THE STEAMER LOELLA

A Florence Built Boat Makes Her

First Trip.

A VALUABLE CARGO.

Florence, Wash., Dec. 9.

The Loella, the staunch vessel built here this summer leaves this morning on her first trip to San Francisco. There the necessary boilers and machinery will be placed in her and she will be fitted up as a steamer.

The Roberts will tow her to Coos bay when she will be taken in charge by a larger tug and towed to San Francisco.

Preparations for her departure have been pushed as fast as possible, the carpenters having just finished their work last evening, though loading the vessel was commenced nearly a week ago.

Her cargo is probably the most valuable one ever taken out of the Stiuslaw.

It consists of 53,000 cases of canned salmon, about 70 barrels salt salmon, 1350 boxes of apples, several cases of merchandise and a quantity of hides.

When a man dies now days the first thing they ask is, was he insured and for how much? The papers usually wind up the obituary notice with the amount of insurance. Soon the obituary notice will read something like this: Peter Jones died and left a wife and two children. Loss fully covered by insurance. Or if the deceased is not insured it will read about as follows:

John Smith is dead. He leaves a wife, total loss, no insurance.

"In addition to this, many articles written about Portland and the coast will be copied all over the East, and there is really no way of estimating the good we can get out of this gathering of scribes, if we only handle them in the proper way.

"While few of them have been to the Pacific coast, nearly all of them have been about, and know good treatment. Some of them go to the meeting of the National Association every year, and are accustomed to being entertained on a grand scale; therefore, the only thing for Portland to do is to entertain them in a way that they haven't been accustomed to heretofore.

"We have a country and a climate out here that will be a revelation to many of them, and we have a city that can put on a good bit of airs when she is so minded, and there has not been such an opportunity offered her in this way before in many years.

"There are hundreds of eyes in the East that eagerly read everything they see about the West, and within the next few years thousands of people are coming out this way, and it is to be hoped that the committees having this matter in charge will arrange for the reception of the editors on a scale which will be worthy of the occasion."

FILES HER PROTEST

Spain Accepts the Consequences Natu-

A MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTIONS

MADRID, Dec 11.—The government entirely approves the memorandum of protest against the action of the United States commissioners, filed by Senor Montero Rios, of Paris.

The memorandum protests against the refusal of the Americans to surrender the securities deposited in the treasuries of Cuba and Porto Rico by private Spaniards, remarking that,

"never has a civilized nation committed such an act of violence."

Secondly, it protests against the ultimatum demanding the Philippines.

Thirdly, it protests against the position in which those Spaniards are placed who desire to remain in Cuba.

Fourthly, it protests against the reference to the destruction of the Maine in President McKinley's message to congress. On this point the memorandum says:

"Spain has proposed arbitration, but the United States has refused to give her the right which is granted to a criminal; namely, the right of de-

CHRISTMAS CHARITY

The General Committee Held Its First

PRELIMINARY WORK OUTLINED

Daily Guard, Dec 13.

The general committee on Christmas donations held its first meeting last night in the M. E. church parlors.

Seventeen different societies were represented by one or more members of their respective committees, to the number of 35.

The general plan of the work was outlined, and a second meeting set for next Saturday afternoon at three o'clock at the M. E. church.

Officers of the committee were chosen as follows: Chairman, E. D.

Ressler; Vice Chairman, Mrs. T. W.

Harris; Secy., H. W. Rowland; Treasurer, Rev. J. T. Abbott.

The blanks for information concerning the needy families will be sent out tomorrow through the school children.

Supt. Ressler sends the following letter:

Eugene, Oregon, Dec 12, 1898.

TO THE PUBLIC:—Following the time-honored custom of the public schools of Eugene, we invite all so disposed to

HAYSEED WATERLOO

U of O Victorious on the Gridiron

SPLENDID TEAM WORK

U of O 38, O A C 0. This score tells briefly the story of one of the greatest football contests ever witnessed in Oregon. The victory for the lemon was as fair as it was complete, as brilliant as it was surprising. Certainly more than two-thirds of the 1000 people that gathered about the arena

Saturday afternoon expected to see

U of O defeated. It was believed that the hayseed eleven would present a line as formidable to U of O as a granite wall, while the heavy weights of the college center were counted on to brush U of O's forwards aside at will when the offensive play demanded it. It was expected that the swift runners behind O A C's line would circle U of O's ends, while the latter's backs were not looked upon as likely to pass Buxton and McBride. But the hayseed generals had reckoned without the visitors. The game of a week ago had apparently been but a splendid training for the Eugene men, as they demonstrated their superiority at every

With the view of sending each one

Mr _____, Eugene, Oregon:

DEAR SIR: The Oregonian will not
