Single copy six months.

single number.

Abraham Davenport.

BY J. G. WHITTIER.

And so, from a brown homestead, where the Sound Drinks the small tribute of the Mianas, Waved over by the woods of Rippowams, And hallowed by pure lives and tranquil deaths. Stamford sent up to the councils of the State Wisdom and grace in Abraham Davenport.

Twas on a May day of the far old year Seventeen hundred eighty, that there fell

Over the bloom and sweet life of the spring, Over the fresh earth and the heaven of noon, A horror of great darkness, like the night In day of which the Norland sages tell,-The twilight of the Gods. The low-hung sky Was black with ominous clouds save where its rim

Was fringed with a dull glow, like that which climbs The crater's side from the red hell below.

Birds ceased to sing, and all the barn-yard v fowis Roosted; the catile at the pasture bars

Lowed, and looked homeward; bat on leath ern wings Flitted abroad; the sounds of labor died;

Men prayed and women wept; all ears grew To hear the doom-blast of the trumpet shatter

The black sky, that the dreadful face of Christ | be helped." Might look from the rent clouds, not as He looked

A loving guest at Bethany, but stern As Justice and inexorable Law.

Meanwhile, in the old State House, dim as ghosts, Sat the lawgivers of Connecticut, Trembling beneath their legislative robes "It is the Lord's great day! Let us adjourn," Some said; and then, as if with one accord, All eyes were turned to Abraham Davenport. He rose, slow cleaving with his steady voice The intolerable hush. "This well may be The Day of Judgment which the world awaits:

But be it so or not, I only know My present duty, and my Lord's command To occupy till He come. So at the post Where He hath sent me in His providence, I choose, for one, to meet him face to face-No faithless servant frightened from my task, But ready when the Lord of the harvest calls; And therefore, with all reverence I would say Let God do his work, we will see to ours. Bring in the candles." And they brought

Then by the flaring lights the Speaker read, Albeit with husky voice and shaking hands, An act to amend an act to regulate The shad and alewife fisheries. Whereupo Wise and well spoke Abraham Davenport, Straight to the question, with no figures of Save the nine Arab signs, yet not without The shrewd, dry humor natural to the man;

His awe-struck colleagues listening all the Between the pauses of his argument,

To hear the thunder of the wrath of God Break from the hollow trumpet of the cloud And here he stands in memory to this day, Erect, self-poised, a rugged face, half seen Against the background of unnatural dark, A witness to the Ages as they pass,

That simple Duty hath no place for Fear. Going to the Dogs.

"I received your bill to-day, Mr. Leonard," said a customer, as he entered the shop of a master mechanic. at this season," returned the mechanic, glad to get money.'

"But you must throw off something. Let me see"- and the customer drew out the bill-"twenty-seven dollars and forty- where and made his purchase. six cents. Twenty five will do. There, receipt the bill, and I will pay you." But Leonard shook his head.

"I can't deduct a cent from the bill, our regular price.'

is." And Baker counted out the cash. me twenty-five dollars, your bill would plenty of money would be secured. have been just that amount. I would not money?

"I cannot, indeed." "Very well." The manner of the customer was changed. He was evidently offended. "The bill is too high by just the sum I asked to have stricken off.

But, no matter, I can pay it." "Then you mean to insinuate," said worth anything?" the mechanic, who was an independent sort of a man, "that I am cheating you out of two dollars and forty-six cents?"

you wouldn't have asked an abatement, course get it all." If you consider my charges just, you wouldn't dispute them."

not waste words about it. Here's your made perceptible inroads upon her heart. laid down. The mechanic receipted the ing an avowal of his attachment, when account and gave the change, both of his father said to him one daywhich his customer thrust into his pocket | "What young lady was that I saw you with a petulant air, and then turned away with on the street yesterday afternoon?" and left the shop without another word.

