FROM SALEM

and U of O.

FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED.

Special to the Guard

SALEM, Ore, June 10. - Kelley of Eugene and and McBride of Corvallis two exorbitant. of the fast sprinters here to part cleare it is now thought will be thrown out

C, is closely defined on account of their knives, and you'll he downgers tellend of the strife is not yet reached. continual el winner for the U of O, being entered in is sentenced to evening dress after 6 the other girls of the community like a the 100-yard and 223-yard dashes, the broad jump and high jump.

Salem, June 10, 10:30 a m .- Ara Corvallis was declared a professional are nothing and thrown out of contests.

pects of U of O are strengthened, and Deople is that they have no souls." And trainer and athletes now anticipate a for the senses. They are to be pitted victory.

Schweppe when Annie was a child, before the senses. They are to be pitted for she had grown so beautiful. Annie had never seen a mirror, and no one

Special correspondence to the GCARD from Salem, dated 8 p.m, Friday, June 9, has the following items of interest:

The U of O excursionists emj yed a pleasant ride and reached here at 2:30 p.m. The men are quartered at the this evening. They are all in good shape and Trainer Trine predicts that ing their doom "meekly kneeling upon line of sawdast box cuspidors marked they will give a good account of themselves tomorrow afternoon. Read and Bryson joined the team here today. There are a great many young collegians here from all parts of the valtey and a very successful meet is prefast time will probably be made.

The Executive committee is in session tonight, deciding upon some final broad jump. Davis, it is thought will win the high jump, and Kelly will give good account of himse f in the sprints and hurdles. Read will show up well in the mile, although he has a will show up well in the mile, although he has a will show as an adz, the catting edge of which is at a right angle to and not in a plane. up well in the mile, although he has a with the haft. between Read, O.A.C. and Russell, W. U. Heater, P.C. is picked as winner of the pole vault, and Kenworthy, P.C. will run a hard race in the 880. Huffhurdles in good shape although Davis | hacked to death - Notes and Queries. and Kelly will also look out for these events. Crawford, O A C, is confident of winning the sprints, but he will have to hustle to beat Kelly.

The race for the cup will be between U of O and O A C, with chances about on the local tomorrow morning and ing and guttural. the O A C delegation will come down by a special train tomorrow morning. find your language as mellow as any of The Newberg boys came up on the boat this afternoon.

Representatives from the U of O. O A C. P U and W U formed an Inter Collegiate Foot Ball Association here the other consonants within the pitch, this afternoon; officers will be elected using the tongue instead of the throat

Right Kind of Business Men.

Bushnell & Mahon, proprietors of the Junction City evaporator, are the right kind of men. They believe in surprising number of well to do your dealing fairly with competition that has made it possible for them to secure fair and conscionable shipping rates.

The Times of that city has this: "Bushnell & Mahon hauled their had them shipped on the steamer, City boat saved the firm $70 per car, Let weight, and counting the boxes the difference reached near $00 per car. New York Telegram. Mr Mahon informs us that the S P Co finally met the boat rate but he felt disposed to patronize the line that met it, hence they were shipped by falsehood." steamer. The cost of hauling the prunes to Harrisburg was $30."

Junction City Times: Miss Annie falsehood."-Washington Star. Crain, who has been teaching in the public schools of Seattle, during the fall and winter, completed her term summer.

HIGH LIFE IN GOTHAM.

A Scorebing Criticism of the Waldorf-Astoria and its Habitues.

The Walderf-Asteria hotel is a great temple of Mammon. You go there at my time and the only things you hear about are millions. You see million Today's Battle Between O A C, sires of all sorts, fat and lean, young and old. You hear them, at the bar or gathered around, tables, talking "margins" and of trusts and of millions Everybody seems, around the Waldorf at least, to be money mad. The bellboys won't look at a tip less than $1. In the cafe an egg costs as much as a square meal. Cigars at $1 apiece are quite the ordinary thing. You can spend a month's salery on a dinner for four, and wine at $15 per bottle is not at all

