

OUR NEW "LEADERS."

The San Francisco Bulletin has the following:

At the Democratic jollification last night there was one resolution that was rather implied than set forth. In regular order it would have followed the first resolution of the string adopted declaring that the American people had determined on a change of leaders, and would have read something like this:

Resolved, That we are the leaders. This was the meaning and purpose of the meeting. If it had not this signification it was a mere idle and noisy ebullition. Nothing, however could more forcibly illustrate the cross-purposes of the late political revolution. The idea is that because the people East don't want Butler and Poland to serve them any longer—are dissatisfied with the doings of Congress and the course of the Administration, and have determined upon some experience in the way of reformation, we must rally around W. B. C. Brown and take "Jim" Farley to our bosoms.

MOVEMENT OF MONEY.

One of the singular financial movements of the times is the fact that San Francisco money is now going to Chicago for investment. Having become impossible to loan the surplus capital in San Francisco at the former rates of interest, it is now flowing eastward and is offered in Chicago in ten year loans at nine per cent. interest. The San Francisco banks have sixty millions of gold deposits in their vaults, and are therefore abundantly able to compete with Wall street, and relieve the so-called stringency in the money market, if any such thing exists, in that part of the world. In fact the time may not be far off when San Francisco will divide with New York the sceptre of money power, and when they shall look to California street rather than Wall street for standard money quotations. At all event there is vast power in hard pan, and a city with sixty millions of surplus of gold dollars in her bank vaults is in a condition to hold a powerful sway over the money kings and money currents of this continent.—Bulletin.

THE TERRITORIES.

There are eleven Bible Societies in Colorado.

Golden, Colorado, furnished 50,000 bricks for the Larmie rolling mills.

A herd of 200 buffaloes stampeded all the pack animals belonging to a company of the Eight Cavalry, down in Colorado not long ago. It took two hours to secure the pack mules and restore order in the column.

Jacob Hoover, of the Washington Territory Legislature, is a native of Oregon, having been born in Washington county in 1844.

The Seattle Dispatch of the 10th inst. says: "The new mineral discoveries on the Skokomish, in Snohomish county, are now the excitement of the city. The assays from four or five well defined and extensive quartz ledges indicate prospects fully equal to Washoe or White Pine.

Mr. W. Blackmore, of England, who has been down the Kansas Pacific, on a grand hunt, is back again. He estimates the annual slaughter of buffalo on the Plains, at from 1,000,000 to 1,500,000. While we are inclined to think this estimate exaggerated, there is no doubt that for two or three years past, the destruction of buffalo has been immense. Mr. Blackmore is of the opinion that there should be stringent laws for the preservation of this noble game.

The Democrat tells of a Benton county woman who recently exhibited $9,000 in gold, remarking that this was the result of her own industry in making butter, selling eggs, chickens, etc., and that her husband had never seen the money before and didn't know of its existence. Such a wife is worth having.

The Eugene Journal learns that there are 19 persons, 16 horses and 4 wagons snowed in at Crescent Lake, on the Military Road across the Cascades. The person who furnished the information came over to Pine Openings on snow-shoes, and sent the news by mail. Snow fell first on the 3d inst.

APPLETONS' AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA.

Entirely rewritten by the ablest writers on every subject. Price from one type, and illustrated with Several Thousand Engravings and Maps.

The work originally published under the title of THE NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA was completed in 1863, since which time the wide circulation which it has attained in all parts of the United States, and the steady development which have taken place in every branch of science, literature, and art, have induced the editors and publishers to submit it to an exact and thorough revision, and to issue a new edition entitled THE AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA.

Within the last ten years the progress of discovery in every department of knowledge has made a new work of reference an imperative want. The movement of political affairs has kept pace with the discoveries of science, and their fruitful application to the industrial and useful arts and the convenience and refinement of social life. Great wars and consequent revolutions have occurred, involving national changes of peculiar moment. The civil war of our own country, which was at its height when the last volume of the old work appeared, has happily been ended, and a new course of commercial and industrial activity has been commenced.

Large accessions to our geographical knowledge have been made by the intrepid explorers of Africa. The great political revolutions of the last decade, with the natural result of the lapse of time, have brought into public view a multitude of new men, whose names are in every one's mouth, and of whose lives every one is curious to know the particulars. Great battles have been fought and important sieges maintained, of which the details are as yet preserved only in the newspapers or in the transient publications of the day, but which ought now to take their place in permanent and authentic history.

In preparing the present edition for the press, it has accordingly been the aim of the editors to bring down the information to the latest possible date, and to furnish an accurate account of the most recent discoveries in science, of every fresh production in literature, and of the latest inventions in the practical arts, as well as to give succinct and original record of the progress of political and historical events. The work has been begun after long and careful preliminary labor, and with the most ample resources for carrying on to a successful termination.

None of the original stereotype plates have been used, but every page has been printed on new type, forming in fact a new Cyclopaedia, with the same plan and compass as its predecessor, but with a far greater pecuniary expenditure, and with such improvements in its composition as have been suggested by longer experience and enlarged knowledge.

The illustrations which are introduced for the first time in the present edition have been added not for the sake of pictorial effect, but to give greater lucidity and force to the explanations in the text. They embrace all branches of science and of natural history, and depict the most famous and remarkable features of scenery, architecture, and art, as well as the various processes of mechanics and manufactures. Although intended for instruction rather than entertainment, no pains have been spared to insure their artistic excellence; and the cost of their execution is enormous, and it is believed they will find a welcome reception as an admirable feature of the Cyclopaedia, and worthy of its high character.

This work is sold to subscribers only, payable on delivery of each volume. It will be completed in sixteen large octavo volumes, each containing about 800 pages, fully illustrated with several thousand Wood Engravings, and with numerous colored Lithographic Maps.

Price and Style of Binding. In extra Cloth, per vol. $5.00 In Library Leather, per vol. $7.00 In Half Turkey Morocco, per vol. 7.00 In Half Russia, extra gilt, per vol. 8.00 In Full Morocco, antique, gilt edges, per vol. 10.00 In Full Russia, per vol. 10.00 Four volumes now ready. Has created many a new business; Has enlarged many an old business; Has rescued many a dull business; Has saved many a failing business; Has preserved many a large business; And insures success in any business. GRUBB'S SECRET.—Stephen Girard used to say, in his old age: "I have always considered advertising liberally and long to be the great medium of success in business, and the prelude to wealth. And I have made it an invariable rule to advertise in the dustiest times as well as the busiest; long experience having taught me that money thus spent is well laid out, as by continually keeping my business before the public it has secured many sales that otherwise would have lost." "The man who didn't believe in advertising has gone into partnership with the sheriff, and that official does the advertising."