"It's the last bill he ever has against me," muttered Baker to himself, as he street?" walked away. "If that is his manner of treating his customers, he'll soon go to the dogs. It was downright insulting, head. and no gentleman will stand that from "Do you know anything about her?" another, much less from a vulgar me- asked the son. another, much less from a vulgar mechanic. 'Mean to insinuate!' Humph! Yes, I did mean to insinuate," and Mr. Baker involuntarily quickened his pace. "He'll lose a good customer," he continued to himself. "I've paid him a great deal of money, but it's the last dollar of money, but it's the last dollar of money have here the how much less from a vulgar mechanic. 'Mean to insinuate!' Humph! 'Mothing about her, but I know that error of the clock is $500 a year. The trussed like a duck for a pie, larded with gert any loss of the dogs as fast as ever a man went."

WILD FOWL FIE.—The fowl should be trussed like a duck for a pie, larded with gert any loss of the dogs as fast as ever a man went."

"Indeed! I thought he was very of money, but it's the last dollar of mine her father is going to the dogs as fast as ever a man went."

"Indeed! I thought he was very of money, but it's the last dollar of mine her father is going to the dogs as fast as ever a man went."

"Indeed! I thought he was very of money, but it's the last dollar of mine her father is going to the dogs as fast as ever a man went."

"Indeed! I thought he was very of money, but it's the last dollar of mine her father is going to the dogs as fast as ever a man went."

"Indeed! I thought he was very of money, but it's the last dollar of mine her father is going to the dogs as fast as ever a man went."

"Indeed! I thought he was very of money, but it's the last dollar of mine should be trussed like a duck for a pie, larded with her same to-night."—Bur-lite of the clock is $500 a year. The town the same to insintate, at the end of the next century, and see the work of the clock is $500 a year. The town the clock is $500 a year. The town the same to insintate, at the end of the next century, and see the show much her substitution in this, but we don't think it is work then the same to-night."—Bur-lite of the clock is $500 a year. The two the father is going to the clock is $500 a year. The town the same to nisintate."

"Indeed! I thought he was very on the clo Baker was as good as his word. He out by the sheriff, every day for these two withdrew his custom from the offending years past."

"I've got one of your old customers, Leonard," said a friend in the same business to the mechanic, some six or eight months afterwards.

"Ah! who is it?" "Baker.

Leonard shrugged his shoulders. "How came you to lose him?" "I'll tell you how to keep him." "Well, how?"

"If your bill amounts to thirty dollars, can afford to do; then he will pay it, and | ple than you can possibly have.' think you just the man for him. "You lost him, then, because you even sum.

"No. In that case you must add on until you get above thirty.' "And fall back on that?" "Yes. It will be knocking off odd dollars, which he will think clear gain." "That would be hardly honest."

his custom some other day." "I shall have to accommodate him, I suppose. If he will be cheated, it can't built since I was in this neighborhood."

new tradesman, he obtained an abate-dollars." ment of one dollar and ninety cents odd money, but actually paid three dollars it? Do you know? more than was justly due. Still he was well satisfied, imagining that he had made a saving of one dollar and ninety cents. The not over-scrupulous tradesman laughed in his sleeve, and kept his cus-

Having withdrawn his support from Leonard, it was the candid opinion of Mr. Baker that he was "going to the dogs," as he expressed it, about as fast a hundred thousand dollars." as a man could go. He often passed the shop, but rarely saw a customer.

"No wonder," he would say to himself,

In the eyes of Mr. Baker, the very grass eemed to grow upon the pavement be- or had gone, to the dogs long ago." the bleaching air.

"Going to the dogs, and no wonder," the mechanic's fortunes. One day a such a notion?" mercantile friend said to him-"Do you know anything about this

"Why!" asked Baker. "Because, he wants to make a pretty arge bill with me.' "On time?"

"Don't sell to him. Why, the man is egregious error about old Leonard. going to the dogs, at railroad speed."

im close up. He might have done well, ed and must die. - By T. S. Arthur. or he understood his business. But he's so unaccommodating, and, I might say, insulting to his customers, that he drives the best of them away. I used to make large bills with him, but haven't dealt at his shop now for some time.' "Ah! I was not aware of that. I am glad I spoke to you, for I shouldn't like to lose six or seven hundred dollars." "Six or seven hundred dollars! Is it possible that he wants to buy so reck-"I certainly shall not."

