

The Democratic Times.

SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 1, 1873.

Town and County.

NOTARY PUBLIC.—D. B. Rea, Esq., of this place, has been appointed a Notary Public by Gov. Grover.

FOR THE FRONT.—A detachment of Regulars, in command of Capt. Thaller, passed through town yesterday, en route for the seat of war.

FOR JOSEPHINE.—Dr. Wm. Jackson will be at Kerbyville on the 17th of this month, and those wishing any work done in his line, can then be accommodated.

FOR STREET COMMISSIONER.—Attention is called to the announcement of Peter Boschey in another column. Mr. Boschey is the present incumbent and has proven himself an efficient officer.

TAXES.—Taxes are being paid very slowly, in the neighborhood of $20,000 having been up to the present time collected by Sheriff McKenzie, which is but little more than half the amount due.

REVOLVER LOST.—Lost, somewhere on the stage road between Ashland and Jacksonville, a six-shooter, Smith & Weston's patent, nickel-plated. The finder will be suitably rewarded by delivering the same to Major Wm. A. Owen, Jacksonville.

DIAGRAM OF THE SEAT OF WAR.—We are indebted to Mrs. Richard Hutchinson, of Langell Valley, for a diagram of the seat of war. Those wishing a clear conception of the situation of the field of battle and the entire Lake country, can obtain the same by calling at this office.

REMOVED.—Dr. S. F. Chapin has rented the upper story of John Orth's new building, and has removed his office and residence thereto. He intends having a private hospital, having fitted up several apartments in excellent style for this purpose, and can accommodate from six to eight patients.

"SHARP AS TACKS."—What tricks the Indians don't know in warfare are evidently not worth knowing. In the late battle they put good-sized rocks on their breastworks, which appeared as though they had their heads above the fortifications, thereby gulling the troops, who bit at the sell several times, to the advantage of Lo.

REDUCTION OF RATES.—The Western Union Telegraph Company gives general notice that the rate for dispatches of ten words to any part of the United States, where it has heretofore exceeded $2 50, will be reduced to that price, which is a reduction of nearly 50 per cent. This reduction goes into effect to-day. We have not been informed of any further changes.

REMOVED.—Gen Canby, acting Commander of the Department of the Pacific, has removed Gen. Wheaton from the command of the Regulars in the Modoc country, and has appointed Col. Gillem to supersede him. Col. Gillem arrived in Yreka last Tuesday, and has proceeded to headquarters. Wherefore Gen. Wheaton has been removed we are unable to perceive, as all who participated in the late battle say he performed his duty ably and faithfully.

RE-INFORCEMENTS.—Troops from all parts of the Coast have been sent to reinforce the Regulars already in the field. Seven companies are already on the road—one from Portland, one from Fort Gaston, Klamath county, Cal., one from Camp Halleck, Nevada, three from San Francisco, and one from Washington Territory, which are expected to arrive at the seat of war in the course of two or three weeks. These re-inforcements will swell the Regular force to about 600.

TO BE MUSTERED OUT.—All of the Oregon Volunteers except a few of Capt. Applegate's Company arrived in town during the week, and will be mustered out to-day, their term of enlistment having expired. This ends the first volunteer organization for the Modoc war. Whether there will be a second remains to be seen. If Gen. Canby thinks he can bring a sufficient number of Regulars in the field, he will not ask the Governor for assistance, and in the absence of any request of that kind, we presume the Governor will not call for any more volunteers.

ANOTHER FIGHT.—Last Saturday, two wagons belonging to citizens, loaded with oats for the Regular troops, were attacked by Indians within a few miles of Capt. Bernard's camp. Fortunately the teamsters saw the Indians coming and abandoning their wagons they fled towards Bernard's camp, making good their escape and apprising the troops of the near approach of the Indians, a detachment was immediately sent out. Meanwhile the Indians had unhitched the animals and were making off with them. They had also attempted to burn the wagons, but the oats being damp would not burn, and the consequent delay enabled the troops to overhaul the Indians, when a fight ensued, the result of which was that one Indian was killed, all of the team animals retaken and five Indian ponies captured, without loss to the troops. It is also reported that three other Indians were wounded, and that several in their flight threw their guns into the Lake.