The place is crowded all the time by in the field meet have been thrown out the wealthiest visitors to Manhattan from all over the world. You are told on grounds of professionalism. Craw in awe inspiring whispers that there ford, the O. A. C. trainer and sprinter, are suits of rooms costing $250 per day You are shown the safe which at this very minute bolds $7,000,000 worth of valuables belonging to guests. And The contest between U of O and O A you'll see millionaires cating with their ing their friends " strong lead over other schools, and the men her." Morey and money! The - 1 of it is namesting ber excild in all the There is a Waldorf-As re of the Walderf-As-The atm meeting this morning Crawin, a toria is recking with volgarity and all unhealthiness. I the women, so far as gramblers. A protest was filed against Davis on their wealth. If there is anything more language Annie bere the traits of nogrounds of professionalism, but were horrible than the high Gotham life in ble German birth. She was a dark hairnot sustained. He is a sure point which every man and woman every day sd. dark eyed maid, appearing among o'clock, where is it?

A distinguished man of letters said of useful but homely plain white china. 120-yard and 230-yard hurdles, the to me, after a view of the Walderf-As- Little did the thrifty, godly Amanites toria cafe in the evening, where you care for such beauty. In Amana a yard have to reserve your table in the early of blue calico was accounted as worth By reason of these changes the pros- afternoon. "The trouble with these far more than a dimple-

THE HEADSMAN.

Prior to 1483.

1483 the sword and not the ax was poor Mother Schweppe. usually employed as the weapon for Salem Hotel and are resting quietly indicial decapitation and that a block lovemaking. Men and women entered was dispensed with, the victime receiv- the church by different doors, and a their knees," and in this opinion I am off the men's side of the house. But fortified by the concurrence of an emi- among the girls at the Amana gasthaus nent clerical historian. This learned were two persons who did not have the writer agreed with me that the ax did law of Amana in their hearts. They not become the "regulation" lethal im- were not Amana girls, but came from plement until after the rough and ready outside, for no Amanite would have dieted. The track at the Fair Grounds Tower green, when he was summarily to the gaze of the strangers in the gastis in a splendid condition and some dispatched by order of the protector. Gloncester.

In this instance, according to the mind. chroniclers, the victim's neck was stretched upon a piece of timber then yellow wheatfields, and the fragrance particulars for the big meet tomorrow. in use for the repair of the adjacent Scott has recovered sufficiently to church of Si. Peter ad Vincula, prob intoxicated Annie as she leaned out of ride and will appear tomorrow. He will no doubt win his race. Smith is picked as the winner of the hammer in the way. Contemporary accounts It was while Annie was still thinking throw, the shot put, and possibly the seem to indicate that the executioner of the land that might lie outside of lamette. The 440 will be a close race rary reference I have come across of the as they sat in the glare of the oil lamp use, or proposed use, of an ax and reflector it seemed to Annie the wildest block for inflicting capital punishment dissipation. Two sheepish young prior to this tragedy is in one of the Amanites slouched on the bench at one Paston series of letters describing the side of the kitchen, nervously pulling peril of an unfortunate captive of Jack their straw hats over their faces if any man, O A C, will no doubt win the Cade's rebels (A. D. 1450), a generation one glanced at them. The third young walk, and Palmer, O A C, will do the before Lord Lastings was so clumsily

American Speech.

The faults of American speech, according to an authority on the subject, fashion of the Amanites. His face was originate in the primary school. The clean shaven, his figure lithe and child is not raught the moledic value of sinewy, and his merry eyes roved hither his phrase. He is allowed to use the and thither while he regaled the comthroat instead of the tongue, and the pany with music. It was a month organ The Forest Grove team will come up | flow of speech becomes, therefore, halt-

"Educate your alphabet and you will the family of Latium. " is the advicegiven. "Your i's are throaty, your m's are too labial, your a's are too hissing, your c's are not soft enough. When you can train your scholars to emit these and for their emission, then you will see that for thy thus and sonority your English the Provencal.

A well known chemist states that a ladies have taken to buying the var forms of doctored up coca extracts : caine) in large quantities, also phe nacetine and various bromides, because they make one feel so nice and hap It is medless to say that such prunes to Harrisburg Saturday and practices are exceedingly risky. Perof Eugene. The rate secured by the another extremely foolish trick-that of suiffing chloroform dropped on a handkerchief, with the object of producing a pleasant, dreamy languer.

