GENERAL LAWTON KILLED.

Shot by Insurgent While in Front of the Army at San Mateo.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE IN SALEM JAIL.
Special to the Guard.
MANILA, Dec. 19.—General Henry W. Lawton was shot and killed by an insurgent today while standing before his troops at San Mateo.

[General Lawton has been one of the most intrepid and daring American officers in the Philippine campaign, and with Generals Wheaton and McArthur has done all the field work, personally attending to the campaign work and advance fighting. He was brevetted brigadier-general of volunteers during the present war, having gone through the usual promotions up to lieutenant-colonel before that time in the regular service. The volunteers who have returned all speak in the kindest terms of General Lawton as a man and as a fearless and able fighter. This is a severe loss to the American army, and its influence is sadly felt.]

SALEM, Dec. 19.—Joseph Willard, held for the murder of T. D. Perry, attempted suicide in the county jail this morning by cutting an artery with a jack knife that he had secured by some means.

When found by the jailer, Willard was almost dead from loss of blood. He will recover.

BOERS OPPOSING ADVANCE OF MEIHUEN.
Special to the Guard.
LONDON, Dec. 19.—The Boers are displaying remarkable activity in mobilizing forces and constructing fortifications to oppose the advance of General Methuen's forces to the relief of Ladysmith.

Fortifications along the line that the British columns will be compelled to march are being strengthened, and Boer forces are gathering on both flanks of the advancing army. The fighting capacity of the warlike Boers has so impressed the public with a wholesome respect that fear is openly expressed for the safety of the relieving army.

BRITISH SYMPATHIZER CENSURED.
Special to the Guard.
CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—Resolutions were offered at the meeting of the city council today, censuring City School Superintendent Andrews for British sympathy.

HOP GROWERS.
They Resolve to Join the State Association.

THE COMMITTEE.
Quite a large number of hop growers met in the county court room this afternoon, pursuant to call of the president.

J. R. Cartwright called the meeting to order at 2 o'clock, and stated the objects of the meeting, i. e.: the pooling of the crop and electing delegates to the state association, which meets at Salem tomorrow.

Several articles were read by the secretary, explaining the plans.

Hon. H. B. Miller, president of the State Horticultural Society, was called on and made some interesting and instructive remarks. He thought the hop growers must organize, or virtually go out of business. That we must arrange to market our crop. He then read an article by the president of the California raisin growers, giving plan. At least 75 per cent of a product must be held by the state association. If we fail now in marketing hops we might as well dig them up and quit the business.

F. E. Dunn said he thought that the plan was a good one.

President Cartwright stated that nearly 830 bales of hops near Harriburg had been signed over to the association.

Geo. A. Dorris stated that all the middlemen were against the proposi- tion. He thought at least 75 per cent of the crop should go into the associa- tion to make it a success. We ought to be robbed if we don't join the body.

It was moved and carried that a committee of five be appointed to attend the state meeting at Salem to- morrow, viz: J. R. Cartwright, R. R. Hayes, F. E. Dunn, Ben Owen and T. D. Linton.

Most of the growers expressed them- selves as being in favor of signing their hops to the State Association.

H. C. HUSTON DEAD.
H. C. (Henry Clay) Huston, a Lane county pioneer, died at his home ten miles west of Eugene this Monday forenoon at 9:30 o'clock, of spinal meningitis, after an illness of but four days, aged 71 years. Mr. Huston was a pioneer of 1852, an Indian war veteran, and an ex-state senator from Lane county. An extended obituary notice will appear in a later issue.

FUNERAL AND BURIAL.
The funeral will take place to the Inman cemetery, two and one-half miles north of Elmira, on the old territorial road, Wednesday, December 20, between 11 and 12 o'clock. Elder J. C. Richardson will deliver a short eulogy at the grave.

Eugene people wishing to attend the interment should take the Fern Ridge road across the Long Tom.

SOME CANDIDATES.—The Roseburg Painterdealer, rep., mentions the following gentlemen as republican candidates for state senator: Judge J. C. Fullerton, A. M. Crawford and A. C. Mar- ters.