"I want to pay you."
When Leonard ordered the goods, the merchant declined selling, except for

"As you please," returned the chanic, indifferently, and went else-It happened that Mr. Leonard had a very pretty and very interesting daughter. on whose education the mechanic had bestowed great pains; and it also hap-Mr. Baker. Every article is charged at pened that Baker had a son, who, in most things, was a "chip of the old block." "Oh, yes, you can. Just make it Particularly was he like his father in his twenty-five dollars, even money. Here it great love for money; and scarcely had he reached his majority ere he began to "I'm sorry, Mr. Baker, I cannot afford look about him with a careful eye to a to deduct anything. If you'd only owed good matrimonial arrangement, by which Adelaide Leonard, on account of her have added a cent beyond what is due, beauty and accomplishments, was much nor can I take anything less than my caressed, and mingled freely in society. Young Baker had met her frequently, and "Then you won't deduct the odd could not help being struck with her beauty and grace.

"There's a chance for you," said a friend to him, one evening. "Miss Leonard?"

"She's a charming girl," replied the young man. "I wonder if her father is

"People say so."

"I was not aware of that." After this young Baker was exceed-"Oh, never mind, never mind! we'll ingly attentive to Miss Leonard, and > "Her name was Leonard." "The daughter of old Leonard in -

"Yes, sir."

Mr. Baker looked grave, and shook his

"Miss Leonard is a very lovely girl." "There's no gainsaying Adelaide's personal attractions," replied the son; "but if ber father is in the condition you allege, that settles the matter as far as she is concerned. I am glad you introduced the subject, for I might have committed myself, and, when too late, discovered my error." "And a sad error it would have been Henry. In any future matter of this kind, make it thirty-three and a few odd cents, I hope you will be perfectly frank with by increasing some of the items. He will me. I have much more accurate knowlwant the surplus knocked off, which you edge of the condition and standing of peo

The son promised to do what his father wished. From that time the visits to wouldn't abate anything from a true Miss Leonard were abated, and his attentions to her, when they met in society, became coldly formal. The sweet young "Thank you. But suppose my bill girl, whose feelings had really been inshould be twenty-six, or seven, or eight; terested, felt the change, and was for a what then? I couldn't knock off the odd time unhappy, but in a few months she dollars for the purpose of making an recovered herself, and was again bright and cheerful as usual.

One day, about a year after his timely caution to his son, in regard to Miss Leonard, Baker happened to pass along a street where he had not been for some months. Just opposite a large, new, and beautiful "Hardly. But you must do it or lose their last touches, he met a friend. As they passed, Baker said-

"That's an elegant house. It has been "Yes, it is a very fine house, and I suppose On the very first bill Baker paid to his didn't cost less than twenty thousand

"No, I should think not. Who built

"Yes. It was built by Leonard." "By whom?" Baker looked surprised. "By old Leonard. You know him." "Impossible! He's not able to build a "Oh, yes, he is, and a half a dozen more like it, if necessary." "Leonard?" "Certainly. Why he is worth at least "You must be in error."

'A man like him can't expect and don't and this house has been built and is to be have no time. furnished as a marriage present." "Incredible! I thought he was going,

"Leonard!" the friend could not help Dust settled thickly in his window, and laughing aloud. "He go to the dogs. Oh, the old sign turned grayer and grayer in no! There isn't a man in his trade who Baker would say to himself, as he went punctuality are the cardinal virtues of his and be in every sense an intelligent and by. He appeared to take a strange in- establishment, and make all substantial. accomplished woman; then will you be terest in watching the gradual decay of How in the world could you have taken an accomplished housekeeper .- AMELIA girl without a sixpence and with very

"I don't know, but such has been my impression for some time," replied Baker, who felt exceedingly cut down on account of the mistake he had made, and particularly so in view of the elegant house and a hundred thousand dollars, which might all have belonged to his son, "Yes, on the usual credit of six months." in time, it he had not fallen into such an

So the world moves on. People are prone to think that what they smile on "Yes, I'm looking every day to see lives, and what they frown upon is blight-

