LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Religious Notices.

REV. FATHER BLANCHET will hold divine services at the Catholic Church to-morrow, at the usual hour.

READ Dr. Danforth's ad. in this issue.

MEDICAL.—Dr. Cardwell requests us to say he will return from Portland in a week.

SUPREME COURT.—The case of Moore vs. Floyd et al, has been reversed in the Supreme Court, and sent back for a new trial.

NEW ADS.—Notice the new ads under New, To-day. Alex. Martin, successor to James T. Glenn, is now prepared to accommodate customers.

HIGHLY COMMENDED.—The skill and ability displayed by District Attorney, H. K. Hanna, during the examination of Wells is very highly commended.

BRICK.—The undersigned has just finished burning a large brick kiln at his brick yard in Jacksonville, and is ready to furnish brick to all those in need of this article. PATRICK FEHELY.

SMOKE.—The dense pall of smoke which has enveloped the valley so long, is rapidly clearing. The sky and sun are once more visible; weather cool and pleasant.

STOCK.—We learn that Mr. W. Cortez Meyer is actively preparing for the County Fair. He will exhibit his fine breed of horses, mares and colts. Admirers of good stock will see something to interest them.

FIRE IN THE MOUNTAINS.—The comparatively clear atmosphere enables us to discern huge columns of smoke arising in the Applegate mountains, immediately west of town, denoting heavy fires raging in that vicinity.

DAY OF ATONEMENT.—Monday is the Hebrew fast Yom Kippur. The stores and houses of business of our Jewish friends will be closed, and a rigid fast commencing on Sunday evening, lasting till sunset on Monday, observed.

HOW IS THIS FOR A BEET?—We were shown a beet grown on Mr. Lyman Chappell's farm on Applegate, which measured two feet two inches in length and one foot four inches in circumference. Can our Webfoot brethren beat this?

FREIGHT DELAYED.—Mr. Peter Bouschey, who has just arrived from Crescent City, informs us that there are about thirty teams in waiting at that place for freight, which is due from San Francisco, but not arrived.

NOTICE.—Persons having clothing in the tailor shop of Wm. Herman, deceased, will call and claim them and pay charges, or they will be sold at public auction. Jacksonville, Sept. 16th, 1871.

JACKSON COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—Members of this society are requested to call on the Treasurer, Henry Pape, prior to the 5th of October, to receive their badges, which entitles them to entrance, and pay over their subscriptions. JAMES D. FAY, Pres't. H. K. HANNA, Sec'y.

DAGGER COCKLE BURR.—We notice that the Road Supervisor of the Gasburg district is cutting this noxious weed from the road. He deserves the thanks of the public. The District Attorney informs us that it is his intention to enforce the law in regard to this weed, against road supervisors who neglect to extirpate it.

SWAMP LANDS.—Hon. J. N. T. Miller, State Swamp Land Commissioner, came in from the Lakes this week. He reports the survey of swamp lands on Little Klamath Lake as completed, and that the survey of Big Klamath Lake is being prosecuted. He has already selected 60,000 acres of swamp land.

LAND CONTEST.—The parties to the contest entitled the United States vs. Edward Hendricks, application to open the cancellation of a homestead entry, were engaged for several days this week in taking depositions before Silas J. Day, County Clerk. Fay & Rea for plaintiff, and Kahler & Watson for defendant.

JACKSON COUNTY FAIR.—A list of the several committees on articles to be exhibited at the Fair will be published next week. The Executive Committee of the Society, Messrs. John S. Herrin, J. B. Wrisley and W. J. Plymale, will proceed immediately to make the proper arrangements on the Fair grounds.

A REVOLVING MURDER IN COLD BLOOD.

