SANGUINARY BATTLE

Ecuador Insurgents and Government Troops Fight.

FOUR HUNDRED MEN KILLED

The Battle Lasts All Day-Government Troops Victorious-Insurgents Hotly Pursued.

New York, Jan. 27. -The latest dispatch from the Herald's correspondent at Guayaquil reports that a sanguinary battle took place yesterday between the revolutionists and the government in defense of the rights of his state forces at San Ancanna. The fighting constitution, in self-defense, and in was desperate all day, the advantage remaining finally with the government's army.

The losses on both sides were heavy. More than 400 men were killed, and He said that in the very face of the who is not a British subject, or for 300 were wounded. Four hundred insurgents were taken prisoners.

The rest of the defeated rebels fled toward the province of Bolivar, hotly pursued by the victorious troops of President Alfaro.

News of a decisive engagement between the forces of the revolutionists and the government troops has been expected for some days. Recent disrebels, representing the clerical party administration, had invaded Ecuador was looked for at Tulcan, on the fron-