"That, sir," exclaimed the indignant made the rate rather than the one that merchant, "is what I call a gratuitous

> "It's nothing of the kind," replied the unscrupulens salesman. "I get a salary and a commission for telling that

One Ear Better Than Two.

A well known professor asserts that the smallest intervals of sound can be last Friday and is now home for the better distinguished with one car than with both

A SOUVENIR

I found them in a book last night, These withered violets. A token of that early love

That no man early now.
That no man e'er forgets
Pressed carefully between the leaves.
They keep their color stillcannot look at them today
Without an old time thrill.

Ab. me, what tricks does memory play Ah, me, what tricks does income a larger than the passing years have feel and hopes that lived in vigor once, alast have long been dead.
And this is all that I can say.
When all is said and done.
Those flowers remind me of some girl—I would know which once.

I wish I knew which one! -Exchange.

AN AMANA ROMANCE.

What led Herr Schweppe to join the Amanites no one knew but the elders. The Amanites did not gossip about it. They were not given to goedping about mything. Work, duty, God-these were all their thoughts. But the visitors to the close lying Amana villages seldom failed to notice that Herr Schweppe was a gentleman and to wonder how he came to join the Amanites. with their plain clothes and their lives of toil. The mystery was hid in the books of the elders. There was once a visitor who claimed that he had had a glimpse of the page and saw "Bismarck" written twice on Herr Schweppe's record. The name was "Von (for all, but a harde of Schweppe," too, this visitor said, though it was only Schweppe now.

Be that as it may, Herr Schweppe's bit of Sevres ware surrounded by pieces

The sorrows of exile killed Herr Schweppe when Annie was a child, behad never seen a mirror, and no one told her of her beauty. Her mother gloated over it in secret. She loved Annie far better than the elders would He Used the Sword and Not the Ax have sanctioned, but when the child was near she was silent and cold. The I am inclined to think that prior to life of repression had had its effect on

In Amana the elders discouraged 'heading' of Lord Hastings on the permitted his daughter to be subjected baus. It was Madge and Nora, alas, who put all the mischief into Annie's

> June moonlight was falling over the of grapevine blossoms on the wall half

Madge and Nora and Annie and only I may add that the only contempo- three others in the hotel kitchen, but man was entirely unlike these. Annie, big eyed and timorous, gazed at him in wonder. He wore such clothes as fitted him. His ruddy hair was brushed back from his ears, not over them, in the which he played, but no matter. To Annie it was heavenly. She had never before heard music of any kind, for the Amanites attached a penalty even to whistling. Suddenly Annie was trembling and sobbing, and the player, conscience smitten, ceased his melady. He was not a great stranger to her, as Annie had thought. He had not so very many years ago worn the blue ean and straw hats of the community, He was none other than Hermann, the son of Herr Tappan, whom Annie had language may be compared with the often seen in church when a child. The Tuscan, the Reman, the Spanish and community had permitted Herr Tappan to send his son away to a college, for Hermann was to be the physician of "Do you mean that my check is not acthe community, their Herr Doctor, as ceptable?"

they called him. Hermann understood the timidity of Annie. He, too, had once been restrained till all his thoughts were sadness. He bade the girls take her at once to her mother's cottage, and he watched them all till Annio had disappeared through the window. But why should the young Herr Doctor come to Mother Schweppe's cottage next day, asking for her famous wine for his patients?

"Knowest thou not I have disposed of it long before this time?" cried Mother Schweppe. "I thought perhaps thou mightst be making it again," faltered Hermann. "Make wine in June? What sort of a man!" And Mother Schweppe laughed loudly and unmelodiously, much as one of her cabbages might have laughed. And while her dull eyes were closed in mirth Hermann crushed into Annie's hand a bit of paper, and Annie, child though she was, hid herself among the grapevines before she dared to open

"Thou art most beautiful! I love thee." That was all.

window, and once she went alone with Hermann far down the solitary railroad track. But Madge loved Hermann, too, n her way, and, bring jealous, she told

Annie's mether.

