Politics in Washington County.

The political situation in this county is mixed. Patched and piebald don't describe it. Republicans, Independents and Democrats grow inside their own pet circles like forty tom-cats on a moonlight "jamboree," or mercilessly pelt their opponents with sharp quilllets of the brain. It is rich. We are growing fat as Falstaff on the fun. Here are Independents on the Republican ticket who are trying to read their titles "straight" to mansions in the Republican skies, with a lone Mitchell apologist on the same ticket who in the general disgust for his adulterous master turns Judas; and Democrats on the Independent ticket who, as Republicans Democrats assert, have been instruments for Holladay, and would like to be tools for Grover, and who want to split the county, and one of whom was a candidate on the Republico-Democratic fusion ticket two years ago. Such another Pandora's box of inconsistencies and absurdities was never known. Eat dirt! Why, either ticket would choke a brick-yard dirt-mill to swallow it all. About the only consistent thing in all of it is that Hughes and Humphreys favor opposite tickets! Porter, Sweek and Chenette are mad at the entire "caboodle." Colonel Cornelius says nothing but, like the fellow who was kicked down stairs, does a deal of thinking. And Cave, who a month ago was red-hot for the nomination of Bowly or Humphreys for Senator, is so "straight" now that, compared with him, Mitchell is as crooked as Babcock's whisky.

But there are some good men on both tickets and we hope they will be elected. The people will soon have an opportunity to hear from the opposing candidates and judge for themselves.

Grant in His Cups.

It was to be expected. The telegraphic dispatches stating that Grant has taken to his cups in his difficulties, though it does shock, does not surprise any one. A man who was intemperate from his early youth, whose associations were low and immoral, whose instincts were as low as his associations, and whose only ambition lay in fast horses and bull dogs in his cups would impulsively act just as Grant has done. And that he has appointed and kept around him such villains as Babcock, Shepherd, Belknap, Harrington, etc., was entirely consistent with his character. While we do not believe that he has shared any of the profits of the "swag" or directed the operations of the thieves and public plunderers that swarm in every department and hold possession of the White House, yet he is not such a fool but that he has long known of their villainies and indirectly assisted them; or if he has been ignorant of their crimes and corrupt management, it is only explainable on the supposition that he has been drunk, as the dispatches state, and for charity's sake and the smothered honor of the Nation, we would prefer to believe this supposition. Such is the consequence of electing immoral men to office.

Independent Appointments.

Last Monday the Independent county central committee appointed the following candidates to fill vacancies made in the ticket by declinations: John Richardson for State Senator; T. B. Handley for Representative; Dr. F. A. Bailey for Co. School Superintendent. It is our opinion that the ticket would have been much stronger by nominating Mr. Handley for State Senator.

State Tickets.

The Republicans, both Independent and "straight," are well satisfied with Williams, and the Democrats, though many of them do not like Lane, will generally support him as it will be a square fight. The Independents in this quarter will swallow the Republican electoral ticket, though a bitter pill, if Bristow, or Blaine, or both, be behind it.

Last Wednesday, May 3d, the Salem Woolen mills were destroyed by fire. The manufactory was the property of Wm. Griswold, and was valued at $125,000. There was $7,500 insurance on the buildings and machinery and $75,000 on the material in course of manufacture. The loss of these mills is a great one to the State.

Grantism Approaching Its End.

Some individual in any Administration may yield to temptation, but public opinion has been making that excuse very long and patiently for the Administration. When it was known that somebody about the White House held scandalous relations with Corbin, that was passed as an exception. Some body disgraced the party in the Leet and Stocking affair, in the selection of Casey and Murphy, in the sale of arms to the French, in the Santo Domingo affair, in the transactions of Boutwell, Richardson, and Akerman, in the Secor business, and in the Chorpennin claim; but these a patient public opinion called exceptions. Attorney-General Williams rode in a landulet, but that was an exception. Secretary Delano and his son John caused a shameful scandal, but that was an exception. Secretary Robeson was accused, but men thought that partisan hatred might have prompted the accusation, and that if he was guilty that was an exception. The district of Columbia was outrageously robbed, but when Shepherd was appointed a Commissioner, and Safe-burglary Harrington met the President as a welcome guest, men called these the gutters of London in order to escape from a British Court, but that was an exception. McDonald went to jail, a deceased but trusted friend of the President was named as a party in a plundering conspiracy, and the President's private Secretary was indicted, and was saved from the penitentiary only by the evidence of the President, and a most extraordinary order from the Attorney General preventing evidence for the Government; but these it was charitably said were exceptions. Then the private Secretary, thus acquitted, visits the convict McDonald in his cell, and returns to announce to the Senate of the United States "a" message from the President" even while these words from lips so long silent in the prisoner's dock, were yet echoing through the Senate Chamber, and Senators were crowding to congratulate him upon his escape from State's prison, in another room in the Capitol a witness was presenting under oath and with unanswerable documentary evidence, the proof that the Secretary of War had for years been selling the offices in his department. No, Republicans! this will not be passed as an exceptional case. Grantism has come to judgment at last. This infamous abuse of the public service for personal and partisan gain has borne its inevitable fruits.—New York Tribune, March 4th.

