JUNIORS AND SOPHOMORES TODAY

PHILOLOGIAN SOCIETY

Daily Guard, Oct 7

The Philologists met in regular session last night, and though there were many down-town attractions for the student there was a good turnout of members. Three new students signed the constitution and by-laws and paid their initiation fees and first assessment.

The new corps of officers elected last week were duly installed, and President Holt took the chair. Our new president proved himself a capable and efficient presiding officer. Mr M L Applegate was called upon for an extemporaneous address, and responded to the subject, "The future Commercial relations between the far East and the Pacific coast states." Mr Applegate returned this summer after spending 15 months with the Second Oregon in the Philippines, and has a good conception of the valuable commercial interests awaiting development by our American manufacturers in the East. As the goods are produced by the Eastern states they must pass through our Western seaports for shipment to the Orient, and thus will a great shipping boom be inaugurated by the cities of San Francisco, Portland and the Puget Sound points.

Prof F G Young was present and gave the society an excellent address of twenty minutes. The professor said, we are apt to over-estimate our society works as compared with our college studies, as we are better able to realize the direct results of society work. The best result of society work is the developing or working into a whole of the several kinds of information we absorb from the various departments in the university. Prof Young also advised the young men to take an active interest in the great living questions of the day. Beginning now with a study of the absorbing economic and political questions, they will grow far more interesting and familiar to our minds, as we progress in our work, and the study of them will certainly be productive of good results.

On motion the society postponed their meeting for one week hence, so that the members might attend the entertainment given by the young ladies of the University, for the benefit of the U of O football team.

LUABREAN SOCIETY.

The society met last evening and discussed the question, "Resolved, That Intercollegiate football promotes the best interests of colleges." B C Jakway and H D Angell upheld the affirmative and L L Goodrich and C N McArthur the negative. The debate was interesting and hotly contested. The chair gave its decision in favor of the affirmative.

The following officers were elected and installed: President, Luke L Goodrich, '01; vice-president, B C Jakway, '02; secretary, C L Campbell, '02; assistant secretary, C R Bean, '03; treasurer, L S Hooker, '02; censor, C M Bishop, '02; editor, C N McArthur, '01; sergeant-at-arms, H D Angell, '00; parliamentarian, B C Jakway, '02. There were seven applicants for membership. Two of these, R M Spaulding, '03, and E N Baldwin, '03, signed the constitution and became members of the society.

FOOTBALL.

The U of O football men have been hard at work during the week. They turn out each afternoon at 4 o'clock and practice falling on the ball, getting down under kicks, and line bucking. The men are divided into three squads, one under Captain Smith's direction and the others under Bishop and Prof Burden. All the candidates are showing up in good form. Coach Simpson will reach Eugene in about ten days. Manager Goodrich is making arrangements for games with the Chemawa Indians and the Multnomah club. Other games are being talked of and every effort will be made to bring the second elevens of the U of O and the O A C together.

Kincaid field has been put in first-class shape for the season. Twelve pair of new shoes were purchased by the management this week and new suits, shin guards, etc, will be here in a few days.

FRESHMEN ELECT OFFICERS.

The members of the class of '03, met yesterday afternoon in Prof Schmidt's room in Deady hall, and were called to order by President Miller. The object of the meeting was the election of officers for the present collegiate year. The following is the new list of officers to preside over the destinies of the Freshmen during their debut into college life: Thos. Hammond, president; E N Blythe, vice president; Elma Hendricks, secretary; Faith Johnson, treasurer; Harriet Fairbrother, editor; Ray M Spaulding, sergeant-at-arms. A committee was also appointed to see after a class yell, and to provide proper class colors for the verdant collegians.

THE EUFAXIANS.

The young ladies of the Eutaxian society, gave a reception yesterday to the new girl students of the University. A very pleasant time was reported, and refreshments were served at the dormitory.

THE OTHER COLLEGES.

The O A C will make every effort to develop a winning eleven this season. The town, the faculty and the students are working hard and donating freely for the college team. President Gatch heads the subscription with $50. E R Bryson, a former U of O boy, is assistant manager, and looks out for the down-town interests.

Pacific University will be represented by a strong eleven, and Willamette University and Albany College will also be in the field.

A FOOLISH FATHER.

Trying to Force His Child-Daughter into a Marriage.

Daily Guard, Oct 7

A case comes under our observation that needs condemnation. It is where a father is attempting to compel a daughter to marry a man she does not love, and who is also bereft of worldly possessions. Her father came to town the other day with the "intended husband," and procured a marriage license, filling his written consent, for the child is only 17 years of age—much too young to become a wife. He then sought the daughter, who was working in a respectable place, and informed her that she must quit work at once and marry the said man. She quit work but demurred to a marriage, at present, at least. She said she did not want to get married; that the intended husband had better earn some money to provide a home before he married any woman. At this the parent told her she never could come home again, and that he would have her committed to the reform school at Salem if she did not obey him. Of course this was a big bluff, as the reform school does not take girls. Then a single sister, older, and an aunt took her part, and advised her to remain firm. The father then declared she should not work out nor come home.

At this time the young girl is master of the situation and states that she will work out and support herself. The father should not press the matter further.

The Minnesota Volunteers.

The overland train this morning was run in two sections and was two hours late at Eugene. The first section of eleven coaches was filled with the Minnesota volunteers en route to the Philippines. The second section was devoted to ordinary business.

