CONTRACT.

WHEREAS, The County Court of Lane county, Oregon, under and pursuant to certain proceedings heretofore had and by certain orders, declarations and directions heretofore duly made and entered in said court respecting the improving of the Mohawk river, Mill creek, the tributaries of Mohawk river and the tributaries of Mill creek, lying within said county, whereby said river and streams and tributaries were duly declared to be each a public highway for the floating and transportation of logs, timber and lumber, as provided by an act of the legislature of the State of Oregon, filed in the office of the Secretary of State, Feb 25, 1889, and

WHEREAS, The Booth Kelly Lumber Co, a corporation, desires to lease from said county the use of said public highways aforesaid, namely: the Mohawk river, Mill creek, the tributaries of the Mohawk river and the tributaries of Mill creek, with the right to collect tolls for the rafting, floating and booming of logs, timber and lumber thereon, and to acquire to itself all the rights and interests of said county under the proceedings heretofore referred to in said river and streams and each thereof:

Work shall be begun under this agreement within 90 days from this date and shall be prosecuted by the party of the second part with reasonable diligence.

To all of which, each of the parties aforesaid now fully and finally agrees this 10th day of January, 1899.

From the above it would appear that a large saw mill, with probably a capacity of 50,000,000 annually, is to be located at or below the mouth of the Mohawk river.

The Booth Kelly Co say they will spend $50,000 on the two streams during the summer.

OTHER MEASURES

Special to the Guard.

STATE HOUSE, Salem, Jan 12.—The bill providing for two extra supreme judges of the Supreme Court created a lively discussion. It was the first bill to pass the house. It is unconstitutional as the following question from the constitution plainly show:

"ARTICLE VII, SECTION 10.—When the white population of the state shall amount to two hundred thousand, the legislative assembly may provide for the election of supreme and circuit judges in distinct classes, one of which classes shall consist of three justices of the supreme court, who shall not perform circuit court duty, and the other class shall consist of the necessary number of circuit judges, who shall hold full terms without allotment, and who shall take the same oath as the supreme judges."

The house cut down the clerk hire bill for the session about $4,000.

Routine business occupies the most of the time.

The scalp bounty bill, which is important was ably discussed this afternoon.

One hundred and thirty bills have already been introduced.

The legislature adjourns tomorrow noon until Monday.

Bills Introduced.

No 42, Curtis—Amending section 2659 of code, relating to the state university. Fixing salaries, of president not more than $2,500, the professors at not more than $1,800, and that there shall be not to exceed fifteen professors.

"In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days against ten days for the former attack. ### BEAN AND DOLPH REMAIN

Special to the Guard.

STATE HOUSE, SALEM, Jan 12.—Governor Geer this morning substituted the name of Senator Smith, of Baker county for Kincaid, in Ex-Governor Lord's list, for Regent Judge Bean and Cyrus A Dolph, for Regents, and S H Holt, trustee of soldiers' home at Roseburg. Lord's appointees, were allowed to remain.

The Senate promptly confirmed the appointments. Thus an exciting episode was settled.

(Senator Smith was elected on the Union ticket last June and is a silver man.)

INVITATION EXTENDED.

Rev. Herbert S. Johnson Asked to Deliver an Address Before the University.

At a meeting held yesterday the faculty of the University of Oregon decided to extend an invitation to Rev Herbert S Johnson, of Pittsfield, Mass, to deliver the annual address before the University during commencement week in June.

Rev Johnson will address the California Baptist churches, which hold their May anniversary in San Francisco this year, and it is hoped that he will remain on the coast long enough to accept the invitation of the University.

In the event of Rev Johnson's acceptance his address will be the main attraction of the week.

Supreme Court Decision.

EDITOR GUARD: A statement appeared in your paper that in the case of First National Bank vs Hovey et al; the Supreme Court simply ordered a new trial. The Court did not order a new trial—it affirmed the decision of the lower court which was that the complaint did not state a cause of action. It further remanded the case for further proceedings as may be had not inconsistent with the opinion. Unless the plaintiff can get some new material into the complaint it leaves no cause of action. If it has any new material it must have kept it from its attorney as he know or must have known what the objection to the complaint was and why the lower Court decided against his client. He rested his whole case on that complaint—went to the Supreme Court and that Court held that the complaint is bad. I am not accustomed to discussing matters of this kind in the newspapers—but inasmuch as I suppose the other side caused the statement above referred to, to be made, it is just to the memory of my clients that the truth should appear.