German Home Life. In everything the German is controlled. He is controlled in his love-makings and marryings; he is controlled in the utterance of his opinion; he is controlled in his goings out and his comings in. The journalist is liable at any moment to fine and imprisonment; the caricaturist to arrest; of liberty of the press there can be no question; of the license of the law no and Homberg, no native officer was permitted to play at the tables; the money of the state must remain absolutely in the state pocket; but this fatherly solicitude would stand gloating through long Sunday afternoons at the heaps of gold, venture at last his florin or his thaler, and retire into his workaday world on Monday a disillusioned chaw-bacon. Control Particularly was he like his father in his garrisoned by Prussian troops, an ardent by some rare chance, in a deserted tea- Health. room alone. The enamored youth had just caught his fair one by the hand, when her most intimate of intimate bosom friends entered. The poor girl started up in terror, and, forgetful alike of her pray, best Evelina, do not say what you have seen." Evelina promised, and the imprudent maiden returned at once to the day after the ardent lieutenant was summoned to an irate general's presence. militaire shot over the frontier! Hear this, gullant young English gentlemen, horse, foot, and dragoons; hear it, too, young English maidens inclining tender ears to manly pleadings, and be thankful

> THE winding up of the going part of dulum being six hundred and eighty -takes five hours each, and this has to be tween. done twice a week. The contract cost of winding up the clock is $500 a year. The

About Housekeeping.

Washington Independent.

We often hear the remark that such shut up for fear of sunlight and flies, and nuity of £450; more money was bor-every step is light for fear of dirt. The rowed for improvements; in all about the Queen, and which were drawn each the most rapid means of propagation; house, to which the painters were giving where, perhaps, things are not in half as where, perhaps, things are not in half as and money. It is about eight miles long, marshalmen, state footmen and yeomen choicer species of clematis, now so much good order, but you are not afraid of and I planted a million of trees on it. of the guard. Within the House of Lords prized as ornamental climbers, take root putting them out of place. those who possessed it to such a degree isted only in imagination. Landor's ex- satins of the peeresses and other -ladies line double camelilas will not grow from time to read, much less to cultivate flow- cast in damages. He was not on good a planet the historic Koh-i-noor diamond. ers and make ornamental things!" I say terms with his neighbors. He applied In front of her Majesty, and between the "No. His daughter is to be married most time. It is those women who will county to be appointed on the commistible Princess of Wales; the Princess Calculate your work so as to get it done. Do not be forever fretting at nothing. Be neat, but not so neat as to make everybody uncomfortable. Cultivate flowers and a love for the beautiful in nature does so good a business, as little show as come so warped that you cannot think of a new and still worse trouble. Three he makes. Good work, good prices, and anything but your housework. Read, years before he had suddenly fallen in in Moore's Rural.

Cure for Freckles.

Grate horseradish fine; let it stand a few hours in buttermilk, then strain and use the wash night and morning. Or ing his back upon Llanthony he tarried a squeeze the juice of a lemon into a half little while on the Island of Jersey, acgoblet of water and use the same way, companied by his wife and her sister, Most of the remedies for freckles are poi- He made up his mind to reside in France; sonous and cannot be used with safety. she had made up her mind to the con-Freckles indicate a defect in digestion, trary. He disliked to have any talk and consist in deposits of some carbona- about it; she would talk of nothing else. ceous or fatty matter beneath the scarf He begged her not to drive him to disskin. The diet should be attended to and traction; she retorted that things had should be of a nature that the bowels come to a fine pass if he must never be and kidneys will do their duty. Daily contradicted, and finally called him an bathing, with much friction, should not old brute. He was almost forty, perhaps be neglected, and the Turkish bath taken twice her age. Before daybreak he was occasionally, if convenient. If the exact up and off alone for France, taking pascause of freckles was known a remedy for sage in an oyster-boat, nobody for a them might be found. A chemist in Mo- month knowing what had become of him. varia, observing the bleeching effect of mercurial preparations, inferred that the growth of a local parasitical fungus was seem to be esteemed very highly for their "We are sending out all our accounts lessly! Take my advice, and don't think doubt. In the old gambling days of Baden skin, which extended and ripened as now there are those who prefer a clergypores in the warmer season. Knowing man of age and experience, as in this inthat sulpho-carbolate of zinc is a deadiy | cident : enemy to all parasitic vegetation (itself not being otherwise injurious), he applied ministry, was met by a couple, as he for the coin of the country did not extend this sait for the purpose of removing the came out of church, who wanted to be itself to the pocket of the peasant, who treckles. The compound consists of two married. He turned back to oblige the five parts of distilled glycerine, twentyfive parts of rose-water, and five parts of buggy to some other church. scented alcohol, and is to be applied twice daily, for from half an hour to an man, "why you first ask me to marry you, touches even the follies and flirtations of hour, then washed off with cold water. the young. Lately, in a northern capital Protection against the sun by veiling and way?" other means is recommended, and in adyoung lieutenant and a coy and bashful dition, for persons of pale complexion, the young woman, lifting up the back maiden found themselves for a moment, some mild preparation .- Herald of

