Concerning Declinations.

Dr. Bowlby's card which we publish to-day declining the nomination for State Senator, should have appeared last week, it having been received by Mr. Luelling on Wednesday morning the 26th ult., but it was not presented to us for publication. We regret very much that the Doctor refuses to represent Washington county in the Legislature, as we doubt that as good a man could be found in the county for the office. It is to be regretted also that Mr. Reeves declined to run for Representative as he is a good man for that office. Mr. Gault refused to run for School Superintendent, but now has a nomination for the Legislature and is not to be pitied. Mr. Paulsen declines the nomination for county commissioner. He is said to be a worthy citizen.

No Milk and Water Mon.

The Oregonian advises the State Convention not to nominate "men for office who have occupied prominent places in the controversies, or conflicts, which have of late years distracted the Republican party in this State". This would be a very difficult thing to do, since every one who has any decided principles has taken a decided stand in these controversies. We would rather accept an honorable opponent than a man who has been so cowardly or so dead to the welfare of his fellow-men that he has not declared his convictions in matters so vital. Let the milk-and-water men take back seats.

The Republican Ticket.

The ticket nominated by the Republican convention in this county is a good one. It is composed of men who at the last election were either candidates on the Independent ticket or in sympathy with the Independent movement in this county, and it will doubtless be supported by independent men in such cases where it has a better man than is found on the Independent ticket. This is the position we took before the tickets were nominated and believing that it is a correct one we have no inclination to surrender now.

The Republicans of Washington county have nominated Alho S. Watt, Esq., for State Senator. A better selection could not have been made. If Dr. Bowlby accepts the Independent nomination, the people of Washington county will have the satisfaction of knowing that no matter which ticket be elected they will have such representation in the State Senate as they may well be proud of.—Oregonian.

R. PORTER of Forest Grove perpetrates the following on the political parties in this county: He says that the Independent convention nominated a Democratic ticket, and the Republican convention an Independent ticket, and now the Democrats should meet and put out a Republican ticket.

"Toors," writing from the Grove, says the office for State Senator goes begging. Such men as we want we cannot get. Some Republicans will not vote for a man who kept his mouth shut about Mitchell, and others will not support men who openly adhered to Mitchell, and others will oppose men who opposed Mitchell.

Mr. CLINK who lives in the lower part of this county wanted a nomination from both the Independents and Republicans in this county. He wants to split the county and carry his slice over to Multnomah. That is the kind of metal he clicks of. He consulted Dolph, Cornelius, etc., about the matter and they coincided with Clink.

The Times says Bristow is recognized to-day as a representative of the reform sentiment, and his claim to this position grows stronger steadily.

C. D. WILCOX and W. SIMMONS are the rival candidates for Treasurer. The longest pole knocks down the per-Simmons. Eh "Dad?" SIMMONS was the only candidate nominated in the Independent convention that was cheered. "Dad" is popular.

There are only twenty-seven investigations on foot in Washington.

Connecticut has gone Democratic by 3,600 majority.

Democratic State Convention.

The Democratic State Convention met at Salem on the 26th inst. and nominated Lafayette Lane for Congress.

Presidential electors were nominated as follows: H. Kippell of Jackson; W. B. Laswell of Grant; E. A. Cronin of Portland; G. K. Shiel of Salem; J. M. Shepherd of Baker. Klippell, Laswell and Cronin were the choice of the convention.

The following district officers were nominated: Third district, Bonham for judge; W. M. Ramsey for attorney; fourth district—F. R. Strong, attorney; first—H. R. Hannah, attorney; fifth—McArthur, judge, J. B. Ison, attorney; second—J. M. Thompson, judge, S. H. Hazard attorney.

Delegates to the National convention were nominated as follows: J. C. Brawley first district; Thos. Milliron, second; Mart. V. Brown, third; R. R. Thompson, fourth; J. H. Turner, fifth. H. H. Gilfrey and S. A. Miles were nominated for delegates at large.

