

SENATORIAL SPEAKING.

The Portland Bulletin of Thursday of last week, has a lengthy article upon the probable successor of Senator Corbett, if the Democracy succeed in carrying the State at the next election, and devotes considerable space to the claims of His Imbecility, the Governor. Now, it becomes our duty as a public journal and a Democratic newspaper to speak freely our mind in reference to this proposition.

There are some men who learn nothing by experience. Only one case on record comes within our knowledge (as far as the Pacific States are concerned), where a Governor has been successful in working himself into the United States Senate before the expiration of his gubernatorial term.

THE YREKA JOURNAL, referring to the statement of Giles Wells, Sr., published in last week's TIMES, uses the following language in reference to himself: The fact of the editor of the TIMES so vehemently denouncing Wells before, and making no comments on this evidence now published by him, seems to sustain the fact of there being extenuating circumstances to justify Wells to a great extent.

EDUCATION AT WASHINGTON.—The Board of Education at the national seat of government have been debating with great earnestness the question of corporal punishment. About one half of the Board is in favor of applying the rod in school, and the other thinks that it should only be used at home.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.—A Herald dispatch from Washington of November 27th says the leading features of the President's message are internal taxation, tariff, finances, the Washington Treaty, Indians, and the Ku-Klux disturbances.

THE CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE.—The incoming California Legislature will consist of 40 Senators, of whom 22 are Democrats and 18 Republicans. The Assembly consists of 80 members, of whom 24 are Democrats, 55 Republicans, and 1 Independent.

DEMOCRATIC SUCCESS.—The election to fill the vacancy of the unexpired term of Senator for the counties of Santa Barbara and San Luis Obispo, California, caused by the election of the incumbent to the Lieutenant-Governorship, resulted in the election of Van Ness, Democrat, over Brinkerhoff, Radical, by a large majority.

INDIANS, BEARS AND WEATHER.—The latest in the way of weather prophecies comes from the Indians, who predict a wet winter, basing their prognostications upon the assumed fact that grizzlies this year make a deep track or indentation in the ground when walking, caused by their being so fat; putting on the fat for winter use, as they intend to hole up. The last two winters they made no preparations by fattening up, and so did not hole at all.

THE CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE.—The incoming California Legislature will consist of 40 Senators, of whom 22 are Democrats and 18 Republicans. The Assembly consists of 80 members, of whom 24 are Democrats, 55 Republicans, and 1 Independent.

SNOW STORMS.—We learn by telegraph of severe snow storms along the line of the Central Pacific, and of tremendous snow slides, dealing death to a number of persons. Late advices from Truckee state that the western bound train on the 27th ult. was delayed thirteen hours, and that it had been snowing hard for the last thirty-six hours.

BRIGHAM YOUNG.—The case of Brigham Young, for lewd and lascivious cohabitation, was called up at Salt Lake on the morning of the 27th ult., and upon motion of Prosecuting Attorney, fixed for trial next Monday.

THE YREKA JOURNAL, referring to the statement of Giles Wells, Sr., published in last week's TIMES, uses the following language in reference to himself: The fact of the editor of the TIMES so vehemently denouncing Wells before, and making no comments on this evidence now published by him, seems to sustain the fact of there being extenuating circumstances to justify Wells to a great extent.

WE will state in reply that Mr. Wells intimated that he had another statement to publish, and that we intended and still intend to give him a full and fair hearing before making any comment. The editor of the TIMES still holds to the opinion expressed when the murder was committed; namely, that it is unexampled for cowardice and atrocity.

ONE DRINK OF KALAMA WHISKY.

(From Portland Bulletin.) James Langford was seated amongst the prisoners brought up for presentation to Judge Denny, a few days ago. James looked like a man who had had an engagement to level the streets, and had made a roller of himself. He had a suit of clothes on, but of what material it was composed the mass of mud rendered it impossible to determine.

THE FIGHT FOR U. S. SENATOR WAXES WARM IN CALIFORNIA. The contestants are Congressman A. A. Sargent, Cornelius Cole, present incumbent, M. M. Estee, Henry Edgerton, John B. Felton, Wm. Higby, and a few others.

THE PORTLAND BULLETIN learns from a reliable source that the District Court of Washington Territory has decided the disputed land claim case which involved the title to the site on which Kalama stands in favor of the Company in possession, who hold the interest of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company.

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.

THE Albany horror—the Dixie Creek Ghosts. The Portlanders are enjoying the luxury of sleigh-riding.

