THE NEBRASKA SUFFERERS.

As Account of the Situation at an Eye Witness—Extracts from Gen. Ord's Dispatch—Great Suffering and Prisoners Released.

Stopping at the saloon by the roadside to see for myself the condition of the prisoners and to speak with Mrs. Ross and other Mrs. Ross and her daughter. They live in the same house now. She has been here for some time and asked them many questions.

General B.—Mrs. Beck, will you please tell me what you have found to be the condition of the prisoners? What is your opinion of their treatment? Your family has been here for some time, have you noticed anything out of the ordinary? We have been here two months, and we have noticed nothing out of the ordinary.

Mrs. Beck—We have been here for two months, and we have noticed nothing out of the ordinary. We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly.

General B.—What do you think of the treatment of the prisoners? Do you think they are being well treated?

Mrs. Beck—We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly. We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly.

General B.—Have you seen anything unusual about the prisoners? Do you think they are being well treated?

Mrs. Beck—We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly. We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly.

General B.—What do you think of the treatment of the prisoners? Do you think they are being well treated?

Mrs. Beck—We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly. We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly.

General B.—Have you seen anything unusual about the prisoners? Do you think they are being well treated?

Mrs. Beck—We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly. We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly.

General B.—What do you think of the treatment of the prisoners? Do you think they are being well treated?

Mrs. Beck—We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly. We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly.

General B.—Have you seen anything unusual about the prisoners? Do you think they are being well treated?

Mrs. Beck—We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly. We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly.

General B.—What do you think of the treatment of the prisoners? Do you think they are being well treated?

Mrs. Beck—We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly. We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly.

General B.—Have you seen anything unusual about the prisoners? Do you think they are being well treated?

Mrs. Beck—We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly. We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly.

General B.—What do you think of the treatment of the prisoners? Do you think they are being well treated?

Mrs. Beck—We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly. We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly.

General B.—Have you seen anything unusual about the prisoners? Do you think they are being well treated?

Mrs. Beck—We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly. We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly.

General B.—What do you think of the treatment of the prisoners? Do you think they are being well treated?

Mrs. Beck—We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly. We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly.

General B.—Have you seen anything unusual about the prisoners? Do you think they are being well treated?

Mrs. Beck—We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly. We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly.

General B.—What do you think of the treatment of the prisoners? Do you think they are being well treated?

Mrs. Beck—We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly. We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly.

General B.—Have you seen anything unusual about the prisoners? Do you think they are being well treated?

Mrs. Beck—We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly. We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly.

General B.—What do you think of the treatment of the prisoners? Do you think they are being well treated?

Mrs. Beck—We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly. We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly.

General B.—Have you seen anything unusual about the prisoners? Do you think they are being well treated?

Mrs. Beck—We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly. We have seen nothing that would cause us to believe that the prisoners are being treated unfairly.