THE ACTUAL MAJORITY SHOULD ELECT.

It is a fundamental idea with the American people that the majority shall rule, and that a majority or a plurality, shall be required to elect. This is not only the common sense view of the case, but is supported by decisions in the courts. The Oregonian cites the case of Crawford vs. Dunbar recently decided in the Supreme Court of California, Chief Justice Wallace, a Democrat delivering the opinion, which is a case in point as to all these cases where electors, technically intelligible, have been elected by the majority of votes. In the case above cited Dunbar was a Collector of Customs at Stockton and received 1,702, while Crawford received only 1,852, and Phelps 830. Crawford, being the next highest, Dunbar, contested on the ground that Dunbar was ineligible, but the court decided that his ineligibility did not make the votes for him a nullity. After reciting the facts set forth, Chief Justice Wallace, quotes the case of Saunders vs. Haynes, 13 Cal., R., 145, to support his decision.

"An election is the deliberate choice of a majority or plurality of the electors' body. This is evidenced by the votes of the electors. But if a majority of those voting, by mistake of law or fact, happen to cast their votes upon an ineligible candidate, it by no means follows that the next to him on the poll should receive the office. If this be so, a candidate might be elected who received only a small portion of the votes, and who never could have been elected at all but for this mistake. The votes are not legal votes because given to a person in whose behalf they cannot be counted, and the person who is next to him on the list of candidates does not receive a plurality of votes because his competitor was ineligible. The votes cast for the latter it is true, cannot be counted for him; but that is no reason why they should, in effect, be counted for the former, who, possibly, could never have received them. It is fairer, more just and consistent with the theory of our institutions, to hold the votes so cast as merely ineffectual for the purpose of an election, than to give them the effect of disappointing the popular will, and electing to office a man whose pretensions the people have designed to reject."

And we predict that if the case of Watts and other electors ineligible on account of holding offices under the Federal Government at the time of their election should be taken to the courts they will be decided as was the case above. And so with the cases of Southern electors said to be ineligible on account of disabilities incurred in the rebellion. Also the election in Kentucky will not be decided null because the Democrats voted directly and so unlawfully for President and Vice President instead of voting for the electors. The actual majority when cast for an elector cures all defects, for this is a country where the majority must rule else the people must relinquish the right to rule and hand the Republic over to monarchial government.

If Governor Grover should refuse to issue Elector Watts his certificate of election we feel satisfied that he will neither be sustained by the courts nor the fairer and more intelligent portion of his political friends.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA MUDDLE.

The complication in South Carolina still continues. The Federal troops assisted by the State Militia guard the State House. The Democrats and Republicans have organized two separate Houses each claiming to be the legal body and both recognizing the Senate. General Ruger who commands the U. S. troops has threatened to eject the Edgefield and Laurens county delegations, thrown out by the returning board, and the Democratic Speaker just elected, but better counsels have prevailed in Grant's cabinet and the rights of South Carolina it is hoped will be respected. The Federal troops have no constitutional authority to meddle with State Legislatures only to see that peace is preserved and the laws of the Government enforced. It is reported that 10,000 armed men are within ten minutes reach of the State House ready at the call of the Democrats to spill blood. It is probable that the Democratic House will prevail and elect Hampton Governor and a U. S. Senator.

The Democratic House proposes to investigate the reason for the President's assembling troops at Washington at this juncture. The World (Dem.) demands that Grant be impeached for the Federal troops taking possession of the South Carolina State House.

The KuKlux of Louisiana attempted in two instances to wreck the train on which Sheridan and his troops was embarked destined for that State, but they failed to accomplish their nefarious plans.

PROGRESS IN STATE DEVELOPMENT.

Kansas is now the twelfth State with a compulsory education law upon its books. The following are all the States which have indulged in this kind of legislation: New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Kentucky, Rhode Island, New York (to go into operation January 1, 1875), New Jersey, Michigan, Kansas, Texas, Nevada, and California.

