General French Retakes Colesburg

BOERS DEFEATED BY PITCHER

Kentucky Senatorial Election-- Open Door for China--Chicago Drainage Canal Opened.

WILL BREAK THE HEMP CORNER.

Special to the GUARD.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—3 p. m.—Secretary of War Root has issued an order that it is thought will break the corner that dealers in hemp and rope have formed.

The secretary has ordered General Otis to open the ports of Northern Luzon for commerce and shipping.

MANILA STEAMER LINE.

Special to the GUARD.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Secretary Root has completed steamer charters that will afford American trade and travel a direct line from San Francisco to Manila.

BOERS TASTE DEFEAT.

CHICAGO'S GREAT SEWER.

Special to the GUARD.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—The drainage canal was formally opened today with elaborate ceremonies.

[The Chicago River, which flows through the heart of Chicago, formerly ran into the lake. Engineers turned the current about and connected it with the Illinois river thence by a canal at Hennepin with the Mississippi river. This great engineering feat directs the sewerage of Chicago into the Mississippi, besides giving deep water navigation to the ocean. Chicago's water supply is saved from further pollution by the emptying of the vast sewerage into the lake.]

1900.

The New Year Is Now a Reality.

THE SOCIAL SIDE OF LIFE.

Watch Meetings, Receptions, Dances and Other Affairs.

THE YEAR OPENS AUSPICIOUSLY.

What matters it whether the twentieth century is now with us or is a year distant? The year 1900 has been launched upon Eugene by a gay succession of festivities calculated to long linger in memory. Watch parties were numerous, and at midnight a goodly portion of the city's population was awake, as the bells rang in the new year, and tolled a farewell to 1899. All watch parties savored more of private reunions than public observance.

THE ELKS.

The E. P. O. Elks' watch meeting was one of the most pleasant of the evening. Strictly informal and limited to members, the program of short addresses, music and the discussion of a lunch afforded much pleasure.

MIDNIGHT MASS.

At the Catholic church, under direction of Father L. Przybylski, midnight mass was observed, and a large audience attended. The services were impressive.

Other events of the day itself were also marked with quietness and pleasure. The business houses remained closed in the afternoon, and many calls were made and received by our hospitable people.

MILITARY MASQUE BALL.

One of the most successful dancing parties ever given in Eugene was the one inaugurated and carried to a happy conclusion by the military association of this city. A large number of maskers were present and a larger number of spectators, the capacity of Armory Hall being taxed to its utmost. At 9 o'clock the maskers began to dance and entertained the spectators until 10:30 when the original faces were again adopted. Many of the costumes were quite pretty, and the view of the gaily mixed colors and lightly tripping dancers formed a scene kaleidoscopic in its brilliancy.

Prizes were awarded as follows: Best sustained female character—Oregon Mossback, Mrs. G. R. Chrisman, fan by S. H. Friendly. Best sustained male character—Nigger, Claire Luckey, paper knife, by J. S. Luckey. Most original female character—old maid, Mrs. W. L. Dunlap, picture by Day & Henderson. Most original male character—Woodman, Lester Luckey, perfume by W. I. DeLano. Best dressed lady—Miss Belle Chapman, night, silk umbrella by Hampton Bros. Best dressed gentleman—C. F. Littlefield, Knight, dancing pumps, by J. V. Kauffman.

Judges prizes—Indian, Chas. F. Croner, vases, by Hall & Son. Nun, Miss Madge Batee, picture by E. Schwarzchild. The judges were E. O. Potter, Mrs. J. S. Luckey and Mrs. L. S. Logan.

The committee having the party in charge was composed of C. W. Griffin, Creed Hammond and Frank Taylor, of separate company C, and H. A. Schwering, Ellis Chapman and I. J. Butcher of company C, Third regiment. Their work deserves the greatest commendation.

HUNT WHITE.

At the residence of the bride's mother in this city, Mr. T. M. Hunt, of Cottage Grove, and Miss Charlotte J. White were united in marriage by Rev. Morton L. Rose, Monday morning, Jan. 1, 1900. The young couple left for Portland on the 1:00 train. The many friends of the contracting parties tender congratulations in which the GUARD joins.

Eugene Loan & Savings Bank Business.

The regular annual meeting of the directors and stockholders of the Eugene Loan & Savings Bank, was held in their banking house yesterday afternoon.

The old board of directors and officers were reelected with the exception of vice president, for which office D. A. Paine was elected to succeed B. D. Paine, retired. In addition to declaring the regular dividend, a sum equal to 5 per cent of the capital stock was carried to a surplus fund from the profits of the past year, which has been the most prosperous in the history of the institution.

Hops PURCHASED.—Al Holden agent for Horst Bros., yesterday purchased 153 bales of hops in Southern Oregon for 7 1/2 cents per pound, and the Elmer Yarnell lot of 95 bales, in Eugene, for 7 1/2 cents per pound. He also has orders for about 200 bales more of specified lots. Hops are a little stronger and growers are jubilant over the success of the Oregon Hop Growers Association, which is undoubtedly responsible for the upward tendency. Most of the Lane county hops are already in the pool.

JUNCTION BURGLARS

The Got About $85 Worth of Goods.

G. C. MILLETT'S LEG BROKEN.

SPECIAL TO THE GUARD. JUNCTION CITY, Or., January 2.—Burglars entered the store of Pollock & Warner last Sunday night by breaking out the plate glass in the front window. They secured about $75 worth of goods. They also broke the window in front of C. F. Huriburt's store and appropriated about $10 worth of goods. J. Williams, night clerk at the hotel, fired three shots at the man as he ran from the building, but it being so dark, missed his man.

A BROKEN LEG.

G. C. Millett, our most successful farmer, had the misfortune to have one of his legs broken below the knee today, by being kicked by a bunch grass horse he was trying to break.

GOSHEN AND CRESWELL

Played Good Football With a 5 to 5 Score.

A very interesting game of football was played at Creswell Saturday between the Goshen and Creswell teams. Goshen was confident of victory as the Creswell team had not at any time a full team for practice. The Creswell team played a very strong game, losing the ball but once, and then on a fumble. Stewart, Love, Dunn and Edmondson, put up a good game for Goshen.

The game resulted in a tie with a score of 5 to 5, touchdowns being made by Ford and Stewart. The lineup was as follows:

CRESWELL.	GOSHEN.
Scott	C
Hunter	R G
Martin	L G
Stanton	R T
Howard	L T
McDaniel (capt)	E E
Castel	L E
Tiffany	Q B
Ford	R H
Lindsey	L H
Howe	F F

COTTAGE GROVE CASES.—Today Justice Vaughan tried the case of the State of Oregon vs. George Rouse, at Cottage Grove, for assault on Mask Evans and fined him $5. Then Rouse had Evans arrested on two charges in the recorder's court. On the first charge, of assault he was fined $5; on the second, indecent language before ladies, he got 21 days in jail.
