THE AFRICAN WAR

Boer Tactics a Revelation to the British.

BRITISH SEIZURES INVESTIGATED.

Special to the Guard.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—The Boer tactics are proving a revelation to the English war department. The ability to rapidly mass troops at critical strategic points, good marksmanship and keen generalship are alike inconceivable.

It is considered unaccountable, pending arrival of detailed news, why General Buller did not cross the Tugela river during the attack on Ladysmith.

The queen has sent a message to General Buller, congratulating him on the able defense made of Ladysmith.

The American and German embassies have been in close consultation today, presumably on matters concerning British seizures of various supply vessels.

Three of the bills were on Butte, Montana banks. Mr. Earl offers $20 reward for the return of this money to himself at the Hotel Eugene or to the GUARD office.

BEVERIDGE RESOLUTION

Was Brought Up in the U. S. Senate Today.

FRENCH SANTA DOMINGO CLAIM RAISED.

Special to the Guard.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The resolution presented to the United States senate by Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, to retain the Philippines and control the archipelago was brought up today and was fostered by its author in a speech of great brilliancy. The galleries were crowded, as the young orator and statesman is already widely known. Senator Beveridge spent some time during the past summer in the Philippines, Japan and China studying affairs of state, and the attitude which the United States should make toward this question most likely to result in its good behalf.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—The president of Santa Domingo has succeeded in raising a fund for the purpose of liquidating the French claim against his government.

PULITZER RESIDENCE BURNED

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—The fine residence of Joseph Pulitzer, editor of the World, was destroyed by fire today. Two servants perished in the flames before the firemen could reach them.

DIED.

Another of Oregon's early pioneers has passed to the Great Beyond. Henry C. Owen died at his residence on Eleventh street, January 9, at 2:06 a. m., aged 77 years, 3 months and 22 days, after suffering several months from kidney disease. He leaves four sons and one daughter, J. W. and Clay Owen, of Monroe, Benj. A. and Nesmith Owen, of Lane county, and Mrs. Henrietta Mansfield, who with her husband are running a newspaper at Nampa, Idaho.

MR. OWEN WAS BORN IN LEXINGTON,

Missouri, September 18, 1822, and arrived in Oregon in 1844, coming across the plains with the late ex-Senator J. W. Nesmith, and the late Norris Humphrey, Sr. He settled first at Rickrealt, in Polk county, and was married to his first wife, Miss Elizabeth Nicholls, at that place, in 1848. He came to Lane county to reside in 1851, and settled on Spencer creek, where he still owns 3000 acres of land. His first wife died in the 50's. In

ANOTHER GOOD FIND.

The Noonday Mining Company Opens a Good Ledge on a Lower Level.

ASSAYS ARE VERY SATISFACTORY.

Superintendent D. B. Murray informs a GUARD reporter of a good find made recently in the lower level of the Noonday Mining Company's property in Bohemia. This level had been run several years ago, but the ledge uncovered narrowed until it gave out, and upshooting failed to catch it again. Recently a shaft was sunk and within a few feet a vein about three feet wide, and constantly widening, was uncovered, which gives assays of $60 gold, carrying 11 per cent copper and much galena. The shaft will be continued at least 100 feet, in the hopes that the broken formation higher up will have been left, and stable values in large quantities uncovered.

Mr. Murray went to Cottage Grove this afternoon to disburse about $5700 to the company's employes for labor performed. The company is well pleased with present prospects and will start the stamp mill again in the spring, besides continuing on a large scale the development work.

FUNERAL OF ROBERT CLOW.

The funeral of the late Robert Clow, of Junction, was held yesterday afternoon to the Masonic cemetery of this city under auspices of the grand lodge A. F. & A. M. of Oregon. The following grand lodge officers were present: J. M. Hodson, grand master; Henry B. Thielson, deputy grand master; S. M. Moran, junior grand warder; F. H. Allister, grand treasurer; Jas. F. Robinson, grand secretary; Thos. Gray, grand senior deacon; Darwin Bristow, grand sword bearer. Other prominent members of the order were in attendance as follows: Dr. W. T. Williamson, Salem; Ed. Biddle, Dallas; O. P. Hoff, Irving; S. L. Moorhead, Junction; A. B. Muir, Dallas; H. L. Rann, Junction; B. S. Hyland, Junction; Frank Wilkinson, Junction; J. C. Moreland, Portland; Phillip Malcolm, Portland; D. P. Mason, Albany; W. H. Hobson, Salem; Dr. Geo. Vasil, Cottage Grove.

The remains were escorted from the S. P. depot through the city by the grand lodge officers, visiting Masons members of Eugene lodge No. 11 A. F. & A. M., and Eugene lodge No. 357 B. P. O. Elks, the grand lodge services being given at the cemetery. Besides the officers above mentioned, Rev. J. B. Cleland, of the Presbyterian church acted as grand chaplain.

In the evening the Masons held a special meeting in their hall, continuing the funeral service, and addresses were made by a number of prominent men.

RESIGNED.

Mrs. Ray De Lano has tendered her resignation to the Oregon Telephone & Telegraph Co., as manager of its Eugene station, to take effect as soon as practicable. The appointment of the new manager will probably be announced soon. The Eugene office is doing a large business and now has an eight service. Mrs. De Lano has given complete satisfaction to the company's patrons.

DIED.

The 8-year-old daughter of F. B. Phillips, the Cottage Grove merchant, died at that place this morning.