The pext day the elders came to Mother Schwepp shouse. No one smil-sd, and the interview was full of long diences. Annie was taken down the street, an elder in front of her and an older behind her. They put her in a nonse, for away from her mother, and pave her a double portion of work. Herpann, too, was taken to a cloister, though he went laughing.

Bix months' separation, six months' fasting prayer and hard work was rejuired, and if after that ordeal the two till wished to be married the elders would consider the matter-A week passed. Hermann and Annie and sat in their places at the morning service, and it chanced that they, with neekly folded hands, emerged from the two doors of the church at the same noment. Suddenly each one advanced o the other; they met and walked away gether. The elders were so astounded that for a moment no one could speak There had never been such an audacious breach of the rules. Even the most venrable members of the community were

The whistle of an approaching train awake them all to action. "Disobedi-ance!" the chief elder cried, and all the dders harried down the street to the milway station. Here they found Hermann and Annie, impenitent and defi-ant. There was a brief storm of angry

"We give you but one year to consider," said the long faced chief elder. You may never show your faces here sgain if you come not back within the "Then, Hermann, leavest thy aged father, and thou. Annie, thy mother,' nid another, more kindly. Annie looked down at her blue calico own and her rough shoes. "What have they done for us?" she cried. "Give them goodby!" called Hermann petulantly. "We come back no more."

And the train pulled away. "All the world loves a lover," said Herr Tappan to Mother Schweppe sadly, "but the lever leves no one but himolf and his sweetheart." So Hermann and Annie went to the ity. They were happy, and there seemed to be no ghosts at their fireside. Tather and mother think mere of their arrosts than they do of us," they would say merrily when they spoke of Amana

In May their baby was born. He was beautiful child, and Hermann and Annie never tired of watching him. Hermann could scarcely tear himself away from baby to attend his patients. Contagious discuses he refused to treat. Baby might eatch them. Annie's face grew softer as she looked at the child. For hours they would name themselves watching him clasp a lead pencil in his chuldy fingers. They cut off a lock of his baby hair and saved it in the Bible

"Whom does the baby look like, Annie?" asked Hermann carelessly one

Like you did when you were a baby, I suppose," answered Annie gay-Suddenly a startled look came into her eyes. The thought came to Hermann at the same moment. He dropped on his knees before the child. "Did they think of me as we think of our A ghostly little party it was, of buby?" he whispered. Annie was sobbing. "God may yet forgive us," she "The year is not ended. We

> The good God had not ended Mother Schweppe's life. Herr Tappan, too, was still trudging among his vegetables when Hermann and Annie came back.

> "It would have been a year tomorrow already," Herr Tappan said stolidly, but his withered lips went trembling, and he embraced Hermann and Annie and blessed them.

And Mother Schweppe paddled back to her cellar with a sly smile, returning full handed. "I have all this time since last autumn kept six bottles of wine for thee Hermann," she said,-Globe-Democrat.

Her Sweet Mistake.

A short time since the daughter of a millionaire drove up to the door of a jeweler's shop, went in and selected a urquoise and diamond ring valued at $250. She made out her check for that sum and passed it to the proprietor, who glanced at it and then looked in quiringly up at the young lady and said, "There is some mistake here, I

The young lady flushed and asked if the check was not for the right amount. She was told it was, but-

"But what?" she exclaimed frigidly.

The jeweler acknowledged that be knew quite well who the young lady was, but explained that the check was not made out just as it should be, and be handed it back. The girl ran her eye over it and then turned a deep crimson. "Oh!" she exclaimed. "I see!" And then she proceeded to make out another sheck. She had signed the first one, "Your own sweetheart, Jessie.

A Race of Talled Men.