THE Oregon City Enterprise has commenced its sixth volume. Success to it. Farmers near Albany pay boys $20 per month to keep wild geese away from their wheat fields.

THE Roseburg Ensign will make its appearance shortly, the material having been received.

THE Linn County Commissioners received the new jail last week. It cost the county $9,950.

THE streets without planking in Portland are in a frightful condition, the mud being ever so deep.

A white girl of Olympia, W. T., has given birth to a negro child. Strange freak of nature. Don't it?

THE Salt Lake Tribune says that it is probable that the Mormons contemplate an exit from Utah.

ENGENE CITY has decided to contract with the Maxim Gas Company for the lighting of the town for ten years.

THERE is an opposition boat between Portland and Oregon City. The fare between the two places is only 25 cents.

PORTLAND has a woman who has hung out her sign bearing the inscription "doctress, astrologress and fortune-teller."

BARKER'S Panorama, which exhibited in Jackson county a short time ago, is winning golden opinions wherever it goes.

THE Willamette river is raising very high. The drinking water of Portland is of a beautiful nankeen color at the present time.

THE Pacific Coast Congressional delegation are going to move an investigation into the working of Colyer's peace policy in Arizona.

A flaxen-haired young man has created a sensation in Grass Valley, California, by appearing on the streets with his hair done up in papers.

THE wife of a minister in Benton county killed a deer a few years ago with an axe. The dogs caught and held it while she chopped its head off.

FRANK CLARKE'S lottery bill for the purpose of relieving Washington Territory of a debt of several thousand dollars, has been killed by the Council.

THE venerable mother of Governor-elect Booth, of California, arrived at Sacramento from Indiana, where she will remain during her official term.

E. W. REYNOLDS announces that he is willing to be Sheriff of Baker county—providing the people will elect him at the June election next year. Rather early.

FREIGHTS on the railroads in California, except on very steep mountain grades, are from two cents and a quarter to two cents and three-quarters per ton per mile.

THE will of the late Horace Hawes is being contested in a San Francisco court by his widow, and the testimony as to his insanity is cumulative and overwhelming.

POLLY LEE, the daring four-horse equestrienne, well known on this coast, recently eloped with and married a man named A. Lehman, in Kansas. The event has nearly ruined Lee's circus.

MISS R. TURNER sues Caladonia Ortiz, in San Francisco, for $200,000 damages for a breach of promise and a busted gizzard. Nothing like drawing it mild on a poor fellow, you know.

THE Yreka Union is responsible for a story that the railroad surveying party found in the mountains north of that town, a young forest of wild plum trees, on which there were estimated to be 5,000 bushels of plums.

H. LOVENHAYN, of California, received an order from Senator Nye for one box of choice grapes for President Grant. An order for five boxes of apples was also received from London, the apples being for the use of Queen Victoria.

JOHN FOSTER, the libertine who lured a young girl from the State Fair grounds, and accomplished her ruin in Portland, has been convicted and sentenced to three years imprisonment in the Penitentiary by the Circuit Court in Portland.

A SILVER LADDER, assaying $6,000 per ton, has been discovered on Cow Creek, about three miles from the military road leading from Astoria. Thirteen claims were located a few days ago, and there is a considerable excitement raging in the neighborhood.

MRS. M. MILLER lectured in Portland last Sunday evening, the subject being "Behold the Woman!" The lecture was attended by a large and appreciative audience. It will be remembered that she is the divorced wife of the Oregon poet, Joaquin Miller.

THE fight for U. S. Senator waxes warm in California. The contestants are Congressman A. A. Sargent, Cornelius Cole, present incumbent, M. M. Estee, Henry Edgerton, John B. Felton, Wm. Higby, and a few others.

THE Willamette Farmer says: Frank Cooper has discovered a whole mountain of magnesia on Butte Creek. We have tasted the article, and it has a genuine magnesia taste. The specimens furnished are not quite so white as that sold in the drug stores, but the chemists say it is almost pure.

THE Portland Bulletin learns from a reliable source that the District Court of Washington Territory has decided the disputed land claim case which involved the title to the site on which Kalama stands in favor of the Company in possession, who hold the interest of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company.

A NEW ORDER.—The Yreka Journal, in its last issue, says "The McIntoshes" have lately organized in that place, and reports the new order in a flourishing condition.

SAM COLVER, the Pioneer Swamp Land Missionary, lectured several times at different points in this county, on Swamp Land, Woman's Rights and other subjects. He sold swamp land at seven cents per acre, and his hearers paid fifty cents each for the sell.—Coos County Rustic.
