BRICK.—The undersigned has just finished burning a large brick kiln at his brick yard in Jacksonville, and is ready to furnish brick to all those in need of this article. PATRICK FEHELY.

LAST CALL.—All parties knowing themselves indebted to us, by note or book account, will please call and settle immediately, to save cost.

I. CARO & BRO. Ashland, August 3d, 1871. 3114

NOTICE.—I have disposed of the City Drug Store to Messrs. Robb & Kahler, and am anxious to settle up the books. Those indebted will please call and settle, as they will save costs.

RUNAWAY.—Whist Mr. Wollen, of Eden, was returning from Mr. Sturges', on Applegate, yesterday evening, the team became frightened and ran away, upsetting the wagon and slightly bruising himself and daughter. One horse was crippled.

ACCIDENT FROM BLASTING.—Mr. J. R. Davis, a worthy old miner on Galls' creek, while letting off a blast last week in a quartz ledge which he is opening, was struck by a fragment of a boiler across the small of the back, and was quite seriously injured.

FOUND DEAD.—A man named Lake was found dead near Taylor's, on the Crescent City Mountain, with his head mashed nearly off. He was on his way to Crescent City with a six-mule team, loaded with flour. He is supposed to have fallen under the wagon, which, being heavily loaded, mangled his neck and shoulders in a horrible manner. The accident occurred on the 25th ult.

At thirty-five, the average American discovers that he has an "infernal stomach," and thereupon goes into the hands of the doctors for the remnant of his life. This is too true; but many persons discover it before that age, because they have abused their health, and have waited until disease became seated. Prevention is better than cure, but DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS will both cure and prevent dyspepsia, diseases of the skin, liver, kidneys and bladder, and all disorders arising from impure or vitiated blood.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT.—A drunken Indian created considerable alarm in the lower part of town last Saturday evening, by indulging in promiscuous pistol practice, endangering the lives of women and children. He was arrested, but, strange to say, discharged the next day without further punishment, save a night's confinement in the calaboose. This conduct, on the part of the town officials, is tantamount simply to the offer of a premium for a repetition of these outrages, and deserves the severest reprobation. But whether the discharge of the Indian be right or wrong, there can be but one opinion in regard to the conduct of the infamous scoundrel who sells liquor to these Indians with a reckless disregard to the consequences which might ensue. We call upon the city officials to investigate this matter and bring to justice the contemptible wretch who, for the sake of making a few bits, recklessly places in imminent peril the precious lives of women and children. Let the investigation take place at once, and let there be no attempt to shield the guilty one, no matter who he may be. The drunken Indian business is played out.

A REMARKABLE RELIC.—Mr. Andy Davidson brought into our office a gun possessing an interesting history. It is an old English fowling piece, one hundred and fifty years old, and is in a good state of preservation. The barrel is four feet long, and the angles and ornamental parts of it are worn smooth by old age. The stock is of black walnut and extends half way up the barrel. It is now provided with a percussion lock, but the remains of the old pan belonging to the flint lock is still visible, worn through and burnt out by continued use. The barrel is very thin, but safe enough for use. Mr. Davidson obtained the gun, while on a recent visit East, from a worthy old uncle of four score years, who prized it for the honored memories connected with it, and gave it to his nephew (who is one of our staunchest Democrats) with the express injunction that it should not be fired until a Democratic President is elected. His will is still further: that it is to descend as an heir-loom as long as the Davidson family remain true to the immortal principles it once spoke for. Andy is true to its tradition, and promises to rear all the young Davidsons, who are or may be under his roof, true to the political faith of his fathers. May the proud associations that cluster around the old gun ever keep them true to the that faith. Our heart, too, with the worthy nephew, will rever the noble old uncle for appreciating and preserving so precious a relic.

HORSE THIEVES CAUGHT.—Last Monday morning Deputy Sheriff Foudray arrived by the stage having in charge the three men who had stolen the horses from James Kilgore's ranch. Our Deputy, in company with J. N. Van Buren, the indefatigable Sheriff of Douglas county, after an arduous chase over the Umpqua hills, succeeded on Saturday morning last in capturing the last one of them. Two of them had abandoned their horses at Myrtle creek, and were making their way North on foot on separate roads, while the third one had traded his stolen horse for one of his own, and was still on the ride. The prisoners were before Justice Wade, and pleading guilty to the charge were committed, in default of bail, to the county jail to await their doom at the November term of the Circuit Court. Too much praise cannot be awarded the Sheriffs of Jackson and Douglas counties for their diligence in pursuing and capturing the thieves.

The "PAIN KILLER" may justly be styled the greatest medicine of the world, for there is no region of the globe into which it has not found its way, and been largely used and highly prized.

Another significant fact is, that nowhere has the Pain Killer ever been in higher repute, or been more generally used by families and individuals, than it has been here at home, where it was first discovered and introduced.

THE UNK WEED REMEDY,

OR—OREGON RHEUMATIC CURE.

History.