Africa is a continent rich in tailed men myths. There is supposed to be a candate race of pygmics somewhere in the uplands of Abyssinia. The Main-Mains are a celebrated case. A good many years ago the French government dispatched a M. Descouret with instructions to explore some of the least known parts of Africa and to ascertain the exact degree of truth in the various stories about the Main-Mains. He describes the people as being mostly under five present to hear them read. feet in height, ill proportioned, thin, weak and ugly, with short, woolly hair and with an external elengation of the vertebral column, which, he says, "in every individual, male or female, forms After that it was easy for Annie to a tail two or three inches long."-Medclimb down by the grapevine from her 'ical Record.

FITZ KNOCKED OUT MOHAWK RAILROAD

Jeffries Is the New Heavy-Weight The Construction Depends on the Champion.

DID IT IN THE ELEVENTH ROUND.

NEW YORK, June 9.-James J. Jeffries, another sturdy young glant, has come out of the West to whip the beautiful Mohawk valley have champion pugilists. At the arena of the Coney Island Athletic Club tonight no hope of being rewarded At last he defeated Robert Fitzsimmons, they can procure a railroad if they will world's champion in two classesmiddle-weight and heary-weight-in Il rounds of whirlwind fighting He main line of the SPRR will enhance came to the ring a rank outsider and the value of every farm lying within it left it the acknowledged master of the from $5 to $10 per acre, man be defeated. He was never at any time in serious dauger, and after great struggle for a two horse team to the size-up in the early rounds of the draw a light loaded wagon to hopene, sontest, took the lead. He had the the county seat, They can only market Australian whipped from the minth their products during the summer and entertained a few friends last evening It is likely the company will merely at the Hotel Eugene. Whist was the nold their lands as speculators, probprincipal game of the evening. The ably sawing a few thousand feet yearly first prize being secured by Mrs W H at Coburg. They ascended the steps of the car. Hoffman and J. S. Luck, y, while the To state it plainly: Mohawk has it booby prize was fairly won by Miss 10 her power to procure this railroad or Edithe Hoffman and L G Adair. A to lose it probably for years and years, dainty lunch was ser ed in the grill The GUARD believes that the people room of the hotel, after which a short of Mohawk will generally donate the time was spent in the parior in music right of way. They can certainly see and recitations.

A large amount of money changed hands on the result.

SOCIAL.

Daily Guard, June 10. DR AND M88 LOWE ENTERTAIN.

L G Adair, Mr and Mrs W H Hoff- from now will be too late. The answer msn, Judge and Mrs E O Potter, Mr must be soon, and Mrs J S Luckey, Mr and Mrs Jas Hoffman, Mr and Mrs C L Winter, Miss Edithe Hoffman, Miss Jessie Gilstrap, Miss Blanche Straight, Miss Wanda Legan, Mr F G Swanton, Mr F C Fish, Mr H W Rowland.

SATURDAY, JUNE 10

GOPHER KILLING -Junction Bulleten: "A new industry is prevailing in drawn from the jury list as jurors for and about Junction this week. Lee the regular June term of circuit court Southworth, Harvey Linder, and other for Lane county, Oregon, as follows, way to Huff's farm, near town, with cartridge beit on and shotgun over Charles Baxter, their shoulders, The work is W C Seavey, easy and lones me but pays well gen. J T Martin, Pleasant Hill, erally about $2 per day as Mr Huff has L J Cornelius, Pleasant Hill, farmer offered a bounty of 10 cents for each William Linton, Pleasant Hill, farme gopher, and the consequences are it Jacob Huff Junction City, costs him about $5 per day. How long J W Herron, Junction City, farmer the job will last we connot say, but his S O Starr, Junction City, merchant farm is full of small hills,"

CITY OF EUGENE.-The steamboat W D McLean, Camp Creek, City of Eugenearrived here last even- J M Howe, lug at 7:30 o'clock from Portland, mak- J L Lombard, ing the run in a little over two and Joel McCornack one half days. She left down with a A C Mathews, little freight this morning at 5 o'clock. L H Wheeler She was to take on 1250 sacks of wheat J W White, at Harrisburg for Corvalits. After Amos Johnson, unloading the wheat at Corvallis the W H Luckey, boat will run to Monroe and take on J I Butterfield, Florence, 125 tons of freight for A Wilhelm & Henry Melton, Creswell, Sons, to be delivered at Portland, ex- J N Sutherland, Glentena, pecting to leave Mouroe tomorrow Hugh Barr, Spencer, Julia Crawford Underwood in St. Louis afternoon. The boat is doing a large C W Brown, Richardson,

