The Railroad Problem

The State of Oregon has been peculiarly unfortunate as the foster-mother of railroad enterprises.

And why have the people of Oregon been hostile to Ben Holladay's railroad enterprises? Why hostile, when they gave him, through the Government, a land grant of several million acres, and large private donations in lands, money and products?

But what would be the policy of the old board elected by "watered" stock? Look at the past management of the road under their auspices!

Another picnic.—There will be a picnic next Saturday at Columbia Academy. A game of base ball between the Glencoe and Cornucopia clubs will come off and broken thumbs, bruised shins, black eyes and peeled noses will be the excitement of the day.

Weather Report.—Reported for the Independent. June 3, 6 A. M., 36° rain. 4 " 32 " clear. 5 " 45 " " 6 " 50 " cloudy. 7 " 50 " " 8 " 52 " " 9 " 50 " "

We learn that Glencoe is to have a new store. An East Portland merchant is the man who proposes to do it.

What Will Follow.

If the new board of directors elected at the last annual collection of the stockholders of the West side railroad should be organized by the Court the result cannot be otherwise than beneficial to the people.

Therefore, We, the Alumni and Alumnae and Associated Alumni of Pacific University, do hereby express our sincere respect for the departed and sorrow at his departure and our deep sympathy with the afflicted friends and relatives who can but feel more deeply than we his loss, and in accordance with the foregoing and to best express this feeling we have directed that a copy of the above be sent to the parents of the deceased and also that a copy be furnished the Washington Independent for publication.