This remedy is composed of the active principle of the Unk Weed, Eng.—Thapsium Cordatum Origh, Lat.—Indigenous to Oregon. Grows most abundantly and perfectly in Washington Co. Properties, Etc.

It contains an ACTIVE VOLATILE principle, extracted by Ether, and a bitter TONIC principle, soluble in Alcohol.

Medical Properties and Uses. It is the most speedy cure for Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout and Rheumatic Pains of all kinds that was ever introduced in Materia Medica.

There are a few remedies known to the Medical Profession which will remove the RHEUMATIC POISON from the blood, but whose action is so powerful in depressing the system of the already enfeebled Rheumatic patient, that their use has to be abandoned before specific effects are obtained.

Remarkable cure of Mrs. Hoover, Wife of Hon. Jacob Hoover, ex-Treasurer of Washington county, Oregon. Taulatin Plains, Washington county, Oregon, July 22, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—I have been troubled with Rheumatism for the past twelve years; my joints, especially those of my feet and hands, were badly swollen, so that I could with difficulty go around. My shoulder pained me a great deal and a large body swelling grew out, so that I could not raise my hand to my head.

Since last Spring I have been taking your "Unk Weed Remedy," and find myself much improved. The swelling and pain has left my joints and shoulder, and the body growth has entirely disappeared and I use my limbs and am far better than I have been for years. M. HOOVER.

Certificate from the Deputy Jailor of Multnomah county jail: City Jail, Portland, Oregon, June 7th, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—I was attacked with a severe case of rheumatism. It was in my thighs, hips, fingers, shoulder blade—indeed in all the joints of my body I suffered great pain and anguish. I was attended by a regular physician, but with no effect. I was induced to try your Unk Weed Remedy, and it immediately cured me up. I consider it, from my experience, the best remedy for rheumatism known.

ALFRED P. TURNER, Deputy Jailor.

This is to certify that the above statement is correct to my own knowledge. JOHN P. WARD, Jailor.

Certificate of A. R. Shipley, Esq., special contractor for the Multnomah Farm, and Secretary of the Oregon Horticultural Society: Oswego, Oregon, March 28th, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—Some four weeks ago I was entirely prostrated with rheumatism; in fact I was almost helpless. I sent to you for one 10-ounce bottle of "Unk Weed Remedy," by the use of which I experienced almost immediate relief, and by the time the bottle was gone the rheumatism was gone. From my own experience, and from what I have heard others say who have used the Unk Weed, I believe it to be a certain cure for the rheumatism. Yours, respectfully, A. R. SHIPLEY.

Certificate from Hon. A. J. Dufur, ex-President of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, and author of "Statistics of Oregon": East Portland, April 1, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—I was afflicted with a severe attack of chronic rheumatism; was confined to my bed most of the time from January to July, when I used the Unk Weed, and it cured me up. A. J. DUFUR.

Certificate from Hon. Gideon Tibbetts, a member of the City Council of East Portland: East Portland, April 7, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—Gents: This is to inform you that I have used your "Unk Weed" for neuralgia and rheumatic pains, and found relief from the use of only one bottle, and can recommend it to those in need of such a remedy.

Yours, GIDEON TIBBETTS.

Certificate from James Bybee, the celebrated stock-grower, and "King of the Oregon Turf": Suave's Island, January 14, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—This is to acknowledge the efficacy of your "Unk Weed" remedy, or Oregon Rheumatic Cure. I was afflicted for months with a very serious attack of the inflammatory rheumatism, and tried nearly all of the so-called rheumatic remedies without any relief perceptible. I then tried your Remedy, and its use resulted in the most happy effects—a perfect cure.

Truly yours, JAMES BYBEE.

Certificate from Hon. E. L. Quimby, ex-County Commissioner of Multnomah County, Oregon: East Portland, April 1, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—I have used the "Unk Weed Remedy," and am satisfied it is a valuable medicine. It regulates and invigorates the system. This is my experience with the Remedy.

Truly yours, E. L. QUIMBY.

Certificate from the well-known merchant, O. W. Weaver, Esq.: The Dalles, May 23, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—I have used the "Unk Weed Remedy," and can cheerfully recommend it to persons afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism. It cured my case of that disease. My hands, wrists, ankles—indeed, all my joints—were swollen and very painful. O. W. WEAVER.

Certificate from Hon. N. H. Lane, Pilot Commissioner of Oregon, and a member of the City Council of East Portland: East Portland, April 19, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—I have been afflicted for several years past with "weakness in the back," and wandering rheumatic pains, accompanied by severe constipation. By the use of one bottle of your Unk Weed Remedy, or Oregon Rheumatic Cure, I have been entirely relieved, and I cheerfully recommend it as a most valuable and effective remedy.

NAT. H. LANE.

Put up in 10-ounce bottles, at $1.50 per bottle. Prepared at the Oregon Medical Laboratory, by A. M. Loryea & Co., East Portland, Ogn. For sale by all Druggists.
