LORD ROBERTS

Will Extend Campaign North
From Bloemfontein.

RUSSIA IS CROWDING JAPAN.

Special to the Guard.

LONDON, March 29.—The war department has been informed that Lord Roberts big army will leave Bloemfontein April 2, extending the campaign north from that point. The intention, so current rumor states, is to push the conquest as rapidly as possible, and that it would have begun before this, but for heavy rains which rendered the movement of troops uncertain and slow.

General Gatsere and his force has not reached Bloemfontein, but is expected at any time.

FOREIGNERS ASSIST BOERS.

The London Times claims to have information that within the past few months over 15,000 soldiers have landed in South Africa, for the purpose of assisting the Boers. This information seems credible, for it is known that in many countries, Boer sympathizers have been active in promoting organizations which tended to their relief and support.

RUSSIAN IMPERTINENCE.

Special to the Guard.

YOKOHAMA, March 29.—Russia has made a demand upon the Japanese government for permission to land troops at Masanpho, Korea. The matter causes much feeling in Japanese official circles, on account of other covert acts of Russia, and the demand, if pressed, may lead to complications which will result in open hostilities.

A TOTAL LOSS.

Residence of Mrs. Anna Buck Burned This Morning.

A disastrous fire occurred in the eastern part of the city this morning.
The residence of Mrs. Anna Buck, on Thirteenth street, between Ferry and Patterson, caught fire about 7:30 o'clock and was burned to the ground.
A piano and organ and most of the furniture, except two bedroom sets, was saved, but everything else, including all clothing, went up in the flames. The fire originated from the flue between the ceiling of the first story and floor of the second, and but for the fact that the pump would not work the blaze would have been extinguished with slight loss.

An alarm was sent in to the Eleventh street hose house and the firemen turned out at once. The nearest hydrant was at the corner of Eleventh and Patterson, and after the firemen had laid 1000 feet of hose they could not reach the fire, and sent after another hose cart, which arrived too late to do any good.

The building, which belonged to the W. B. Taylor estate, was insured for $800 and contents $200, in the Springfield, S. R. Williams agent. Mrs. Buck cannot afford to withstand the loss which this fire occasions. Some students boarding in the house also lost clothing, books etc.

Wireless Telegraphy

The recent wonderful accomplishments in wireless telegraphy bring to mind forcibly the value of electricity.
It is probable that much work will be saved by means of this subtle fluid.
There is no limit to its possibilities.
Applied to material objects, it causes them to move as with life, while without it the human body cannot be strong and healthy. The best means of filling the body with vitality is by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Lack of life in the stomach causes indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness and malaria. Any of these symptoms means the Bitters is needed at once. Just now, when the seasons are so variable, and a regular dose will keep the bowels active and healthy.

BRYAN DAY.

The Greatest Orator in America Addresses the People.

ALBANY AND SALEM.

Special to the Guard.

ALBANY, Or., March 28.—Hon. W.
J. Bryan arrived here this forenoon at 8:30 o'clock, some three hours late.
The train was packed with passengers from Harrisburg and way stations. In front of many of the farm houses were men, women and children, cheering the people's candidate as he sped along at 30 miles or more an hour. In Albany a large crowd was present at the depot. Colonel Bryan and guests were driven to a hotel, where breakfast was taken. After breakfast Colonel Bryan passed among the people in a most democratic way, shaking hands with old friends and being introduced to new ones. He makes friends rapidly by his plain ways. He has aged considerably since his visit here two or three years ago. He assures a GUARD reporter that he will be in Eugene on April 5 at 11 a.m. The speaking here was outdoors, near the court house. He was enthusiastically welcomed by from 8,000 to 10,000 people.

Mr. Bryan was introduced by Hon.
J. K. Weatherford, and spoke for two hours and five minutes. He devoted the time to trust, the financial question, imperialism and other questions which the people will not let down.
As a speaker and a ready and convincing talker Mr. Bryan has improved much since his visit to Oregon three years ago, while he has lost none of that sincerity which gives his words such weight with the masses.

Mr. Bryan left on a special train for Salem at 1:30 this afternoon accompanied by members of the state committee who are escorting him on the trip through the state, and a special reception committee from Salem, sent here to meet him. I. L. Campbell, editor of the GUARD, is the Lane county member of the committee accompanying Mr. Bryan.

10,000 HEAR BRYAN.

Special to the Guard.

SALEM, March 28.—Salem has the biggest crowd, gathered in one place, in her history.

Ten thousand people heard Bryan's speech. He spoke nearly two hours and held the great crowd almost to a man. His speech was greeted with tremendous applause.

COMPLIMENTARY REMARKS.

ALBANY, Or., March 28.—Today the name of P. L. Campbell, president of the State Normal College at Mon-as a suitable candidate for congress in the first judicial district on the reform ticket. Most people think it would be the right thing to do. If he will accept such a nomination he will have excellent chances of election.

Murderers in Jail.

