LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Religious Notices.

REV. FATHER BLANCHET will hold divine services at the Catholic Church to-morrow, at the usual hour.

REV. M. A. WILLIAMS will hold divine service at the M. E. Church to-morrow at 11 o'clock a. m.

DISORDERLY HEATHEN.—Last Sunday the balmy stillness of the air, which had theretofore been broken only by the pealings of the church bells and the musical jingle of the glasses in the saloons, was stirred by a howl of mingled rage and anguish in the Chinese quarters, and instantly after by a confusion of tongues, which would have made the talkists at the building of the tower of Babel shut their mouths in utter shame. Our efficient town Marshal, who is always on hand, put in an appearance and immediately came out of the crowd of grating and talking Chinese, having a celestial by the collar with one hand and a formidable Chinese knife in the other. It seems the Chinaman had struck a Chinese countess with the knife; fortunately for her it was in the scabbard. On Monday he was invited to an interview with Recorder Hayden, who eased him of ten dollars for the benefit of the town, as the price of his Sunday amusement.

A GOOD ROAD.—Mr. W. J. Pymale deserves the thanks of all those who travel the road in his district. We understand that he has graveled the Ball Lane which was a terror to travelers in the winter time, and has made many other improvements on the road, for which he certainly deserves great credit. It is a rare thing—and we say it with great regret—to find a real supervisor with energy and judgment enough to perform his official duties, as Mr. Pymale has done and is doing his. When such an one is found, as Capt. Cottle says, we "make a note of it." That note—albeit it is hoping against hope—that the other supervisors may follow Mr. Pymale's example.

THE BIG RIVER.—We learn from Mr. L. Z. Ger, of the mining company now engaged in turning Rogue river at Big Bar, that the river "raised on them" some 20 inches, on Monday last. The company, nothing daunted, however, "saw the raise," and will "go the river some few days better on their works," as they by the 20th of July the works will be completed and the bed of the river laid bare. Success to the enterprise.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—We learn from Mr. L. L. Lott, of Mr. Robt. Rose had his leg fractured by the falling of a book in his mining claim in Attorney Josephine Co., on Saturday last. This accident happened in the same place, in the same claim, where a Swedish miner, whose name we have forgotten, was injured in the same way. This man subsequently committed suicide, in a fit of despondency, while suffering from the wound.

IN TOWN.—We have the pleasure of meeting Mr. Dennis Crowley, of Link river, in town this week. Dennis reports everything flourishing in the Lower Klamath Lake. Crops look well, and immigrants flying from the drought of California, are flocking into the Lower Klamath basin by way of Pitt river and Big Valley. Dennis also says, what we are very glad to hear, that they are chiefly Democrats.

THE GREAT MAMMOTH CIRCUS COMING.—We call the attention of the public to the notice in another column to the advertisement of this Great Show, that will visit our town on Saturday, the 24th inst. The reputation of its being a good thing precedes it, and we feel safe in assuring the public that it will fill its bill. Old and young—little and big—all, come and see it.

HARVEST HANDS.—Our farmers are making great complaints of the scarcity of harvest hands. They cannot be got for love or money. If some of those unemployed laborers the Portland papers speak of, who lodge out on the wharves and can find no employment, were here they would find no lack of opportunities to make an honest livelihood.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Richard D. Markland of Oregon, Holt county, Mo., in town this week.

Messrs. Jacob Ish and Wm. Bybee have returned from the North. Alex. H. Miller and Capt. Free are in from Klamath Lake.

B. F. Dowell, Esq., returned home on Monday. D. L. Watson, Esq., and wife, arrived here on Tuesday, from Coos Bay.

SHOOTING AFFRAY AT SALEM.—On the 14th inst., a shooting affray occurred at Salem between W. H. Watkins, Supt. of the Penitentiary, and S. A. Clarke of the Statesman. Watkins attempted to cowhide Clarke, who drew a knife; Watkins then shot four times inflicting a slight wound in Clarke's hip. Cause, newspaper article on Schulz's escape.

MASONIC CELEBRATION.—Next Saturday, the 24th inst., being St. John's Day, will be celebrated by the Masons of Jacksonville and vicinity with a grand procession, oration by Rev. I. D. Driver, and a supper at Horne's Hall in the evening.

ACCIDENT.—We learn that Capt. Rowley had the misfortune to cut his foot severely across the instep one day last week, near Rock Point.

Examination of the Pupils of the Sister's Academy.

