their debts are paid.

THE NEW COMPANY

Captain J. M. Williams, Lieutenants J. A. Currie and H. T. Condon.

THE FIRST TO ORGANIZE.
Daily Guard, July 28.
In Eugene last night, Col. James Jackson, U. S. A., mustering officer of the new Oregon National Guard, officially completed the task of bringing into existence the first company of the new organization. The company's name on the muster roll was left blank, but will probably be company "A".

The company proceeded to the selection of its officers resulting in J. M. Williams being named as captain, J. A. Currie, first lieutenant, and H. T. Condon second lieutenant. As not a little clerical work falls upon the first sergeant of a company, and in order to keep all records accurate Captain Williams at once named his first sergeant, selecting D. E. Yoran, sergeant-major of the late Second Regiment, O. N. G. The other appointive officers will be named later on. A call for another meeting of the company has been made for next Monday night, Aug. 1.

In all 63 men have passed the required physical examination, and at the mustering 57 were present. The others who were unavoidably absent from the city will be regularly mustered in later on.

Regarding equipments Col. Jackson says that while guns can be procured in a few days, it will be some time before the uniforms can be expected. Uncle Sam's wardrobe is almost empty now, the equipment of a large army of volunteers taking all the clothing on hand.

The roster of the new company to date is published below. As 76 can join an extra effort will be made to fill the company to the limit:

A SCULPTOR.

Clever Work of a Lane County genius.

In the south window of Yoran & Son's shoe store is exhibited a bust in clay of President McKinley. The work was done by U. J. Barnum, who resides about eight miles west of Eugene. The only model used by Mr. Barnum was a campaign lithograph of the president.

The clay model is perfect in form the conception of the artist, for such he can correctly be termed, being magnificent. Every outline is so true to nature as to gain the praise it merits from those who have viewed the bust. It would be worth the time of everyone to inspect the work.

Mr. Barnum is only 24 years old, and is related somewhat to Phineas T. Barnum, of circus fame. His gift is a natural one, never having received instructions from any one. With the opportunity presented Mr. Barnum will place another name high in the artists world, alongside of Homer Davenport, the caricaturist, and Miss Maude Hoffman and Mark Ellsworth of historic fame. Oregon is proud of her talented young people, and will watch their future welfare with interest.

Soldiers Sing "God Save the Queen."

In Tampa, Fla., the other day American soldiers did a thing that would have raised a protest a year ago. They joined in singing "God Save the Queen" in honor of Victoria's birthday.

It is really astonishing how sentiment has changed since England has openly sympathized with the United States in our war with Spain. Radical changes in the relations of nations are no more wonderful, however, than the marked changes of individuals who are restored to health by that great medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It is no unusual thing for people who are thin, weakly and all run down to show a marked improvement in a few weeks after taking this medicine, which overcomes nearly every known disease arising from a disordered stomach.

THE TERRIBLE STRAIN

Glen Benedict, Oregon Volunteer Adjudged Insane.

ONE SOLDIER AN EMBEZZLER.
Special to the Guard.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—D. S. Young, of the 20th Kansas Volunteers stationed at Presidio, has been arrested charged with embezzling government supplies and selling the same.

Private Glen Benedict, Oregon Volunteers, has been adjudged insane and the order is made that he be discharged on account of his sickness.

Glen O. Benedict was one of the last squad, 26 in number, leaving Eugene, under the call made to fill Oregon companies up to the army fighting strength, 103 men to the company. The squad stationed at Presidio waiting for a transport to convey them to Manila, where they will become part of company C, under Captain Moon.

Private Benedict is a son of Attorney and Mrs. E. E. Benedict of this city, and has many friends who will regret to learn of his illness and hope that it will prove only temporary. He has been a student of the U. of O. for several years.

INTERVIEWING FRUIT MEN.

Ernest Peycke Looking After Oregon Fruit.

Daily Guard, July 28.
Ernest Peycke, of Omaha, Nebraska, head of the greatest commission house in the middle west visited Eugene last night and today, for the purpose of getting acquainted with our fruit growers.