On Friday, the 15th instant, one of the most inhuman, brutal and cowardly murders ever committed in the State, was perpetrated about seven miles from Ashland, on the person of an industrious and inoffensive young man, named James Dennis, by Joseph Wells, alias "Chicken Pie Joe." An examination was held before Justice Gillette, of Ashland, on Monday last, and the evidence adduced shows the following state of facts: A feud had existed for sometime between the murdered man and the Wells family, and an attack had been made previously by the Wells boys, on Dennis, with a pick. On Friday, Dennis was employed in hauling rails in company with a young man named Grubb. While driving a wagon, loaded with rails, toward Mr. Murphy's house, on the Dead Indian Road, about a half mile in advance of Dennis, Grubb discovered Wells' horse secreted by the road side in the brush, and immediately afterwards saw Wells, armed with a double-barrelled shot-gun and revolver. Wells inquired of Grubb "where his friend Dennis was?" that he "wanted to settle with him." Grubb replied that "he was about half a mile behind, throwing off a load of rails." Wells then proceeded along the road in the direction of Dennis, and from all the circumstances it appears that he secreted himself where a high ridge of rock abuts on the side of the road. Here he lay in wait, concealed from the view of any person passing the road, until his victim approached him seated on his wagon, utterly unconscious of the presence of the concealed assassin. The evidences upon the body of Dennis conclusively show that he received the contents of one of the barrels, loaded with navy pistol balls, in the right side, while in a sitting posture, driving his team. He was evidently killed instantly by the first discharge. Wells then poured the contents of the second barrel into the body of his victim, from the other side; then shot him through the right shoulder while standing behind his head, as he lay on the ground, and then shot him through the head from the left side. Both the latter shots were inflicted with a revolver, and the three last shots were evidently fired after the man was lying dead on the ground. The assassin then coolly took the victim's pistol and went down to Mr. Murphy's house, telling them that he "had settled with Dennis," that he "had killed him up there, and if he wanted him he would find him up there dead." It also appears that the identical gun with which the murder was committed, was borrowed a day or two previously; that two or three hours before the crime was committed Wells and his brothers were engaged in firing the gun off and cleaning it, evidently for the purpose of putting it in proper order for the use of the assassin. He gave himself up to the Justice at Ashland, and evidently thought that the fact that Dennis was poor, a stranger and comparatively friendless would protect him from a very searching investigation. All the circumstances show that it was a willful, cowardly, premeditated murder in cold blood. He never gave his victim a chance to see him, nor to make the slightest resistance, and the horrible atrocity of the deed deserves the halter. Every element of a murder in the first degree is present in this terrible crime, and it is accompanied by a savage brutality which evinces the utter depravity of Joe Wells' heart. He killed his unfortunate victim as an Indian would have done from the safe covert of an ambuscade. From his ambush the dastard sent poor Dennis to meet his God without a word of warning—with no prayer on his lips, no thought of death on his mind.

"Cut off in the blossoms of" his "vices—Unhouselled, disappointed, unanel'd; No reckoning made, but sent to" "account With all" his "imperfections on" his "head." And then—horrible to relate—the cowardly assassin continued to drive his felon bullets into the dead man's lifeless corpse. Man's justice may fail to overtake this infamous, cowardly, inhuman assassin, but he cannot escape the Justice and the vengeance of Almighty God.

LATER: Since the above was written we learn that Wells has absconded and is now an object abhorred of God and man—a fugitive from justice with the brand of Cain on his brow and the curse of blood upon his soul.

The cause of temperance finds one of its most insidious and dangerous foes in the many so-called "tonics" and "appetizers," made of cheap whisky and refuse liquors, finished up to suit depraved appetites, under the name of medicines. DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS are none of these. They are not a beverage, but are a genuine medicine, purely vegetable, prepared from California herbs by a regular physician.

AN ACT OF HUMANITY.—We are pleased to learn from Mr. Peter Bouschey that the humane citizens of Waldo, in Josephine county, are raising a subscription with a view of exhuming the remains of Lake, who was killed on the Crescent City road, and interring them at Waldo. It will be remembered that we commented with some severity upon the circumstances of his burial by the road side in last week's issue. The action taken by the citizens of Waldo reflects great credit on their Christian charity and humanity, and we are happy to have the privilege of recording it.

A BURLESQUE ON JUSTICE.—"Chicken Pie Joe," alias Joe Wells, had an examination on a charge of murder before Justice A. V. Gillette, of Ashland, on Monday, the 17th inst., and notwithstanding the fact that the evidence proved that Joseph Wells committed the crime of willful murder, under circumstances of peculiar premeditation, brutality and atrocity, the Justice released the homicide on the paltry bail of $3,000!!

