The Democratic Times.

SATURDAY,.....AUGUST 9, 1873.

TO RESUME.—Prof. J. B. Farley's school will re-commence on Monday, August 18th, 1873.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—No certificate of publication of legal advertisements will be given until the charges are paid. We shall make no deviation from this rule.

EUREKA MILLS.—Messrs. McKenzie & Amy, as will be seen by advertisement, have secured the services of an experienced miller, and are prepared to furnish the public with a superior article of flour.

LEG BROKEN.—John Cumons, an employe of W. J. Plymale, had his left leg broken in two places by slipping from a hay mow. Dr. Danforth set the broken limb, and the injured man is now doing well.

WATCH STOLEN.—Master Edward Horne had a valuable watch and chain stolen from him this week. It was lying on a bureau near a window that had a pane broken out, and some person evidently reached in and captured it.

CIRCUS.—The great Parisian Circus, as will be seen by advertisement elsewhere, will perform in Ashland on the 11th inst., on the 12th in Jacksonville, and at Rock Point on the 13th. This circus is a mammoth combination of the most talented array of actors and actresses, trained horses, etc., and will no doubt be worth seeing.

NEW POSTAL ROUTE.—The mail route from Jacksonville to Eagle Point has been altered so as to embrace the new Post Offices of Sam's Valley and Brownsborough. J. W. Hays and John Bilger are the Postmasters respectively. The contract for carrying the mail over this route has been awarded to Kubli & Wilson, and the first trip will be made next week.

PERSONAL.—H. H. Gilfry, Esq., of Salem, left for his home yesterday, after a sojourn of a week among us. Mr. Gilfry's tour to this section was on business connected with the Quartermaster-General's department, and also for the purpose of examining school fund matters. He informs us that he found school fund affairs of both Jackson and Josephine counties in a good condition.

RUNAWAY.—As Wm. Crump's team was being loaded with shingles last Wednesday, they became frightened at the noise of falling shakes and rushed off at break-neck speed down street. They became disengaged from the wagon at Horne's lot, but were captured shortly afterwards. Outside of damaging the harness slightly and scattering the shingles, no injury was done.

REMARKABLE FOSSIL HEAD.—T. C. Lance found a fossil head on Jackson creek, which is quite a curiosity. It possesses many of the features of a grizzly bear's head, but its prodigious size dispels all doubts of its belonging to this race of animals. The head and teeth are several times larger than those of a common horse, and doubtless belong to a class of animals that inhabited this county long ago. Although the lower jaw and part of the snout are missing, yet enough remains to indicate that the animal owning this head was of gigantic proportions and great strength.

CORBITT & MACLEAY.—Attention is called to the advertisement of this sterling firm. They are engaged in the wholesale grocery, wine and spirits business in Portland, and will sell their goods, which are the best imported, at rates that cannot fail to suit everybody. Mr. Macleay was in town this week, and received several orders from our merchants. This is an excellent layout for our merchants. While they can get the best articles at San Francisco prices, they save the freight charges from that place to Portland, and keep your money at home at the same time. We recommend the firm to the public.

FIRE EXTINGUISHER.—I. R. Dwyer, traveling agent for the Babcock Fire Extinguisher, exhibited the workings of this machine in town last Saturday. Several barrels and dry goods boxes were piled on top of each other, and the whole saturated with coal oil. After the fire had received a good start he set the Extinguisher to work and put out the fire in a very few minutes. The apparatus seemed to work like a charm. David Linn and C. C. Beekman have each ordered an Extinguisher, and propose to exhibit them when they arrive. It is also proposed to purchase one of them on a larger scale for the use of the town.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The amended school law of Oregon requires that a Teachers' Institute be organized in each Judicial District. It was thought best to not only organize but to perform as much work as possible. FATE OF CAPTAIN JACK.—It is stated that advices have been received at the War Department that the Military Commission at Fort Klamath found all the Modoc Indians on trial guilty of murder and ordered them to be shot. Later findings of the Military Commission in the case of the Modoc Indians recently tried, have not been received at the War Department.

REVIVED.—The Jacksonville Times, the office of which was destroyed by fire some months since, has procured new material, and is now regularly issued again. The Times is a good local paper, and we welcome its weekly visits.—Willamette Farmer.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Col. Drew, a former resident of this county, is in town.

Prof. Fowler, the phrenologist, will lecture in town on the 18th.

The weather has been exceedingly windy and cold this week.

Madame Holt is making extensive improvements on her hotel.