The Illinois State taxes for 1874 amount to 24 cents on each $100 valuation of taxable property. This rate will raise $1,500,000 for revenue purposes and $1,000,000 for school purposes. The rate last year was 26 cents on the $100, and the amount raised was $2,500,000 for revenue and $1,000,000 for school purposes. The amount actually produced is $2,896,662. The excess above the amount required for abatements and expenses of collecting the tax is about 10 to 12 per cent., which is the usual amount allowed for this purpose.

They have a State Board of Equalization in Indiana. This is one of the results of it: The County Assessors this year returned an aggregate of taxable property, $650,000,000. The State Board looked over it, figured same, and raised the amount to $950,000,000. The report of the Board says one of the greatest troubles encountered in the equalization of taxes is owing to the loose laws relating to corporations. It is suggested that penal laws be enacted compelling them to make yearly reports of their business and profits to the Secretary of the Board.—Exchange.

The Inter-Ocean's New Orleans special explains the press dispatch about the visit of white Democrats to Eliza Pinkston last night. The purpose and attempt was made to kidnap her and destroy her fatal testimony. She identifies by name one of the scoundrels who outraged in Ouachita. The Democrats are furious at Palmer's outbreak but try to laugh it down and sneer at the Pinkston testimony in a brutal manner. The attempt to prove alibi today was a failure, and the testimony stands. The morning Democratic papers exclude entirely her evidence pleading lack of space. No business man in New Orleans dare publicly condemn the outrages. Hundreds of other witnesses are here to testify to other great outrages on Republican voters, but the board can't hear them.

As advertiser in the Bee adjectives quite uselessly, if not blasphemously, "devilish ham, devilish shoulder," etc., for sale, thinking doubtlessly he has found something new under the sun. Now it is decided on pretty good authority that the gentleman who holds the first patent right on the brimstone remedy took up his abode with the swine on a certain ancient occasion, and to the best of our information and belief, he has never vacated his residence. As proof, conclusive to every one having had any experience, we adduce the fact, that when a hog gets into a grain field or garden it is an utter impossibility for him to see the place where he came in, without the encouraging voice of a savage canine in his rear.

Congress convened on the 1st. The Democrats elected Randall Speaker of the House. An exciting session is expected.

The official vote Florida gives Hayes & Wheeler 42 votes. The Democratic House will try to "re-construct" this return.

HUMOROUS.

The Shelbyville (Ky.) Republican says that the worst case of self-shame that it has been permitted to present to the public, emanated from a youth who complained because his mother put a bigger mustard plaster on his younger brother than she did on him, after they had been eating molasses and hard apples.

A dorky who was stooping to wash his hands in a creek, didn't notice the peculiar actions of a goat just behind him, so when he scrambled out of the water and asked how it happened, he answered: "I danked 'zactly, but 'pear as ef de shore kinder 'busted and trowed me."

"But why do they call it 'crooked' whiskey?" asked Martha Jane. "Because," answered Fitzballe, gravely, "altho' it is generally 'tizen straight, 'tizen was a common mosh of it are nearly always on a 'bender." She was satisfied.

A Vassar College girl wrote home: "Doe Paw-paw, we staly Lutin fo' ovals a day, French, seven up and sience evah so lounge. The good matrons nevah let us go ovet. Won't you, send me my leggins and skates for a poor little girl who lives in the village. Don't forget the heel strap."

STARTLING SCENES IN THE RETURNING BOARD.

Testimony of Eliza Pinkston—A Horrible Story of Brutality.