WAR NOTES.

One of Col. Perry's men, who was wounded in the late battle, has died. Capt. Jack and Scar-faced Charley are said to be among the best shots on the coast!

It is thought that there must have been at least a few Indians killed in the late battle.

John R. Brown, one of the volunteers killed in the late fight, was formerly a resident of Sublimity, Marion county.

Col. Perry, who was seriously wounded in the fight with the Modocs, has been taken to his quarters at Camp Harney.

It is said that Capt. Jack is offering $100 each for the scalps of Oliver and Ivan Applegate, Dennis Crawley and others!

That fool Bogart, correspondent of the S. F. Chronicle, has again gone to the front. We think a good "booting" would do him a power of good.

The Governor of California sent a lot of old cartridges that were too large for the guns and some worthless caps for the use of the California Volunteers, at which they wax exceedingly wrathful.

The present scene of the Modoc war is wholly in California. Tule or Rhett Lake is almost entirely in that State. The Indians are on the south side of this lake, and several miles beyond the Oregon line.

The Indians in the late battle fought entirely naked, excepting their ammunition slung around them, and with a bunch of sage brush tied on their heads, so as to be undistinguishable from the plant itself.

A letter received from Ed. Steele to his father in Yreka, says the Indians in Hot Spring Valley, upon the demand of J. J. Dorris, gave up their guns, on condition that the whites should feed them, and doubts are entertained as to the report of any Pit River Indians being with the Modocs, at least those residing in Hot Spring Valley.

The Sacramento Union says the troops en route for the seat of war from the Bay, fought among themselves, and some half a dozen managed to get left behind at way stations. They ransacked the cars they were in, and carried away everything movable. A fight with Capt. Jack will serve to take the extra rumpousness out of them.

ITEMS.

Pay your subscription. Town election on March 3d. Read the new advertisements. Snow on the hills surrounding town. Rogue river has raised considerably. A heavy crop of drunks and fights this week.

Veit Schutz has our thanks for a keg of his superior lager. The Times' circulation is increasing with amazing rapidity. Several of the schools closed their regular quarters this week.

The solree at Veit's Hall last Wednesday evening was well attended. Comparatively a small area of grain has as yet been sown in Josephine.

Wm. Chapman, Esq., ex-Sheriff of Josephine, favored us with a call this week. The settlers are leaving Langell Valley and other isolated points for more settled districts.

We have been favored with rainy, snowy and fine weather—all at the same time—this week.

Alex. Martin, of this place, has taken the contract to carry Government freight from Roseburg to the headquarters of the troops in the Modoc country for thirty-five cents a pound.

Chinese New-Year commenced last Tuesday, and was celebrated with vigor. Much "blan-dee," swine, poultry, etc., was consumed, and the air was made hideous with the sounds of fire-crackers and their "sweet" music. Hi yah!

The mild winter in the Lake country has been very favorable for cattle, feed being abundant. The volunteers say that the stock is fat and excellent, and judging from their robust and hearty appearance, is undoubtedly true.

Some of the volunteers becoming enthusiastic over their late exploits, indulged in a glorious war dance on Tuesday last. They finally wound up the proceedings in a pitched battle, and enlarged heads are the order of the day. 'Twas fearful to see with what valor they charged upon decanters and demijohns!

Our reporter was last Monday thrown into ecstasies over some wholesale shooting being done in town, and supposing Capt. Jack was making a raid on Jacksonville, rushed out with pencil and book in hand to the scene of action to gather notes. To his chagrin he found that several citizens were shooting at a stray wild goose that was sailing over town. After being shot at several times the goose retired in good order, without any casualties to report.

THE NEEDLE GUN.—The following is a description of the new patent American needle gun, with which the Oregon Volunteer Militia were supplied: They are about six inches shorter than the old guns used, are calculated for longer range, and are loaded at the breech with prepared cartridges. The explosion is produced by a needle coming in contact with the cartridge, and the old shell of the cartridge is thrown out by a spring, leaving the aperture vacant for a new one.

