THE SCIENCE OF ADVERTISING. Judicious advertising always pays. If you have a good thing, advertise it. If you haven't, don't.

Large type isn't necessary in advertising. Blind folks don't read newspapers.

Indiscriminate advertising is like fishing where there's no fish.

You can't get enough in one week to last a whole year, and you can't advertise on that plan either.

It's as true of advertising as of anything else in the world—if its worth doing at all, its worth doing well.

Hand-bills and circulars are good of their kind, but they cannot take the place of newspaper advertisements.

Small advertisements and plenty of them, is a good rule.

People who advertise only once in three months forget that most folks can't remember anything longer than about seven days.

It is next to impossible to make any man sensible of his own need of the care and caution that he would commend to his neighbor.

TO CURE THE LOVE OF ARDENT SPIRITS.—Captain Hall was the commander of the Great Eastern steamship.

POISON OAK.—We find the following in an exchange: a standing antidote for poison oak, ivy, etc., is to take a handful of quicklime, dissolve in water, let it stand half an hour, then paint the poisoned parts with it.

CRIME.—Statistics show that from three to seven per cent. of the population of the United States commit thirty per cent. of all the crime, and less than one-fifth of one per cent. is committed by those who are educated.

CHINA has a newspaper which has just entered upon its two thousandth volume. It is understood that Bhooda was its original proprietor; that Confucius served on it in every capacity from devil to chief editor, and that its continued existence is due to the fact that the Grand Lama, who never dies, has contributed most of the capital.

THE speed of a comet is often eight times greater than that of a telegraph message; that is, we are told so by scientific people who are entirely "up" in this sort of thing.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

In THE DEMOCRATIC TIMES will be charged at the following rates: First insertion, (ten lines or less) $3 00 For each week thereafter, $1 00 A liberal deduction from the above rates will be made on quarterly and yearly advertisements.

JOB PRINTING. Every variety of Job Work executed with neatness and dispatch, at reasonable rates.

LEGAL TENDERS taken at current rates for subscription.

FORSAKING HIM. One by one the most powerful Radical organs of the United States are turning against Grant.

Those who distrust the Administration have an underlying ground of complaint, which it would require a great deal to remove.

How IT FEELS TO BE HANGED.—A Frenchman, who tried to hang himself and was cut down by his friends, thus describes his sensations in a Paris paper:

SUGAR BEETS FOR FATTENING SWINE.—Jonathan Talcott gives a statement in the Boston Cultivator, of an experiment performed on a Suffolk pig, where sugar beets were largely employed in fattening the animal.

BOY'S COMPOSITION.—The following "Boy's Composition" is the latest. The boy who "manufactured" it is bound to make his mark in the literary world:

WHAT I KNOW, ETC.—An Oregonian bought a farm desirably overgrown with elders, and commenced clearing it for cropping.

CELESTIAL BODIES.—The moon is our nearest celestial acquaintance, but it has the safe distance of 237,000 miles. Great as is the space between the earth and the moon, the sun could not pass through it; but still perhaps a better idea of the sun can be obtained from the fact that if it should be entirely hollowed out and the earth placed in the centre, there would still be room for the moon's entire path, and an unoccupied space of 204,000 miles in diameter all around—for the diameter of the sun is 882,000 miles!

THIS is the way a Florida man expects to get a partner to his bosom. He advertises as follows: "Any gal what's got a cow, a good feather bed, with considerable fens, $500 in good genuine slam-up greenbacks, that has had the small-pox measles, and understands tending children, can find a customer for life by riting a small william-ducks addressed X. Y. Z., and stick in a crack of Uncle Billy Smith's barn jinn' the pig pen where Harrison Reed is now planning for future operations."

A BOSTON girl is so absent-minded that she kisses any of her male acquaintances she may happen to meet, under the impression that the aforesaid are her dearest female friends. The practice is rendered all the more unaccountable from the fact that the mistake seldom or never occurs except when the recipient of the affectionate salutation is young and good looking.