A Good Nomination.

The nomination of Hon. R. Stott of Multnomah county for Prosecuting Attorney for this District meets with general satisfaction in this county. He will poll the entire vote of both wings of the Republican party and will receive a good many Democratic votes besides. He is a native of Washington county was raised and educated right here among us, and knows our wants and will work for our interests. He was elected to the Legislature the last election on the People's ticket in Multnomah and assisted materially in shaping and securing reform legislation whereby many thousands of dollars were saved to Washington county and the State. His Democratic competitor, Fred Strong, Esq., is a worthy young man to whom we have no objection, but Mr. Stott has been so closely identified with our interests in the past that we feel safe in giving him our entire support. He has received a collegiate education, and has been for several years in the practice of law in Yamhill and Multnomah counties, and will make an efficient Prosecuting Attorney. He will carry this county by at least 300 majority.

Rhode Island Election.

The Rhode Island election resulted in the choice of Addeeman, Republican candidate for Secretary of State, supported by the Prohibitionists, by 11,000 majority. There was no choice for Governor and Lieutenant Governor by the people. Lippett, Republican, will probably be re-elected by the legislature, which is five-sixths Republican, and is understood to be largely in favor of the re-election of Anthony as Senator. The following is an approximate for Governor:—Lippett 8,212; Howard Prohibitionist, 6,227; Beach, Democrat, 3,472. The House contains 63 Republicans and 9 Democrats; the Senate 27 Republicans and 9 Democrats.—Erebian.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

Last Thursday the Republican State Convention assembled in Portland, and organized by electing Hon. Cary Johnson president and Joseph Simon secretary. The following platform was adopted:

The Republican party of Oregon, in convention assembled, makes this declaration of its principles and policy:

Resolved, That in this Centennial year of American Independence we again affirm our devotion to those fundamental principles upon which the Republic and the Republican party were founded. Among these are—

1. Unswerving fidelity to the constitution and the perpetuity of the Union.

2. The preservation of the liberties and equal rights of all citizens throughout the nation, and the impartial administration of the laws in every part of the country, for the protection and enforcement of public and private rights and the punishment of violence and crime.

3. Pure and economical administration of every department of the government, State and National, and we pledge the support of the Republican party to all measures honestly proposed and wisely designed to promote the moral and material prosperity of the people.

4. That a well instructed people alone can be permanently free, it is therefore essential that the public school system shall be maintained in order that every child may receive such education as will fit him for useful citizenship, and we are unalterably opposed to any division of public school money for any purpose whatever.

5. That while we are in favor of revenue for the support of the general government by duties on imports, sound policy requires such adjustment of these imposts as to encourage the development of the industrial interests of the whole country, and we commend that policy of national exchange which secures to the working man liberal wages, to agriculture remunerative prices, to mechanics and manufacturers an adequate reward for their skill, labor and enterprise, and to the nation commercial prosperity and independence.

6. That the best interests of all citizens of every condition and pursuit imperatively demand the speediest return to a specie basis of values and currency, and we hail with gratification the act of a Republican Congress definitely providing for that end.

7. That we are in favor of untiring protection and punishment of public fraud and crime, straw-bidding and peculation in office, wherever existing, and we repeat the injunction, "Let no guilty man escape."

8. We demand that our national candidates shall be men of tried integrity, who will carry out this great policy of reform, and preserve inviolate the great results of the war.

9. We arraign the present State administration and its supporters as corrupt and profligate. They have robbed the common school fund; they have been guilty of party legislation; they have squandered our patrimony in lands, and heaped upon us a debt of over $300,000 in direct violation of the constitution.

Richard Williams was nominated a candidate for the XLV Congress. For presidential electors the following gentlemen were nominated: W. H. Odell, J. W. Wats, J. C. Cartwright. Delegates to the National Republican convention: J. C. Tolman, B. C. Van Houten, J. H. Foster, J. B. David, H. K. Hines, H. W. Scott and J. B. Montgomery were nominated delegates at large.