The whole of Wednesday was occupied in the annual public examination of the pupils of the Sister's Academy, at Horne's Hall; and we are constrained to say, that the exercises reflect great credit, both upon the teachers and pupils. The exercises were delivered by music, and declamations and dialogues, all excellently rendered. The forenoon was employed in the examination of the smaller classes, at which we were unfortunately unable to be present.

In the afternoon the higher classes were examined in Reading, Spelling and Dictating, Grammar, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, Astronomy, Botany, Chemistry, Book keeping &c., and manifested the highest proficiency.

The young lady graduating this year—Miss Ida Beach—is particularly worthy of special notice. Her demonstrations of the problems in the higher branches of Mathematics, and her examination in Algebra, Bookkeeping, Grammar, and in short every branch taught, exhibited a thoroughness and promptitude constituting the very highest encomium that could be paid to the mental endowments and industry of the young lady, and at the same time reflects the highest credit upon the method taught in this school.

It is difficult to discriminate, when all the pupils exhibited great proficiency in their studies; but we feel bound in justice to mention Misses Lillie Horne, Annie, Amelia and Matilda Miller, Ella Grider and Carrie Beach, as pupils who would do high honor to any institution of learning in the State.

Our German friends tell us that the song Wendie Schwalbe Heimweh, Zeihen by Misses Louisa Horne and Amelia Miller, with guitar accompaniment, was an excellent performance; we did not consequently the words, but any reader of the music, both vocal and instrumental. The declamation, "Belshazzar's Feast," by Miss Amelia Miller, "Christ stilling the Tempest," by Emma Horne, and "The Inquiry," by Annie Little, were creditably given. We regret that we cannot notice the dialogues and other exercises more in detail, but our space will not permit it.

In closing this brief notice of the examination, we regret to have anything to disprove. But we must lift up our voice and bear testimony against the exorable practice of bringing small children to such a place. It is exceedingly trying to the patience of even so amiable an individual as ourselves, to become interested in exercises such as those given on Wednesday, and while listening to catch every word, to be interrupted and diverted nearly wild by a babel of small tongues, and the chatter of a host of small shoes marching in and down stairs, and the performance of infantine gymnastics on the benches and chairs, interspersed and enlivened by divers falls and bumps, followed by a chorus of dismal howls and yells. The noise made by these youthful foes of silence, was sometimes absolutely deafening. On Wednesday last, and need I to make out think a great deal of probability even if he did not utter it. The practice should be stopped; no person has a right to bring a child to such places, whose noise may interrupt a whole audience and entirely deprive every one of comfort and enjoyment. Keep the very young children at home and make the larger ones behave themselves.

IN DURANCE VILE.—We learn that Barclay and Rose have been undergoing imprisonment in the guard-house at Ft. Klamath for some three weeks. Barclay is charged with selling liquor to the soldiers on the military reservation, and Rose with building the house in which he did it. They were imprisoned by the orders of Capt. Goddard, late commandant. The prisoners deny the house was on the military reservation. In this connection, we also hear of an act of petty tyranny on the part of Capt. Goddard, which we are very loth to believe, and until we are further advised we shall withhold comment. It is asserted that the Capt. denied to the prisoners any communication either with friends or counsel. The commandant permits free communication with the prisoners.

KLAMATH ITEMS.—We are indebted to Mr. A. H. Miller for the following items from Klamath: Mr. George Nourse intends to put up a two-story hotel at the mouth of Link river—"Link City" is growing in importance.—Immigrants are pouring into Klamath Lake Valley. They come from the Willamette Valley chiefly, and are settling principally on Lost river and Alkali Lake. Large quantities of stock are being driven into these valleys.—Crops of grain look remarkably well.—Black crickets have made their appearance in vast numbers, and threaten serious damage to the grass and grain.—A company of cavalry, under command ofrevet Maj. Jackson, has been stationed at Ft. Klamath, in addition to the company of infantry already there. Maj. Jackson has command of the post.

THUNDER-GODS.—A lot of Gov. Gibb's old cheese knives have been laying in the gun house attached to the jail, ever since the "Mountain Rangers" laid down their arms in 1865. Last week the indefatigable captain of the Thundermuggins, Ben. Sachs, dug up the aforementioned cheeseknives, and according to the prescription of the House Committee on Military Affairs, of the last Legislature, poured "coal oil" in the scabbards to thaw them out, and proceeded to arm the entire band of thundermuggins with the discarded weapons of the Rangers. The result was, the deep silence of the midnight hour was startled by the clank of sabre and the clank of martial heels, as the valiant Captain led his heroes on the war-path against Joe Wetterer. Joe had fortified his counter with divers glasses of lager, on barbettes, and stood behind his entrenchment calmly awaiting the enemy. The Thundermuggins charged gallantly, and seized the guns and discharged their contents—into their own stomachs. But valiant Joe replaced the lost guns with new ones as fast as they were taken, until the front of his entrenchment was covered with the bodies of the slain, and those who were left returned demoralized to sleep in their accommodations.