White & Martin are building a granary and store-room on Third street.

County Court met this week. The proceedings will be found in our next issue.

Alex. Martin, Col. Stone and Lieut. Peck returned from Fort Klamath on Thursday.

The numbers on the P. O. boxes have been repainted and the latter otherwise improved.

G. Karewski is making arrangements to build another story on his stone warehouse.

The incorrigible Meacham passed through town the other day, on his way to the East.

The property sold at Sheriff Sale last Saturday was purchased by John Wells, of Willow Springs.

The valley is literally overrun with rabbits, and hunters are making fearful havoc in their ranks.

The Rosedale troupe gave another of their pleasing performances last Saturday evening to a good house.

Patents have been received at the Roseburg Land Office for A. W. Morris, of Jackson, and C. S. Shanks, of Josephine.

John Wolters, the accommodating driver of Veit's beer wagon, has our thanks for a keg of superior lager. Call and see us often.

Sweet potatoes, as proven by trial, grow well in this county. Rev. M. Peterson, of the Desert, raised a fine crop this year.

The camp meeting will commence next Saturday. It is to be held at the old camp ground on Bear Creek, and will continue two days.

Read the advertisement of the New Wilson Sewing Machine. For simplicity, durability and cheapness, this machine is unsurpassed.

John Orth shipped two freight wagon loads of hides to San Francisco this week. The number of hides annually exported is perceptibly increasing.

Thos. Chavner, Esq., has a cow that yielded six gallons of milk the first milking after having given birth to a calf. This cow is evidently worth having.

It is reported that Capt. Jack is gradually pining away, with grief, and will die before he is shot or hung, unless the Government soon orders his execution.

The person arrested for attempting to break into Wilhelmshohe was discharged, it being apparent that he was laboring under delirium tremens at the time, and meant no harm.

A troupe, consisting of two Frenchmen and a gray bear, gave a street performance this week. The bear seemed to be well trained, and afforded much amusement for the gamins.

The young ladies and gentlemen of Jacksonville had a pleasant picnic excursion to Rogue river on Thursday. The day's entertainment wound up with a ball at Deskin's in the evening.

A. J. Burnett, formerly of this county, in connection with others, have discovered a quartz lead on the summit of Roberts' Hill, in Douglas county. The ledge is well defined and can be traced on the surface the distance of 300 yards.

The watch and other valuables worn by Gen. Canby at the time of his massacre, and subsequently recovered from the Modocs, was registered in the Jacksonville Post Office last week for transportation to his widow, who resides in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Hallock & Co. are doing extensive mining on Wagner Creek. They have prospected considerably, and discovered ten separate and distinct veins of argentiferous quartz. They are situated on both sides of the creek. Silver exists on the east side of the creek, and gold-bearing quartz also. Some of the ledges are said to prospect very well.

PARTICULARS OF THE DROWNING OF WM. CHAPMAN, JR.—We take the following account of the drowning of Wm. Chapman, Jr., from the Corvallis Gazette of the 1st: About 11½ A. M., July 27th, young Chapman, in company with J. C. Taylor, E. N. Shedd and John M. Eglin, went to the river, near the lower sawmill for the purpose of bathing. It was proposed to swim across the river and back. Chapman and Taylor made the attempt—but before either reached the opposite shore, the former seemed to give out and sank. Taylor immediately went to his assistance and came near losing his own life in attempting to save Chapman, who sank to rise no more until life was extinct. A party of Indians were immediately set to work diving and dragging the river. The body was rescued after remaining in the water about three hours. Young C. was engaged in reading law with Col. Kelsay—and was engaged to be married to a young lady of this place. He was 21 years of age, highly respected, intelligent, refined, and of unexceptionable morals. His parents live in Southern Oregon — beyond Jacksonville. He could not be kept longer than Tuesday afternoon, and was buried before his father could arrive. During his four years' attendance at the Corvallis College he has made numerous friends who deeply mourn his loss and sympathize with the afflicted relatives.

CLOSE COLLECTION.—Sheriff McKenzie informs us that he has collected over $40,000, only a few hundred dollars remaining delinquent, most of which he expects to collect.

ON TRIAL.—The trial of the Chinese prostitutes has been occupying the attention of the Recorder's court for the past week. At last accounts Dowell was still pegging away.

"THEIR NAME IS LEGION," may be applied to those who die annually of Consumption, although science has of late years sensibly diminished their number. It is gratifying to know that the general use of DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY is largely instrumental in attaining this end.