"Toots" on Woman Suffrage.

"Toots" says "the Belknap and Williams scandal is all attributable to their wives. Women were always regarded as the weaker sex, but it does not hold good in this case. It is a great pity that Belknap and Williams, the poor innocent fellows, should be seduced by their wives. This is a hard blow to the woman suffragists, as showing the character of that class of women who seek political power."

We must differ with our humorous friend a little. The case of Mrs. B. and W. does not prove them to be stronger than their husbands, but weaker, on the principle that the seducer is weaker than the seduced. And we do not see how the fall of these two women can affect woman suffrage, since it is not shown that they are woman suffragists; or if they be, and their fall be urged as an objection to woman suffrage, the fall of their husbands would be a similar objection to man suffrage.

The Logic of Figures.

The New York Bulletin gives the following mathematical expression of all the villainies practiced in the country:

Taxes in 1860, Federal, State, and city, $154,200,000. Taxes in 1875, partly estimated 640,000,000. Increase in total of all taxes, 315 per cent. Increase in National population 43 per cent.

This tells the whole story. There is nothing so eloquent as these passionless statistics. The effect of this enormous increase of our burden is thus logically set forth by the above journal:

- 1.—It is driving capital out of the country.
2.—It is shutting out foreign labor.
3.—It is pauperizing our working population.
4.—It is consolidating aristocratic tendencies.

Prescription for Hard Times.

A friend sends us the following excellent prescription for hard times:

- 1. Keep cool yourself.
2. Try to keep others cool.
3. Be economical in your expenditures without being close.
4. Be generous in employing others, if it will pay actual expense.
5. Remember the more actively money circulates the better, therefore do not hoard up coin.
6. Pay your just dues promptly.
7. Be accommodating to your debtors. Give time for payment if it can be done without injuring your own credit.
8. Abandon the credit system as far as possible. Stick to the cash system if you are doing it already. Buy nothing on credit that is not actually necessary.
9. Above all things keep busy. Have either hands or mind occupied in something useful.

Card Playing in County Offices.

HILLSBORO, April, 26, 1876. EDITOR INDEPENDENT.—It seems to me that common decency and a respect for the office ought to prohibit the playing of cards in any public place where all classes of people congregate to do business, more especially the prostitution of a county office into a card playing den. Such is the case with our county treasurer's office, and without stopping to discuss the question whether there is any harm in playing a game of cards or not, I insist that county offices is no place for card playing, Sunday, Monday, or any other day. Will they stop it or will some one have to speak of it before it gets into our churches. Ed. Browns.

New Fire Extinguisher.

We condense from the Scientific American a long description of the novel fire extinguisher lately put in the New York Tribune building. The building is eleven stories high. The engine is placed in the sub-basement of the building and consists of a cylindrical tank holding 180 gallons of water, hung on pivots in such a way as to be inverted by the lifting of a latch rod. Sixty pounds of sub-carbonate of soda are mixed with the water, and a jar containing 18 lbs. of sulphuric acid is put into the tank. When the tank is inverted the chemicals mix and produce carbonic acid gas, whose expansive force drives out the water with a pressure of 120 pounds to square inch. From the tank to the top of the building runs a standpipe to which is attached a stop-cock and hose in each story. A wire rope connecting with the trip, also runs through the building. In case of a fire it is only necessary to pull the wire rope on any floor, open the stop-cock, and direct the stream on the fire, the whole occupying about 20 seconds.

A number of gentlemen recently assembled in the Tribune composing rooms to witness the first trial of this fire extinguishing apparatus. The trip was pulled from a room in the eleventh story above the engine, and 10 seconds later a stream of water charged with carbonic acid gas was pouring from the nozzle of the 50 ft. hose. With an elevation of 176 ft., and a length of pipe and hose amounting to 251 feet, a stream of water was thrown horizontally 75 ft. from the nozzle against a stiff wind. It was estimated that the stream of water could be kept up for about a half an hour. After the force of the engine was exhausted, the spectators went to the basement, and witnessed the tripping of the tank. The tank was then refilled, the work occupying about ten minutes.

