EUGENE FOOTBALL BOYS.

Several of Them Played at Portland Today.

Sunday's Oregonian has an article on the New Year's football contest between Multnomah Athletic Club and the Y M C A team, which took place at Portland today. It gives a two column picture of "Monk" Eastland in football uniform. The Eugene boys receive notice in the following paragraph:

"The star of the team will undoubtedly be Simpson, of Berkeley, who coached the University of Oregon boys. He will be at tackle, and set as captain, and he promises to pull the Y M C A through all the formations and plays that he has taught them since he has been engaged as their instructor. Eastland will be the other tackle. Wilson, one of Eugene's best men, and Grant will be the guards. Kernan and Gault are down for the ends, but Kennedy, the Carlisle Indian, may head down one of the positions a part of the game. At center will be Pattee, the Indian giant from Chemawa. Holt may play quarter, but it is more likely that McLaughlan, the speedy youngster from Eugene, will take care of that berth. Healy and Patton will be the halves, and Randall, as usual, will be found at fullback."

Kansas Objects to Roberts.

Topo a, Kan, Dec 31.—The senate today adopted, by unanimous vote, a resolution requesting Kansas' representatives in congress to use their utmost endeavor to prevent the seating of B H Roberts, the polygamist, of Utah, as a member of the house of representatives. A similar resolution was adopted in the house yesterday, but went over under the rules.

2,000,000 Eggs Delivered and Placed in the Troughs.

Florence West, Dec 30: "The Roberts arrived here Saturday morning having on board 2,000,000 salmon eggs for the hatchery at Mapleton.

"The steamer made a trip up the river the same day and delivered the eggs at Mapleton. There they were taken in charge by Fred Bean and Emmett Sharpe and immediately placed in the hatchery troughs.

"Mr Bean informed us Monday that the eggs appeared to be in first class condition and that some of the young salmon are already breaking the shells."

FOR CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

New Law Provided by Representative E H Flagg.

ENDORSED HERE

A bill has been prepared by Representative E H Flagg, of Marion county, requiring that the execution of the death penalty be carried out in the state penitentiary in lead of in the county in which conviction is had. Mr Flagg invites criticism of the main features of the bill that amendments covering the points raised may also be presented to the legislature. It is the purpose of the framer of the bill to avoid that morbid sensationalism that goes with public hangings, and overcome the complaint of insecurity of county jails.

The bill provides that punishment of death must be inflicted by hanging the defendant by the neck until he is dead, and the judgment must be executed by the superintendent of the penitentiary or by some person specially appointed by him for that purpose. The day of the execution must be fixed by the superintendent of the penitentiary not less than 30 nor more than 60 days from the time of judgment. All executions shall take place within the inclosure of the state penitentiary or penitentiary yard, and in the presence of twelve bona fide electors of Marion county to be selected by the superintendent of the prison. The certificate of said electors shall be evidence of the faithful performance of said sentence. The executioner shall be allowed $25 and two witnesses shall receive the same per diem and mileage as jurors upon a court of record.

An appeal must be taken within twenty days after the judgment or order appealed from was given. May be taken at the time orally or by service of a notice in writing. An appeal stays the execution of the judgment upon filing. In case of appeal the defendant remains in the custody of the sheriff, who will detain him to abide the judgment upon the appeal. When a new trial is ordered in case of a judgment of death, the superintendent of the penitentiary shall deliver the body of the defendant to the sheriff of the county in which he was convicted, in time only to be tried at the next ensuing term. If judgment against defendant be reserved without ordering a new trial, the appellate court must direct that he be discharged from custody, or if he be admitted to bail that the same be exonerated.

"CLATSOP CHARLIE."

Seaside Murderer a Mysterious Man of Unknown Antecedents.

Charles Willard, the man who committed the reprehensible murders at Clatsop last week, and was himself killed, was a familiar personage to the summer frequenters of that resort.

He made his home in a tent in Grimes' grove. He reposed at night upon a bed that seldom, if ever, was indulged in such a thing as a change of sheets, and ranged about him was a collection of well-selected books, albeit a little the worse of wear.

He was a romantic figure, and walked with a shuffling gait. Erect and tall, his long black hair and mustache added not a little to his picturesque appearance. He was a singular man. He disliked posing as a subject for the numerous camera fiends who had a hankering to catch his likeness. At the same time he was generally very obliging, and had cultivated a gentle mein toward all.

He was generally known by the sobriquet of "Clatsop Charlie."

As to whence he came he never volunteered to state, but to the inquisitive ones who pressed the question, he replied that he came from Texas. He claimed also to have lived at one time in the vicinity of the Great Lakes, prior to his appearance in the Lone Star state.

He was not loth to quarrel, and would take an unfair advantage of antagonists. It was the general opinion that he was a fugitive from justice, and very few ever cared to cultivate his friendship during the seven years of his residence at the seaside.

At the Oregon state penitentiary Christmas was observed by rest for the prisoners, no work being done, though the usual daily exercise was given the men confined at the institution. On Sunday a good substantial dinner was served, a few delicacies being added to the customary excellent meal prepared. The additions consisted of pies and other products of the taker's art.

