LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Religious Notices.

Rev. FATHER BLANCHETT will hold divine services at the Catholic Church to-morrow, at the usual hour.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. B. R. Johnson will hold religious services at the M. E. Church to-morrow, (Sunday) at the usual hour.

RECOVERING.—We are glad to notice that Dr. A. B. Overbeck, who has been confined in his room for some time, is able to be around again.

ABSENT.—Dr. Jackson wishes us to say that he will be at Williamsburg the ensuing week, where he will be pleased to meet those in need of dental work.

"THE NEW STATE."—This saloon has recently been painted, papered and improved in a neat and tasty manner, which serves to make it one of the finest resorts in Southern Oregon.

BRICK.—The undersigned has just finished burning a large brick kiln at his brick yard in Jacksonville, and is ready to furnish brick to all those in need of this article. PATRICK FEELY.

SOCIAL HOP.—The Jacksonville Dancing Club gave another social hop at Horne's Hall, on Thursday evening last. We understand the next dance will take place on Wednesday evening, December 13th.

NEW AD'S.—Under the head of "New To-Day" will be found the advertisement of Wm. Hoffman, administrator of the estate of Christian Ulrich, deceased; also advertisement of the S. F. Bulletin. Read them.

THANKSGIVING.—Court adjourned on Wednesday evening last till Friday, when business was again resumed. Thanksgiving was generally observed, and the usual amount of poultry consumed.

BUTCHERING.—Our friend, John Orth, has within the past few days butchered a large lot of fine hogs. He proposes furnishing the community with the best of hams, bacon, lard, etc., in which he will undoubtedly be eminently successful.

SLIDING.—The boys of town, taking advantage of the present cold and frosty weather, are having good but rather dangerous sport in sliding down the steep hill to the east of town on sleds, which the heavy frosts have made almost like ice itself.

AUCTION SALE TO-DAY.—There will be an auction sale to-day at the residence of Mr. Henry Breitbarth, on Oregon street, when all his household articles will be sold. We learn that Mr. Breitbarth will soon leave for Portland, where he intends to permanently reside.

THE WEATHER.—During the past week we have had several more showers of rain and snow, of sufficient severity to make our streets very muddy. It has also snowed and rained much on the hills surrounding town and the county generally, and should it continue throughout the winter, lively times may be expected.

YALE COLLEGE PARTY.—The Yale Scientific Expedition passed through town on Sunday evening last en route for home. They carry with them a large amount of curiosities, fossil remains, etc., which they have collected during their exploration through the country. They have also descriptive notes of the country through which they have passed, which they propose to publish as soon as possible after reaching home.

THE BURTON CASE.—The case of A. D. Burton, charged with assault with intent to kill Stephen Booth, was again brought before the Court this week, the jury in the first trial having failed to agree; and after a long and tedious deliberation the second jury failed to agree. The case was vigorously prosecuted, the attorney for the State being ably assisted in the prosecution by Messrs. Kahler & Watson. Messrs. Fay & Rea defended the prisoner. Mr. Fay's effort was characterized with more than his usual ability, while his associate, Mr. Rea, made a most able defense. His lucid exposition of the facts, and his eloquent argument to the jury, did honor to an older head. Mr. Rea has been at our bar but a short time, yet his strict attention to business and sterling integrity of character, has won for him the golden opinions of all, and bespeak for him a bright future.

Court will adjourn sometime next week.

INFORMATION.—The "market" reporter of our cotemporary says, in the last issue, that "raw-hides are on the rise." If the demand should increase, there will arise a scarcity of manufacturing material. We think we can refer him to a source of supply which he will readily recognize, to-wit: There is a numerous progeny of semi-copper colored skins, with short intervals between their ages, whose male progenitor, unmindful of his natural relations, left them to the charity of the Lo family and traveled to a higher civilization. As the recent snows have driven the crickets and grasshoppers from their hunting grounds, and also from the failure of the acorn crop, the saddle-complexioned, fatherless waifs are now in such a destitute condition that the forsaken mother would doubtless, in the depth of despair, make a commodity of their unlucky hides. This is a rare chance for speculation for the "market" reporter of the Sentinel. We suggest that he enter into immediate negotiations in the matter and have the little skins turned over to him at such terms as to assure a good margin for profits. Reliable sources indicate that these "hides" can be procured at any time, on the most favorable terms, and as said reporter has paid from Lo to "high," his experience will enable him to "tribble" the amount of his investment, and have a "merry" time over his monopoly.

MISS ANTHONY'S LECTURE.—Miss Susan B. Anthony, one of the principal agitators of the "Woman's Rights" question, lectured in this place Saturday evening on the "Power of the Ballot." Her lecture was quite lengthy, lasting over two hours. The speaker dwelt at length on the "menial" condition of her sex, and expressed the belief that the ballot was the only means for lifting her from her low degradation. She thought that young women should be taught the different trades—blacksmithing, shoemaking, carpentering, &c., &c.—in order to support themselves, and not be reared, as they now are, in comparative idleness, waiting for some one to marry them. The arguments advanced in support of her theory were as novel as the theory itself. In person, Miss Anthony is, to say the least, unattractive, possessing not the most distant approach to beauty. Her voice is thin and harsh, and her gestures nervous and ungraceful. She also, at times, seems to experience considerable difficulty in finding words to express her thoughts—a fault, we believe, not peculiar to her sex. We think her lecture here accomplished but little for the advancement of the cause.

