

PHRENOLOGY.—Prof. O. S. Fowler, the phrenologist, delivered a series of lectures and felt sundry bumps in town this week.

ANNIVERSARY.—Last Monday, 18th inst., was the thirteenth anniversary of the organization of Jacksonville Lodge No. 10, I. O. O. F., and their flag was thrown in the breeze in honor of the event.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The Teachers' Institute will convene at the Court House, Jacksonville, next Friday and Saturday, August 29th and 30th.

ATTEMPT AT RAPE.—We learn that a wretch, who sports the name of the "Rev." Kellison, last week made an attempt at rape on an estimable lady living at Applegate.

CORRECTION.—A slight error occurred in the apportionment of delegates made by the Democratic County Committee last week.

GOOD WHEAT YIELD.—Our Willamette exchanges have considerable to say about their extraordinary large crops and about certain fields yielding 40 to 45 bushels per acre.

ANOTHER RICHMOND.—The Radical journals of this State, in enumerating their many aspirants for Congressional honors, make no mention of our own would-be candidate, he of the musical voice.

THE PRIMARIES.—To-day, at one o'clock, P. M., is the time set for holding the primaries to elect delegates to the County Convention, which meets in Jacksonville next Saturday, 30th inst.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Primaries to-day. Election day on Monday, Oct. 13th. Whooping cough prevails on Sterling.

The Radicals will commence their funeral orgies by primaries to-day.

Judge Prim has flown to the mountains for a few weeks' rustication.

Watermelons, peaches, apples, etc., at Wm. Boyer's or James Drum's.

The County Court will sit as a Board of Equalization next Monday.

The young men are endeavoring to organize a turnverein. A good idea.

The mountains north of town seem to be on fire, as the valley is full of smoke.

L. Horne has arrived at Seattle and sent for his family, who will start for there shortly.

K. Kubli this week received a lot of wooden ware and also other goods. Call and see them.

A new Florence Sewing Machine can be had cheap by applying to this office immediately.

Ashland Lodge No. 45, I. O. O. F., is prospering finely, several having been added to the membership.

The Sisters' School, and also that of Prof. J. B. Farley, commenced last Monday with a good attendance.

Those of our subscribers who wish their post-office address changed, can be so accommodated by informing us.

We understand that Major James T. Glenn and family will leave for the East before long, to be absent some time.

One thousand postal cards were received by the Jacksonville Post Office this week. About five thousand more are on the road here.

A glass of cool lager is very acceptable these warm days, and for the same call on Jos. Wetterer, who manufactures a No. 1 article.

'Twas not Geo. L. Woods, the sneezer, who passed through from the south the other day, but his wife and son, who came from the other way.

Cameron & Goodwyn, of Linkville, will expose for sale at the Siskiyou County Fair, Yreka, thirty half-breed Leicester buck and ewe lambs.

County Fair commences on September 24th. Let everybody exhibit some article. The premium list, which will be published shortly, is liberal.

That excellent periodical, Wood's Household Magazine, price $1.00, will be furnished in conjunction with the TIMES for $3.50, if paid in advance.

Those desiring a superior hand cider press, will do well to examine the Buckeye Junior, for sale by John Bilger. These presses cost only $42 each, and are just what every farmer wants.

H. C. Tickner, who runs the Fort Klamath Express, says that it is all a mistake about Capt. Jack pining away, but, on the contrary, is becoming very corpulent, and seems unconscious of his fate.

It was not a toll road, but a wagon road, that was established by the County Court, commencing from a point on the Jacksonville and Linkville road and running to the place known as the "Hole-in-the-Ground."

Rev. Jos. Hammond, of Yreka, Cal., will deliver a lecture at the M. E. Church, Jacksonville, on September 3d. The subject will be "Youth and Manhood," and the admission will be free, though a collection will be taken up after the lecture.

A young man of Yreka who never killed a deer before, shot at a fawn sixteen times the other day, and when it fell down a precipice and broke its neck he was so overjoyed that he carried the remains several miles to show his nimrodic skill.

Several families in town have been greatly annoyed during the past few days by some ghoul who persists in meandering through the town at night and attempting to break into dwellings when the men are from home.

A Card from District Attorney Neil.

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 21, 1873.

EDITOR DEMOCRATIC TIMES:

Permit me through the columns of your paper to call the attention of Road Supervisors to the fact that they are liable to a fine of $25, if they fail to destroy "noxious weeds" growing in their respective Road Districts.

HERE it is! The August number of Wood's Household Magazine! It brings with it a ray of sunshine which reaches clear to the heart.