FOR THE INSANE ASYLUM.—On Thursday last Mahala Bogue aged eighteen years, an idiotic daughter of Amos Bogue, was examined before the County Judge and ordered to the Insane Asylum at Portland. She left for her destination on Thursday in charge of Deputy Sheriff Foudray and Mr. Bogue.

The Masonic Grand Lodge meets at Salem on Monday the 20th inst.

STAGE TIME TABLE.—Last week we chronicled the fact that the stages made close connections here every day at 7 o'clock p. m. This week "we take it all back;" the stages have gone to changing time again; a performance, by the way, to which they have been constantly treating the travelling public for the past six months. We are happy to announce, however, that we have made arrangements whereby we are enabled to place before the public a correct time schedule, to which, we are assured by competent authority, the stages will hereafter run till further notice.

O. & C. Co's stage, d'ly from 1 a. m. to 11:59 p. m. depts.

O. & C. Co's stage, d'ly from 1 a. m. to 11:59 p. m. depts.

THE FIRST GRADUATE.—Miss Ida Beach is the first graduate of the Sister's Academy at this place. No person who listened to her examination on Wednesday last, or who was present at the exhibition will deny that she has nobly earned her honors. We tender her our hearty congratulations on her graduation, and venture the prediction that this epoch in her life, which reflects so much credit upon herself and her Alma Mater, is but the prelude to higher and greater literary honors to be won hereafter. May the Institution furnish many such rich ornaments to society.

SCHULTZ, the noted desperado, whose exploits terrified the Portlanders out of their seven senses last summer, has abruptly left the hospitable abode which the State provided for him; and W. H. Watkins, the energetic Keeper of the State Boarding House, refuses to be comforted. Hackney, a pal of the desperado, who departed at the same time, was persuaded by a farmer with a shot gun to return to Mr. Watkins's hospitable mansion.

MULES FOR MARKET.—Mr. M. Hanley, of this county, started South with a band of 50 fine mules, which he raised on his own farm near this place. Mr. Hanley is one of our most enterprising stock raisers, and has taken great pains in fattening his horse stock.

HOW HIGH IS THAT? THE WHITE PRINCE.

THE IMPORTED PERCHERON OR NORMAN horse will be kept the coming season, commencing February 1st, at my farm, near Ashland, on the stage road, till April 1st. From and after April 1st to July 1st—Tuesdays and Wednesdays—at the stable of Reames & Wilson, Jacksonville; Fridays and Saturdays at my farm.

THE WHITE PRINCE

Was imported from France by the Darby Plains Importing Company of Union county, Ohio, in July last. I purchased him in November, and shipped him, with One Full Blood and two three-quarter blood Percheron mares, by rail to Chico, Cal. He is a light, dapple gray, 5 years old the coming Spring; weighed when shipped in Ohio, 1,680 lbs., at maturity, in good condition, will weigh 1,800 pounds,

has large, broad, fleet limbs, good disposition, pleasing countenance, fine style, good action, and has never been bred to any extent.

While in the East hunting for a horse to bring to this coast, I saw nineteen imported Percheron horses, and I am satisfied The White Prince is

FORM, SIZE, STYLE AND ACTION

Surpasses them all. In this selection I was assisted by Mr. Jas. Fallington, ex-President Ohio State Agricultural Society, and to be as good a judge of this stock as any person in the United States. He was one of the first importers, is familiar with their endurance in France, and their breeding qualities in Ohio.

Those who have read in the American Agriculturist and other agricultural papers, know the world-wide reputation of

The Percheron

I would here say, that well informed horsemen were acquainted with this stock, and The White Prince was as promising a young horse as they had ever seen imported. To those who are not posted as to their history, the

French Writers Say

They have kept as a distinct breed for more than a century, and undoubtedly trace to the Arabian, and have several infusions of

PURE ARABIAN

In the last century. It is that which gives them their endurance, style, form and action.

"He has not such a fine skin as the Arab, nor his prettily rounded, oval, and small foot; but we must remember the fact that he lives under a cold climate upon elevated plains, where nature gives him for a covering a thicker skin and a warmer coat, and that he has been for years stepping upon moist, clayey soil."

TERMS $25 in U. S. gold coin, the season. Good pasture, with good fence, near here, at 50 cts. per week. Every body is invited to come and see my stock and judge for themselves.