CIRCUIT COURT SYNOPSIS.—The following is a synopsis of proceedings of the Circuit Court for the week ending Friday evening:

State vs. Valentine S. Ralls; indictment for assault with intent to kill. Verdict of jury, not guilty as charged in the indictment. Defendant discharged.

State vs. Thomas Sly; indictment for assault and battery. Verdict of jury, guilty as charged in the indictment.

State vs. A. D. Burton; indictment for assault with intent to kill. Jury out for twenty hours and failed to agree, and were discharged by the Court from further consideration of the subject.

Stephen D. Taylor vs. Jacob Neathemer; action at law to recover damages. The jury was empaneled and part of the testimony taken on Wednesday, and court adjourned over Thanksgiving Day to Friday morning, when evidence was resumed. Jury has heard all the evidence, argument of counsel and charge of court.

All the jurors not empaneled in the trial of this case were, by order of the court, discharged for the term.

THE LOST AND LINK RIVER IRRIGATION AND MANUFACTURING COMPANY.—The Board of Directors of this Company, consisting of James T. Glenn, Henry Klippel, Jesse Applegate and James D. Fay, (James J. Comstock, absent,) met in Jacksonville on Tuesday, the 28th ultimo, and organized by the election of Jesse Applegate as President, and James T. Glenn, Secretary.

A code of by-laws was adopted, and measures taken for the commencement of work on the canal as soon as the Spring opens.

The object of the Company is the construction of a canal from the gap of Lost river to Little Klamath Lake, large enough to float steamers and barges, and the erection of manufactory, etc. The canal will be about ten miles long, and will render productive a large area of land now utterly valueless for want of irrigation. The company is sustained by several noted capitalists in California as well as in Oregon, and means business.

SIGNS OF A WET WINTER.—In the winter of 1861-62, which, it will be remembered, was a wet one, there was not a sprinkle of rain, it is said, until the first week in December, when there was a flood in the land. The present winter being ten years from that date, it is predicted by various signs, that there will be an uncommonly severe winter.

THE TICKET.—The drawing of the Omaha Lottery took place on the 6th and 7th ults. No. 59,069 drew the $20,000 prize. Did any Jacksonian have that ticket?

CHRISTMAS is coming!

MUSIC.—Peters' Musical Monthly for December contains nineteen choice pieces of vocal and instrumental music, all of which can be had for 30 cents. It seems hard to believe that so much can be furnished for so small a sum, but we know that it is. It comes regular every month, and contains nothing but good music. The publisher has also issued a choice collection of Sabbath School songs in pamphlet form, entitled "Christmas Chimes." Price 20 cents for single copy, and 100 copies for $15. Address, J. L. Peters, 599 Broadway, New York.

Of all our knowledge, only a little has come to us through our senses. Nearly all that we know, we accept on the testimony of somebody else. If those who have never tried that unrivaled vegetable preparation, Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters, and are suffering from dyspepsia, bilious or other fevers, or any disorder of the skin, kidneys or liver, or from impure blood, will receive the testimony of the many thousands who have tried the Bitters, and been cured, they will be acting wisely.

PERSONAL.—Thomas B. Merry, Esq., left last Friday morning for Yreka to edit the Yreka Union during the absence of its proprietor, Senator Irwin, at the Legislature.

Mr. Joe. Wall, surviving partner of the firm of Dugan & Wall, forwarding and commission merchants, Crescent City, is in town.

Judge J. H. Reed, of Portland, is also in town.

MARRIED.

At the residence of D. P. Anderson, Nov. 27th, 1871, by Rev. C. E. Philbrook, Mr. THOMAS MAYHEW to Miss SUSAN FLYMIRE, all of this county.

Wm. Co. Dan.

Administrator's Sale of Real Estate.

In pursuance of an order of the County Court of Jackson county, the subscriber will offer at public sale, on Saturday, the 23rd day of December, 1871, at 11 o'clock, A. M., at the Court House door in Jacksonville, the house and lot belonging to the estate of Christian Ulrich, deceased, situated near the south boundary of the corporation of Jacksonville. The house is a two-story frame and is a weather-boarded building, containing three rooms and kitchen on the first floor, and rooms above. The lot contains six and one-fourth acres of land, on which are a number of fruit-trees, grape and strawberry vines; also a stable and other out-buildings. The property will be sold to the highest bidder for cash, and immediate possession given. WM. HOFFMAN, Administrator. December 24, 1871. 4814

THE WEEKLY BULLETIN, The most complete newspaper published in San Francisco, for interior merchants, farmers, stock-raisers, miners, and for family reading.

Each number contains a carefully condensed summary of all the news of the world, together with a great variety of miscellaneous reading in every department of literature, art and science—enough to make a respectable book. No other California journal has a staff of writers, news-gatherers and reporters so numerous, skilled and intelligent in their profession as the Bulletin, and from this cause it has come to be generally regarded as the representative journal on the Pacific coast. No family that reads through the Weekly Bulletin can fail to become an intelligent family. It is not a high-priced journal, either, for each number contains fully twice as much reading matter as is contained in the average Eastern weeklies offered at half the price of the Bulletin. Its reliable stock and market reports are alone worth more than the price of subscription to any miner, farmer, merchant or producer who needs constant knowledge of the condition of the markets.

Terms of subscription: 1 year, $5; 6 months, $2.50; 3 months, $1.25. Address S. F. BULLETIN COMPANY, 4814 San Francisco, Cal.