CATHOLIC CHURCH.—Rev. Father Blanchett will hold divine services at the Catholic Church to-morrow (Sunday) at the usual hour.

INDIAN WAR NEWS.

We are informed by a Yreka dispatch dated January 24th, that Thomas H. Southworth and others had arrived from the seat of war. The troops are all moving from their camps, as hay and grain cannot be obtained near the lava country. It is expected that Van Bremer's place will be burned by the Indians. A guard was left at Davis and Fairchild's places. Most of the troops will be detailed for the Lost river, Link river, and Langell valley settlements, and those on the east side will be stationed among the settlements around Clear Lake.

General Wheaton intends building gunboats to guard the lake shore, and will thus be enabled to get close to Jack's camp with cannon and mortars, besides being enabled to prevent the Indians from coming down to the lake to water their stock or to get water from the spring close to it. Several squaws took part in the fight, and one of the soldiers was killed by a squaw.

The heaviest firing by troops and volunteers was at the close of the battle, when they fired at random, for the purpose of recovering the dead and wounded, all of whom were taken off except two soldiers.

Colonel Perry was wounded while rolling down a hill, at the top of which he was surrounded by several Indians. The bullet struck his arm and passed through his hip while he was rolling. Perry had made the circuit from the right around to Bernard's camp, and had thence proceeded to the relief of the Siskiyou Volunteers, who were in the hottest of the fight. The wounding of Perry disheartened the soldiers, as they looked for him to rally them in charging upon the Indians in ambush among the rocks.

It is believed that most of the Oregon Volunteers will return over the Oregon line and re-enlist to fight California's battles for protection of California settlers, and even if they do not they are entitled to the gratitude and warmest thanks of California for their noble conduct thus far.

There are only about 30 or 40 men at Fort Klamath, barely enough to hold the post against an attack, should the Indians at the reservation conclude to take their departure.

A letter from John A. Fairchild to Bobt. O. DeWitt, among other things states: "Dorris, Van Bremer and myself have come to the conclusion that the people of California ought to raise 100 or 150 volunteers to protect our exposed frontier. I have consulted with General Wheaton, Col. Green, Capt. Burton and Col. Mason, all of the regular army. They all think California ought to raise 150 volunteers, say for three months, for our immediate protection, for there is no telling what the Indians will not do if something is not done for us, and that very soon. You need not be surprised to hear of some terrible murders, as you can readily see that we are in a bad fix. Gov. Booth ought to have heeded our appeal for help when we asked him. I have conversed with several of the officers—old Indian fighters—and they say they never saw Indians fight as those devils fought the other day. I have had some little experience myself, and I must say I never saw Indians fight as they did. We drove them about three miles, and they contested every inch of the way. It is the best natural fortified place I ever saw. General Wheaton remarked on the evening after the fight that 100,000 men in 100,000 years could not construct as strong fortifications as Captain Jack has, and if you could see the place you would believe the General was not far out of the way.

General Wheaton has left Perry's troop of cavalry, consisting of forty-six men, twelve at my place, twelve at Dorris' place and the balance at Small's, where he intends making his headquarters."

The Indians are so encouraged they will treat only on their own terms, believing they can whip the soldiers, the Yreka boys and the Oregon volunteers combined. Captain Jack has messengers out every few days to the reservation, and it is said he offers $500 in gold coin for the delivery of 100 pounds of powder in the Spring at a place which he will name, and it is expected that if Jack holds out until then the reservation Indians will all be with him. Jack has also made artificial breastworks in the lava section.

PERSONAL.—Gen. John F. Miller and Colonel Chas. B. Bellinger and Wm. Thompson arrived from the Modoc country and left for the North on Thursday. Gen. John E. Ross and his Aids, E. D. Foudray and J. R. Nell, also arrived in town this week. Also Hon. J. N. T. Miller.

A word to the wise is sufficient. We all know the sad results of bronchial affections, of coughs, of colds, and of whooping-cough. These may be cured with Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. Thousands of testimonials tell us of the cures it has performed.

COUNTY COURT.—The February term of the County Court will commence next Monday, 3d inst.
