

THE SWAMP LAND PETITION.

Last week we published the petition of nineteen "citizens of Jackson county," addressed to the Surveyor General of the State, which petition strikes us as intended more to give publicity to the names of those attached than for any practical benefit that can result.

In the first place, it claims that the petitioners are "farmers and stock-raisers" on Link river, but among the names we fail to see the names of Jacob Thompson, Dennis Crawley, O. T. Brown, E. F. Walker, Geo. Nourse and others, all well-known land-holders in that vicinity who might be mentioned, whose names would have given character to such a petition.

Then to cap the climax, the Surveyor General is asked to use his influence with the general Government to prevent the cession of any of these lands to the State until the surveys for are made and returned to the General Land Office.

If the Swamp Land Commissioner had not discovered the little game, whereby the "Colver Ring" was occupying and using thousands of acres of the public domain, to the exclusion of bona fide settlers, without paying a dime to the general Government or a cent to the State in taxes, we would never have heard of the "farmers" and "stock-raisers" petition.

It makes all the difference in the world to the "Colver Ring" whose ox is gored. No doubt they think they can make a political hobby of it, and indeed we fancy we see, in the columns of a contemporary, the ears-lengthy ones, too, of the same anti-swamp land animal, upon which, the proprietor finally hopes to ride into the capitol at Washington as Oregon's next representative.

NOTWITHSTANDING THIS GREAT LOSS M. MENSOR Will continue to offer a general variety of MERCHANDISE, Consisting of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps, Groceries, Provisions, Hardware and Queensware, Liquors, &c.

CHEAPER THAN THE CHEAPEST. Call and see, and judge for yourselves. M. MENSOR. Jacksonville, Oct. 21st, 1871.

GREAT AUTUMN TONIC Hegeman's Cordial Elixir of Callisaya Bark. A pleasant cordial which strengthens and improves the digestion, an excellent preventive of fevers, fever and ague, &c., and a great restorative and tonic for invalids and debilitated persons.

ject. There is no more to be said now, henceforth and forever. Let Colverburn his petition and return and hide his diminished head in the swamps of Link river, and let the "farmers" and "stock-raisers," and "citizens of Jackson county," preserve their souls in patience. The brief in the case of Fowler vs. Clugge, although not illustrated by the wooden head of the author, has settled the question. The thing is done. Swamp landers, "pass in your checks."

JOAQUIN MILLER AND HIS WIFE.—Mrs. Miller publishes a letter in the Oregonian, in which she plainly intimates to the public that the private affairs of herself and Miller and their marital squabbles are matters which concern themselves alone, and that they are probably able to manage them without outside interference.

GOING BACK ON IT.—Hon. James H. Slater has been making a speech in Eastern Oregon, and from the report of the same it seems the honorable gentleman is disposed to "go back on" the "New Departure." It will be remembered that the Mercury, Herald and Baker City Democrat published Mr. Slater's adhesion to the heresy with an immense flourish of trumpets, and it seems Mr. Slater did not think it necessary to deny his devotion to the dogma, until the elections in the East—in fact, all over the Union—had sounded its knell.

COMING DOWN.—We learn that the railroad company has reduced freight at least one-eighth lower by the cars than the steamers. This looks to be a curious move, since the C. P. R. R. own the steamers as well as the railroads to Red Bluff, but it is evident the company desire to give the people their choice, and introduce the railroad as a more popular route for Northern California freight; besides the railroad cannot deliver goods as far as Red Bluff yet, which may also be a reason for the reduction.

THE NEW YORK ELECTION.—The Tammany Ring was defeated in the Democratic City of New York at the late election. Thank God we belong to a party honest enough to defeat public thieves. Let the Republicans follow the example set by the New York Democracy, and defeat the Washington gang of public robbers.
