He is also most enthusiastic over the indications of success for the school year now coming in. By way of comparison the president thinks that Oregon's state University compares very favorably with those of other states of the far and middle West, barring, of course, the good for tune of some other institutions receiving a larger amount of state and private aid.

OLD SOL'S RIDE IN 1849. Flowery Weather Fredictions of the Journalists of Long Ago.

In these days of practical newspaper writing, in which baid facts are expressed in the plainest and tersest form, the llowery language indulged In by some of the "journalists" half a century ago sounds peculiar. The following poetic convulsion was copied by one of the local papers from the New York Tribune in 1849 as worthy of a high place in the newspaper literature of the day:

"On Saturday evening at 17 minutes past 11 o'clock the sun rode calmly children and animals." and mildly over the autumnal equinox and cast his golden anchor on the wintry coast of autumn. But as yet the vast ocean of air through which he you.' sails is glowing and transparent with the memory of the long summer days that have passed over it, darting their rich beams to its very depths. Even as we write, however, the remem brance fades, like the sky's blanching souvenirs of sunset, and in the distance the cold ghosts of winter glare and wave their frozen wings, which creak on kcy hinges, while in the sllence of midnight a prophetic voice of wailing and desolation moans fitfully at the casement."

A Chair of Uncleism Needed.

Unclehood is about the hardest hood man has to wear.and, as I have observed uncles and their habits, they either spoil or repel the small chaps and chappesses who happen to be made their nephews and nieces by an accident of birth. Uncles are either intensely genial or intensely irritable, and as car as I am concerned it is my belief that our colleges should include in their carriculum a chair of "uncleism." Unclehood is a relationship that man has to accept. It is thrust upon him. He can't help himself. To be a father or a mother is a matter of volition. But even in a free country like our own, if a man has a brother or a sister, he is liable to find himself an unche at any time whether he wishes to be one or not. Then when it happens he's got to reason out a course of procedure without any basis in previous experience .-John Kendrick Bangs in Woman's Home Companion.