SENIOR ROMERO DEAD

The Mexican Minister Succumbed to a Surgical Operation.

WASHINGTON, Dec 30.—Senior Don Matias Romero, Mexican ambassador to the United States, who died at the embassy this morning, underwent an operation for appendicitis Wednesday, and although the operation was entirely successful the resulting shock proved greater than he could bear. Up to 1:30 o'clock this morning, however, it was thought he was in a fair way to recovery, but at that time a high fever set in, and he sank rapidly until death.

Romero was probably the best-known member of the diplomatic corps in Washington, and was for some time its dean. When Great Britain raised her mission to an embassy the added rank placed Sir Julian Pauncefote, British ambassador, at the head of the corps, though junior in years of service to Romero, who was raised only recently from the rank of minister to that of ambassador. Romero had represented his country at Washington 20 years.

HEAVY SNOW AT DUNSMUIR

Deepest Since 1893—Heavy Snow Keeps the Railroad Track Clear.

Dunsmuir, Cal, Jan 2.—There are three feet of snow on the ground here, this being the heaviest fall recorded since 1893. Although trains have been delayed, the railroad is still open. At times the storm increased to a gale, making it difficult for the snow plows to work. The rotary plow is doing excellent service, and it is thought that trains can be kept running.

MARRIAGES AND DIVORCES

156 of the Former and 32 of the Latter.

During the year 1898 the county clerk of Lane county issued 156 marriage licenses to people of Lane county. During the same period the circuit court of Lane county dissolved the marriage vows in 32 cases.

FUNERAL OF MRS. W. H. JAMES

Daily Guard, Jan 3.

Many of our readers will remember W H ("Willie") James, a son of a former county treasurer of Lane county, who grew to manhood years in this city. The family moved to North Yakima, Washington, where Mr James was married. Afterwards he accepted a position on the Sacramento Bee, which he still holds. His wife died recently leaving the husband and one son. The Yakima Republic of Dec 30, has a long account of the funeral services from which we take the following extract:

"The funeral of the late Mrs W H James occurred on Friday afternoon last, in the Episcopal church—the edifice being crowded and many friends of the deceased being unable to secure admittance. The Christmas season was forgotten everywhere, and sympathetic friends of the afflicted families and near associates of the departed one testified by their presence and their grief to the esteem and love in which Mrs James was held by all.

"The funeral offerings were beautiful. A magnificent casket of tubercles, mounted upon a high pedestal, resting upon the altar back of the coffin, was the gift of The Bee, Sacramento, with which paper the bereaved husband is associated; and wreaths, stars, festoons, and great bunches of exquisite blossoms came also from many friends."

GREAT NORTHERN RUMOR

May Come to the Beautiful Willamette Valley

AND TO SAN FRANCISCO.

The Republican Press, of Ukiah, Cal, comments on the rumor that James J Hill has in contemplation the extension of the Great Northern to Portland. It says that he "will doubtless in time reach out after the trade of the Willamette valley and the lumber regions of Northern California." It then goes on to say that it is believed by the knowing ones that Mr Hill will eventually extend his road to Eureka, there to connect with the California Northwestern, which will be built from Ukiah northward to that city. It this prediction should ever be realized the coast counties north of the bay would be immensely benefited. It would afford them a line of direct communication with the great Eastern cities, and thus new markets for California products would be found.

LA GRIPPE SUCCESSFULLY TREATED.

"I have just recovered from the second attack of la grippe this year," says Mr Jas A Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days against ten days for the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being struck with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'" HORTICULTURAL REPORT.

Henry E Doseh Speaks Interestingly of Oregon's Future.

Daily Guard Jan 3.

Henry E Doseh, a member of the state board of horticulture was in Salem Monday for a brief business visit, leaving for his home in Portland by the afternoon train. While there he spoke in terms of satisfaction of the outlook for horticulture in this state, and cited several instances where judicious advertising had brought Oregon fruit to the notice of consumers, who were thereby made regular consumers.

In 1897, Mr Doseh said, G Kleinhammer, the owner of a fine apple orchard in the Rogue River valley, secured an order for 100 boxes of Newton Pippin apples to be sent to Glasgow, Scotland. Mr Kleinhammer packed them carefully, and placed in each box a placard, giving his name and address, and explaining where the apples were grown, at the same time soliciting correspondence from the consumers or dealers handling the fruit. As a result of this judicious advertising, the gentleman has this year shipped 4000 boxes of apples to Glasgow and has orders for more.

He also exhibited a letter received from a lady, now in Chicago, but formerly a resident of Oregon, who stated that Oregon prunes were being retained in Chicago at 15 cents, and that no fruit in the market compared in flavor with the Oregon prunes.

Secretary John Minto, of the board, said that the report to the legislature was about half completed, that much of it has been placed in the printer's hands. Mr Minto says that in the future the main fruit crop of Oregon will be apples and prunes; and that thousands of acres of apple orchards will be planted in the state during the next few years.

CIVIL CASE.—J O Rhinehart has instituted a suit in the county court against Mrs Allie Eastham, to recover $53 on account.