The murderer's family could have raised five times that sum, rather than see their relative behind the bars of a prison. But the admission of "Chicken Pie Joe" to bail in a murder case, especially when the presumption of guilt is as strong as it is in this case, was in plain, open, palpable violation of section 256, chapter XXIV, of the Criminal Code, which is as follows: "The defendant cannot be admitted to bail, when the proof or presumption of his guilt is evident or strong, and he is charged with the crime of murder in any degree, or treason, or with the infliction of personal violence upon another, likely to produce death, and under such circumstances as that if death ensue, the offence would be murder in any degree." The language of this section is unmistakable, and Justice Gillette cannot plead ignorance of it, for it was read repeatedly in his hearing. In admitting Wells to bail at all, therefore, he overrode the plain letter and spirit of the law, and was guilty of a gross and outrageous perversion of public justice. The announcement of his decision was received with mingled feelings of amazement and indignation by the citizens of this county, and by Wells with manifest signs of surprise and relief. And in sober sadness we would ask what protection does the law afford the lives of citizens, when its ministers prostitute their official positions in this way. When red-handed murder rears its visage unabashed in a court of justice, so-called, when a judicial officer so far forgets what is due to the lives of the community, what is due to the honor and public sentiment, and the laws of the land, as to release a cowardly assassin on any bail at all, much less on a bail bond of this paltry amount? Why is it simply offering a premium for assassination? No wonder the whole county is filled with indignation at his conduct, and a universal voice demands of him a resignation of the position he has so outrageously disgraced. By this infamous act of official misconduct, this gross and willful perversion of the law, in bailing this assassin in so small a sum as to absolutely invite and suggest his escape, he has made himself particeps criminis in one of the foulest murders that ever blackened the annals of crime. The Grand Jury should investigate this official misconduct; but in any event let him resign and let another man who has some regard for the law of the land take his place. The lives of men are not safe when a judicial officer tampers thus with crime. It is due to us to say that we should have refrained from making these comments on this deplorable case just now, if the proof had not been so strong as to amount to absolute certainty of the guilt of the accused, and if the facts had not been obtained from the sworn testimony of witnesses during a judicial examination. Under these circumstances, it becomes the duty of a public journalist to denounce in fitting terms the foul crime which sent a thrill of horror through the community.

ROADS AND BRIDGES.—Winter is approaching, and it would be well for the several road supervisors to put the bridges in their districts in good repair before the wet weather commences. During a recent drive to Ashland we noticed a number of small bridges along the road which had one or more of the planks broken in the middle, thereby endangering the limbs of horses and the limbs and lives of the riders or drivers. This is also a good time to gravel those portions of the roads lying in low grounds. In this connection we would again call the attention of Street Commissioner Dunlap to the condition of the sidewalks. If he would cause those protruding nails to be driven down he would save an enormous expenditure of profane language on the part of those unfortunates who frequently "stump" their tender toes against the nail heads. These nails are also "light-nin'" on the ladies' dresses, and Sergeant is too gallant a man to permit the divine sex the slightest annoyance if a few taps of a hammer would prevent it.

WIMER'S STANDARD FLOUR.—Jacob Wimer & Son have completed their new mills at Phoenix, and are now making flour of a quality unsurpassed by any in Oregon. The above brand is universally commended by all who have tried it, and is now the leading brand in the county. We know whereof we speak, for Messrs. Wimer have placed us under obligations for a couple of sacks, and we vouch for what we say. Try it.

THE COUNTY FAIR.—We are gratified to learn that our County Fair promises to be a success, exceeding the most sanguine expectations of its friends. The display of stock, in particular, will be unusually interesting. Our farmers are taking great interest in the matter, as they undoubtedly should, and will use every effort to make the Fair an honor to the county.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

MASONIC HALL, Jacksonville, Sept. 17, 1871. WHEREAS, The Grand Master of the Universe has seen proper to take from our beloved brother, E. H. Greenman, in the vigor of life and in the midst of his usefulness, on September the 15th, 1871; therefore, as expressive of the sense of Warren Lodge, No. 10, A. F. & A. M., be it

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the widow who has lost a kind and affectionate husband, the relatives an esteemed brother and friend, and the Masonic Fraternity a brother, strong to support, patient to endure and intelligent to direct.

Resolved, That, as a token of our respect for his memory, we, the members of this Lodge, will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and the charter and Lodge be draped in proper mourning for the same length of time.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions, under the seal of the Lodge, be presented to the widow of our deceased brother, and that they be entered upon the records of the Lodge and published in the Oregon Sentinel and Democratic Times: N. LANGOELL, N. D. SHORT, C. C. BEEMAN. Com.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Simon Caro, of Ashland, has just returned from San Francisco, where he has been to purchase a large stock of goods for I. Caro & Bro., of Ashland.

We had the pleasure of meeting Alex. H. Miller, of Klamath Agency, Mr. Middlemiss, General Superintendent of New England Mutual Life Insurance Co., of New England, and E. Steele, Esq., of Yreka, this week.

Sheriff Klippel returned last Tuesday from the Klamath Lake region.

Mr. J. D. Coughlin left for Salem this week.

B. F. Dowell, Esq., arrived from Salem Tuesday.

Isaac Sachs arrived from San Francisco Thursday.

