LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Religious Notices.

REV. FATHER BLANCHETT will hold divine services at the Catholic Church to-morrow, at the usual hour.

MEETING OF TRUSTEES.—The Board of Trustees will meet next Tuesday night.

DESERTERS.—Officers and soldiers were in town last week, in hot pursuit of deserters.

CHICKENS.—Hon. J. N. T. Miller's breed of Brahms, imported by J. D. Coughlin, took the first premium at the Fair.

FOR THE LAKES.—The Jacksonville String Band started for Fort Klamath on Wednesday morning, to furnish music for a grand ball, which was to come off yesterday.

BRICK.—The undersigned has just finished burning a large brick kiln at his brick yard in Jacksonville, and is ready to furnish brick to all those in need of this article.

RECOVERING.—We are gratified to learn that Mrs. Noland, who was injured by being thrown from her horse some weeks since, is recovering, although slowly. We noticed Sam Bowden also in the street.

ANOTHER BEET THAT BEATS THE OTHER BEET.—Uncle Fred. Heber had a volunteer beet, that had never been cultivated, on exhibition at the Fair, that measured 2 1/4 inches in circumference, and weighed fourteen pounds.

SOCIAL BALL LAST WEEK.—The ball at Velt Shutz' Hall on Friday of last week, for the benefit of the Jacksonville String Band, was a successful affair, a large number of persons of both sexes being present.

FROST.—Heavy frost made its appearance last week, and the weather has been quite cool, rendering fires a good thing in a family. With the approach of cold weather we expect to notice unusual activity in the matrimonial market.

AN EXAMPLE TO THE SUFFRAGE SLINGERS.—Mrs. John Weiss, of this city, had some linen fabrics on exhibition at the Fair, which are a curious history. She showed the flax from which they were made, and pulled, broke, wove and manufactured it with her own hands into the articles on exhibition, which were of excellent workmanship.

REMOVALS.—We notice that Mr. John Miller has removed his "Sportmen's Emporium" to the south side of California street, one door below Third, where any person requiring a good shooting iron, ammunition, or in fact anything in that line, can be accommodated.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Last Sunday Mrs. Louis Solomon was violently thrown from a wagon, near the residence of Mr. John Conley, on Oregon street, and received severe injuries. It appears that she was sitting in the rear of the wagon, and the driver struck the horse a blow, which caused it to spring suddenly forward, when she lost her balance, and was precipitated violently to the ground, breaking her collar bone and receiving severe bruises.

MR. UNDERWOOD'S LECTURES.—The lectures of Mr. B. F. Underwood, at the Court House on Saturday and Sunday nights, last week, were extremely well attended, and were of an exceedingly interesting character. We have never heard the subject of "Christianity and Free Thought" so ably handled.

In this connection we desire to correct an error which was copied in the last issue of the TIMES. Mr. Underwood had no personal controversy or altercation in the streets of Eugene City, as stated in the Bulletin. This is a mistake. Mr. Driver had a violent personal quarrel with Mr. Humphrey on the public streets, and was very properly punished by a fine.

FIRST ANNUAL FAIR JACKSON COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Award of Premiums.

Class I—No premium having been offered for three year old stallions of this class, and Mr. E. F. Walker having entered his stallion, Jake, in this class, on recommendation of the Judges, a special premium of ten dollars was awarded him as being the best three year old stallion exhibited in this class. Mare, "Minnie Rifle," first premium, J. C. Tolman.

Best display of cabbage, first premium, Mrs. L. Horne. Best display of cauliflower, J. Weiss. Greatest display of vegetables from one garden, diploma, John Weiss. Best display of apples, first premium, Conrad Mings. Best three varieties of grapes, first premium, Mrs. L. Horne; second premium, John Bilger. Flour, manufactured at Standard Mills, diploma, Jacob Wimer.

In this department a large quantity of articles were on exhibition, that had not been entered for premiums. Among them were fine peach blossom potatoes by Marion Taylor and F. Heber; lettuce, celery, red pepper, anise, tomatoes and peaches by John Weiss; squash, turnips and ruta baga by M. Dore; saddle skirt beans by W. J. Plymale; grapes by J. N. T. Miller and F. Heber; apples by N. C. Deane, that would have entitled him to the first premium, had they been entered.

Butter, Bread, etc.—Butter, first premium, Mrs. Lavinia Mings; Bread, first diploma, Mrs. Lavinia Mings; second diploma, Mrs. E. Jacobs. Anise cake, diploma, Mrs. E. Weiss. Grape jelly, diploma, Mrs. Lavinia Mings.

Best wine exhibited, diploma, J. N. T. Miller. Best red wine, diploma, John Weiss. Best champagne elder, diploma, Sachs Bros. Wine vinegar, diploma, John Weiss. Best ten gallons lager beer, first premium, Jos. Wetterer.

Among the articles on exhibition, for which no premium had been offered, or that were not properly entered with the Secretary, the following attracted particular attention, to-wit: a lot of ladies' clothing, consisting of one suit of underclothing, one tucked shirt and one tucked undershirt, exhibited by Miss Emma Beach; superior knit socks by Mrs. Houek; oil painting on glass, Arabian system, by W. F. Drannan; cassimere and flannel cloths, breakfast, opera and fine cashmere shawls, plaid dress goods, crocheted slippers, ventilated garters, etc., by Sachs Bros.