New York, Nov. 29.—The Times New Orleans special says a startling scene occurred before the returning board to-day. Four witnesses were examined. All had been wantonly shot because of their Republican principles. Two were brought to the city on cots. Ben James, Eaton Longwood, H. Burrell and Eliza Pinkston. During the latter's painful recital of her wrongs, of her husband's emasculation, and then killed before her eyes, of her babe whose throat was cut in her arms, of her own gashed breast and limbs, and finally of the outrage of her person by ten white Democrats, ex. Gov. John M. Palmer, of Illinois, leaped from his chair and said in wrath, "If this story be false, those who prepared it for this poor woman should be hanged, but as I firmly believe it is true, the wretches who can perpetrate such atrocities should be executed without mercy. I will spend ten thousand dollars to ferret out this case. It looks true; this poor woman has certainly been cruelly wronged. The question is broader now than President making; it is one of humanity. If she has told the truth, Sheridan should come back at once and hold with a grip of iron the people who can see such infamy without remonstrance even in their public prints." Gov. Palmer was greatly excited while making these remarks, and astounded the Louisiana Democrats who tried in vain to pacify him. Gen. Geo. Smith, of Wisconsin, also exhibited much excitement, and turning upon the local Democrats said, "you have deceived us." Subsequently Trumbull, who was absent from the room during the woman's recital, concurred with Gen. Palmer. The demoralization of the Democrats here is complete, not only because of the facts disclosed, but because of the names of leading Democrats who are exposed in detail as murderers and ravishers. Other witnesses, men and women who had cruelly suffered, are yet to take the stand. To-night, the chief of police has been compelled to station a force around the domicile within which Mrs. Pinkston lies prostrate in bed. A turbulent Democratic crowd is assembled and loud with menaces. At last it is evident that Northern Democrats cannot return home and sneer down the Southern Democratic outrages as myths. Testimony which John Sherman, Gen. Garfield, Eugene Hale, Gen. White, Courtland Parker, E. W. Stoughton and Judge Kelly will furnish the North, will startle the whole country. Following is Mrs. Pinkston's statement: On Saturday night, the 4th, Henry Pinkston, a respectable colored man who was known in Island district of Ouachita parish, went to his cabin after, as he stated, having had a consultation regarding the election with a number of Republican leaders. He was known in the parish as a steadfast and somewhat demonstrative Republican, but fearing for his life he had recently joined a Democratic club. According to the sworn statement of his wife, which is now before me, he went quietly to bed on the night in question, not fearing or apprehending any danger. At about 3 o'clock next morning, a number of men from their voices were known to be white, came to the cabin and knocking at the door said "come out here, Pinkston, your Yankee friends want to take you to Monroe." To this Mrs. Pinkston, who thought she recognized the voice of the speaker, replied: "You are no Yankee, you are Dr. Young." A man named Gogan, who was afterwards recognized by Mrs. Pinkston, immediately answered, "Dr. Young is not in the parish." After a few more words of no importance had passed between the terrified woman and the men outside, Gogan broke down the door, and a number of armed men, among whom Mrs. Pinkston recognized Doctor Young, Billy Parks, Gogan, Frank Durham, Beck Baker, and others, rushed into the room. They went up to the bed where Pinkston was lying and dragging him out on the floor cried, "You will vote no more radical tickets." Here Beck Baker said, "We must tend to the work, boys." They then commenced firing their pistols at Pinkston. He fell; his wife screamed, and one of them struck her over the head with a heavy navy revolver. She was cut and shot in several places. Her jaw was broken but she did not die. When she had been tended to the men took her husband, tied a handkerchief over his mouth, and carried his bleeding body out of the house. They killed him. Before he died he begged them to spare his life, saying, "I will vote the Democratic ticket, sure." "No," said one of them, "and damn your nigger heart, you have fooled us long enough; now you must die." Having killed her husband, the men next turned to the wife. Her infant lay at her side. They cut its throat from ear to ear and threw the dead body into a pond near by. They left the cabin and blessing childless widow of their victims. She saw them no more. There are 2,167 Republican voters in that parish where Henry Pinkston lived, but only 751 of them went to the polls on election day.

Telegrams.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 23.—At midnight the State house in Columbia was occupied by Federal troops, who camped on the rotunda and kept the doors barred. This morning a guard of sentinels was formed around the building and admittance was denied to all except those having passes from Gov. Chamberlain's private secretary, W. R. Jones. The streets of Columbia are thronged with people from all parts of the State. Quiet reigns, but the excitement is intense.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—The Times' special says: Carl Schurz says according to present accounts from South Carolina I and all order-loving citizens must conclude that there is an usurpation of power which has no ground to stand on, and unless a different state of affairs prevail than the dispatches indicate the people will loudly protest against this overstepping of all party boundaries.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—The steamer Britannia, which sails from Liverpool for New York tomorrow, takes out $1,250,000 in American gold coin. Silver is quoted at 54 1/4.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The Herald announces that Tweed has determined to dismiss all his counsel and let the law take its course.

