

The Democratic Times.

HIRAM ULYSSES.

O Hiram Ulysses, come back to your dad, For the clock in the steeple strikes two, San Domingo's gone up and the Dents gone mad, And they swear it's all over with you.

SCISSORINKTUMS.

The first game of life—Bawl. Horace Greeley's March—March 4th. New York will want about 23,000 more new houses in ten years.

The expenses of the Boston Jubilee will amount to about $900,000. About 1,000 acres of cotton will be raised in California this season.

The hair of a healthy camel weighs 10 pounds, and is worth about $100. California farmers find it difficult to get farm hands at fifty dollars a month.

The Berlin (Prussia) Zoological Garden has a mule that drinks tea, coffee and beer.

The birth-place of cholera, according to a scientific writer in the London Times, is Hindostan.

The latest exploit of the potato in Georgia is to grow inside a stout iron rim and burst it asunder.

A farmer in Strafford, New Hampshire, plowed up a petrified Indian, seven feet seven inches long.

One of our bachelor readers supposes that a lady's bridal day is that on which she first takes the rein.

One-tenth of the entire population of the United States is dependent upon the production of iron for support.

"Ace High" is the latest sensational drama, and all young ladies know how effective "a sigh" sometime is.

An Irish lover remarked that it was a great pleasure to be alone, especially when yer swate-heart is wid ye!

California, in spite of the frosts, will manage to squeeze out 8,000,000 gallons of wine and a suggestion of brandy.

The world has its iron age, its golden age, and its age of bronze, but the present is Grant's age—the age of steel.

"I believe in going to the bottom of a thing," as the school-marm said when she laid a refractory pupil over her knee.

When Tennie C. Clafin was married to James Bartha, a faro banker, ten years ago, she was not more than 30 years old.

Josh Billings, on codfish, says: "They are good eating for a wet day; they are better than an umbrella to keep a man very dry."

Widow pleries are held in Ohio. If a man appears on such occasions they all rush for him, and he is glad to escape with his life.

A woman who was sent to the penitentiary for life for cutting her baby's throat with a razor, wept bitterly because she wouldn't be able to razor another.

Tom McGehan, the murderer whom Vallandigham was defending when he shot himself has turned up again on his old confines at Hamilton, O., picking fresh quarrels.

An Idaho woman was ordered by a physician to take three ounces of brandy a day, and knowing that sixteen drachms make an ounce, has patiently been taking forty-eight drinks a day.

An Illinois man who was lately arrested for obtaining money under false pretences, was discharged on his producing a receipt showing that he had paid his newspaper subscription in advance for thirty-six years.

Salt is so scarce a substance in some countries that it is used as money. In others it is so dear that only the rich can afford to use it. Hence the expression, "He eats salt," signifies that the person in question is wealthy.

A man one hundred years old went to have a pair of boots made. The shopkeeper suggested that he might not live to wear them out; when the old man retorted that he commenced this one hundred years a good deal easier than he did the last one.

A citizen of Newark, N. J., resolved to be independent of ice mountains and sea-shore, and have a breeze at home, has rigged up over his bed a large revolving fan-wheel, covered with muslin, which is kept in motion through the stilly hours by clock work.

In all the phases, emergencies and occupations of human life good temper is a commodity for which there is great demand; but in those which bring an individual into daily contact with many others, it is perhaps in greatest demand and most limited supply.
