Town and County.

COUNTY COURT.—The October term of the County Court will commence next Monday, 7th inst.

ACCIDENT.—One of H. P. Deskins' teams upset on the Crescent City road last week, seriously injuring the driver.

DISTRICT SCHOOL.—The Jacksonville District School will commence about the 1st of next month, after a vacation of several weeks.

BOARD AND LODGING.—J. R. Hudson, of the new restaurant on Oregon street, has made preparations by which he will furnish both board and lodging at $6 per week.

NEW GOODS.—Fisher & Bro. are receiving their new goods, and desire to say to the public that they are now prepared to furnish it with the best of anything in their line, at the lowest rates.

DAY OF ATONEMENT.—Next Saturday, 12th inst., is the Jew fast Yom Kippur. The business houses of our Jewish citizens will be closed until 6 o'clock, P. M., and a rigid fast observed.

MILITARY COMBAT.—We hear a rumor to the effect that a squad of soldiers were badly thrashed by a band of Indians, between Forts Klamath and Warner, two soldiers being killed and one wounded. No further particulars.

TO BUSINESS MEN.—As a general thing, "it's a vain horn that toots its own praise," but we can assert with no spirit of vanity that the TIMES is the best advertising medium in Southern Oregon, and an advertisement in its column would be of great benefit to you.

WEALTH AND TAXES.—The amount of assessable property in Jackson county, as returned by the County Assessor and corrected by the Board of Equalization, is $1,699,807, a large increase on last year. The tax levied this year is 194 mills on the dollar.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION.—Archbishop Blanchet, of Portland, will administer the Sacrament of Confirmation in the Catholic Church of this city, on Sunday, the 20th inst. Rev. Father Blanchet invites all the Catholics, who have not yet received that Sacrament, to prepare accordingly.

STRANGE, BUT TRUE.—The prejudice against color still lingers in Oregon. Mr. Geo. B. Smith, who lives near the Klamath River, informs us that a cat belonging to him lately had two kittens, one white and the other black, and she deliberately drowned her colored offspring in the Klamath, and devoured her whole attention to the survivor.

PERSONAL.—E. Jacobs, Newman Fisher, John Neuber and Anton Ullman returned from San Francisco this week, where they have been laying in goods for their respective stores.

Hon. J. N. T. Miller returned from Salem this week.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Last Saturday evening, as Mr. Wm. A. Owen was riding at a rapid rate over the rough road at the lower end of town, his horse suddenly stumbled, falling on him, and dragging him several feet, breaking his collar-bone, cheek-bone, and two ribs, and dislocating his shoulder-blade, narrowly escaping fatal injury. He is now doing as well as may be expected.

THE FAIR.—The Jackson County Agricultural Society is composed of enterprising and energetic men, who will doubtless make every preparation for the fair, which commences on the 23d inst., and continues four days. The citizens of this county are waking up to their agricultural interest, and will undoubtedly, from present indications, make our fair a grand success, and our sister counties shall no longer have it to say that we are behind in our agricultural industries. We are informed that some of our Douglas county friends will visit our fair and have some of their productions on exhibition. If so, we extend them a welcome hand.

A GOOD ONE.—Last Saturday afternoon, several of our Radical friends, seeing the great necessity of in a certain measure repaying the great service rendered them by Ben Holladay, in carrying the late State and county elections, and being greatly exercised lest Corbett or some other soft Republican should be elected U. S. Senator, industriously circulated a petition to urge Langell and Walker to vote for Mitchell. They had no sooner telegraphed this petition and names down to the Capital, before the beautiful Dowell telegraphed that Mitchell had been elected, greatly engaging our economical Radical brethren at the expense unnecessarily incurred.

TERRIFIC BEAR FIGHT.

Last Saturday evening, Washington Obenchain, who resides on Big Butte Creek, about 30 miles from Jacksonville, noticed that something had been disturbing his cattle, and on making search, found the intruder to be a very large grizzly bear. Early next morning, Mr. Obenchain, accompanied by his two brothers, took their guns and dogs and started in search of the grizzly, and the dogs succeeded in overhauling him in about four miles' travel, bringing him to a stand-still. The men spurred up their horses and were soon on the ground, which is known as 80-acre prairie, dismounted, and one of them fired on him, but without any perceptible effect, except to start him for the brush. Washington Obenchain then mounted his horse and followed him into the brush, where the dogs had again brought him to bay. Mr. Obenchain, finding himself in close quarters, raised his gun and let him have a load of buckshot, which set Bruin in excellent fighting humor, and he turned on him for revenge, knocking his horse from under him, and was using him up very fast, when the dogs, who were vigorously attacking the bear in the rear, attracted Bruin's attention, saving their master from further mutilation, until one of the other men came up and gave him a dead shot, which caused him to retire in disgust, and the dogs then took satisfaction out of him. The bear was of enormous size and weight, and would weigh about 1,200 pounds. One of his fore feet measured 12 inches in length and 9 inches in width. This bear has been a pest to the citizens of that section for years. We learn from Dr. Aiken, who dressed the wounds of Mr. Obenchain, that he received twelve flesh wounds, nine of which are serious and the rest slight, the most dangerous being where the bear bit him through the legs. Mr. Obenchain is convalescing, but it is not likely that he will hanker after another bear fight soon.

ITEMS.

Keno is about played out. All sorts of weather these days. Grand Fair Ball on the 23d inst. Chickens abundant at $3 per dozen. Goods for our merchants still arrive. Million's ball alley is nearly finished. Greeley stock is above par in Jackson. Jewish New Year took place this week. The Fair will undoubtedly be a grand affair.

Business men of sense advertise in the TIMES. Several horses are already training for the Fair races. There is little, if any, grain standing at present in this county. The sand-pump still remains unextracted from the artesian well. Anton Ullman is repairing and enlarging his variety store in a neat manner. Thoughtful people are laying in their winter supply of wood, and that business is lively. But a short time will elapse before Johnny Ort's new brick building is completed. Job work of all kinds neatly and promptly executed at this office, at the lowest rates. Sachs Bro's, White & Martin, and John Bilger received another lot of new goods this week. E. Jacobs closed his store on the 3d, on account of Jewish New Year. It will remain closed until this evening. The melancholy days have come, the saddest of the year; too warm for whisky straight, and too cold for lager beer. Henry Pape has just repainted and refitted the Railroad Saloon, and that establishment now presents a neat and comfortable appearance. There is big talk about Louisiana Gallinippers, but they don't hurt near so bad as Jacksonville bed-bugs and fleas. We pride ourselves on this fact, although we suffer.

COUNTY COURT PROCEEDINGS.—An adjourned session of the County Court was held Saturday, September 21st, 1872, and the following proceedings were had: Present—E. B. Watson, Judge, and Jacob Wagner and M. H. Drake, Commissioners.

The petition from the citizens of Jackson county for aid in repairing the county road leading from Jacksonville to Link river, was first taken up. The Board ordered that there shall be a levy of one mill on the dollar on all taxable property in the county for the repairing of said road, made.

The following is the amount of assessable property of the county as returned by the Assessor for 1872, and corrected by the Board of Equalization and Commissioners: Real and personal property, $1,699,807; number of polls, 888. A tax of 194 mills on the dollar on all taxable property of the county was levied.

A license was granted to Nus & Schneider to run a ferry on Klamath river for one year. Accounts to the amount of $149 50 were audited. Court then adjourned.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. Father Blanchet will hold divine services at the Catholic Church, to-morrow, (Sunday), at the usual hour.
