

THE DEMOCRATIC TIMES.

SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 24, 1871.

THOMAS BOYCE, No. 30 (Second floor) Merchant's Exchange, California Street, below Montgomery, is our daily authorized agent for San Francisco.

HUDSON & MENET, are our duly authorized Agents in the Atlantic States. Office, 41 Park Row, "Times" Building, New York.

J. M. BALTIMORE is our daily authorized agent for Portland, Oregon.

DANIEL GREEN is our authorized agent for Josephine County.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Religious Notices.

REV. FATHER BLANCHETT will hold divine services at the Catholic Church to-morrow, at the usual hour.

REV. B. R. JOHNSON will preach in the Methodist Church, to-morrow, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

WOOL.—James T. Glenn has been receiving wool this week for shipment to the California market.

ATTENTION, RED KNIGHTS.—You will assemble at the rendezvous on the 4th of July, at 2 P. M., sharp, for the purpose of parading.

DIORAMA.—Dore's Diorama of "Paradise Lost" exhibited at the Methodist Church on Monday night. It is a very pleasing entertainment and well worth patronage.

MASONIC.—The members of the Masonic Fraternity are requested to meet at their Hall at 10 o'clock, A. M., to-day. The oration will be delivered at the Court House at 2 P. M. precisely.

NEW LAW FIRM.—C. W. Kahler and E. B. Watson, Esqs., have associated themselves together in the practice of the law under the firm name of Kahler & Watson. We wish the new firm abundant success.

HABEAS CORPUS.—Judge T. H. B. Shipley has sued out a writ of Habeas Corpus and will have Lui Shung, the Chinaman now in jail charged with murder, examined as to the legality of his imprisonment before Judge Prim.

SCHOOL TAX.—Last Saturday the voters of the Stirling School District met to vote upon the selection of a site for a school house, and to vote upon a tax to build a house. The site was decided upon, but the tax was voted down.

CORRECTION.—In our report of the examination of St. Mary's Academy last week we stated that Miss Amelia Miller sang the piece "Weandte Schwalben Heimweerts Ziehen" with Miss Lillie Horne. It should have been Miss Matilda Miller instead of Miss Amelia. We made this correction in justice to the former young lady.

THE CIRCUS IS COMING.—Mile. Jeal & Co.'s Great Variety Combination Circus will perform here on Wednesday night, June 28. The press in California warmly commends the performances of this Circus and the lovers of acrobatic and equestrian feats are promised a treat by this Co. Go and see the performance and take the children.

PREPARING.—Hofford & Kippel and John Bigler have been busily engaged this week in putting together mowers and reapers for our farmers. Some of these machines are for use on the Link River and Klamath country. Jack Burnett owns some of these machines. Prior to the meeting of the Legislature last September, he didn't.

NOTICE.—Owing to the fact that the season for shooting editors has fully commenced, we beg to announce to any shooting editor feeling aggrieved at articles appearing in the Times that we apologize in advance. If we have said anything, we are sorry for, we take it all back. Besides this reparation, the proprietors of the Times, at an early day, propose to have the full length portrait of the editor done on a board with chalk, in the highest style of art, and exposed for twenty-four hours each publication day, when indignant shootists can practice with pistols until satisfied. Any shots in the picture will be duly announced and acknowledged.

STAGE ACCIDENT.—On Saturday while the stage bound north with thirteen passengers was descending the grade near the American Ranch, seven miles north of Seama, the brake got out of order and the coach ran about half a mile, until, in attempting to make a turn, the coach was violently capsized and five out of the thirteen passengers injured. Among the latter was a bride and bridegroom. The bride had her shoulder broken and was otherwise injured. Mr. J. Nottingham, from whom we got this information, was among the injured. We have been unable to obtain the names of any others.