A Minnesota lieutenant alighted on the platform as soon as the train stopped, inquiring for a Mr Gray. That gentleman was not on hand, and did not put in an appearance until the second section was about due. A lesson on the necessity of promptness when railroad travel is concerned.

Real Estate Transactions.

Natives Invade Johannesburg.

Johannesburg, Oct. 6.—Thousands of natives have invaded the town, and today the authorities decided to march them, under escort, out of the country. Last night two natives entered a clothing store and stabbed the proprietor in the neck, severing his windpipe.

May Quash Dreyfus Verdict.

London, Oct. 6.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "I learn that Germany is about to hand over documents which will lead to the quashing of the Dreyfus verdict."

WHEEL EXCHANGED.—Rev J F Claycomb got some other person's wheel in exchange today, at the post-office, by mistake. The wheels look much alike. Owner please call at Cumberland Presbyterian parsonage.

Polk county has levied a 22 mill tax, an increase over last year of four mills. The increase is due to a heavier school levy and to provisions made to pay off the old indebtedness.

The town of Sumpter over in Grant county has a veritable boom. Stages run in all directions carrying many passengers. There are about 40 men at work upon the new waterworks, which are to be completed by December 1. The pipes will be three miles in length and the reservoir will be constructed of stone and will hold water enough for a population of 20,000.

SAME OLD STORY

Columbia and Shamrock Fail to Make Time Limit.

NO WIND ON THE ATLANTIC.

Special to the Guard. New York, Oct 7.—For the third time the great international yacht race held today, was declared off on account of an absolute lack of wind, and failure of either racing boat to come in under the time limit.

At the start the Shamrock led the race, but the Columbia proved a stayer and was counted number one at the finish. Under a slight breeze, following the distressing calm, the Columbia made a spurt for blood, and showed a superior sailing quality.

THE ALASKA QUAKE

Mountains Split, Torn and Thrown Down.

TREMENDOUS TIDAL WAVE.

From passengers arriving at Juneau, the Alaska Miner learns that the recent earthquake traversed the entire coast from northward of the Aleutian archipelago to the Dixon entrance, a distance of about 2000 miles.

The shock to the extreme westward was greatest on Sunday, the 3d inst. At Kyak Island great fissures were opened in the earth and a tidal wave followed which swept inland hundreds of feet beyond the highest water mark on record.

On the mainland the mountains were split and torn by the mighty convulsions. Great gaping fissures, 20 to 100 feet in width, are to be seen where formerly a mass of solid rock presented itself. In a number of instances mountain peaks were cleft in twain and hurled into the valleys hundreds of feet below.

At Khantauk Island there were alternate depressions and upheavals of the earth which finally left one-half the island 10 or 15 feet below the level of high-water mark. The old Russian graveyard, so long an object of interest to visitors, is entirely submerged, its position beneath the waters being indicated by the 30-foot cross, the top of which is still seen above the surface at low tide.

MINING COMPANY INCORPORATED

It Has a Capital Stock of $2,000,000—A Bohemia Concern.

Articles of incorporation of the Oregon-Colorado Mining & Development Company have been filed with the county clerk of Lane county by F J Heard, J T Jones and Oliver Veatch. Duration of incorporation is perpetual.

It is the business of the incorporation to purchase locate and sell mines, build mills etc, and to operate the following mines in Douglas county, Bohemia district: The Schley, Dewey, Confidence, Sampson, Iowa, Watson and Marit.

Principal place of business, Cottage Grove, Oregon.

Capital stock, $2,000,000, divided in two million shares of the par value of $1 each and shall be non assessable.

Married.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs Alfred Drury, at Mabel P. O, on the Mohawk, Saturday, Sept. 24, 1890, at high noon, two well known young people of Lane county were made husband and wife. The contracting parties were Daniel T Spores and Miss Kate Drury. The wedding ceremony was pronounced in a very impressive manner by Rev Phillip Workman, elder of the Dunkard church. After a short prayer and the usual congratulations were extended the wedding dinner was served.

The home of the bride's parents was tastefully decorated for the occasion, with potted shrubs, ferns, ivy and many kinds of flowers. The bride wore a cream nonveiling dress with silk and pearl trimming, while the groom was dressed in conventional black.

The young couple received many elegant presents, which testified to the deep appreciation and regard of relatives and friends.

Mr and Mrs D T Spores will be "at home" to their many friends on their farm on the lower Mohawk after October 15.

AFTER CHINAMEN.—The overland train this morning took from Eugene several professors, who will endeavor to bring back full bags of wily Chinese pheasants. They went armed to the teeth, and provided with dogs to flush the birds. The rendezvous agreed on is that section about eight miles northwesterly from Junction City. Prof Orton is thoroughly at home in that country, and will placate the honest grangers who might object to the visit. Prof Lilly, Hawthorne and McElroy may be expected on the freight this evening with fifteen birds each, that being the limit allowed by law; and they are law abiding citizens.

FORKING GRAVEL.—We have heard of people attempting to eat soup with a fork, but never saw gravel pitched therewith until passing over the Eugene river bridge the other day. Teamsters were engaged hauling gravel for the rock crusher from the gravel bar that extends up and down the river from under the main span. The teamsters and loaders are supplied with sluice-box forks, the same being about 12 inches wide and 14 inches long, with tines probably an inch and a half apart. With such forks all the gravel large enough to crush is easily picked up from the bar, while the fine material is left.