FELL TREE ON A STAGE.

A Careless Rancher Nearly Caused a Terrible Accident.

Charles Taylor, driver of the Eugene- Florence mail stage, came into Eugene Saturday evening with the hind end of the bed of his mail wagon badly broken and dilapidated. He reported an accident that might have been attended with serious consequences, even loss of life.

WHEEL FORCED INTO GROUND.

With a passenger on the seat beside him, and another on a back seat, they were passing a rancher's place about 30 miles west of Eugene when the sound of a falling tree arrested their atten- tion. Imagine their feelings when they beheld the tree falling directly toward the stage. They hardly had time to jump from the wagon before the tree was down. One large limb fell across the hind wheel, almost directly where the passenger had been sitting, driving the wheel into the ground to the hub and badly breaking the hind end of the wagon bed. The two-inch iron axle was considerably bent, but strange to say, the wheel was not injured. Had it stood on hard ground it would have been broken to pieces.

MR. TAYLOR'S WHOLE THING WAS OVER BEFORE HE HAD A CHANCE TO GET FRIGHTENED, BUT AFTERWARDS HE FELT RATHER SHAKY FOR AWHILE.

DELEGATES.—J. R. Cartwright, F. E. Dunn, T. D. Linton, R. R. Hayes and Ben Owen, delegates from the Lane County Hop Growers' Association, went to Salem this morning's early train to attend a meeting of the state association in Salem this evening. They will pledge Lane county to place in the state association 4000 bales.

GILLESPIE WILL

Judge Potter Decides Against the "Educational Fund."

FROM $2,500 TO $5,000 INVOLVED

Estate of Jacob Gillespie, deceased; petition for construction of Sections 12 and 17 of the last will and testament of deceased.

DECISION.
Judge Potter has made the following findings in the matter:
"After having duly considered said matter and being fully advised as to the law as to what decision should be made, I find as conclusions of law:
First, That clauses 12 and 17 of said last will and testament of Jacob Gillespie deceased, and the educational fund attempted to be provided for in said last will and testament are and every part of the same are invalid, and null and void.
"It is therefore ordered, adjudged, and decreed that said clauses 12 and 17 of said last will and testament of Jacob Gillespie, deceased, and said edu- cational fund attempted to be pro- vided for in said last will and testa- ment of Jacob Gillespie, deceased, be held at naught, and invalid, null, void and of no effect, and that the money and property attempted to be devised and bequeathed by said clauses of said will and testament and that the money and property attempted to be de- vised and bequeathed for said educa- tional fund by said last will and tes- tament be distributed according to law.

"E. O. POTTER, County Judge."

This decision affects between $2,500 and $5,000. A. C. Woodcock and Thompson & Hardy appeared for the heirs and E. R. Skipworth for execu- tors, and H. H. Hewitt for Sodaville College. The sum of $1,000 bequeathed to said college was not disputed.

UNITY ITEMS.

Several Accidents This Week—Other News.

Dec. 19.
A. D. Hyland, superintendent of the Sunday School failed to be present Sunday on account of injuries received from a fall at his home last week.

Arthur Edwards, while grubbing with a team, had quite a painful ac- cident. The team was pulling on a large root, when one tug broke, allow- ing the single tree to fly back striking him across the thigh, fracturing the bone. He is getting along very well.

Joseph Matteson started yesterday for Washington, where he will en- gage in the wood cutting business.

The 8-year-old son of Mr. Norton, who lately moved on the Harkins place, died last week. The interment was in the Lowell cemetery, Saturday.

Mrs. R. L. Edwards has been quite quite sick for a few days, but is getting along well at present.

A. W. Jones is suffering very much with a felon on his finger.

R. C. Edwards went to the city (Eugene) yesterday, after a load of sup- plies for his logging camp.

The young people are preparing for an entertainment Christmas day.

There has been a Crow visiting at A. D. Hyland's for a few days.
