

The Democratic Times.

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 23, 1871.

PARAGRAPHS.

The ties of business—Advertise. Extravagant—Hiring a cab to look for an omnibus. Good name for a conductor on a street railway—Be careful.

Dobbs thinks that instead of giving credit to whom credit is due, the cash had better be paid. The day to pick your wife is Choose-day. Wednes-day is the day to be married on, of course.

Chief Justice Chase is buying up Rhode Island. He has already purchased five acres, and is keeping a sharp eye on the other fifteen. A Troy editor lately returned a tailor's bill with the following memoranda on the margin: "Your manuscript is resp. et fly. declined!"

Hon. J. Proctor Knott attacked the "New Departure" heresy, and the result is—the assailant is Knott, and the "New Departure" is not.

The Kentucky Legislature will stand as follows: House—82 Democrats, 18 Republicans; Senate—35 Democrats, 3 Republicans.

Of the 1,001 young ladies who fainted last year, 988 fell on the arms of gentlemen, two fell on the floor, and one in a water-butt.

Rector's daughter (to a Sunday School boy.) "O, you have an elder brother; well, how old is he?" Schoolboy: "Dunno, Miss; but he's just started 'swearing'."

Our Minister at Japan warns our Government of the possibility of the Russian cattle plague being introduced into this country from the west, as it has now reached the Pacific coast.

A little girl employed in one of the Natic (R. I.) mills, on losing several fangs in the machinery, instead of crying, heroically asked, "Will this stop my working for my sick father?"

A Memphis man never would take a "dare," and when a belle challenged him to marry her, he made her his wife inside twenty minutes. In twenty days they were happily divorced.

A bare-headed, bare-footed little boy astonished a worshipping congregation in a Massachusetts town, on a recent Sunday, by rushing into church and exclaiming: "Where's my papa? the pigs are out!"

Dr. Greely being asked if guano is good to put on potatoes, replied that it might do for those whose tastes have become vitiated with rum and tobacco, but for him he preferred butter and molasses.

Senator Sumner has declined the gold medal tendered him by the people of Hayti. If the Haytiens wish to get rid of the medal, they might offer it to President Grant, who has no constitutional scruples against taking of presents, especially when the expensage is prepaid.

As to the thinning of grapes, if your vine is able to perfect ten pounds of fruit, it is better to have this amount in twenty clusters than in fifty. If ten pounds is the capacity of your vine, the fruit will be better if you take forty to do it. We do not give proper attention to making quality in our grapes. Over-bearing is as destructive of quality as it is of maturing.

Mrs. Woodhull Explains.—Let us turn to the consideration of my offenses as enumerated by Mr. Greely, the offenses of "one who has two husbands after a sort," "who lives in the same house with them both, sharing the couch of one, but bearing the name of the other," and of one who may be "persuaded to overbear her shrinking modesty and nominate herself." In respect to domestic relations, which were dragged upon the public by those who desired and intended to injure me, but to whom I am only too grateful for that favor, I knew not when I decided and acted at the severest epochs of my life, but I should ever meet with a single outside friend who would justify me. But as I was justified to myself, I decided and acted as I did; and I am only embarrassed by the idea that any one should think that by speaking on the subject at all I am condescending to apologize to anybody. I was divorced from Dr. Woodhull for reasons which to me were sufficient, but I was never his enemy. He continued to need my friendship, and he has it. My children continued to prize and to need his affection and presence, and they have them. Circumstances over which I assumed the right to apologize to myself, to the satisfaction of all who were immediately concerned, made it best that I should retain in public the name by which I was already known, as in the case of actresses, singers and other public women is often done. In both respects my conduct is undoubtedly irregular. I knew not how it would be accounted of by the world, if the world should trouble itself with the matter; but the complete acceptance and justification not merely, but the appreciative laudation also, which has been conferred on my course in respect to my "two husbands," even in the most conservative quarters, have been among the most gratifying experiences of my life. That I should have dared to be the protector and friend of a discarded but unfortunate husband, has not condemned me in the judgment of the Christian women and others of this enlightened community, and, with the exception of some thoughtless badinage and mere slang, Mr. Greely's is almost the only voice that has been raised adversely.—Woodhull and Claflin's Weekly.

GREELY AS A REPORTER.—It is said that Horace Greeley once attempted to do up a fashionable party after the Jenkins style, and wrote as follows: "Mrs. John Buchanan was unusually charming, with orange blossoms in her hair, delectable dress and a long trail." Horace was absent and failed to read the proof when what Mrs. B.'s indignation on reading the next morning. "Mrs. John Buchanan was continually churning with an orange-outing fastened to her hair, a discolored eye and in her shirt-tail!"