CORN DODGERS .- One quart of corn meal, a tablespoonful of lard, two eggs, of feared you won't marry us right, and with the lard in it with boiling water, who's done it a good many times, and is love and her lover, broke out, "Pray, cool with a little milk, add the eggs sure he knows how." (beaten light); beat very hard for ten minutes; make them thin enough with APPLE JELLY .- Cut the apples in quar-"Young man," said his stern Vorgesetzter, ters. Do not pare or core them; dip each glooming down upon him in grim regu- quarter into clear water, and put them pot duty on the frontier; there you will cook until quite tender. Strain off the an English friend, O'Connell was met by impeachment. Encouraged thereby his money," said Mr. Baker; and he added He even went so far as to visit pretty that your bosom friends are not spies, Frosting—beat the whites of two eggs, political hurrah at a funeral, it was rements martinets in matters of the affecthe oven.

> WASHINGTON PIE .- One cup of sugar, the great clock at Westminster, London, one tablespoonful of butter, four tabletakes ten minutes, the weight of the pen- spoonfuls sweet milk, one-half tabledulum being six hundred and eighty spoonful of soda, one teaspoonful cream pounds; but the winding up of the strikpounds; but the winding up of the strikof tartar, one cup flour. Bake in two itself at the end of this year, to be opened tures of several States have been obliged former is of truth. And there came a ing parts-the quarter part and hour part layers, with jelly, fruit or cream be-

Walter Savage Landor's Freaks.