> Eastern Star held a business session J W Gowdy, Cottage Grove Friday afternoon at Masonic hall Port. J H Keeney, Jasper. land at which the following grand Tnomas Hardy, Jasper, officers were elected: Grand matron, Mrs Margaret J Lutke, of Portland; grand patron, Thomas F Ryan, of Oregon City; associate grand matron, Mrs Herron, drawn as a juror, was not a Jessie Vert, of Pendleton; associate resident of the county, and the ballot grand patron, E W Haines, of Forest containing his name was destreyed

UNVEILING CEREMONY .- Bulletin: Junction City Camp, No 446, Woodmen of the World have received an invitation from Eugene Camp, No 115 to be present and to assist in the annual memorial exercises and the unveiling Lemon Syrup. 50 cents. of the monument erected to the memory of the late C B Watson, which takes place Sunday, June 18, 1899.

GRANDMA MUNRA'S AGE. - Porttand Telegram: Grandma Munra of bottle back and $1.00, does not cure, take be Log t abin fame, objects to be a bottle back and we will refund your most Log t abin fame, objects to being called 70 years old. She told a railroad man Linn. the Telegram was certainly misinformed about her age as she is 68 years old and just as "chipper" as a number of the young "uns" at that.

ceived dispatches last night by rounds Mr Keeney will provide a first-class of the prize fight between Jeffries and orchestra of three or four pieces and

STREET CAR LINE.-Holden Bros, have a force of men employed on the roadbed of the car track, and will have week rush.

Mohawkers Themselves.

A PLAIN STATEMENT.

Daily Guard, June 10 For a number of years the people of prayed for a railroad with title or only be liberal. Will they do he

A railroad to that valley from the

During the winter months it is a fall season, and must procure a winter's supply of groceries, etc. All this would be changed with a railroad

If the people of that section will give the proposed railway a right of way, it will be built at once, as will also large mills in the neighborhood of Isabel. Thousands of dollars will be distributed among the people of that section. If not the railroad will probably Dr and Mrs Charles Wesley Lowe never build, the mills will not be built.

their own interests in this matter. These present were: Mr and Mrs Now is the time to act. A month

CIRCUIT COURT JURORS.

The Men Who Will Try Cases at the Next Term of Court.

Daily Guard, June 19 Sheriff Withers and Clerk Lee, and Wm. K. Scarborough, being present, the following named jurors were seto-wit: Sanford Skinner, Mohawk, farmer. Mohawk, farmer. Mohawk farmer. C F Califf. Sprinfield. farm R Robertson, Walton, farmer farme merchan farmer butchet farmer carpenter merchant farmet blacksmith farmer farmer farmer farmer farmer Joel Addington, Lost Valley, farmer E Thurman, Cheshire, fatmet EASTERN STAR .- The Order of the J S Ozment, Cottage Grave, paluter famet millet

> William Platt, Thurston, farmet After drawing the list it came to the knowledge of the officers that J W and the name of William Platt was drawn in his stead.

No Cure, No Pay-

That is the wayfall druggists sell Grores Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills, Malaria and Billiousness, It is as pleasant to take as

You Try It

If Shiloh's Cough an I Consumption Curwhich is sold for the small price of 25 cm Sold for over fifty years on this grans Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. Sold by Wilkinst

Junction Fourth of July Dance.

Blind Johnny Keeney has secured the city hall at Junction and will give THE FIGHT.—Maybew & Reams re- a grand ball on the night of July 4 Fitzsimmons. A large crowd was the floor management will be under present to hear them read. effort will be made to provide for the comfort and pleasure of guests.

Extras for mowers of all kinds Deering, Woods, Osborn, McCormscs, Plano, Red White and Blue, Empire, Change of the Corns of the it in fine shape for the Commencement Champion, and others now on hand st F L Chambers'.

teaves a husband and two children. land yesterday, the result of a fall. The function will be preached at