District candidates: First District—Judge, J. F. Watson, Prosecuting Attorney, W. B. Higby. Third District—Judge, R. P. Boice; Prosecuting Attorney, Geo. H. Burnett. Fourth District—Prosecuting Attorney, R. Stott.

The convention endorsed Hon. J. G. Blaine of Maine for President or the U. S. James S. Holman was nominated joint Senator of Polk and Benton by the delegates from those counties.

The Democratic Platform.

The following is the platform adopted by the Democratic State convention held at Salem on the 26, ult.

The Democracy of Oregon in Convention assembled reaffirms the platform of principles adopted at the last Democratic State convention, and adopted the following in addition to the same, to wit:

Resolved, That the action of the Democratic House of Representatives of the United States, in ferreting out corruption and bringing criminals to justice, merits the commendation of every true patriot.

Resolved, That the large influx of Chinese immigration to the States of the Pacific Coast of America, has been a curse to the country; that the Chinese are a people that are not, and can never be brought to have any interest consistent with the welfare and prosperity of our Government or its institutions; and that we pledge ourselves to use our best endeavors for the adoption of such measures as will prevent and cure this growing evil.

Resolved, That our inestimable system of common schools, and our no less valuable schemes of religious toleration, are the workmanship of Democratic hands, and the fruits of Democratic policy; that it is the exclusive right and duty of the State to provide for the education of its children; and it having been a principle established in the formation of our State Constitution that no public funds of any class should be used for sectarian schools or societies we declare our faithful adherence to this principle and oppose any invasion of it, that is the inalienable right of every citizen to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience, and no political disabilities should be incurred by reason of religious belief; and while we defend these principles and institutions to the fullest extent, we deprecate all attempts to raise sectarian issues as utterly unbecoming and reprehensible and meriting the emphatic condemnation of every good citizen.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

ANTIOCH, Cal., May 1.—A fire occurred here which was the culmination of an excitement which has been growing since last Saturday, when one of our doctors informed various parties that several boys had visited a Chinese house of prostitution on the outskirts of the town and were now, in consequence, under his treatment. In a short time their parents heard of it and extreme measures were talked of, but better counsel prevailed. On Saturday morning thirty-five or forty citizens proceeded to the Chinese dens and notified them to leave town before 3 o'clock, or trouble would ensue. This all promised to do, and several of them started up the river in a sail-boat for Stockton and others taking the steamer for San Francisco. Among the latter was one woman who was nearly gone with disease. A boss Chinaman was sent with them, but much against his will, it required the efforts of two men to get him on the boat. It being supposed that the woman had left for good, the excitement subsided. However, on Saturday afternoon, it was reported that the woman who had started for Stockton had returned which revived the excitement of Saturday but nothing occurred to break the quiet of the Sabbath until about 8 P. M., when a cry of fire was raised, and it was soon apparent that action had been taken. Chinatown was on fire, and a crowd of curious lookers-on assembled, together with the fire company, but little was done to stay the progress of the fire, and all but two of the buildings were destroyed—the inmates fleeing terror stricken. How the fire was started no one knows. To-day the remaining buildings have been removed, and Antioch is now free from this degraded class.

Baron Rogge, La., May 2.—At the municipal election held at Plaquemine yesterday, the entire Democratic ticket was elected by a large majority.

Clark the governor's private secretary received the following telegram this afternoon: Bull Eagle and hostile chiefs are doing their utmost to persuade the young men all to leave the reservation. It is feared a raid on the frontier settlements is contemplated. Sitting Bull is getting large quantities of ammunition from a band of half-breeds camped near Bear Butte, northeast of the Black Hills. Gen. Crocker's expedition will start out on or before May 15th. It will be divided into three detachments. The main one under Gen. Crocker in person will leave the U. P. R. R. The second part under Gen. John. Gibbons, will move down the Yellowstone. A vigorous and active campaign will be prosecuted all summer.

The Washington correspondence of the Boston Herald says the next President, if he be chosen from among candidates now prominent, is not likely to be a poor man. On the Republican side, Blaine is richest; Bristow and wife are worth a quarter of a million; Hayes is still better off; Cokling is believed to possess over $100,000 while Morton and Wheeler have smaller fortunes. Tilden on the Democrat side, is wealthiest, he being put down at 4,000,000 or 5,000,000; Davis owns more than $1,000,000 and Thurman has a large fortune; Bayard is well to do, while Hancock is in comfortable circumstances.