A writer in the Galaxy says, in speakand such persons are good or poor house- ing of the life of Walter Savage Landor: to descriptions of the scenes witnessed at than the apple or pear, but if it be done keepers, as the case may be, but we sel- Late in 1808 Landor, in a sudden freak, the opening of Parliament by the Queen. sufficiently early in spring the plum may dom stop to think that good housekeep- went to Spain to fight against the French. The route from Buckingham Palace to be so treated very successfully; the peach ing is an accomplishment that very few, Landing at Corunna, he gave 10,000 reals the Palace at Westminster was thronged is rarely grafted at the North, but it succomparatively, possess. Girls are not to the inhabitants of a town which had with eager sight-seers, and Parliament ceeds at the South; this fruit is usually brought up as they were fifty years ago. been burned, and proposed to equip and street had been bravely decked with rel propagated by that form of grafting called As the country has grown richer work has become more of a drudgery, and while the young lady of to-day idles away her time Bridget does the housework. Of course there are exceptions; still, I think there is too little attention paid to teach the ruding at the country has grown richer work has been burned, and proposed to equip and burned, and proposed to equip and burned, and been bravely decked with real propagated by that form of grafting called bunting to the windows and with a line bunting to the windows and with a line bunting to the windows and with a line of flags. The procession moved at the sound of the trumpet, and when her Majest was seen sitting opposite to the lad taken up arms in defence of religion and liberty." He returned to England in a few weeks, without seeing service in the latest and handkerchiefs waving the ruding to the windows and with a line bunting to the windows and with a l ing girls when young the rudiments of field. But this escapade, perhaps, was in the air gave a right loyal greeting, ed in the ordinary way, but the pines only housekeeping. It will do no one any of service to him in the composition of his The state carriage was drawn by eight succeed with herbaceous grafting, and the harm to know how to do all kinds of tragedy of "Count Julian," a work not magnificent cream-colored horses, gaily same, may be said of some nut bearing work, and we live in an uncertain age, unworthy of the author of "Gebir," be-decorated with blue and gold. The pro-cook splendidly and require an abun- him, and which had been in the family the Princess was somewhat paler than which are naturally low, as the weeping dance to cook with, while others will 700 years. His mother sold one of those usual. The Queen wore as head-dress a beech, ash, and popiar, form elegant spemake a good deal of nothing. Some are painfully neat. They keep their rooms gave him the money, subject to an ansat the Princess Beatrice, facing her Major ten feet high. Among ornamental dog and cat have a pinched, far-away £80,300 was expended. "Llanthony," he by six splendid bays, rode the ladies and sometimes a variety cannot be multiplied look, as if they meditated suicide; and it wrote long afterward, "is a noble estate. gentlemen in attendance on her Majesty, by cuttings, but can be grafted upon some is a real relief to step into another house It produces everything but herbage, corn, before whose own equipage walked the related stock that will grow rapidly. The Frugality, we have always been told, altogether, and built a house to pull it The scarlet of the peers' robes, the starred older kinds strike toot freely; the florist is another requisite for a good house- down again." Of the million of trees, and laced coats of the ambassadors and grows these from cuttings, and grafts the keeper, but I presume we have all seen however, more than nine out of ten ex- their suites, the white shawled silks and more difficult subjects on their roots. The that it ceased to be a virtue, while others perience here was anything but a pleas- whom right or fortune had allowed to be cuttings, but are propagated by grafting will "throw out of the window much ant one. By his own account never was spectators of the scene, made a beautiful upon the single kinds which readily do faster than can be put in at the door." a meek and long-suffering landlord so picture. The Queen sat motionless on the so. Epiphyliums and other trailing cachand now as we notice the great differ-bullied and cheated by his arrogant ten-throne, her black velvet dress, trimmed tuses make fine plants by grafting them ence in people, is it not true that good ants. They would not pay their rent, with miniver, standing out in bold relief upon a stout stem of Cereus triangularis housekeeping is an acomplishment? cut down his trees, poached his game, in- against the ermine of the royal robes. or one of the pereskias. Successful graft-There are so many things that are neces- suited him at his own door, and menaced She wore a long tulle veil and small dia ling of the apple upon the maple, the rose sary to make home pleasant and agree- him with violence. One of them had mond crown, with the riband and star of upon the black currant, and the like, is able-books, flowers, and all those little threatened some mischief; Landor posted the Garter and the Victoria and Albert impossible, although instances of it are elegancies that make a house attractive. a hand-bill accusing him of meditating order. A necklace of diamonds gleamed often narrated .- Appletons' American Cy-"I have so much to do I can never find a felony, was prosecuted for libel and in the light, and on her breast blazed like clopadia, revised edition. those who do the most generally have the in vain to the Lord Lieutenant of the Duchesses of Edinburgh and Teck, sat magistrate within ten miles of him. for less than half of what it had cost him. And in the meanwhile he would leave love, by no means for the first time. "

have found," he wrote to Southey, " few accomplishments. She is pretty, graceful, and good-tempered - three things indispensable to my happiness.' He seems never to have thought that good-temper on his part might be indispensable to her happiness. After turn

Too Young.-Clergymen in these days

A young man, in the early days of hi parts of sulpho-carbolate of zinc, twenty- party, and found at the last that they made up their minds to drive in their

"But may I ask," he inquired of the and then change your minds in

No answer came from the groom, but curtain of the buggy, called out,-"Well, you see, I hadn't got a look at the minister afore, and, to tell the truth, you're so young and innocent-like that I'm kind a tablespoonful of salt; scald the meal so I'd rather trust myself to some one

A SINGULAR SCENE. - The Irish take cold milk to drop off the spoon and re- fire easily-especially in their enthusiasm ball-room. But lo! next day the story, with various embroideries, was circulating have the lard boiling hot when you drop O'Connell was so popular in Ireland that have the lard boiling hot when you drop O'Connell was so popular in Ireland that he was once cheered loudly by a funeral procession which he happened suddenly satant recently railied Professor Tyndali

