

LUCILLE'S MISTAKE.

The visit over, bidding adieu. I took my hat, and bowing low, withdrew. Then starting homeward, soon I missed my cane. Retrace my steps and ring the bell again. I heard a rush—the door flew open wide— And with a bound Lucille was at my side. Around my neck her loving arms she threw, Kissed me, ye Gods, she kissed me through and through. Stock still I stood, not daring to return The glowing kisses that my lips did burn. I tried to speak, and gasped, "I clean forgot— I left my cane." She started as if shot, And cried with sobs she vainly tried to smother, "Oh dear! Oh dear! I thought 'twas Dan, my brother."

"What shall I do?" she asked me o'er and o'er. I lacked the courage to say "Do it more!" So looking sheepish, seized upon my stick And forthwith homeward trotted double-quick. When on my couch in vain I courted sleep, I tossed—and pondered, "What would love That girl possess, other girls above! And if a brother she should hold so dear, What must a husband to her heart appear?" The idea grew; and—well, to end the tale, I sought her often, and to such avail, That ere a twelve month its full course had run, I woo'd, I won her—and we twain were one; And once I told her "that my love began The night she kissed me in mistake for Dan."

"For Dan?" said she, "why, bless your stupid head, Poor brother Dan was safe and snug in bed. You didn't know it! Why, of course, I did," And in my breast her blushing face she hid. Through all these years I did not once regret My having fallen into the trap she set. Happy am I, and happy, too, I've made her, Although at times I laughingly upbraid her; And then she says, "the moral dear, of this is, That girls don't often make mistakes—in kisses!"

VARIETIES.

What is the oldest woman's club? The broomstick. A short cut to the heart is frequently through the stomach. New York ladies regulate the weather by thermometer parades. The first thing we take to life in milk; the last thing is beer. About 290,000 Germans emigrate from the mother country annually. Three thousand women are employed by the United States Government. In Egypt a woman is pronounced old at twenty-five, and very old at thirty. Velvet is made at but one place in America, and that place is Franklin, Kansas. A ten cent mortgage is said to drain farm as effectually as any means known. Some girls are like old muskets; they use a good deal of powder, but won't go off. It is stated that the damage done by the late eruption of Mount Vesuvius exceeds $500,000. Europe is supposed to contain 300,000,000 people. One hundred years ago the estimate was but 60,000,000. One person is born in London every five minutes, and another dies every seven minutes in that great city. The S. F. Chronicle reports that "Fighting Jo. Hooker" denounces Grant as having no more moral sense than a dog. An artist painted a cannon so naturally, that when he was finishing the touch-hole it went off—at a very good price. "Forever" in the rhetoric of a woman's affection, is a sentimental hyperbole meaning period of exactly two months. French code for kissing: Give your hand to a gentleman to kiss, your cheek to a friend, but keep your lips for your lover. Poetical error—"A thing of beauty is a joy forever." Is it my boy? Marry it, and you will find it very much the reverse. The strength of the British marine is thirty-seven thousand vessels, which is more than all other nations have together. A young man generally gives a lock of hair to his sweetheart before he marries her. After marriage she generally helps herself. Grant's immigrant message is now called the message to aid Tom Scott in forcing immigrants to ride over his railroad lines. Early to bed makes bright eyes, clear complexion, rosy cheeks, quick blood, active brain, and that sign of all industry—early to rise. An Alabama horse has gained fame by gathering unsuspecting and tender spring chickens from their nocturnal roosts and eating them alive. Alex. T. Stewart's fortune is estimated at between fifty and sixty millions. Comfortable amount when there is a margin of ten millions to guess by. A devout old lady lately died in California one hundred and nineteen years old, whose boast was that she had attended more than 40,000 masses. The Methodists have more colleges than any denomination in the United States—sixty-one. The Catholics, who are next, have fifty-eight colleges. A German settler in Canada being required to give a "receipt in full," produced the following after much mental labor: "I fish full. I wants no more monish. John Jawekhammer." A citizen in Gosport, Maine, mistook his wife's yeast bottle for his favorite "little brown jug" the other night, and took "a long pull and a strong pull" therefrom. He is now regarded as a "rising" man. "Spotted Tail" indignantly denies that he authorized the association of his name with that of Vic. Woodhull on the Presidential ticket. The annexed dispatch was received from him: "Woodhull! Squaw! Ugh! Me no run!"

STOCK MEN,

LOOK TO YOUR INTERESTS!

"WHITE PRINCE"

Will be kept at my farm, near Ashland, until the first Tuesday in April; will then be, every Tuesday and Wednesday, at Union Livery Stable, Jacksonville; Friday and Saturday at home, until the 10th of July.

"NAPOLEON THE II."

The horse I purchased while in the East the past winter, is now at Red Bluff. Will be brought to this county about the 1st of May, and will then be kept with "White Prince" the balance of the season. "Napoleon II" is not quite as heavy as "White Prince" rather finer about the head, neck and withers—a beautiful dark dapple gray, with white mane and tail. This horse (and mare, "Joan of Arc," which died before I shipped) was selected in France in 1870, by one of the best judges of this stock in that country. Since the public have seen "White Prince" at our County Fair, he has grown and spread so his former friends hardly know him. While East the past winter, in conversation with intelligent horse-breeders, several of them informed me that they had stood aloof from the Percheron or Norman horses, thinking them too heavy for travel or ordinary use; but after having seen the grade-colls and fillies come to maturity, and seen them in use, they are willing to ride to them; and wherever they have been introduced they have given universal satisfaction. I have been at great expense and risk in making the above importation, and have no doubt that if the horse-breeders of this and adjoining counties patronize the above horses and take proper care of the colts, we will show, in a few years, a class of horses not inferior to any on the coast. I will give

$150.00 For the best horse colt, sired by "White Prince," at weaning time the coming fall; and will also give the following premiums at the next JACKSON COUNTY ANNUAL FAIR. The premiums to be awarded by disinterested persons:

Second best horse colt, sired by "White Prince," a set of silver tea spoons; for the best mare colt, one set of silver tea spoons; second best, a heavy silver plated soap ladle. At the County Fair of 1873, I will give a set of silver table spoons for the best lot of colts owned and bred by one party from "White Prince" and "Napoleon the II." Terms, $15, due during the season; and $15 when the mare is known to be with foal or parturient. I have made my terms reasonable, so that none need complain. I do not think any other person would go to the expense and risk to secure a good imported horse for anything like the same terms. I expect to have shortly an illustrated descriptive catalogue and a large engraving of my stock. My colts I had at our County Fair last fall kept the same to run and have grown well. Call and see the stock and be your own judge as to their merit. I will secure pasture at fair rates to accommodate mares from a distance. W. C. MYER, Ashland, Ogn., March 6th, 1872. 11m3

THE NEW FOOD.

For a few cents you can buy of your Grocer or Druggist a package of SEA MOSS PARINE made from pure Irish Moss or Carrageen, which will make sixteen quarts of Blanc Mange, and a like quantity of Puddings, Custards, Creams, Charlotte Russe, &c. It is the cheapest, healthiest and most delicious food in the world. It makes a splendid Dessert, and has no equal as a light and delicate food for Invalids and Children. A Glorious Change!!

THE GREAT WORLD'S TONIC.

Plantation Bitters. This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid, it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate, or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits. For sale by all druggists.
