

HORRIDA BELLIDA.

The gentle Victoria C. Woodhull has gone on the war path. She has become utterly disgusted with the injustice practiced upon her sex by that portion of the human race who pull their clothes on over their feet.

There is one alternative left, and we have resolved on that. This convention is for the purpose of this declaration. As surely as one year passes, from this day, and this right is not fully, frankly and unequivocally considered, we shall proceed to call another convention expressly to frame a new constitution and to erect a new government, complete in all its parts, and take measures to defend it as effectually as men do theirs.

We mean treason; we mean secession, and on a thousand times grander scale than was that of the South. We are plotting revolution; we will overthrow this bogus republic and plant a government of righteousness in its stead, which shall not only profess to derive its power from the consent of the governed, but shall do so in reality.

We rebel against, denounce and defy this arbitrary, tyrannical and despotic government which has been framed and imposed on us without our consent, and even without so much as entertaining the idea that it was or could be of the slightest consequence what we should think of it, or how our interests should be affected by it, or even that we existed at all, except in the simple case in which we might be found guilty of some offense against its behests, when it has not failed to visit on us its sanctions with as much rigor as if we owed rightful allegiance to it; which we do not, and in the future we will not even pretend to do.

VICE STRIVING FOR REWARD.

The unblushing carpet-bagger and bigamist Bowen, of South Carolina, acting on the assumption that the good President's pardoning love cleanseth from all sin, has set about, with Radical effrontery, to recover his seat in Congress.

Bowen is already at work to unseat DeLarge, endorsed by Gen. Grant as one who, if he has sinned at all, has done so unwittingly, he has gone back to his old constituency and to the scenes of his former triumphs, with all the prestige of an honorable acquittal and of martyred innocence.

Scarlet fever in a malignant form is raging in Yoncalla Valley. There have been fifteen or twenty deaths in a short time. In one family three or four deaths have taken place. A boy twelve or fifteen years old, named Williams, must submit to the amputation of a leg or death will ensue, from the effects of scarlet fever.

A Portland paper says the examination of Daly, charged with the murder of Shurtle was commenced on the 30th ult. before Recorder Newell, of East Portland. But one or two witnesses were examined, when the Court adjourned until one o'clock in the afternoon.

THE DALLES SINCE THE FIRE.—Saturday's Mountaineer has the following:

During the past week we have made diligent inquiry to try and ascertain the condition of those who lost everything in the late fire. We have been unable to find even one person who is actually in want of the necessities of life.

A number of buildings have already been put up, and Phoenix like, seem to have arisen from their ashes. The general feeling appears to be to try again. And we have not heard of a single instance where any one talks discouragingly or of wishing to leave The Dalles on account of the late misfortune that has befallen them.

Since the fire there has been a great demand for carpenters and laborers, and in fact, to judge from appearances, our little city seems to have taken a new start.

Our sympathies are with those who have sustained the losses and our purse is open to assist them to its fullest extent.

HAIL! and FAREWELL!—Last week we inadvertently omitted a notice of the recent change of editors on the Herald. Mr. B. B. Taylor, late of Mexico, Missouri, has taken charge of the editorial department of that paper, and it already exhibits a marked improvement in tone and ability.

His predecessor in the sanetum disappears from our final gaze with this brief notice in the Herald of the 20th.

"With this issue Mr. Penoyer retires from the editorial control of the Herald." This notice is as brief as Penoyer's defects are small. Good-by, Penny.

FIGHT AT OREGON CITY.—We learn that on Monday a fight took place at Oregon City, between a lawyer named Foard and a miller, whose name we were unable to learn, in which the latter lost his thumb. The fight arose over a dispute about a game of cards.

STATE NEWS.

The Baker City Democrat says: The 16th of this month was one of the hottest days we ever experienced in this valley. It was a scorching, sickening heat, somewhat resembling the sirocco blasts of the deserts of Arabia.

The Corvallis Gazette says: The wheat crop of Benton county is much larger this year than usual, and the yield so far as we can learn is from twenty to forty bushels per acre.

The wife of A. Humphrey, of Linn county, was terribly burned last week by some fat which she was boiling. The fat ran over the stove, when she threw a pail of water upon it, causing it to splash over her face, neck and arms, and burning her so severely that it may require weeks of close attention and careful nursing to insure her recovery.

The Albany Register states that a field of 150 acres in Linn county, yielded 8,250 bushels of the finest quality of wheat, the average being 55 bushels per acre.

A young man named Gallaher, while out hunting last Saturday near Soda Springs in Linn county, accidentally shot and killed himself—the ball entering the brain.

We learn the following from the McMinnville West Side of August 19th: On Wednesday and Thursday, the attention of Justice Boston was occupied hearing testimony in the case of State vs Tim Patty.

It appears that on the 28th of May, the house of Levi B. Wells, near Sheridan, was burned, and, as he says, robbed of a quantity of money. Soon after the affair one Brown was arrested as the guilty party, tried and honorably acquitted. Here the matter rested until last week, when Wells had Mr. Patty arrested. After hearing the testimony, Justice Boston held the defendant in the sum of $2,000 for his appearance before the next Grand Jury.

The Mercury says that last Saturday the store of M. E. Breyman, of Fairfield, was robbed of $680 in gold coin and a revolver; a skiff, also the property of Mr. Breyman was taken at the same time. Suspicion attached at once to a young man named Edward Reif, who had been working for Mr. Breyman. He was followed down the river, and arrested next morning at Davidson's Landing, and the money and property recovered.

A young lady, daughter of Mr. Cooper, residing seven miles south of Oakland, was thrown from a wagon in that city on the 28th ult., breaking both bones of the right arm.

FRANCO-PRUSSIAN WAR.—Through the agent, Mr. C. Bailey, we have received what purports to be a history of the late war between France and Prussia, by John S. C. Abbott.

We decidedly think this one of the weakest of Mr. Abbott's many weak efforts at tracing historical annals. It seems to be a rehash of correspondents and the press at the time, with an occasional attempt to sandwich a little stereotyped originality to make a respectable filling between the quotations. One cannot characterize it any thing more than a penny-lining effort of the first magnitude.

GRATZ BROWN FOR PRESIDENT.—The New York Herald says: General Blair's candidate for the next Presidency, it appears, is Governor Gratz Brown, of Missouri, whose bolt, with Carl Schurz, against General Grant's division of the federal spoils in Missouri resulted in a Democratic Legislature and the election of General Blair thereby to the United States Senate.

"One good turn deserves another!" but still we fear that as a Presidential candidate Governor Gratz Brown will have to "starry at Jericho till his beard be grown."

We omitted last week to mention the fact of the Jacksonville Times having donned a new dress of beautiful "fa" Brevier. It is one of our best State exchanges.—Enterprise.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—We are pained to learn that Mr. L. J. White, of Rock Point, met with a severe accident on last Tuesday by the running away of his team, throwing him from his wagon and bruising him terribly. We have not learned particulars, and hope it is not as bad as represented.