The main point of superiority in this apparatus is the quickness with which the stream can be directed on the fire after it has been discovered. Another important advantage is in the action of the chemicals, which are mingled with the water, and which aid materially in stopping the fire. They instantly smother it, rendering the charred wood incombustible. The fire does not return to the spot on which the spray falls. The apparatus is simple in construction, and so made that it will not fail to at a moment's notice though allowed to stand for ten years without a change of chemicals.

The Foreign Ice-Trade.

The first cargo of ice sent abroad from the United States was shipped by Mr. Frederick Tudor, of Boston, who sailed with 130 tons in his own brig the Martique in 1805. He persevered in the business, though making little or no profit until after the close of the War of 1812. In 1815 he obtained the monopoly of the Havana business and important privileges from the Cuban government. In 1817 he introduced the trade into Charleston, S. C., the next year into Savannah, and in 1820 into New Orleans. Frequent disasters attended his enterprises, and in 1832 his entire shipments amounted to only 4,352 tons, the whole of which came from Fresh Pond in Cambridge. In May, 1833, he sent the first cargo of ice to the East Indies, which was delivered at Calcutta in the autumn of that year. Of 180 tons, one-third was wasted on the voyage, and 20 tons more in going up the Ganges. It was packed in large blocks closely fitted together between a double plank casing filled with dry tan. At the present time a waste of nearly one half is expected on this voyage. In 1834 the first cargo was shipped to Brazil by Mr. Tudor. Until 1832 he conducted the whole trade; but as it became profitable others began to enter into it; and from other ports besides Boston. That port, however still has the great bulk of the trade. The total exports from the United States to foreign ports for the year ending June 30, 1873, were 53,553 tons valued at $188,095, of which 48,890 tons, valued at $165,848, were from Boston.—Appleton's American Encyclopedia, revised edition, article "Ice."

The shrewdest yet A applied to B for a loan of $100. B replied: "My dear A, nothing would please me better than to oblige you, and I'll do it. I haven't $100 by me, but you make a note and I'll endorse it, and you can get the money from the bank." Grateful A proceeded at once to write the note. "Stay," said B, "make it $200. I want $100 myself." A did so, B endorsed the paper, the bank discounted it, and the money was divided. When the note was due B was in California, and A had to meet the payment. What he is unable to cipher out is whether he borrowed $100 of B or B borrowed $100 of him.

European Grain Market.

LONDON, April 28.—The grain trade remains dull, and only those markets where deliveries are scanty are firm. English wheat at the leading exchanges is steady but foreign is about a shilling per quarter lower. Barley and oats at provincial markets meet with fair demand. Prices generally maintained. Maize, beans and peas either neglected or purchased scantily at six pence to a shilling per quarter decline. The month of May will not lack a fair supply of foreign grain, if the ships due arrive punctually. Nearly 600,000 quarters of wheat, 25,000 quarters of maize, and 500,000 quarters of barley are expected. Nineteen ships are due within the week from the Black Sea, Sea of Azof and the Danube. The continental markets are generally firm of wheat, flour and rye. The latest Paris prices are about 49s 2d and flour 49s 5d. In Market Lane to-day all branches of trade were inactive. Wheat and flour were neglected and lower. Maize is unchanged, but buyers were holding off; oats entirely lost; barley steady, and beans and peas unchanged. The weather has been changeable, but favorable to crop prospects.

STATE AND TERRITORIAL.

Splendid volunteer crops of wheat are being raised in Utah this year.

On Saturday last the Republicans of Coos county nominated B. B. Jones for State Senator, H. H. Lewis for Representative Jay Tuttle for Clerk, Alex. Stauff for Assessor, D. Cathcart for Surveyor, C. Warner and Kenyon for County Commissioners, F. E. Winchester for Treasurer.