Hon. J. N. T. Miller started for Klamath Lake on Friday.

THE HEAD OF A DEAD CELESTIAL.—A Chinaman's cabeza was found in the mountains on Applegate by a hunter, on Sunday morning last. It had been dug up by coyotes, one of which was shot by the side of it, as he was making his morning's meal from the dainty morsel. The head is supposed to belong to the body of Gui Lim, the Chinaman who disappeared on the day the Wong Chinamen, Wing Chung, was killed by Lui Shing, last May. He is supposed to have been murdered by the Gee company, to prevent him from testifying for the prosecution, on the trial of Lui Shing, and buried where the coyotes subsequently dug him up. Coroner Ganung will hold an inquest.

EXHUMATION.—Tuesday last the body of Dennis, the victim of Wells, was exhumed under the direction of Dr. Danforth, for the purpose of making a post mortem examination, as the examination made by Ganung, the Coroner, was so slight and incorrect, that it amounted to nothing as evidence. About eighteen bullet holes were found in the body. He had evidently been shot in the right side and arm, and again in the left side, in the left side of the head and in the top of the right shoulder. The body was so decomposed that it was not opened.

COUNTY COURT.—The County Commissioners' Court was in session this week, and decided to assume charge of the Rock Point bridge, and, hence, the public will have some guarantee of safety for life and limb in the future. We are deeply gratified to know that the strictures of the TIMES, in behalf of the public, in regard to this dangerous bridge, has resulted in this action by the Court.

NEW GOODS.—We notice Sachs Bros. and P. J. Ryan receiving new goods this week.

THANKS.—We are indebted to Senator Casserly, of California, for public documents.

DIED.—On Bear Creek, Tuesday, Sept. 19th, 1871, of dropsy of the chest, OWEN, youngest son of J. B. and Eliza J. Wrisley, aged 1 year, 9 months and 10 days.

CHOLERA—How to Cure it.—At the commencement of the Diarrhoea, which always precedes an attack of the Cholera, take a teaspoonful of the Pain Killer in sugar and water, (hot, if convenient), and then bathe freely the stomach and bowels with the Pain Killer clear. Should the diarrhoea or cramps continue, repeat the dose every ten or fifteen minutes until the patient is relieved in extreme cases, two or more teaspoonfuls may be given at a dose.

The Pain Killer, as an internal remedy, has no equal. In cases of Cholera, Summer Complaints, Dyspepsia, Dysentery, Asthma, it cures in one night, by taking it internally, and bathing with it freely. Its action is like magic, when externally applied to Old Sores, Burns, Scalds, and Sprains. For Sick Headache and Toothache, don't fail to try it. In short, it is a PAIN KILLER.

Directions accompany each bottle. The Pain Killer is sold by all dealers in Medicines. Price, 25cts, 50cts, and $1 per bottle.

Chapped Hands and Face. Sore Lips. Dryness of the Skin. &c., &c.

THE UNK WEED REMEDY, OR—OREGON RHEUMATIC CURE.

History. This remedy is composed of the active principle of the Unk Weed, Eng.—Thlaspi Cordatum Originis, Lat.—Indigenous to Oregon. Grows most abundantly and perfectly in Washington Co. Properties, Etc. It contains an ACTIVE VOLATILE principle, extracted by Ether, and a bitter TONIC principle, soluble in Alcohol.

Medical Properties and Uses. It is the most speedy cure for Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout and Rheumatic Pains of all kinds that was ever introduced in Materia Medica. The Unk Weed Remedy, as prepared by us, in consequence of its existing bitter principle, possesses the necessary virtue of being a POWERFUL TONIC. Promoting the Appetite and Invigorating the whole Digestive Apparatus, thus building up and strengthening the system, while at the same time the volatile principle, being absorbed in the blood, acts specifically on the Rheumatic Poisons, removing it from the circulation and system.

There are a few remedies known to the Medical Profession which will remove the RHEUMATIC POISON from the blood, but whose action is so powerful in depressing the system of the already afflicted Rheumatic patient, that their use has to be abandoned before specific effects are obtained, hence the want of success in treating this prevalent and in consequence heretofore incurable disease. Unlike these medicines, already known, the UNK WEED REMEDY, though producing as powerful and as active effects on the blood and system in removing the Rheumatic Poisons, also possesses a strong TONIC and recuperating element which admits of its continued use even by the most delicate and debilitated. Thus we have the combination for the first time of the TWO necessary elements in ONE remedy, which accounts for its Superior and Never-Failing curative effects in Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout, and Rheumatic Pains of all kinds.