OMAHA, Dec. 2.—It was discovered yesterday that the Nebraska constitution provides that the legislature shall canvass the electoral vote. The governor not being aware of this, had not convened the legislature, and was about to canvass the votes himself. When informed of the law, he hastily issued a proclamation convening the assembly. The Democrats, it seems, had been cognizant of this for some time and kept it secret in hope, by technicalities, to throw out the State.

COLUMBIA, Dec. 2.—It is reported to-night that preparations are being made by the State constabulary or militia to remove the Democratic speaker from the chair he occupies, and eject the Democratic members of the Edgefield and Laurens counties delegations which the Republicans claim were not legally elected. The report states that they will be sustained by United States troops. Owing to all these reports the Democrats are preparing for the worst. It is feared they will resist the State constabulary, but not the troops. A large number of people are expected to arrive at the State Fair, in anticipation of Hampton's inauguration. The situation is not without interest.

The State.

Twenty-two thousand bushels of wheat were sold at Eugene on Friday of last week at 92 1/2 cents per bushel.

The saved lot of cattle, from the wreck of the Daisy Finckworth, reached Astoria on the 24 ult., seventy-five head short of the count that left The Dalles.

The Oregon City Enterprise says Mr. Richard Hurly has assayed several lots of the bonanza deposits in Wasco county, and it assayed for $100 to $3,000 per ton. The ore assayed last week, furnished by a gentleman living in the southern part of the county, and said to have come from the mine, failed to show any trace of silver. The last assay was of ore furnished by the owners of the mine.

The Dalles Mountaineer says: The Columbia river is about 15 feet higher at this point than is usual for this season of the year. On Tuesday morning a large quantity of cord wood was floated off the beach in front of town—the river having raised some four feet during the night previous. From our up country exchanges we learn that a large quantity of rain has fallen this autumn than was ever before known.

The Benton Democrat says that Ed. Hite near Corvallis, having been drinking to excess fell in the fire in a bachelor's house, and when found him lying partly in the fire, with the flesh burned from his hips, a hole burned to the cavity of the abdomen his face terribly burned, and one of his ears burned off. He lived but a few minutes after being found.

OREGON Furniture Man'f Co. MARK WELL THESE FACTS! THE TESTIMONY OF THE WORLD. Holloway's Pills. Let the Suffering and diseased read the following. Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following. Let all those who can believe facts, and can have faith in evidence read the following. Know all men by these presents, That, on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, and being duly sworn he deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States and dependencies thereof for preparations of medicine known as Dr. Holloway's Pills and Ointment, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief. JAMES SMETTRE, Notary Public, 14 Wall Street, New York. June 1st, 1868. DR. HOLLOWAY:—I take my pleasure to write you of my great relief, and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your Pills. Oh, Doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough, I thank you again and again and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you and hope you will not take it amiss. JAMES MYERS, 116 Avenue D. This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhea, and have been cured by Dr. Holloway's Pills. WILSON HARVEY, 21 Pitt Street, New York, April 7, 1866. The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring molten iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The molten iron was thrown around him in a perfect shower, and he was burned dreadfully by him, about eight weeks after the accident. New York, April 7, 1866. My name is Jacob Harby; I am an Iron Foundry. I was badly burned with iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal. I tried Holloway's Ointment and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true and any body can see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 24 Avenue. J. HARBY, 119, Goerch Street.

Extracts from Various Letters. "I had no appetite; Holloway's Pills gave me a hearty one." "Your Pills are marvelous." "I send for another box, and keep them in the house." Dr. Holloway has cured my headache that was chronic. "I gave one of your Pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day." "My business of a morning is now cured." "Your box of Holloway's Ointment cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Ointment on behind the ears, and the noise has left." "Send me two boxes, I want one for a poor family." "I enclose a dollar, your price is 25 cents but the medicine to me is worth a dollar." "Send me five bottles of your pills." "Let me have three boxes of your Pills by return mail for Chills and Fever." I have over 200 such testimonials as these, but want of space compels me to conclude.