He thinks dried prunes will bring better prices than last year. He says one of the greatest faults with Oregon fruits is poor packing and grading. For instance, 50 to 60 prunes he says generally turn out 61's when they ought not go above 55 or 56. This hurts our fruit with jobbers. The French prune he says is the better seller.

He visited Norris Humphrey's orchard, and thinks that he will have ten to twelve car loads of dried prunes. Mr. Peycke is delighted with Oregon.

WITH BEST WISHES.—Prof. F. S.

Dunn and family was given a pleasant farewell party at Salem last night. The St. James says that every endeavor was made by all present to show that they were thoroughly appreciated in Salem, and it can be said in all truth, the effort was a genuine success. The affair was delightful as it was informal. Every art of good fellowship was used to make their last social honor one of exceeding pleasure. An impromptu program was rendered. Rev. George W. Grannis, D. D., on behalf of the University, the church the choir and the Epworth league, then said some of the kindest things possible and conveyed to the family the genial intent of the meeting. Self, indicating, in the most unqualified way, the individual and collective appreciation felt for the departing friends, his generous expressions. Professor Dunn made the amplest return, in grateful counter-offerings of regret at parting from the old and dear. A dainty collation was served to which one and all did full justice, warranted not alone by its real excellence, but by the additional fact that perhaps it was the last luncheon that might be shared in many a long day.

BOTANICAL RESEARCH

Government Departments Interested in Oregon Herbs.

Prof. Frederic V. Coville, of Washington, D. C. arrived in Eugene yesterday. The gentleman is head of the botanical division of the department of agriculture, and in his visit to Oregon combines a visit that can but prove a pleasant recollection of the west, as well as attending to important work for the government.

Prof. Coville arrived in Oregon in time to accept an invitation for a climb to the top of St. Helens with the Mazamas, and while on the trip met Prof. E. H. McAllister of the University of Oregon.

Leaving Eugene tomorrow morning Prof. Coville will go to Hazel Dell, meeting there by appointment, members of the party who are journeying through the mountains from the south. From this point they will go to the summit of the mountains on the military road, then work their way to the Three Sisters.

To a botanist or geologist this section of Oregon is one of extreme interest, and the information gained by the party while on this trip will vastly benefit the botanical department of the government.

Gradually Oregon is attracting the attention of scientists, and in their researches is found much that tends to make text books for students of the future generation more lucid.

CRABTREE ELECTED.

Judge Burnett Gives the Decision to Frank Crabtree by one Vote.

Daily Guard, July 28.

Yesterday's Albany Democrat "Judge Burnett called court this afternoon at 1 o'clock and took up the case of Van Winkle agt. Crabtree, the contest case for the county clerkship of Linn county. He decided that the votes of Fred Gross and H. B. Boyle (illegal votes) for Van Winkle (the office should not be counted. This gave the election to Crabtree by the original plurality of 1 and the vote now stands: Crabtree 1917, Van Winkle 1916.

"The decision is a just one. During the trial Judge Burnett was generally commended for the fairness and uprightness of his decisions. He absolutely cast aside any political sentiment in his judgment of points at issue."

Two Sermons.

Corvallis Times: Two sermons were preached in Corvallis Sunday by Rev. Herbert Johnson, pastor of the First Baptist church of Pittsfield, Massachusetts. Local interest attached to the meetings for the reason that the young preacher is an Oregon boy, with numerous relatives in this city. The first sermon was preached in the First Methodist church and a large audience was present. The text was from Micah, sixth chapter and eighth verse, which in effect says that all God requires of man is "to do justly, love mercy and to walk in humility with thy God." The thought was profound and was delivered with a charm that held the undivided attention of those who listened. The second sermon was delivered in the First Presbyterian church, and was in the nature of a union service, all other churches being closed in honor of the occasion. The theme was the "Importance of Small Things," and the speaker showed the significance that attaches to the minor acts or sayings in a human life. All the people who could crowd into the church were present and the service was of uncommon interest.

The Surprise of All.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with LaGrippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into Hasty Consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottle at Wilkins & Linn Drug Store.