New Yorks, Beecher lectured at the Academy last night, in the aid of the new Soldiers' Home. The house was jammed in every part. Beecher received a great welcome. Thirteen thousand and seven hundred dollars was raised in a few minutes.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, May 5.—Col. Quintana, with 200 Federals occupied Neveva Loredo. Col. Fomeyer, with 300 Revolutionists, is outside preparing for an attack. Considerable excitement exists at Plegeras Negras. The Revolutionists, with 300 men are waiting outside for reinforcements before attacking the place. The most of the Federal custom house officials are in Eagle pass, Texas for safety.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Sargent's speech on the Chinese question made a good deal of impression on the Senators and has since been the subject of frequent reference especially his showing that the Chinese do not come here for citizenship, and their corrupting influence on the morals of communities; but the accounts of violent expression on this subject coming by telegraph, are tending to destroy the efforts made here. It is very important that the people of the Pacific coast restrain all expression of mob passion, so as to give their friends here a chance to secure them relief from existing evils.

WINNEMCCA, May 5.—Rover, the murderer of Sharp, has at last received his sentence. When asked by the court could he give a reason why the sentence of death should not be passed upon him the prisoner arose and, producing several documents, read to the court eight different points, in which, he alleged, unjust and illegal testimony had been admitted into court, and also that the jury were biased and prejudiced from reading journals containing comments upon his case, which papers were distributed broadcast throughout the country. Rover closed his remarks by quoting pieces of poetry. Judge Bonafide replied to the prisoner in a solemn and impressive manner, that 12 jurymen thoroughly and searchingly examined, and found to be unprejudiced and unbiased, had found him guilty of murder in the first degree beyond a reasonable doubt. The court then passed sentence to the effect that J. W. Rover be hanged on the 16th of June next. Rover, rising, exclaimed, "Judge your sentence I cannot help; but you will know the truth of this matter." An impression prevails that Rover is touched with insanity, or otherwise a hardened and confirmed villain.

Population of Japan.

The most noted cities of Japan are Tokio, the capital (formerly called Yedo, Kioto, Ozaka, (or Osaka), Nagoya, Hiroshima, Saga, Kagoshima, Kanagawa, Fukuoka. The above named are cities of the first class, each reckoned to contain at least 100,000 inhabitants. Nagasaki, Kumamoto, Fukui, Kurume, Yokohama, Gifu, and Yonezawa, rank in the second class, having more than 50,000. Hakodate (Hakodadi), Matsume, Niigata, and Hiogo, have from 20,000 to 50,000 each. There are probably fifty cities more, containing on an average more than 20,000. The population of Japan has never been properly ascertained, the Japanese method being merely to count the houses, and average 5 persons to one house. Such a "census" was taken in 1891, and gave a population of 35,000,000. A hasty estimate made by the Department of Education in 1872, and about 33,000,000 souls were reported. Foreign travelers and those who have long resided in Japan assign 20,000,000 as the highest, and 15,000,000 as the lowest figures. Shikoku, Kiusiu, and the central provinces are thickly populated, especially along the great roads. In the north part of the main island the population is thin, and in the whole of Yezo, Karafuto, and the Japanese Kuriles, according to the native estimate, there are fewer than 60,000. Tokio (Yedo) contains 800,000, Kioto 567,334, and Ozaka 530,885 souls.—Appleton's American Cyclopaedia, revised edition, article "Japan."

The reduction in the navy bill amounts in reality to nearly $5,500,000, and the appropriation is so fixed that the department cannot spend more than its appropriation during the coming year.

Successors to EMIL LOWENSTEIN & Co. and HUBBERT & SHINDLER. Manufacturers and Importers, Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Furniture, Bedding, Carpets, Paper-Hangings, Oil-Cloths, Mirrors, etc. etc. Warerooms—Cor. Yamhill & First Sts. Steam Factory Cor. Madison & Front Sts., Portland, Oregon.

WE CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE citizens of HILLSBORO and vicinity to the fact that we have our summer stock of furniture, also carpets, oil-cloth and wall-paper which we offer at greatly reduced prices. To the Grangers we would say buy furniture of this house made from our Oregon ash, maple and alder. We do not keep Pine and Redwood furniture made in California. And if you want a first rate Spring bed, Wood, Hair, or Palm mattress, everything at this establishment is clean, new and fresh, not a pound of second-hand material used. The Oregon Furniture Manufacturing Company is managed by men who have spent the best part of their lives in building up the furniture business in Oregon and we claim to know the wants of the furniture trade. See and price our goods. We warrant satisfaction.
