The Discussion.

Last Saturday after dinner, according to notice, Hon. J. W. Watts and Dr. F. A. Bailey discussed the questions at issue between the two great political parties which they represented. The Hillsboro brass band furnished music for the occasion. W. H. Parker of Cornelius was elected chairman who called the meeting to order when the debate began. Watts had one hour and a mation. quarter to open and fifteen minutes bate though long was interesting appeal. and retained the audience until near the close. The speakers were frequently cheered while making their telling points or eloquent periods. As usual the partisans of each tho't that their side won. It is our opinion, however, that they were pretty equally matched. It takes a man to handle Dr. Bailey as those who have tried him can testify. Dr. Watts is well posted, however, and made it interesting work for his opponent. We took notes and aimed to give a full report of the speeches but the press of other matters crowded it