The Columbia county Republican ticket is as follows: Representative, T. A. McBride; sheriff, R. Campbell; clerk, E. W. Conyers; Superintendent of schools, B. F. Giltner; surveyor J. S. Rynearson; treasurer, Wm. Meeker.

The following is the Yamhill Republican ticket; State senator A. R. Burbank; representatives, J. J. Henderson, Henry Lamson, Dr. H. R. Littlefield; county commissioners, J. W. Cook, Wm. Ball; clerk M. Redding; sheriff F. K. Hubbard; treasurer, John Bird; assessor, F. A. Ford; surveyor Charles J. Handley; school superintendent, T. H. Story; coroner, F. E. Spencer.

There are 118 public schools in New Mexico all told. The number of children in attendance is 4,694. There is only a small number of these schools in which the instruction is in English. In about 30 of them it is partly English and partly Spanish. In several of the counties the schools are directly supervised by Roman Catholic clergymen.

There is some discouragement felt over the grain prospect, both by disappointed farmers and expectant business men, but there is no particular ground for alarm, as Oregon seasons are very accommodating and seldom fail of securing good returns. On flat lands wheat can be sowed with almost certainty through the greater part of May, and in case farmers fail to put in all their land they can rest assured that the remainder can be summer fallowed without loss other than deferring the returns to another season.—Farmer.

A young man was arrested in Tillamook last week on charge of stealing a horse in Polk county. His name is Elmore.

The protracted meeting at Month, held at the Christian church, which closed last week, resulted in thirty-five accessions to the congregation, as follows: Thirty by confession baptism, one from the Baptists, one by letter and three reclaimed. The following is the Republican ticket nominated in Benton county: For Representatives, James Chambers, R. A. Bensell, Tollert Carter; Sheriff Sol King; Clerk B. W. Wilson; Treasurer, Joshua Mason; Assessor, James H. Miller; School Superintendent, E. B. McElroy; Commissioners, James Gingles, James Edwards; Surveyor, Geo. Mercer; Coroner, J. A. Davis.

In 1875, according to a speech in the Dominion parliament, from Oregon and Washington Territory, there were "sent into British Columbia 728 horses and 1,181 head of cattle, which were entered at less than half their value on bogus invoices. There were also sent 1,454 swine, 8,400 sheep, and other things in proportion.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—Counterfeit five-dollar gold pieces of platinum plated with gold have been detected in this city. One was presented a few days ago to the Bank of California, and was sent to the mint for assay, when its true nature was discovered. Several hundred dollars of these spurious coins were offered to be placed in the bank on deposit by a sea captain, who claims he obtained them at Panama at usual rate of exchange.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The House committee on Pacific railways to-day came to a favorable conclusion on the Senate bill giving eight years' additional time to the North Pacific Railroad Company to construct and complete their road. The bill secures the rights of settlers on the lands withdrawn from the market for the benefit of the company, and gives the company other lands instead.

OTTAWA, Canada April 25.—The ice in the lower Ottawa moved tearing away a storehouse and badly damaging Trousseau wharf, at Plantagenet. A number of wharves were wrecked at different places. The ice is about two feet thick, and moved with great rapidity.

LEAVERTH, Ks., April 23.—Advices have been received that some time on Thursday night a family of emigrants, named Baker from some where in Pennsylvania, were massacred by Indians about 100 miles northwest of Custer city. The family consisted of man, wife and 12 children, all of whom were brained with hatchets or tomahawks, and then scalped. The wagon belonging to Baker was riddled of everything valuable and carried off. The bodies of the victims were decently buried when found.

A BARBER who was stooping to wash his hands in a creek, didn't notice the peculiar actions of a goat just behind him, so when he scrambled out of the water and was asked how it happened, he answered: "I dunno, 'zactly, but 'pear'd of de shore kinde as 'bisted and frowed me."