WARREN LODGE, No. 10, A. F. & A. M., Jacksonville, Oct. 7th, 1871. WHEREAS, the Grand Master of the Universe has seen proper to take from our beloved brother, T. R. Magruder, in the vigor of his life and in the midst of his usefulness, on Oct. 5th, 1871. Therefore, as an expression of the sense of this Lodge, be it

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with his aged parents, who have lost a kind and affectionate son, the relatives an esteemed brother and friend, and the Masonic Fraternity a Brother, strong to support, patient to endure and intelligent to direct.

Resolved, That as a token of our respect for his memory, we, the members of this Lodge, will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and that the Charter and Lodge be draped in proper mourning for the same length of time.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions, under the seal of this Lodge, be presented to the parents of our deceased brother, and that they be entered upon the record of the Lodge, and published in the Oregon Sentinel and DEMOCRATIC TIMES.

JOHN E. ROSS, ALEX. MARTIN, J. A. CARDELL, Com.

EXPLANATORY.—W. Cortez Myers informs us that the names, weights and ages of the span of sucking colts, which attracted so much notice on the Fair grounds by their beauty and docility in harness, are named as follows: The black weighs 600 pounds, is 4 1/2 months old, and is named "Reliance." The grey is 5 1/2 months old, weighs 750 pounds, and called "Louisa." Their beauty and kindness attracted universal admiration, and induced several of our ladies to decorate the handsome animals with flowers. The decoration won by his animals from those fair hands, is as highly prized by Mr. Myers as the premiums his colts deservedly gained.

"Louisa" is descended from a full bred Percheron mare, now owned by Mr. Myers. She was awarded several premiums at State Fairs in Ohio, and so has her colts. "Reliance" descends from a three-quarter Percheron mare, purchased in Ohio, and now in this county, also owned by Mr. Myers. His Percheron stallion, "White Prince," is the only imported stallion of the blood on the coast.

A NEW WAY OF PUTTING IT.—One of the prominent citizens of our county, whom we shall call by the unfamiliar name of Tom Jones, has a Chinese cook in his employ, who is entitled to the premium for modesty. Some few days ago it was noticed by one of the neighbors of Tom Jones, that this cook made it a practice to come uninvited and sleep with the neighbor's Chinaman. This being an unusual occurrence, naturally excited the curiosity of the neighbor's family, whose hospitalities he was partaking of thus uninvited, and the Chinaman was accordingly called up for an interview, which proceeded thusly: "Tom Jones' Chinaman sleep here again last night?" "Yes, him sleep with me."

Well, what does he do that for? Why don't he stay at home?" To which the following eminently satisfactory reply was given: "Him Tom Jones' wife, him lay one baby; he no like stay." The interview suddenly closed right here.

STATEMENT.—Mr. Jas. A. Cardwell, of the committee of Judges in cattle, sheep and hogs at the Fair, requests us to state that Hon. T. F. Beall exhibited a fine lot of pigs, but that no one seemed to be in charge of them, and no information could be obtained by the committee as to the stock, age, etc., hence no premium was awarded to them, which would have been the case, could the committee have obtained the desired information; but they deserve special mention.

In this connection, we may remark that Mr. J. D. Buckley's really splendid mare deserved the first premium for draft horses, but was unfortunately entered by Mr. B. in Class I, where she competed with the blooded mare, "Minnie Rifle," and lost the honor she would have obtained in her proper class. We deeply regret the mistake.

MAGNIFICENT DISPLAY.—Sachs Bros., with their usual business sagacity, had a magnificent display of their new ladies' and fancy goods on exhibition at the Fair. We saw crowds of fair damsels regarding them with wistful looks, and if we mistake not, the nearest relations of the damsels aforesaid will have an unhappy time of it, until some of those nice cloaks, etc., are in possession of the maidens. It was a cheap and successful mode of advertising.

GRAPES AND WINE.—Mrs. L. Horne exhibited a magnificent display of grapes, and Hon. J. N. T. Miller bore off the first premium for wine. There were also several other displays of grapes and wine, which were worthy of great praise.

READ the new advertisements.

THE SKATING RINK.—Prof. Kimball has removed this institution to the old saloon on Oregon street, north of the Arkansas stable. Those who are curious to notice the decline and fall of the human race, would do well to visit the rink, and if they want to decline and fall a little themselves, a fine opportunity is offered. From our observations we are led to the belief that the tendency of man and woman kind is downward. This is a stern reality. We have no personal proof of it ourselves, but we can refer to those who have. Young gentlemen, with fashionably short coat tails, and most or old ladies unprovided with the ample and substantial panniers, (we think a pillow would be a decided improvement for this purpose) have no business on the rink until they know how to skate. We have known several serious cases of threatened congestion of the brain, in regard from want of due caution in this respect. If it would not be deemed impertinent, we would suggest to Prof. Kimball to provide skates to be used by the performers while in a sitting posture, as we notice it seems to be the most natural and popular attitude with the majority of the performers. Our office is duly represented on the rink, (but not by the editor) and we think a pair of chair skates would suit our representative as well as any other. He only complains, however, of his "poor feet," at which we are greatly surprised, for we never knew him to fall on his feet yet.