A BAD MONTH FOR EDITORS.—Between the 11th and 14th of this month no less than four newspaper editors have been shot in this State, and it is not a very good month to go gunning for editors either. Last Saturday we thought, for a while, that we would add a fifth to the list of victims. The Captain of the Thundermuggins rushed frantically into the office and enquired for the fighting editor. We are not the fighting editor. Besides, if we are, we were not there, and we didn't want to be there. This incident, taken into consideration with the fact that there seems to be a mania for shooting editors just now prevailing in Oregon, induces us to go slow. We are determined to be prudent hereafter. We don't want to shed any of our blood this warm weather.

Don't forget the Circus to-night.

The Exhibition.

Last week the crowded state of our columns forbade an extended notice of the exercises of the examination of the pupils of St. Mary's Academy, or of the exhibition which followed on the 14th inst., and we can devote but small space to this subject now.

At an early hour, Horne's Hall was crowded to suffocation by our citizens and their families, and although the exercises were rather lengthy the audience remained pleased and interested listeners until the conclusion of the entertainment. The stage was tastefully decorated with flowers and other ornaments, and formed an appropriate frame work for the mimic life-pictures which passed before the eyes of the delighted audience during the evening. The principal piece presented was "Queen Elizabeth and Queen Mary." Miss Louisa Horne sustained the character of the haughty and cruel Elizabeth, and Miss Ida Beach that of the beautiful but unfortunate Mary. Both of these parts were splendidly played. The minor characters were well supported, particularly that of the rude and boisterous Huntingdon, by Miss Mary Berry. We can only add a word as to the rest of the entertainment. Suffice it to say that the vocal and instrumental music was all that could be desired, and in the literary part of the programme the young ladies acquitted themselves with a grace and self-possession which indicates the careful and skillful training to which they had been subjected. We have only room for the list of premiums:

Proceedings of the Board of Trustees.

[REPORTED FOR THE TIMES.]

Monday evening, June 19th, 1871. An adjourned meeting of the Board of Trustees was held this evening. Members present: President Wilson, Bigler, Fisher, absent, Howard, Zigler. The minutes of the previous meeting read and approved. The resolution to appropriate $25, to donate to the fund being raised for 4th of July expenses, passed. The Street Commissioner reported the bridge on Third street completed, the street graded and prepared for public travel; also reported whole expense to the town for $127-$52 over the sum appropriated. Warrant was ordered drawn in favor of the Street Commissioner for $52. The Street Commissioner also presented his bill for superintending the work, for $22. Bill referred. Ordinance No. 51, to vacate First street, between Cal. and C street, was passed. Bill of Recorder, $3.50 for deed to A. Hanz er, was ordered paid. On motion of Mr. Bigler, a resolution was passed appointing C. W. Kahler Town Attorney for this year. Adjourned to June 29 inst.

THUNDERMUGGINS.—Sunday last our quiet Sunday got to meeting people were startled by the appearance of a force of cavalry approaching from the direction of Bybee's Grove. Some thought it was the Ku-Klux, and some thought it was a reinforcement for Fort Klamath in address; others did not know what to think. Meanwhile the armed horsemen came nearer and made a descent on Viet Schutz brewery, and then all at once a small boy discovered it was the Thundermuggins drilling for the Fourth. After visiting Viet's, the detachment, numbering some twenty men, appeared in force before Joe Wetterer's brewery and went through some cavalry maneuvers in good style. The Captain then returned and Joe put the force through the "lager drill," which were inclined to think they understood rather better than the sword drill. The parade of the company will be quite a feature in the exercises of the Fourth.

The privilege of keeping the bar on the grounds on the Fourth of July, will be let to the highest bidder. Sealed proposals to be submitted to U. S. Hayden, Secretary of Committee of Arrangements, until 6, P. M., July 1st.

Dead men tell no tales; if they did, antenemas against the deplating lanceet, the drastic purge, and the terrible salivants of the materia medica, would arise from every graveyard. The Motto of modern medical science is "Preserve and Regulate, not destroy," and no remedy of our day is so entirely in harmony with this philanthropic logic as Dr. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS. In this powerful, yet harmless restorative, dyspepsia, bilious complaints, and all diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and nerves, encounter an irresistible antidote.