We are aware of the fact that it is generally an easy matter to procure certificates attesting the efficacy of patent medicines from a certain class of those who use them. We have selected the following because the names attached to them are those of men of the most careful and scrupulous character, and because the large class of their acquaintances in Oregon will not, for a moment, accuse or suspect them of any exaggeration in the statements they may make.

Remarkable cure of Mrs. Hoover, Wife of Hon. Jacob Hoover, ex-Treasurer of Washington County, Oregon.

Taulain Plains, Washington County, Oregon, July 22, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—I have been troubled with Rheumatism for the past twelve years; my joints, especially those of my feet and hands, were badly swollen, so that I could with difficulty go around. My shoulder pained me a great deal and a large bony swelling grew out, so that I could not raise my hand to my head.

Since last Spring I have been taking your "Unk Weed Remedy," and find myself much improved. The swelling and pain has left my joints and shoulder, and the bony growth has nearly disappeared and I use my limbs and am far better than I have been for years. M. HOOVER.

Certificate from the Deputy Jailor of Multnomah county jail: City Jail, Portland, Oregon, June 7th, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—I was attacked with a severe case of rheumatism. It was in my thighs, hips, fingers, shoulder blade—in fact in all the joints of my body I suffered great pain and anguish. I was attended by a regular physician, but with no effect. I was induced to try your Unk Weed Remedy, and it immediately cured me up. I consider it, from my experience, the best remedy for rheumatism known.

ALFRED F. TURNER, Deputy Jailor. This is to certify that the above statement is correct to my own knowledge. JOHN P. WARD, Jailor.

Certificate of A. R. Shipley, Esq., special contributor to the Willamette Farmer, and Secretary of the Oregon Horticultural Society: Oswego, Oregon, March 28th, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—Some four weeks ago I was severely prostrated with rheumatism; in fact I was almost helpless. I sent to you for one 10-ounce bottle of the "Unk Weed Remedy," by the use of which I experienced almost immediate relief, and by the time the bottle was used the rheumatism was gone. From my own experience, and from what I have heard from others who have used the Unk Weed, I believe it to be a certain cure for the rheumatism. Truly, respectfully, A. R. SHIPLEY.

Certificate from Hon. A. J. Dufur, ex-President of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, and author of "Statistics of Oregon": East Portland, April 1, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—I was afflicted with a severe attack of chronic rheumatism; was confined to my bed most of the time from January to July, when I used the Unk Weed, and it cured me up. A. J. DUFUR.

Certificate from Hon. Gideon Tibbets, a member of the City Council of East Portland: East Portland, April 7, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—Gents: This is to inform you that I have used your "Unk Weed" for neuralgia and rheumatic pain, and found relief from the use of only one bottle, and can recommend it to those in need of such a remedy. Yours, GIDEON TIBBETS.

Certificate from James Bybee, the celebrated stock-grower, and "King of the Oregon Turf": Swan's Island, January 14, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—This is to acknowledge the efficacy of your "Unk Weed Remedy, or Oregon Rheumatic Cure." I was afflicted for months with a very serious attack of the inflammatory rheumatism, and tried nearly all of the so-called rheumatic remedies without any relief perceivable. I then tried your Remedy, and its use resulted in the most happy effects—a perfect cure. Truly yours, JAMES BYBEE.

Certificate from Hon. E. L. Quimby, ex-County Commissioner of Multnomah County, Oregon: East Portland, April 1, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—I have used the "Unk Weed Remedy," and am satisfied it is a valuable medicine. It regulates and invigorates the system. This is my experience with the Remedy. Truly yours, E. L. QUIMBY.

Certificate from the well-known merchant, O. W. Weaver, Esq.: The Dalles, May 23, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—I have used the "Unk Weed Remedy," and can cheerfully recommend it to persons afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism. It cured me of that disease. My hands, wrists, ankles—indeed, all my joints—were swollen and very painful. O. W. WEAVER.

Certificate from Hon. N. B. Lane, Pilot Commissioner of Oregon, and a member of the City Council of East Portland: East Portland, April 19, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—I have been afflicted for several years past with "weakness in the back," and wandering rheumatic pains, accompanied by severe constipation. By the use of one bottle of your Unk Weed Remedy, or Oregon Rheumatic Cure, I have been entirely relieved, and I cheerfully recommend it as a most valuable and effective remedy. NAT. H. LANE.

Put up in 10-ounce bottles, at $1.50 per bottle. Prepared at the Oregon Medical Laboratory, by A. M. Loryea & Co., East Portland, Oreg. For sale by all Druggists. 38