Ascending the mountain road between Dublin and Glencullen, in company with The great scientist didn't deny the soft "Yes. They say the old fellow has laid a funeral. The mourners soon recognized the subject with the view up something quite handsome; and as one wouldn't have asked an abatement. They say the old fellow has laid have ample time to reflect on your injuice as usual, and boil with a pound of discretion." And forth, like a ball from the cannon's mouth, behold our gay young to the cannon's mouth, behold our gay young to the result, with the cannon's mouth, behold our gay young to the frontier. They say the old fellow has laid have ample time to reflect on your injuice as usual, and boil with a pound of discretion." And forth, like a ball from the cannon's mouth, behold our gay young to the result, with the view of discretion. The mourners soon recognized the subject with the view of discretion. The mourners soon recognized thereby his friend pursued the subject with the view of discretion. The mourners soon recognized have ample time to reflect on your injuice as usual, and boil with a pound of discretion. The mourners soon recognized have ample time to reflect on your injuice as usual, and boil with a pound of discretion. The mourners soon recognized have ample time to reflect on your injuice as usual, and boil with a pound of discretion. The mourners soon recognized have ample time to reflect on your injuice as usual, and boil with a pound of discretion. The mourners soon recognized have ample time to reflect on your injuice as usual, and boil with a pound of discretion. The mourners soon recognized have ample time to reflect on your injuice as usual, and boil with a pound of discretion. The mourners soon recognized have ample time to reflect on your injuice as usual, and boil with a pound of discretion. The mourners soon recognized have ample time to reflect on your injuice as usual, and boil with a pound of discretion. The mourners soon recognized have ample time to reflect on your injuice as usual, and boil with a pound of discretion. Sassenach; who, accustomed to the sol-LEMON PIE.-The juice and rind of emn and lugubrious decorum of English one lemon grated into one cup of water, funerals, was not prepared for an outburst one cupful of loaf sugar, the yelks of of Celtic enthusiasm on such an occasion. two eggs, three tablespoonfuls flour. A remark being made on the oddity of a add four tablespoonfuls white sugar, plied that the dead man would have spread on the pie, and bake lightly in doubtlessly cheered lustily, too, if he

A WASHINGTON lady is said to be making both ends meet by charging ten dollars per name for sign-manuals in a book she monte has worked such havoc in the there hung that bucket, as innocent of ital at the end of this year, to be opened tures of several States have been obliged former is of truth. And there came a woman to the back door, and a voice fell like a falling star, "Turn that crank the end of the next century, and see trussed like a duck for a pic larded with

THE INDEPENDENT Advertising Rates.

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS (coin.)

BUSINESS ADVERTISEMENTS (coin. 4 00 5 50 7 00 8 50 10 00 17 50 27 50 5 00 7 00 9 00 11 00 18 00 22 50 35 00 50 10 00 12 50 15 00 17 50 02 50 po 00

NO. 52.

How the Queen Opened Parliament.

pression of her countenance.

seized his hand.

he said as he rose up.

beating painfully.

"You are?"

sent to jail."

"I did."

"Yes, sir.'

have seen?" he asked.

"Is she wittier?"

"Is she more cultivated?"

"No.

No Difference.

"Arabella, I am here to do my duty,"

"Aren't you-won't you-that is- !"

father, and he said if your father had failed for $60,000 he'd made at least $50,- 000 out of it, and of course you'll get due explanations. - Detroit Free Press.

twice as much as you counted on!

ages he could probably recover.

"And didn't you steal two hogs?"

"Well, then, how can it be a slander

"Well, I just want this town to under-a fellow can steal two hogs and go to jail and still have a big pile of good charac-

HER SPECIAL ATTRACTION. -- A brother

upon the subject of his rumored engage-ment to a daughter of Lord Hamilton.

"What then is her particular charm?"

for him to say so?" asked the captain.

"And didn't you go to jail?"

"W-what's the matter?" she asked.

The London papers devote broadsides

Some fruits are more difficult to graft when riches take to themselves wings and fly away so easily that it is sometimes convenient to be able to take care of oneself.

Hardly any two work alike. Some He state which had already fallen to He state which had already fallen to He state with blue and gold. The propagated with blue and gol

I lived there little more than eight months the scene was one of dazzling splendor, with great difficulty, while some of the Old Maids.