ANOTHER.—We have been pained to hear of not less than two weddings knocked into cocked hats during the past two weeks—in the one case by the lady "skedaddling" while her swain was riding night and day towards Kerbyville for a license; in the other, by a sudden change of mind on the part of the lady on the wedding day. Now it becomes our painful duty to chronicle another marriage knocked into "g"l"—this time, however, by the faithless swain, who, by-the-by, happens to be a preacher. It seems he took an affectionate leave of his lady love for the purpose of procuring a license. She desired to go with him, but out of consideration for her comfort, he protested he could not allow it, as the ride to Kerbyville would be too fatiguing. Well, he rode off gallily after the piece of paper which should authorize him to enter into the "holy bonds of padlock" that very evening. But, alas! he never returned. The last heard of him he was crossing the mountains in a direction different from Kerbyville, to fill an appointment. The most charitable construction to be placed on his conduct is, that he forgot his pastoral duties in the midst of his love-making, and only remembered them when about to consummate his nuptials when he hadn't time to send back word to his forsaken damsel. So many of these little breaks occurring so close together constrains us say, with the bewildered Dutchman, "Mine Gott, vot a beebles!"

AGRICULTURAL FAIR RACES.—LAST DAY.—Trotting race, mile heats, best two in three. Purse, $100, $50 added by the Society.

J. N. T. Miller enters b. g. "Brick Pomeroy."

John Miller enters b. g. "Dan."

H. Page enters b. h. "Joe Hooker."

First heat, won by "Brick Pomeroy." "Dan" second, "Joe Hooker" last. Time 3:19.

Second heat, won by "Brick," "Joe Hooker" next, and "Dan" bringing up the rear. Time 3:07.

For the next and last race, of half a mile, four entries were made:

W. Williams names s. g. "Shooting Star."

S. Booth names b. g. "Caducus."

W. F. Berry names s. g. "Prince."

John Slaggy enters bay horse, name unknown.

"Shooting Star" won the race, "Caducus" next, "Prince" third and the bay horse last. Time 51 seconds.

PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY.—Mr. Higginbotham, having thoroughly refitted his gallery, is now prepared to take ambrotypes and photographs in the latest and best styles, as his specimens will show. Gallery over Blackwell's barber shop, California street.

JOSEPHINE COUNTY.—We regret to learn that there is considerable sickness in this county.

Smith & Riggsby have nearly completed their wagon road from their copper mine to Rogue River. They have succeeded in building the road over the hardest part of the route.

PERSONAL.—Hon. J. N. T. Miller started to the Lake country yesterday.

Father Blanchett arrived this week from Josephine county.

Maj. Jackson, commandant at Fort Klamath, is in town.

CROWDED OUT.—Owing to the crowding state of our columns, several interesting articles are left out, which will appear next week.

Lease of County Road.

IN accordance with an order of the County Court for Jackson County, Oregon, made at the October term, 1871, sealed proposals will be received at the Clerk's Office in said county, until Wednesday at 12 o'clock, M., the 9th day of November, A. D., 1871, for the leasing of so much of the County Road running from the Hill Farm to Lost River, as is embraced between the following points: Commencing at the 4 mile-post about 1/2 mile above M. Colwell's place, and terminating at the 4 1/2 mile-post—a distance of 4 1/2 miles. To be leased to any person or corporation to open, improve and keep the same in good repair for travel thereon for a period of ten years, with the right, in consideration thereof, to collect tolls at one gate for travel thereon—the road in no place to be less than 12 feet wide, where graded, and the ascent or descent of the road in no place to be greater than 1 foot in 8—to be constructed in a good, substantial manner, with convenient turn-outs for the passage of teams, the turn-outs on the grades to be in sight of each other; the remainder of the road to be not less than 16 feet in width, racks and other obstructions to be removed, and swamps to be thrown up or bridged, and the road to be kept open and in good condition for travel thereon at all seasons of the year.

The bid shall specify the unit or rate of toll upon a sheep or hog which the bidder is willing to accept for keeping the road, and such bid shall be deemed a bid for tolls as to the other items mentioned in Section 64, in proportion to such unit or rate as specified in Section 65, of Chapter 47, Title 3, General Laws of Oregon. No bids will be considered unless accompanied by an undertaking executed by two or more sufficient sureties in the sum of two thousand dollars, to be void upon the condition that the bidder, if the lease is awarded to him, will, within ten days thereafter, or such further time as the Court may allow, enter into a contract for keeping the road, and give the necessary undertaking for the faithful performance of the contract. The sealed bid will be opened on the said 9th day of November, and, if deemed expedient, the lease will be awarded to the lowest bidder, having due reference to the fact which of them is best qualified for the undertaking. The Court reserves the right to reject any and all bids.