G. W. Oliver received a letter this morning from H. N. Sessions, in the employ of the Alaska Steamship Company at Skagway, which stated that the Indians who murdered Mr. and Mrs. Horton are in jail. He further said that any money which Mr. and Mrs. Horton might have had with them was evidently taken by the Indians and spent, hence cannot be recovered. Mr. Sessions says he is attending to all matters necessary there, and any suggestions of the relatives here will be carried out.

THE HORTON TRAGEDY

A Detailed Account of the Brutal Murders.

MRS. HORTON'S THROAT CUT
WHILE BEGGING MERCY.

Their Bodies Covered With Seaweed and Rock.

By the courtesy of George M. Miller, of Skagway, Alaska, the GUARD is enabled to present very full particulars of the murder of Bert Horton and his wife by Alaskan Indians. The Skagway Daily Budget of March 16, has this account of the sad tragedy:

"Last night the steamer Alert steamed in from the Mission with the final evidence of one of the most brutal crimes ever committed in any country.
Marshal Tanner left in the morning, accompanied by a detail of regulars, Commissioner Sehlbrede, W. A. Reid, R. S. Bluneger, F. M. Sessions, T. A.
Fix, J. T. Dillon, M. J. Marovich, A.
J. Slaght and B. M. Woodridge; Dave Willard and Joe, Indian interpreters, and Jim Hanson, the Indian who confessed to the murder of Bert Horton and his young wife. Their purpose was to recover the body of the murdered pair.

THE FINDING OF THE BODIES.

"The Indian Hanson was cool and indifferent throughout, conducting the party to the spot where the bodies were covered with snow and ice, with almost unerring precision, and they were uncovered with but little trouble.
The remains were found beneath six feet of snow and ice in a little rift made by the action of the tide, where, after the crime, the red devils had laid the unfortunate couple, wrapping their bodies in blankets, covering them with canvas and seaweed, and weighting the whole down with rocks.

Horton was laid face down with his head resting on his wife's shoulder, who had been laid on her back. The bodies though not frozen were but slightly decomposed. Horton's body showed evidence of immediate death as Hanson pointed out the spot where they both stood at the time of the deed, and the murderer was but 12 feet from his victim.

Mrs. Horton was shot at a distance of about 150 feet by Kitchiku, and the bullet falling in its work, the deade finished their hellish work by stabbing her in the right side of the neck, and afterward by cutting her throat.

THE MURDERS COMMITTED OCTOBER 14.

"As stated yesterday, the Indian party came across Mr. and Mrs. Horton camping out in October, and yesterday it was learned that the approximate date was the 14th of that month.
Then it was the deed was committed without any cause, except that two of the natives were missing, and the lives of the unsuspecting couple were sacrificed according to the heathenish custom of a life for a life.

"The bodies were taken to the morgue and will be prepared for burial.
"The confessed murderer is stoical and indifferent, and no doubt now that he is converted will make a typical angel when he goes to heaven by the hemp route.

"From information gathered by Judge Sehlbrede yesterday at the scene of the crime, the Budget gives the following sketch of the beach and positions of the participants in the tragedy:

Diagram and Key.

A Where the bodies were found in rill, 300 feet from the tent stakes.
B Where Hanson stood when he shot Horton, a distance of 12 feet.
C Where Kitchiku stood when he fired at Mrs. Horton, who was in front of the tent.
D Where Horton sat when shot by Hanson.
E Where Mrs. Horton stood when shot by Kitchiku, and afterward was butchered in a brutal fashion.

Mixed Trainload From Corvallis.

End of Forest Grove Liquor Case.

CORVALLIS, March 28.—It was a picturesque train that went out of here this morning with excursionists to see Bryan at Albany. The railroad company had calculated that two coaches would be sufficient to accommodate the crowd. After these coaches had been added to the train, and after every spot that would accommodate a passenger was occupied, a large number of people, all provided with tickets, still stood on the platform. Recourse was then had to boxcars, and as the train finally pulled out, after half an hour's delay, it comprised three coaches, a baggage-car and two boxcars.
Not only were the platforms, aisles and seats packed with people, but passengers occupied places on top of the boxcars, on the wood, on the tender, and on the cowcatcher. The train left this station with 440 people on board.

An Editor's Life Saved By Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

During the early part of October, 1896, I contracted a bad cold which settled on my lungs and was neglected until I feared that consumption had appeared in an incipient state. I was constantly coughing and trying to expel something which I could not. I became alarmed and after giving the local doctor a trial bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the result was immediate improvement, and after I had used three bottles my lungs were restored to their healthy state.—R. S. EDWARDS, Publisher of

COATED

Look at your tongue. Is it coated?
Then you have a bad taste in your mouth every morning. Your appetite is poor, and food distresses you.
You have frequent headaches and are often dizzy. Your stomach is weak and your bowels are constipated. There's a reliable cure:

Don't take a cathartic dose and then stop. Better take a laxative dose each night, just enough to cause one good free movement the day following. You feel better the very next day. Your appetite returns, your dyspepsia is cured, your headaches pass away, your tongue clears up, your liver acts well. 25c. All druggists