When a lady reaches thirty years and next month to an excellent young man, turn around all day in a half bushel that sion of the peace, although there was no Beatrice stood close to the Queen's right remains unmarried, she begins to be hand; the Princess Louise occupied a sim- spoken of as an "old maid" in such a man-Within three years from the time of the jilar position on the left, and other mem- ner and tone as to indicate something of purchase Landor was thoroughly dis- bers of the royal family surrounded them. contempt, carrying with it an idea that if gusted. He would sell it, if he could, Throughout the reading of the royal she had been of any account she would speech the Queen sat motionless on the not have remained single. All of us can throne, scarcely raising her eyes, and look back with very kindly memories of and art, and never allow your mind to be- England and go to France. Hence arose never varying the gravely pensive ex- those who were old maids when we were in our early teens; of their obliging disposition; their handiness in sickness; how indispensable they were at gatherings, at singing schools, at tea-parties and pic-The day had been set, and the young nics; there was not a social gathering of man was happy. When his father failed any kind, nor any emerprise put on foot, in business he collected together all the at which they were not expected to be pink love-letters, the lock of hair, the present to assist by their counsels, their faded violet, etc., and started for her busy fingers, and their willing feet to and honorable, and he felt in duty bound go where duty called; where there was father's mansion. He was high-minded to release her from the engagement. Yet suffering to be alleviated; where there was sorrow, calling for sympathy, and he grew faint as he was ushered into the killing bereavements, to be lightened parior. Such love as his wouldn't stay by their wise words and kindly attention. When there is work to be done in "Gworge! dwear Gworge!" she exchurch, they enter upon it with claimed, as she entered the parior and alacrity, and with an intelligent and hearty co-operation, which compels success. "They are the jewers of my church," said an eminent and gifted divine; "more useful than their married sisters, be-"H-haven't you heard of-of my facause they have more time." There is no ther's failure?" he inquired, his heart growing family that is not the better for having an old maid in it. Let them have "Why, yes, dwear Gworge, and what our respectful and deferential attentions. wherever we meet them, and thus compensate them in small part for the slight-"I'm glad of it-that's all!" she cried. ing manner in which they are treated by some, who would be surprised to know "Of course I am! I was talking with that in so doing they have merited the epithet "ill-bred."-Hat's Journal.

Some girls would have set the dog on Very few who have ever visited the gay him, not having a business father to make French Capital but would like to see it again, for they are pretty sure to have pleasant memories of it -its sunshine and Some Left .- The other evening a very its songs; its music and its mirth; its grand and joyous promenades. One of excited man called at the Central Station and demanded a warrant for the arrest the attractions of Paris is the cleanings, of his neighbor for slander. He was told and tidiness of its streets. If a person how to bring about such a result, and throws into the street even a bit of paper. then he wanted to know how much damthe home in which he is is fined, if he cannot be found. The streets are swept "What is the slander?" asked the capby hand in the very early morning, and everything offensive is removed, and in a "Why, he says I stole two hogs and was thousand ways annoyances are prevented. If a person is found begging a policeman is on the spot to take the individual to

And then so much is done to protect the poor by preventing frauds. The laws of Paris are so framed as to constitute a strong persuasive to honesty on the part of tradesmen. Jewellers are obliged to stand!" shouted the indignant man, "that distinguish plated from genuine ware by the word "imitation" placed where the customers cannot fail to see it. If a grocer is detected selling adulterated articles, he is heavily flaed, his name and place of business is published at his own expense in the official journal, and he is compelled to expose in his store for a specified time a placard stating that he has been fined for selling adulterated goods.

When will Republican America rule so well?-Hall's Journal.

A LEFT-HANDED man on North Hill, ran out, yesterday afternoon, to a chain pump "Is she prettier than other ladies you to get a bucket of water. He made some ill-natured remarks about men making pumps wrong side to and commenced to grind. He turned, and turned, and ground, and ground, and stopped and rested, and talked softly to himself, and ground again, and kicked the pump, and took off "She has less dynamic force," said the lid and looked down into the cistern, and put on the lid and sat down to think, and got up and turned the crank and THE insiduous game of three-card sweat, and kicked the pump again, and